THOUGH ROBBED OF $38, HE RE FUSES TO PROSECUTE KATIE JOHNSON.

Frank Whitten, who Monday night caused the arrest of Katle Johnson on a charge of stealing $38 from him. became soft hearted Tuesday after-noon and at his request the case against the woman was dismissed. Whitten paid the costs. He spent several hours in the room at the Brunswick Hotel, where the woman was staying with Lawrence Ford, and when she notified the proprietor, W. H. Bilcox, of his presence there, Whit ten was found lying, fully dressed across the bed, with a bottle on the floor. He was ejected from the place by Bilcox, and he then swore out a warrant for the woman's arrest. Whit ten and Ford are closely related, and it is stated that the former has a fam-ily in West Oregon City.
