

BOMBARDED WITH BUSINESS

Follow the Crowd to the Greatest of Great Bargain Events for 16 Days, now open under full blast. J. LEVITT'S Entire Clothing, Furnishings, Shoes, and Hats, entire $20,000 STOCK thrown at mercy of the public at Oregon City, Oregon, 2 doors south of Post Office

Bear this in mind, do not criticize and confound this sale. Don't be sceptical but come in and let us convince you beyond a doubt that we are selling just as advertised

It's up to you if you want to save from one-third to one-half on every article in the house, as we positively must raise $6,000 in just 16 days. Owing to the failure in health of Mr. Levitt the store has been turned over to Bates Bros., of Chicago, Ill., to raise the desired amount, therefore there will be no relaxation to price slashing. Now Mr. Bates wishes to inform the public, and cannot express too widely that this is a sale without a doubt that will outclass all former efforts in Bargain giving in Oregon City. Don't fail to attend the great sale.

In a Class by Ourselves. Bear this in mind this is strictly a Bonifide sale, not one of the many so called sales. For 16 days everything goes, nothing reserved, one price to all

SOCIETY

The Derthick Club held a meeting at the home of Mrs. Leonard L. Pickens Friday afternoon. The home of Mrs. Pickens was very prettily decorated with Caroline Testout roses, ferns and potted plants. Refreshments were served by the hostess. At these meetings of the club the study of an opera, its composer, and sketches of same are taken up, and as the club is at present studying Wagner, "Tanhauser" was the subject for the discussion. Mrs. John F. Clark read the story of the opera, and notes on the opera were given by Mrs. Walter A. Dimick. "Tanhauser's March" was well rendered by Mrs. Carl Joehne. Mrs. Theodore Osmond sang "Elizabeth's Prayer". "The Pilgrim's Chorus," a piano solo rendered by Mrs. S. O. Dillman, concluded the afternoon program. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, Friday afternoon, December 4, when the study of "Lohengrin" will be the subject.

Tualatin Tent, No. 73, Knights of the Maccochees, entertained its members and their friends Monday night in Woodmen of the World Hall with a smoker and nut social. Talks were made by State Commander J. W. Sherwood, County Judge Dimick, Judge Gordon E. Hayes, Commander John Mullan of Mount Hood Tent, Record Keeper Lantz of Mount Hood Tent, and Andrew B. Dalight, grand secretary of the Foresters of America. Piano selections were rendered by Frank Betzel.
