The services at the M. E. church on Sunday morning were conducted by the Rev. Davenport, of Portland, and his subject for his sermon was well handled. Rev. Davenport took an active part in the Sunday school convention that was held here on Friday and Saturday. The evening service was in charge of the pastor, Rev. W. J. Weber, who gave an interesting sermon on "Temperance." There was a large congregation at both services.

While Mrs. W. J. Weber was instructing the little tots at the meeting of the L. T. L. meeting the other Sunday, she asked them to feel of their heads to see what was there. They all replied, "Hair." She then told them to feel further, and they replied "bone," and upon asking them what there was still further in the head, one replied, "Meat." The Sunday school of the M. E. Church is progressing nicely under the superintendency of Mrs. W. J. Weber. Last Sunday, having charge of the temperance lesson, she presented to the Sunday school a prohibition map for the W. C. T. U., and also a "blind pig" (a pig bank). This bank is to be filled by the Sunday school children and when this is done the bank will be broken and if there are any "blind pigs" in operation in Canby at the time, this money will be used to break it up.

The geese and ducks were won by the Canby men. It is planned by the Gun Club to give another shoot on the grounds at Christmas time, but those not belonging to the club will be barred. A TALK About Xmas Prices

Realizing the liberality of people at at this season, most merchants handling Holiday Goods continue to get "The Dutchman's One Per Cent," or in other words double their profit on these goods.

This store has never had that habit. We are selling our Xmas Goods on as close a margin as we do our other merchandise [which is the best price in town].

A Reduction in Picture Prices

First we want you to come in and see what a big display of beautiful ART STUDIES we have. Having bought early we made the mistake that most merchants have and find we are overstocked.

We simply have more pictures than we can show and until our stock is reduced we are selling all our Pictures at one-half regular prices. These pictures were originally marked close, so remember, in making your selections you are getting an advantage that will probably never be offered in Oregon City again.
