LONG BEACH FALLS OUT

Warren G. Smith Coming to Gladstone Park and Other Noted Men Are Slated For Platform Talent at 1909 Assembly.

Harvey E. Cross, secretary of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua Assembly, and manager of platform talent for the four Pacific Coast Chantauquas at Gladstone Park, Ashland, Long Beach and Pacific Grove, has re-turned home from the annual meeting of the representatives of the various associations at San Francisco. The Long Beach association in California, Pan behind about $1000 at the last on and has dropped out of the quartette. The financial reverse will probably compel this assembly to get along with local talent next year, and will make it more expensive for the remaining three associations to bring talent fro mthe East.

Notwithstanding this discouraging feature the two Oregon Chautauquas and the Pacific Grove associaation intend to have programmes that are fully up to the usual standard, and have already engaged Dr. Frank G. Smith, paster of the Warren Avenue Haptist Church of Chleago, for a series of lectures. Dr. Smith talked at Gladstone Park one afternoon three years ago, while on his way home from the National, Sunday School Convention in Seattle, and he was such a favorite that the Chautauqua patrons have been clamoring for him ever since. Sylvester A. Long, who has been successful in the East as an entertainment lecturer, will come next to the value of $222.94, and that only entertainment lecturer, will come next manager of the Asteria Commercial Club, indicates that the city by the sea expects to organize a Chautauqua, and Thomas T. Kerl, a well known an assembly at Coeur d'Alene Lake. Mr. Kerl says he will see that a Chautauqua is started there if he can be assured that it will not lose him more than $1000 a year,

GRANGES AND LABOR JOIN

Opinion of Patrons and Union Labor Men is Unanimous That State Road Bill Should Fall.

A meeting of the joint committee of the Oregon State Grange and the Oregon State Federation of Labor was held in Portland on September 27th. Thos, Paulsen of Portland, Eugene Palmer of Albany and C. E. Spence of Carus appeared for the Grange, and C. H. Gram, J. F. Cassidy of Portland and H. H. Hill of Salem, for the State Federation of Labor. C. H. Gram was elected chairman and C. E. accretary. Altogether, the fact developed that on many questions a joint consideration and organized labor can only result in the benefit of both organizations. The time has certainly arrived when
