DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS PNEUMONIA AND CONSUMPTI

"Two years ago a severe cold settled on my lungs and so completely prostrated me that I was unable to work and scarcely able to stand. I then was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and after using one bottle I went back to work, as well as I ever was."

MOUNTAIN VIEW, December 6.—
(Editor of the Enterprise).—Returning after being away for two years I was surprised to see the changes and improvements that had been made in this burg. Yet I had read a great many copies of the Enterprise and always looked eagerly for street to the most easterly corner of said Addition, thence south easterly on the east side of Grand Street to the most southerly corner of said Addition, thence neath work and the corner of said Addition, thence neath work and the corner of the State of Oregon, made in this burg. Yet I had read a great many copies of the Enterprise and always looked eagerly for items from Mountain Ylew, but I always found about the same, that Pet Dulip was visiting with Sal Slenderwaist, Sunday School at the usual hour, John Gillett is cleaning a well this week, J. N. Gillett is digning a post hole for Jim Pots, Mr. Gillett is painting pickets for Sam Johnson, and so on, till I began to think that poor old John was the only man left on the hill, but on my return I found several of the sold timers there looked ing just as chipper as of yore.

I find A. Mantz has bought the F. A. Ely place has torn down the house and has built a new ten-room house. W. S. May has bought two lots on may street and has put up a nice little cottage. J. M. Parrish has addeed another acre to his little farm and is digging out stumps, putting up wire fence and laying sidewalk.

Say, I believe there has been at least one mile of sidewalk laid in the last year. W. W. May has built a neat little cottage down on Duane street. J. Gorbet has bought the Hekart properly and has put up a wire fence and painted the house wire fence and painted the house.

AND NOW IT'S UP TO YOU

WITH less than a week yet before Christmas, it is time for every Xmas shopper to get busy if they have not already done so as many have this year. One would think from the crowds we have waited upon during the past ten days that we wouldn't have much stuff left, but such is not the case. We bought anticipating a big Xmas trade; bought for a big store that, as you know, does not do things half way. Therefore, while our lines are somewhat broken, we still have more stock than the ordinary store has at the beginning. Take a look in our big windows and ff you don't see what you want there you will find it inside.

No Christmas gift conveys a more del cate compliment to the recipient than a box of really fine stationery.

But even more attractive is the gift if the stationery be put up in a box decorated in the Christmas spirit, which can afterward be used as a glove or handkerchief tox.

We have the celebrated EATON, CRANE & PIKE WRITING PAPERS in boxes decorated in exquisite designa to suit all tastes. There are boxes for every member of the family, and the prices range from 35c to $2.50.
