The ontest was for membership and at endance, and other points, and three entertainments were given, by the Red's in October, and the White's in November, but Friday night's programme eclipsed the former ones. The color scheme of the Green party was successfully carried out the hall being profusely decorated with green boughs, while the electroliers were covered with green crepe paper. In the center of the hall was a Christmas tree, while the dining tables were liberally decked with greens. The Greens will be entertained by the losing sides, the Reds and Whites at the meeting which falls on the third Friday in January. The programme em braced a recitation by Miss Myrtle Tooze, a plane sele by Miss Lillie Long, a recitation by Charles Morgan, while the two little daughters of Mrs. Freeze danced a minuet. The Christ mas dialogue was a feature that was unusial. S. S. Walker appeared as St. Nicholas, while Mrs. Walker was Santa Claus. Other participants were Mrs. Freeze, Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mrs. J. K. Morris, Miss Bessie Mills. Charles Morgan, Robert Brown, Rich-ard Freytag. Mr. and Mrs. Walker, in their costumes, took the presents from the Christmas tree and they were distributed by other members of Sola Circle. The line was then formed to the banquet hall, where an elaborate chicken supper was served.

MANY THINGS LEFT UNDONE

MANY little courtesies that were extended to you on Christmas day that perhaps you would like to repay in some way. There is no time quite so appropriate as New Year's day and no gift more acceptable than one made on that day.

In a store like ours where the stock of Holiday goods carried is so complete there must of necessity be many desirable gifts carried over. It has been our custom for years to sacrifice these goods between Christmas and New Year's day rather than have them left over.

And here is your opportunity to get something at a small price with which to repay that beloved Christmas gift. If you want to make a New Year's present to your self here's a chance to do so without paying anyone a profit on the gift.
