NEWS OF THE COUNTY

CARUS.

Mrs. Layman is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Lewis. Revival meetings have come to a close, after two very successful weeks being spent in making conversions. The Carus Literary and Debating Society held a very good program last Friday night. The question was: Resolved, that country life is more pleasant than city life. The negative side won. The question for next Friday night is: Resolved, that our navy should be increased. Miss Lizzie Lewis has returned to her work in Portland, after a week's visit with her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davis spent Sunday at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. X. Davis. Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Howard spent Saturday in Oregon City. Mr. Inskip is still real poorly. LOGAN.

The W. O. W. dance on Christmas night was the most successful dance that has been given for some time. Thos. E. Anderson has his house well under way. When completed it will be a neat and substantial residence. And still higher climbs the record of the C. C. Creamery Co. They paid 39 cents for November butter fat. The birth of a son is reported at Mr. Srahm's, also one at Mr. Wahl-sack's. Arthur Raw has done some mason work for Samuel Gerber. Fred Gerber is repairing the Clackamas bridge. The people of the Hatton neighborhood have a petition for a new road district taking in the Clackamas road to the bluff. John Mostul has gone to Dakota on a business and pleasure trip.

MARQUAM SCHOOL NOTES.

The ninth grade was entertained on Saturday, December 19th, from four until seven o'clock in the evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Marquam. The time was spent with music and games. Dinner was served at six, and the hostess maintained her reputation for hospitality. The guests were the teachers of the Marquam public school, Mr. Karl Anderson and Miss Winifred Roake, and the ninth grade scholars, Clara Quinn, Guy Larkin, Harry Green, Dolly Marquam and Anna Nelson. To the regret of all, Hazel Weeks was kept at home by illness. The affair was held in honor of Guy Larkin and Harvey Green, who are now leaving the school here to become students at the Capital Normal at Salem. Teachers and class will miss them greatly, as they have long been identified with the best interests of the school. But it is safe to predict careers of usefulness to these boys in their larger sphere, and their friends here will follow them with deep interest. And all are grateful to Mrs. Marquam for the pleasure of this informal reception. The county superintendent, Mr. T. J. Gary, delighted the school with a call and a short address on the 23d of December. He found a bright and busy school, and commended the individual classes upon their good records. He urged them to persist in their study, and to seek the good in all persons and things. They who "look for the fawns" as they go through the world will see what Mrs. look for; likewise, they who look for the "beautiful, good, and true" will find them. It is wiser to do the latter, and this is a surer road to happiness. Many will be helped by it. Miss Roake is spending the holidays at her home at Clackamas. Miss

Tessa Larkin, of the Arlington school, is visiting at the home of Marquam, as is Miss Carrie Ridings, principal at Molalla. Grove Birchet and his brother, of Albany College, visited at Marquam during the holidays. Rev. Ray Marquam, of Williams University, addressed the school recently, speaking especially of the conditions and work at the University. His visit was greatly appreciated. Two of the directors, John Barth, chairman, and Wallace Albright, visited the school a short time ago. Belle Gray of the eighth grade, spent the holidays with friends in Oregon City. Lavilla Brown, also of the eighth, visited with Edna Taylor at Needy.

STONE.

What people let go to waste here in places in Clackamas county, Oregon! On the 29th of December, 1908, we had occasion to find a place to stop, on the highway with friends in Oregon City. Lavilla Brown, also of the eighth, visited with Edna Taylor at Needy. Two of the directors, John Barth, chairman, and Wallace Albright, visited the school a short time ago. Belle Gray of the eighth grade, spent the holidays with friends in Oregon City. Lavilla Brown, also of the eighth, visited with Edna Taylor at Needy.

On New Year's eve there was "quite a do" here in this burg. Dr. Strickland was summoned to appear at John Hattan's residence and in the course of events a New Year's gift of a 11½ pound's. Mother and son and the rest of the party were all present. This the fifth day of January, 1909, with a cold wind at about 30 miles an hour whirling the snow in whirls and the cold at 23 above zero makes the old "moss-backs" stick close to the fire-place. We will have to put up with the cold blast. Several teams have passed by this morning in the blowing snow with farm produce for Oregon City and Portland.

CLARKES.

Bert Sheppard's brother was visiting him last week. Bert Sheppard went to Mulino Monday. Eugene Ringo is out from Portland. There will be a vice-versa, and a basket social Saturday evening, January 9, at the Clarks English M. E. Church. Everybody cordially invited. Ladies bring baskets. Program will begin at 8 o'clock sharp. Mable Clark is back home to stay. Anna Grossmiller is coming home Saturday to stay.

CLARKES.

W. H. Wettlaufer lost his colt last week. He is still the staggers. Dave Scherrule was out to visit his parents. He came on New Year's day, and left Sunday for his home. W. H. Wettlaufer was in town last week on business. Dave and Alex Scherrule were out on a hunt for a day. George Clarke's little boy died last week. Mr. Parkes took a load of potatoes to town for Mr. Blinn last Friday. O. S. Martell is out from New Year's to visit Mrs. Martin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Maxon. Mr. Maxon has returned home. He made a trip to Washington where he visited some of his relatives. The grange was held on New Year's day. Ed Grace took a load of potatoes to town on Monday. The German M. E. church had meetings from Tuesday until Sunday which were in charge of Elder J. Hepp.

STAFFORD.

A terrific storm of snow with a fierce north wind is tearing about Stafford since midnight and one's warm fireside seems good and comfortable. One good thing we don't expect this weather to last until late spring, as it does in some of the Eastern states. Mrs. Mays contemplates going to Seattle soon. Alfred Sharp is better, but still under the doctor's care. Smith Turner also is said to be improving after his severe sickness. Mrs. Powell's youngest sister, with three little children came Monday night from near Hood River to make her an extended visit. Her husband is interested in fruit. Mr. Waehle was unable to preach Sunday evening as he had taken a severe cold. Mrs. Waehle is also suffering from a cold. Mr. Freeman, their daughter with two children, are still with them, although she intended to start for her home near Eugene this week. There is a rumor that Henry Baker lost six dollars last week. It appears he had taken a stranger who had been working a short time for one of the neighbors and the fellow slept with him and he did not miss his money till that night when he went to pay some little bill and found his money gone. The man stayed till after breakfast and seemed in no hurry to get out of the neighborhood.

MULINO.

Frank Lee, who is attending high school at Silverton, spent New Year's at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lee. Young Derrick accompanied him home. They returned to Silverton Sunday. Ernest and Archie Davis spent Christmas at home with their parents. Several of the young people of Mulino took in the sugar pulling and watch meeting at Liberal New Year's eve. Mr. Swift still continues to stir up the excitement about the railroad in this community. Mr. Wallace, who has been very ill, is reported somewhat better at this writing. Mr. Dozier and family, of Needy, spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. P. Wallace. John Payne was elected road boss for district 19 here last Monday. A spirited time was had. The tax was defeated 45 to 18.

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

Prof. J. E. Stubbs and family, who have been visiting in Estacada and Gresham during the holidays, have returned to their home in Hood River. Mrs. J. E. Stubbs is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dale of this city. F. M. Gill, of Garfield, was in Portland last week attending the road meeting. The Dodge school board met January 2 and employed Miss Mabel Francis to teach a four months' term of school commencing January 4. The Dodge telephone company is bringing its telephone line near to completion as the poles are set ready for the wire. The central will be at Estacada. The Robey & Horner Co. are making a big showing for a new mill as they are filling the mill pond with logs and have the mill frame up. The wolves are doing a great deal of damage killing cattle and driving them out of the mountains. The Dodge school board met January 2 and employed Miss Mabel Francis to teach a four months' term of school commencing January 4. The Dodge telephone company is bringing its telephone line near to completion as the poles are set ready for the wire. The central will be at Estacada.

DAMASCUS AND ROCK CREEK.

We are having cool, rainy weather of late, and all the creeks are very high; even the wells are full to the top. Mrs. Derry, and daughter, lately from England, are visiting with her son, George Derry, of this place. They are intending to make their home in this country. Miss Janette Newell, from Portland, and Mrs. Delsie Hunter and daughter Verna, were visiting their parents Sunday. Miss Minnie Royer has returned to her work at Mr. Starkweather's. Misses Nettie and Mary Tong have gone back to Seattle, after a short visit with relatives and close friends. School commenced at Rock Creek January 4, after a short vacation. Harry Chitwood, was seen in our neighborhood Sunday. Mr. Reese, of McMinnville, was visiting his daughter, Mrs. Seth Young, last week. Mrs. Alfred Johnston is a great deal better after her sick spell. Cars leave Portland for Gresham every hour, but it is every two hours, but one hour service only goes as far as Gresham and Troutdale and back from Gresham and Troutdale every hour, so now if we miss one car we don't have to wait long. Why is it there are no real estate transfers in the Enterprise? We miss it badly. (Read this week's issue.)

FIRWOOD.

Dr. Boddin, of Portland, William Wilson, of Astoria and B. F. Hart, of Montavilla, spent Wednesday night with E. D. Hart. Mrs. Marie Alt is back from Portland spending a few days at home. A. Malars were seen going toward Damascus last Sunday. Hope they had a good dinner. E. D. Hart still has a few full-blood Poland China pigs to sell. We were vied with a snow storm Tuesday morning which caused the carpenters to get out and fix up the Firwood hall. The orchards are receiving a considerable interest lately. W. L. Wilkins is laying out a plot for some new trees. Don't forget the social Saturday night, January 9.

SPRINGWATER.

The watch party at Wilcox's was enjoyed by all present. Get your sleighs ready boys, the girls are all ready for a ride. About twenty volunteered and raised Charles Dubois' sawmill Saturday. The C. E. Society held its annual election Sunday evening. Sidney Smith was re-elected president. Mr. Stubbs preached a very interesting sermon Sunday evening. We are glad to see the Dodge telephone line going through our neighborhood. We also understand that the Clear Creek Telephone Company is going to put in a new division in the near future. Howard Smith, Mr. Lewellen's enterprising clerk and private secretary, was soliciting trade in Dodge Sunday.
