NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

How it rained here Tuesday. There is a small lake of water on Molalla avenue and Mt. View street. The snow is all gone, after a period of two weeks. Rev. Molloy slipped on the snow last week, falling on the icy crust which blackened his eye and bruised his arm. Mrs. Molloy is still quite poorly and able to be up only part of the time. Mrs. Parish is a little better this week. Miss Mabel Francis is at home now, having closed a successful term of school. She will begin another term at the same place when the weather settles. Mabel Keller, of Dodge, was visiting here last week. Miss Winnie Jackson is at home from school this week on account of sickness. Dr. Strickland is in attendance. Mrs. Hall is one the sick list, having tonsillitis. Mrs. Nora Carrico is here with her. Mr. and Mrs. Lon Baker went to Carus Tuesday to attend the funeral of Mr. Baker's sister, Mrs. Bob Casady. Fred Myers and bride were visiting with the former's sister, Mrs. Francis, last week. F. M. Darling has a lot of nice lettuce for market. There will be preaching at the Mountain View Church again next Saturday at 2 o'clock, and Sunday at 11 o'clock, by Rev. Moffatt, of Newberg. There will be quarterly meeting at the United Brethren Church Saturday and Sunday, January 23-24. The members of the Mountain View Sunday school and vicinity are talking of having a pie social soon, the proceeds to go towards painting the church roof, and other improvements. Archie McCord, who moved his family out to Shafter's mill near Meadowbrook last week, was transacting business in town Tuesday.

TEAZEL CREEK.

The beautiful snow is gone, but there is a welcome sight before us in the shape of mother earth. It makes everyone grin; a grin of satisfaction to mention their unused sleds, which a good man made a day before the snow disappeared. There was preaching by Elder Truitt at the Dart church last Sunday. Francis Quinn and wife spent last Sunday at the home of Harry Dart. The little bratties are so swaddled by rain and melting snow until they have become quite good sized rivulets. Preaching next Sunday at Teazel Creek. All are cordially invited. Piles! Piles! Piles! Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Sold by druggists, mail 50c and $1.00, Williams Mfg. Co., Props., Cleveland, O. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

Always uniform—our best product—sold in 1 lb., 2 lb., 2 1/2 lb. and 5 lb. cans. Your grocer will grind it—better if ground at home—not too fine.

REDLAND.

The snow, the beautiful snow, has gone. Now, there is nothing left but sleds and lots of water, frozen potatoes and apples. Mrs. Mazerie died last Saturday. They have taken her to Detroit, Mich., for burial; as her husband is an invalid and badly crippled, this is a sad blow to him. Mrs. Wm. Anderson has gone to her brother's for a rest and change, as she is quite poorly. Frank Gray, of Wilhoit, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Gray. W. H. Mattson was summoned to his home at Viola Thursday, as his sick, no one expected to live from one day to the next. Mrs. Jim Fullam has gone to help care for her. This is a great shock to the friends and relatives here as none knew she was ill. A hired man of Mr. Scheeff's knocked Mrs. Scheeff on the head with a stick of wood. She fell unconscious, as she was alone, it is not known how long she remained so, but when she was able she phoned for her husband, who was in town, and a constable, but the man escaped and up to this writing, has not been caught. There was no cause for the act whatever. Dr. Sommer was called and Mrs. Scheeff is getting along nicely. Water is over the road near Oregon City, so all Redland must stay away from town or go five or six miles around. Where are the ones that wished for the snow to go now? Dr. Rowland, the presiding elder, took charge of the services here and at Viola last Sunday, which was very much enjoyed by all present. Mr. Sigsbee and son came from Portland to care for his hay, that was stored in the barn, that collapsed on the Campbell place. Anyone wishing to buy hay can get that quite reasonable.

CLARKES.

Fred Marshall's new shed broke down last Thursday night. It was filled with snow and it did a great deal of damage. It broke his back and his brand new binder. There were three steers inside of the building, two were crippled and one of them had to be killed but the other one is still living. Mr. Robinson lost one of his horses. It had the strangles. Mr. McFee was out in Clarkes last week in a sled to look for some more timber. W. G. Kiehlsmith is making a new gate. Mr. W. Laufer sold hogs last week and took them to Portland. Ben Marshall went to town last Monday on business. Mr. Scribner lost one of his horses through staggers but the other is better again. Alex Scherrable was running his chopper the other day. David Haag and his family came from Washington and are staying with his parents at present. He may decide to stay here. Ed McIntyre was out to visit his father.

BEAVER CREEK.

The snow is all gone again. It was the deepest snow that we have seen for 21 years in Beaver Creek. Rain is the order of the day. The Hall barn is mashed down by the snow. The annual meeting of the Beaver Creek Telephone Association met last Monday at the Beaver Creek hall. The president is Fred Kamrath; vice-president, Nat Scribner; secretary, Charles Spence; treasurer, Charlie Moehnke; operators, Sara and Blodwen Parry for the year of 1909. Mrs. F. Steiner called on Mrs. F. Henriel one day last week. Watched Fifteen Years. "For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c at Jones Drug Co.

MEADOW BROOK.

The people of this vicinity have changed color somewhat since the snow has all gone. The Woodcock Creek is out of its banks in spots. Prof. Dibble returned Saturday from his cougar hunt on his way to Salem, where he intends to attend the Capital Normal until his school begins February 15. Ralph Holman had the misfortune to lose two of his sheep during the snow. Chas. Hall made a business trip to Portland last week, returning Friday evening. Mr. McCord and family, the sawyer of Fred Shafter's saw mill, while working out from Oregon City had the misfortune of getting stuck in the mud on north Main street and they were chilled through before they continued their journey. They stopped at R. P. Cooper's place over night and proceeded the next morning. R. P. Cooper's dam washed out last Sunday. "He thinks it will stay" for a while. Chas. Hall called on O. T. Kay last Sunday evening.

SHUBEL.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hornschuh, after spending a week with their parents, have returned to their home in Sebald. Jacob Grossmiller has built a new garden fence, which improves appearances. A number of relatives and friends spent a pleasant evening at the home of John Heft last Thursday evening. We regret to note the serious illness of Mrs. G. A. Schuchert. School has resumed, after a week's vacation during the cold spell. The Shubel Debating Society met at the school house Saturday night and debated the question, "Resolved, That the Present Way of Celebrating Independence Day is Detrimental to the Public Welfare." Our next question is "Resolved, that the eight hour bill introduced by the Clackamas County Delegation at Salem should be enacted into law." Everybody invited.

MACKSBURG.

We all lived through the cold snap, but many people lost their potatoes, besides canned fruit. The Hamiltons of Berkeley's saw mill, had all their fruit frozen but seven jars. Mr. Kelsing, who came to our burg last spring from the east, tasted the same two thousand five hundred miles to find a warmer climate. He says he cannot see that he bettered himself any. Most everybody seems to be prospering in our neighborhood. We see that Chas. Kraxberger has purchased the Odeok estate, better known as the old L. Matthews farm. We are all glad to hear that J. W. Smith was re-appointed road supervisor of road district No. 25. Mr. Smith has done a whole lot in making of good roads in this district.

FIRWOOD.

E. D. Hart has become quite a trapper lately. He set two traps together one evening and in the morning found them astride the oat bin with the remains of a rat in one and his cat in the other. The good old Oregon rain has washed away most of the snow and Miss Nina Heacock has returned in good health, so the school is again humming along as if nothing had happened. Mr. Ballou, of Rainier, Oregon, was a visitor at C. Casseday's Sunday. The Firwood Progressive Association will have a debate: "Resolved, that the Public Schools should adopt a Course in Agriculture," on Saturday, 8 P. M., January 23.

MOLALLA.

Whist our old burg was sleeping last week and dreaming of the boom expected in the spring, a brand new town was laid out where land could be bought as low as $100 per acre, just in hallowing distance to the north by the still new and beautiful oak grove and something will be doing in railroad business by the time this shows in print unless this scribble mistakes the signs abroad in the land. Too bad for the old "confederate cross roads," but then one mile out of town is not when it comes to the city rooms. The live where one may soon "get aboard" and be in touch with the four corners of the Pacific Northwest. Now listen, while at this moment you may not hear the roar of the car rolling into the beautiful and magnificent Molalla Cove, you will within one year from this date, and remember whatever of good that hovers in sight on this Molalla Prairie is and redounds to Molalla and greater Molalla will mean the loosening up of the old hide of contraction where the greater will absorb the less, then we shall lose sight of "burgs," "villages" and "valleys." By a co-operation of interests we pool our little corner stands representing 60 feet square to expansion, 5280 feet square. Now let our beloved Molalla represent a square of 540 acres, more or less; no matter whether you can watch all these corners or not just now. Was there ever a gigantic undertaking accomplished where several minds and "corners" figured all along the way without some compromise? Indeed, can even two persons be of one mind and spirit, in designing any come-and-go-as-you-please town or railroad? Know all men that now is the appointed time for your best and brightest decisions for the future welfare of our locality. Those who carry the nerve and foresight to put matured decisions into facts are not chance benefactors but are the native flower that rolls forward all the public enterprises, yet they are mindful that all the good that is accomplished the "pullback," "alldedown," "do nothing," "moral coward" and all his family share alike in public benefits. Then boost for a greater Molalla.

LOGAN.

Married, at the residence of the bride's parents, near Estacada, Miss Freda Duns and Norval L. Kirchem. What is Eagle Creek's loss in Logan's gain, as they will reside on Mr. Kirchem's farm here. We extend our congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life. Most farmers have been taking an inventory of stock to see what damage was done by the freeze up and no very serious damage is reported. Some potatoes were lost and some canned fruit was damaged. Mahala A. Gill and her brothers attended Pomona Grange at Oswego during the cold snap. There was a dance at Gill's hall on January 16. A good time is the report. Now the sleighs will be laid by and when the next opportunity comes to use them they will likely be out of commission.

CASTORIA.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Pfenker, of Boise, Idaho, are visiting relatives in Oswego for a few days. Willie Koehler, of The Dalles, was an Oswego visitor last week. Willie Koehler, is very sick with appendicitis at St. Vincent's Hospital, in Portland. A dance was given at the Grange hall Wednesday evening under the auspices of the Oswego grange. Miss Verona Espey, and Miss J. Matthews left for California Monday. The Oswego Grange held its annual meeting Saturday. On account of the absence of several of the officers elected for the ensuing year, the installation was postponed to the second Saturday in February.

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

Mr. Townsend opened a butcher shop on Main street Monday. He was in the same business here a little over a year ago. The country schools, which have been closed the past week on account of the deep snow, opened Monday. The rural carrier, A. Demoy, has not been able to cover his entire route for more than a week, but got around on Monday. N. M. Tracy and his son, Earl, who have been ill with typhoid fever for several weeks, are well on the road to complete recovery. Mrs. F. M. Gill is spending the week at Estacada with her father and mother.

KELSO NOTES.

The snow and cold snap is gone, and we are all glad to see that it is raining. A good many farmers in this vicinity lost most all of their potatoes by the freeze. All of the mills closed down, and most of the wood haulers quit work. Bert Atkins of Sisters, Oregon, came over to attend the funeral of his father, Sam Atkins, and visited a few days with B. O. Nelson. John Roberts stopped school at Meridian for a week and visited in Kelso and Dover.
