seasion was devoted principally to the business of the order. The grange indorsed unanimously the resolutions introduced into Pomona grange by T F. Rvan relative to good roads and extending the authority of the rallroad commission to embrace all methods of transportation of freight and passengers, either by railroad, steam-boat, or electric car. These measures were adopted by all of the granges. During the session one candidate took fourth degree, and two candidates. the third and fourth degree.

A hot dinner was served by the women of the grange, and two long tables in the dining room were lined with members and visitors, who did justice to the repast. Following the neon hour, a public installation was taken up. Judge Thomas F. Ryan acted as installing master, and was as-sisted by Mrs. J. L. Waldron of this city in the impressive ceremony Judge Ryan, who has been master of this grange for the past two years was succeeded to the office by R. S.
