SOCIETY
Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge met at the Armory Wednesday night, when there were over 200 members present. Fifteen new members were taken into the order, and many applications filed. At the next meeting, which will be held in the Armory next Tuesday evening, over 250 candidates will be initiated, and Supreme President James A. Fosbary, of Los Angeles, California, will be present to assist in the initiation. This will be one of the largest classes of women and men that has been taken into this order at one time in the United States. Many delegates who have been attending the State Convention in Portland, were present and gave addresses. Among the prominent delegates were F. E. Taylor, state manager of Oregon; Mr. McCusker, of Portland, who has been elected delegate to represent Oregon at the National Convention to be held in Los Angeles, Cal., in March; Dr. Ideman, of Pendleton, Medford, Dallas, Eugene, St. John, Springfield, and many other cities in Oregon were well represented. Following the meeting the delegates and members were invited to Willamette Hall where a chicken supper was served. The committee in charge of the banquet was composed of Mrs. Henry Streibig, Mrs. Pauline Schwartz, Miss Clara Slittenhart, Miss Ethel Green. The hall was prettily decorated with crepe paper and evergreens, and the long tables were decorated to correspond with those of the room. Following the banquet at Willamette hall dancing was enjoyed at the armory, the orchestra being formed by members of the Fraternal Brotherhood Lodge. The committee in charge of the decorations at the Armory and Willamette hall deserve great credit in their artistic taste. The armory was festooned with the bright colored crepe paper, ferns, palms, flags and bunting. Oregon grape was also used among the decorations. Miss Letha Jackson, Miss Edith Jackson, B. L. Cummins and Jack Owenby acted as a committee to escort the delegates to the hall where the meeting was held.
Sola Circle, Women of Woodcraft, held its installation in the Woodmen hall on Friday night. The installing officer was Mrs. P. J. Winkle, and the ceremonies were very impressive. The following officers were installed: Past: guardian neighbor, Mrs. Viola Tate; advisor, Mrs. Mary Tobin; clerk, Mrs. Carrie N. Parker; banker, Mrs. May Waldron; magician, Mrs. Lucia Frieze; attendant, Mrs. Cora Henningson; inner sentinel, C. E. Tate; outer sentinel, R. W. Brown; captain of the guards, Mrs. S. S. Walker; manager, Mrs. Rosina Post; musician, Frank Betzel. An excellent entertainment was given after the installation, and the following numbers were given: "America," audience; solo, Charles A. Miller; piano solo, Miss Carrie Werner; vocal duet, Miss Florence Price and Milton Price; club singing, Robert Warner. A banquet was served in the adjoining room and many members and guests sat down to one of the most appetizing spreads that has been given in the Woodmen hall. The tables were prettily decorated, to correspond with those of the rooms, which were in flags and bunting. The affair given being close to the birthday of Abraham Lincoln, the pictures of Lincoln, George Washington and Theodore Roosevelt were hung on the walls, and were artistically draped in the National colors. Large American flags were used in profusion among the decorations, and the electrolights were shaded with red and blue, which helped to form the handsome decorations. The committee, who is receiving congratulations on the success of the entertainment is composed of Mrs. P. J. Winkle, chairman; Mrs. Cora Henningson, Mrs. Isola Waldron, Mrs. Charles Frost and Mrs. W. F. Schooler.
Mrs. S. O. Dillman entertained the Dertlich Club Friday afternoon. The one-hundredth anniversary of the composer, Mendelssohn, was observed, and the programme of the afternoon was taken up with sketches from the composer's life, and of compositions of Mendelssohn. The biography was read by Mrs. Eber M. Chapman; notes on the composer were given by Mrs. Charles Caulfield. Mrs. Dillman read an interesting article on Mendelssohn; "The Venetian Boat Song," No. 6, a piano solo, was well rendered by Mrs. S. O. Dillman. Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, in a very artistic manner, rendered a piano solo, "Song Without Words." "For the Wings of a Dove," and "Spring Song," were the musical selections given by Mrs. R. C. Ganong, and were highly appreciated, as was also the duet, "Would that My Love," by Mrs. Charles G. Miller and Mrs. Theodore Osmund.
During the afternoon the hostess served refreshments. The next meeting of the Club will be on Friday afternoon, February 17, at the home of Mrs. Charles H. Caulfield. Present were: Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, Mrs. R. C. Ganong, Mrs. E. T. Avison, Mrs. J. W. Moffitt, Mrs. John H. Loder, Mrs. Theodore Osmund, Mrs. L. Adams, Mrs. C. G. Miller, Mrs. Gilbert E. Hodges, Mrs. J. W. Chase, Mrs. John F. Clark, Mrs. O. W. Eastham, Mrs. H. Caulfield, Mrs. Eber A. Chapman, Mrs. Ross Charman, Mrs. Annie Slicker Hayes, Mrs. S. O. Dillman, Miss Muriel Stevens.

Marley, Harlan Donovan, George Schwartz, Willie and Freddie Harvey.
The entertainment given on Tuesday evening by the Sunday school pupils of the Christian church at Gladstone, was a complete success. The proceeds of the entertainment amounted to $14, which will be applied to the window fund, for which the Sunday school children are working. An excellent musical and literary entertainment was given and the supper served in the basement was enjoyed by all. The Berean Class of the Christian church, composed of 20 young people, are planning for an entertainment to be given in the church on Washington's birthday. This class has one of the colored glass windows to pay for, and an effort will be made by the young people to pay for this as soon as possible.
The Daughters of the King met at the home of Mrs. Harry Moody on Sixth and Center streets Saturday afternoon and planned for a valentine party to be given at the Willamette Hall on Saturday evening, February 13. Committees were chosen and the affair promises to be a most enjoyable one. Miss Marjorie Canfield and Mrs. Louis Morris were chosen as a committee on advertising. Mrs. W. A. Shewman will have charge of the candy booth, and Mrs. Theodore Clark will have charge of the valentine booth and postoffice. The hall is to be elaborately decorated with valentines for the occasion. The Ladies of St. Paul's Guild will serve supper in the evening at the Willamette Hall from 5 to 7.
The Salmagundi Club was entertaining on Saturday evening by Miss Bertha Koerner and Miss Clara Koerner at their home on 11th street. The evening was merely spent in music conversation. A luncheon was served during the evening. The next meeting of the club will be at the home of Miss Nellie Canfield. The guests of the Misses Koerner were Miss Sedonia Shaw, Miss Irene Moore, Miss Winnie Hanny, Miss Mable Towler, Miss Olga McClure, Miss Genevieve

SATURDAY CLUB MEETS.
Club Will Give First Annual At-Home.
The Saturday Club of the Congregational church met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Wilmot, of Third and High streets Monday night. Business of importance was brought up for discussion during the evening.
Plans were made for the annual market to be held in the church parlors, which will be held on the third Saturday of the month. The following committee on refreshments for the market were appointed by the President, Mrs. Charles D. Latourette, and consist of Mrs. A. B. Wilmot, Mrs. Follenbee and Miss Jean White. It was also planned to give an entertainment and social on Washington's birthday in the church parlors which will be free for all, and will be called the "Saturday Club's First Annual At Home." The judges appointed were M. H. Long, M. J. Gleason, and E. R. Rhoades was appointed clerk.
Low priced things are not always cheap. Low prices are sometimes dearly bought. There's such a thing as "extravagant economy"—which means saving on the price at the cost of quality. We sell good, wholesome qualities in all our manufactured food products just as low as it is possible to sell them. We won't sell the other kind at any price. Foods that come directly out of the ground can be pretty accurately judged by any housewife. But the hands of man get a chance to adulterate and deceive in manufactured goods, and in these you must depend upon us to select for you. We can guarantee the following to be unexcelled in quality and extra low in price:
Currants .....10c package
Raisins .....10c package
Picnic Hams .....11c lb
Malta Vita .....5c package
Prunes .....5c pound
