The Crown-Columbia Pulp & Paper Company gave out the statement Wednesday that nearly all departments of the East side pulp mill are in operation. Men were secured from Portland and Oregon City and by the last of the week the mill will be running with a full crew.

A misunderstanding over the grounds caused the ball game between the Oregon City high school and the Lincoln high school in Portland Wednesday night to be shortened to five innings. SEVEN MEN ARE NAMED

COMMITTEE IS APPOINTED TO RAISE MONEY TO ADVERTISE COUNTY.

TO GO RIGHT TO WORK

Local Business and Professional Men Are Resolved This Country Shall Have Its Share Of Eastern Travel.

With the avowed intention of raising a fund of $10,000 for publicity work in Oregon City and Clackamas County, a committee consisting of W. A. Shewman, R. C. Ganong, C. H. Dye, Grant B. Dimick, Theodore J. Gary, James U. Campbell and Dr. E. A. Sommer, has been appointed by Thomas F. Ryan, president of the Commercial Club of Oregon City.

The appointment of this committee followed the report of the Commercial Club last Saturday night and which marked the opening of the Commercial Club. The presence of Tom Richardson and the speeches of other enthusiastic men has caused a general swing up among those who attended the affair, and these men have apparently made up their minds that Oregon City has lagged behind in the march of progress long enough and they propose to enter into the publicity work with a vim.

While probably 50 per cent of the men who attended the banquet were not members of the new organization, after hearing some of the rousing talks, 17 men joined the club, making the total membership close to 100. Allusion was made to the promotion work that is being done by Hood River, Eugene, Salem, Albany and many other Oregon towns.

The meeting held on Saturday in Abernethy Grange Hall at Parkplace by the teachers of the county and the Abernethy Grange, proved to be very successful. County School Superintendent T. J. At his home at Willamette, three miles from Oregon City, at 1 A. M. Nelson Waldron, son of Nelson Waldron and Hattie L. Waldron, passed away after a week's illness of pneumonia fever.
