CANBY.

The W. C. T. U. met last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. O. R. Mack and there was a good attendance. The meeting this week will be at the home of Mrs. W. J. Weber. Mrs. Rape will lead the meeting, her subject to be "Health and Heredity."

Mrs. William Grant of Seattle, is here visiting with friends. Mrs. Grant is having a new cement walk placed in front of her building, the Knight Hotel. William Knight who owns the property adjoining, is also having a new cement walk built, which adds to the appearance of Main street.

Mrs. Kirk and Mrs. Dawson, of Portland, who have been visiting with Mrs. J. S. Dick for several days, returned home Tuesday.

Miss Grace Patch visited Miss Florence and Miss Lillian Wang Saturday and Sunday, returning home on Monday.

Mrs. Robert Coe and family are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coe, Sr. Mr. Coe spent Sunday with his family here.

O. R. Mack is making more improvements in his store by adding partitions.

Herbert Myers and Otto Nelson, of Portland, spent Sunday in this city visiting with relatives.

Mrs. Hattie Myers and Miss Anna Krueger, of Portland, were in Canby Sunday visiting their parents.

R. Haty has improved the appearance of his home by adding a coat of paint.

The I. O. O. F. Encampment met in Knight's hall Saturday night and five candidates were initiated. There was a large attendance. The subordinate will meet Friday evening. There are about 55 members, and all of the members are very enthusiastic.

The Red Men will meet at Knight's hall on Saturday night.

Fred Hurst, of Astoria, was in Canby on Saturday attending the citizens' meeting.

James A. Moore, one of the prominent fruit raisers of Hood River, was in Canby the first of the week on business.

W. B. Moore, president of the Canby Canal & Irrigation Company, has arrived in Canby, where he will remain during the summer superintending the construction of the irrigation canal. Mr. Moore, who is very enthusiastic over the promotion of the canal, states that the soil of Canby is without doubt as good as can be found at Hood River when irrigated, and that the fruit that is raised here is as good as that raised at Hood River, providing the trees and ground are properly cared for. The people of Canby are looking forward to the time when the canal will be installed, which will greatly increase the value of the land. Over 5000 acres have already been contracted for irrigation. Mr. Moore is a man who has had many years experience in irrigation projects in the northwest, and has many illustrations in his office in this city, showing the land near Blalock, where an irrigation canal was constructed. The soil here is well adapted to the culture of Tokay grapes, and farmers who are to have land irrigated by the Canby Canal Company, are planning to plant the ground to this fruit.

P. F. Hanna has added new furniture in his confectionery parlors, and during the past week received a shipment of groceries, which will be added to his stock. Mr. Hanna has been doing a rushing business here on Sundays since the baseball season has started in. Ice cream has now been added, which is eagerly sought for by his large patronage.

J. Sandness, who recently came here from Barlow and entered into the hardware business, has had his store building repainted, on the interior and exterior, and presents a very neat appearance. Mr. Sandness has leased the lower floor of the city hall building for five years, and is already building up a good trade.

M. E. Lee and family, of Portland, visited with friends in Canby on Sunday.

Major Freeman, who has several horses training on the race track of the county fair grounds, was in Canby Sunday.

Edward Gerlinger and wife of Portland, visited in this city Sunday. Mr. Gerlinger is connected with Salem Falls City Railway Company.

George Penman, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, visited in this city the first of the week.

W. P. Weismandel, well-known here, who left for Stayton, Or., several months ago, is very ill at that place of pneumonia. Mr. Weismandel recently met with a serious accident while working in a sawmill at Stayton, and had partially recovered from the effects of it when he was taken down with pneumonia.

Mrs. Cassie Evans is having the appearance of her property on C street improved by having a new eight-foot sidewalk constructed. J. A. Graham and Adam Knight are doing the work. Other sidewalks in Canby are in need of repairs.

William Lucke, the commission merchant, was in Portland on business the first of the week.

James Evans and wife, who spent several days of last week with their daughter, Mrs. Burgoyne, of Portland, returned home Sunday.

Clyde Dick, after visiting with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dick, of this city, left on Saturday for Stevenson, Wash., where he has a position.

George Spencer spent Sunday with friends at Molalla.

E. C. Ashbaugh, of Portland, was a Canby visitor Tuesday.

Andrew Kocher received on Tuesday a carload of binding machinery.

The flooring of the second story of his large saleroom will be completed the latter part of the week. Mr. Kocher states that business is good in his line, and on Saturday disposed of two buggies and a surrey.

Mrs. Verna Hitchman and Mrs. Ola Gurley went to Portland on Monday. Mrs. Hitchman's sister, Mrs. Ella Hitchman, is in a critical condition at the Portland Sanitarium, having undergone a surgical operation on Sunday.

Arthur Zeek, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zeek.

Mrs. Mary Hougham went to Oregon City on a business trip Wednesday, returning home on the evening train.

Mrs. John Zeek and daughter, Miss Frances, were Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

J. J. Sandness and family went to Barlow Monday, where they attended the funeral of the late Ole Aasve, Mr. Sandness, who is an old friend of the family was one of the pallbearers.

Isabel Heise, of Norton County, Kansas, arrived here on Monday and is visiting his daughter, Mrs. William Heise, who owns valuable farm property in Kansas. He is looking for a location, and if he finds land that is suitable he will probably dispose of his Kansas property and locate in Oregon. He is very much impressed with the country surrounding Canby, and says that this is the finest looking country he has seen since he left home. He will remain here for several weeks with his sister.

A. R. Knight is visiting friends in Roseburg this week.

Ralph Knight and J. K. Hill start Saturday for Alaska with a government surveying party.

One of the most exciting baseball games ever played on the Canby diamond was on Sunday afternoon, when the Delworts met the Canby nine. The Canby boys did not score until the eighth inning, when an error was made by the Delworts and resulted in the local team winning, the score being 5 to 1. There was a good attendance, many from Portland being present. The lineup of the Canby team follows: C. Baty, pitcher; B. White, catcher; E. Krueger, first base; Lee Eckerson, second base; Fred Hampton, third base; Stanley Wang, short stop; Harry Sherwood, left field; Otto Krueger, catcher; W. Baty, right field. The Oswego team will be here on Sunday to play the local team and another good game is promised.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will give a novel social at the city hall. The affair will be in the form of an egg social, and the supper that is to be served will consist of edibles made of eggs. Chocolate and bread and butter will be served. Games and music will be the features of the evening.

W. C. T. U. Notes.

The letter writing contest of the Local Temperance League which recently closed here has interested the local folks in their work. The contest, under the management of the W. C. T. U., was entered into by the members of the league with much zeal. The prizes were awarded to Florence Knight, aged 16 years, and Ciraiee Zee, aged 12 years, for the following letters written, which were addressed to Mrs. Weber, who has this work in charge:

Canby, Or., April 4th, 1909.
Dear Mrs. Weber:—

I like to go to L. T. L. because it is such a nice place to spend Sunday. We do not learn any thing bad. And when we look ahead for Sunday afternoon to come it helps us to keep our pledge.

I like it because you read us such nice stories. It teaches us about the use of alcohol on the body and mind, and helps us to have a great deal in physiology at school.

The W. C. T. U. ladies are so kind to the L. T. L. children. They give us parties and many good times. I like to have them come to visit the L. T. L. I think we all do better when they come. I liked Mr. Atel's illustration with the ribbon, very much.

I am glad we are going to have so much fun at L. T. L. today. I hope we can buy another blind pig.

Going to L. T. L. teaches us to sing. I must close now; good by.

Your little L. T. L. girl,
FLORENCE KNIGHT.

Canby, Or., April 5th, 1909.
Dear Mrs. Weber:—

There is an L. T. L. in this town. I like to go to it. It will tell you what I like to go to. It is because I want to know all I can about Temperance.

I want to learn not to swear or use any nasty words. I want to learn not to use anything that has alcohol in it. And I want to learn not to use anything that is so soft, chewy or smoky. I want to learn to love Jesus and know all about Him. I want to learn to keep my body as clean as God made it. I will close for this time.

From your friend,
CHRISSE ZEC.

The judges of the contest were Mrs. W. C. Clark, Mrs. Charles Brewer, Mrs. Sawyer, Mrs. A. Kocher, Mrs. George Hoyt.

On the banks of the Molalla river has been found about an acre of what is termed wild asparagus, which was on Sunday found growing in the sandy loam by a party of Canby people composed of M. J. Lee, W. B. Moore, H. N. McGregor, Mrs. William Knight and Mrs. William Grant. The party collected a large portion of the asparagus and brought it home, cooking the same, and pronounce it delicious. It is probable that the vegetable has been growing there for some time. The soil of Canby and vicinity is adapted to the growing of asparagus, some of the finest that is sent to the Portland markets has been raised in here.

Carey Cox, of this city, and Miss Frances Thurbon were married in Oregon City on Wednesday afternoon by Justice W. W. H. Samson. Mr. Cox is well known in this city, where he has resided for some time. They will make their home here after a short honeymoon.

O. A. Aasve died at the home of his son, Martin, April 24, at 6:30 P. M. Mr. Aasve was born in Norway, July 24, 1822, being 85 years of age. He leaves a wife and six children to mourn his demise. The old gentleman had been ailing for the past two years. The funeral was held at the church Monday, at 2 o'clock. Rev. A. O. White, of Silverton, officiating. He was one who was respected by all who knew him and will be sadly missed from the home and by his neighbors. The wife and son have the sympathy of their many friends. A daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aasve arrived on the train Tuesday morning from Seattle.

H. C. Howe and family will not move to Woodburn as reported.

William Evans, of Monmouth, is in town on business.

There will be a dance in Columbia hall Saturday evening, May 1. Garrett's full orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Town, who bought Mr. Williams' place, have taken possession.

Mr. Williams has moved his family into the Pusey house where they will remain a short time before going East.

Rev. Hagus came up from Portland Monday to attend the funeral of Mr. Aasve.

Elmer Irvin was quite sick a few days last week.

J. J. Wurfel and family and Miss Annie Slagter spent the day with Mrs. Wurfel's uncle near Hillsboro Sunday. Mr. Wurfel hired G. W. White's automobile.

NEW ERA.

The rains the first of the week were happily accepted by the farmers and others.

Miss Jessie, of Portland, is visiting her cousin, Pearl Ferguson, this week.

Mrs. D. McArthur and niece and nephew, Hester and Ray McArthur, will leave for Idaho the first of next month, where the two latter will join their father, Geo. McArthur, for the summer.

Miss Nellie Nesbith, of Portland, was a distinguished guest at the Wink home last week. Miss Nesbith, Mrs. Wink and sons, Earl and Arthur, attended the drama in Oregon City last Friday night.

We will back our feminine ball team against any other on the Coast of their class. On Monday afternoon they played a pick-up team on their three cornered diamond and beat them so badly we won't dare mention it.

Mrs. J. Rief, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Bremer, Sr. and Mrs. Emma Bohrer were Oregon City visitors Monday.

Frank Mathews, of Macksburg, passed through our burg on Wednesday last week en route for Oregon City.

Nettie Burgoyne had a relapse of the measles, but is reported as improving at this writing.

Harry Armstrong, of Portland, visited Elmer Veto last Friday night.

O. L. Barber, of Monitor, passed through here Monday morning en route for his home, having been called to Portland on account of the illness of his eldest daughter, Mrs. Arthur Hitchman.

Two of Canby's most prominent sports, Arthur Seaton and William

Porter came down Monday afternoon with the expectation of carrying off all the catfish in our mill pond, but their luck was not up to expectations and we are congratulating ourselves that we do not have to restock our waters with fish.

TWILIGHT.
Mrs. Belding, of Seattle, has been visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Smith, and aunt, Mrs. D. B. Martin.

Thomas Kelland has installed a new phone.

Adolph Joehnik is recovering from an attack of pneumonia.

The home of O. S. Martin was gladdened by the arrival of a 10 pound boy Friday morning, April 23. Mother and baby doing well.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lazelle and Mrs. James Hyton attended Warner Grange last Saturday at New Era.

Mr. Lansley is able to be out among his friends once more, after his long illness.

D. L. Boylan visited his brother, Ernest Boylan, of Kelso, Wash., last Tuesday, who is in Portland at the hospital having undergone an operation for appendicitis. He is doing as well as could be expected.

NEW STORE FOR CANBY.

L. Adams and Gordon Brothers to Deal in General Merchandise.

Articles of Incorporation have been filed in the county clerk's office. The name of the incorporation is The Gordon Brothers Company, the incorporators being L. Adams, Emil Gordon and Harry E. Gordon, the duration to be permanent.

The business in which this company proposes to engage is to buy and sell dry goods, groceries, general furnishings, food products and produce and general merchandise; also to buy and sell real property and to carry out the objects of the corporation.

The principal office and place of business will be in the town of Canby, Clackamas County. The capital stock consists of $5000 divided into 50 shares of the par value of $100 per share.

Best Treatment For Colds.
"Most ordinary colds will yield to the simplest treatment," says the Chicago Tribune. "Moderate laxatives, hot foot baths, a free perspiration and an avoidance of exposure to cold and wet after treatment." While this treatment is simple, it requires considerable trouble, and the one adopting it must remain in doors for a day or two, or a fresh cold is almost sure to be contracted, and in many instances pneumonia follows. It is not better to pin your faith to an old reliable preparation like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, that is famous for its cures of colds and can always be depended upon? For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

Realty Company Incorporates.
Articles of incorporation were filed by the Canby Canal Realty Company. The incorporators are J. S. Sullivan, G. N. McGregor and W. B. Moore. The object of the incorporation and the business in which it proposes to engage is the buying and selling, exchanging and contracting for the purchase and sale of real and personal property. The principal office will be in Canby, and the capital stock will be $5000, the par value of each share shall be $100.
