MASTER OF GRANGE ILL.

Austin T. Buxton Attacked at His Home by Pneumonia.

Austin T. Buxton, state master of the Patrons of Husbandry, who lives near Forest Grove, is critically ill. Mr. Buxton is ill with pneumonia and at last reports his condition was so serious that fears were entertained for his recovery. State Lecturer Johnson started for the home of Mr. Buxton as soon as he was informed of the latter's sickness. Mr. Buxton has been prominent in the Patrons of Husbandry for over ten years, having served in most of the offices of the State Grange, and always taking a prominent part at all the sessions of that body, either as a committeeman or officer. He is now serving his second term as state master.

GREAT STREET DISPLAY.

Remarkable Features of Norris & Rowe's Shows Tomorrow.

More attention than ever has been given this season to the front street display which has always been a remarkable feature of the Greater Norris & Rowe Circus. Those who find perennial pleasure in circus parades will note the unusual attractiveness in this season's spectacular pageant upon the streets.

Norris & Rowe claim to have as great a menagerie as any circus in the world. They have so many wild beasts that they can open the dens to the public and still have a large menagerie in the animal tent to appease the most enthusiastic lover of wild animals. Therefore all dens and cages in this season's parade will be thrown open. The costumes of the riders are entirely new and unusually picturesque this year; mire bands of music have been added; the sleek, well-educated thoroughbred horses will share in interest with the superb heavy draft stock, Camels, llamas, dromedaries and elephants will lead the procession. Beautiful new tableaux floats and artistically carved wagons will be shown. The two big wagons containing the always-loved clowns have not been neglected, so that the children may have their annual laugh. The parade starts every morning at 10:30 and always attracts dense throngs to the shopping districts. The new tiny baby camel and the little lion cubs will be displayed in the parade and once the children see these features, they will probably have eyes for nothing else. The show exhibits Saturday, May 1, at Oregon City.

Mrs. Mary E. Pressey.
 Mrs. Mary E. Pressey died at 5:15 o'clock Sunday afternoon in West Oregon City, of acute pulmonary tuberculosis, after an illness of only three weeks. She was born in Jefferson, Kan., March 15, 1871, and is survived by a husband, Arthur Pressey, and a daughter, aged two years and three months. The funeral took place Tuesday morning, May 4, at 2 P. M., and Mrs. Ira H. Cox, of Jefferson, Kan., were due to reach Oregon City Sunday morning, but evidently were delayed on the road. W. A. Indian Martha Dead.
 Martha Jane, an aged Indian woman, was buried Friday afternoon in Mountain View cemetery. She was about 70 years of age and was one of the well known characters of the Indian village south of the city. Martha was the wife of "Soosap" or Joe Andrews and was married to him about 40 years ago. She was born in Jacksonville, Or., and was a member of the Rogue River tribe about five years ago when she became totally blind by an attack of Job Gardner, who was sentenced to serve 20 years in the penitentiary, and who has since been transferred to the insane asylum.

Aaron Berry, a Recluse.

The interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. Dye has donated five autograph copies of "McLoughlin and Old Oregon" to be sold for the McLoughlin House Fund. This popular book now in its seventh edition, holds its own as the favorite story of Old Oregon.

ALL DISTRESS FROM STOMACH VANISHES

INDIGESTION AND DYSPEPSIA MISERY UNTIL FIVE MINUTES LATER.

Take your sour stomach—or maybe you call it Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gastritis or Catarrh of Stomach; it doesn't matter—take your stomach trouble right with you to your Pharmacist and ask him to open a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and let you eat one 22-grain Triangule and see if within five minutes there is left any track of your stomach misery.

The correct name for your trouble is Food Fermentation—food souring; the Digestive organs become weak; there is lack of gastric juice; your food is only half digested and you become affected with loss of appetite, pressure and fullness after eating, vomiting, nausea, heartburn, griping in bowels, tenderness in the pit of stomach, bad taste in mouth, constipation, pain in limbs, sleeplessness, belching of gas, biliousness, sick headache, nervousness, dizziness and many other similar symptoms.

If your appetite is feeble, and nothing tempts you, or you belch gas, or if you feel bloated after eating, or your food lies like a lump of lead on your stomach, you can make up your mind that at the bottom of all this there is but one cause—fermentation of undigested food.

Prove to yourself, after your next meal, that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop the fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or misery.

Almost instant relief is waiting for you. It is merely a matter of how soon you take a little Diapepsin.

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

Those who have news for the Milwaukee department of the Enterprise should either mail it to the Milwaukee Editor of the Enterprise at Oregon City or leave it at the real estate and insurance office of A. H. Dowling in Milwaukee, or with Justice of the Peace Kelso.

MILWAUKEE.

James I. Johnson, of this city, went to Oregon City Wednesday. Mrs. Solomon was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

George J. Hall, manager of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company of Clackamas County, was in Milwaukee this week on business in connection with the telephone company.

Mrs. M. N. Millard, of Portland, was in Milwaukee Wednesday. Mrs. Millard states that her family will have a summer residence here, and expects to move here in a few weeks.

Building Notes.
 The cottage on Washington street that is being erected by R. V. Oxier, is nearing completion, and is one of the attractive cottages that have been erected in Milwaukee this year. On this street are several other attractive houses that have been built to rent.

The contract for the building on the property of Mrs. S. V. Luelling has been awarded to B. Tscherner, of this city. The building to be erected by Mrs. Luelling will be 50x50 feet, and will be of one story, to consist of two store rooms, one of which will be occupied by Mr. Kelly, of Portland, who has taken a five years' lease. Mr. Kelly will carry a full line of hardware. The concrete foundation has already been started, and the building will be pushed along as rapidly as possible.

The Milwaukee Bank building, which is to be erected close by, will soon be under way. The contract is to be awarded this week. The architect is R. Chapell Brown, who was also architect for the Milwaukee school building.

Lehman Brothers' meat market has been undergoing repairs. A new and attractive glass front has been added, and other improvements made.

An addition to the W. O. W. building is to be constructed, and the building will be double in size. The contract for this work has not yet been awarded, but will probably be done so this week.

Plans are being made for the enlarging of the Evangelical church and parsonage, which will probably be done in the near future. The church has grown in membership so that it is found necessary to make room for those who wish to attend. The church building at present accommodates about 300 people, and with the Sunday school pupils and members of the church it is found that the church is too small.

ington County, where he will remain for a few months. The property belonging to Postmaster Ralph Ganiard has been sold to George W. McBride. The property is very desirable, situated on Kellogg Lake, and consists of over an acre of ground.

A. H. Dowling, the real estate dealer, states that many inquiries are coming in regard to the property in and near Milwaukee, and he has several deals on hand, which will probably be closed up within a few days. With the new railroad coming into Milwaukee, this will have a tendency to bring more people to this place.

Mr. Dowling is negotiating with several parties, who are contemplating buying in Portland, and two large deals are on hand, which they think will be closed by the latter part of the week. There is a good demand for land near Milwaukee, and the real estate people here are in communication with several Easterners, who are contemplating to come west.

The May Club has issued invitations for the first dancing party to be given in the city hall on Monday, May 3. An excellent orchestra has been engaged for the occasion.

J. I. Johnson, of Minthorn, will install a water system on the east side of the Southern Pacific track, to supply water to the people of Minthorn, and East Milwaukee. The reservoir will be located on Mr. Johnson's property on Minthorn Heights. It will also be used to water the Reid tract.

Mr. Johnson will apply for a franchise at the next meeting of the city council, and no doubt it will be granted, as the water is badly needed in that part of the city. The water will be pumped from the Minthorn Springs and is considered by those who have used it to be the finest water in the state. A gasoline engine will be used to pump the water. By installing this water system at Minthorn, it will be an immense benefit to that part of the county. Minthorn is a most desirable place for a summer home, and many lots have been disposed of within the past few months. Gibson's subdivision has just been placed on the market. This tract of land adjoins Minthorn on the northeast. The land is laid off in two-acre tracts, and is good property. The Johnson Realty Company is the agent at this place, and Rogers, Hart & Gibson are handling it in Portland.

Services at the Evangelical church will be held on Sunday, as follows: Morning prayer service, 10 o'clock; Sunday school, 11 o'clock; Young People's Alliance, 7 o'clock; The Women's Missionary Society will have charge of the evening service, and an excellent musical and literary program will be given. Prayer meeting on Thursday evening; teachers' meeting Friday evening. Rev. N. Shupp, pastor.

German church: Rev. A. F. Hillmer, pastor. Sunday school, 10 A. M.; morning service, 11 o'clock; evening service, 7:30.

Rev. N. Shupp, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is improving.

The Fifth Annual Convention of the Oregon Conference Branch Woman's Missionary Society Evangelical Association will convene at Tigardville, Oregon, May 3, 4, 5. The delegates from this city are Mrs. N. Shupp, president; Mrs. M. L. Roberts, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. Shupp is on the programme, and her subject will be "Does it Pay?" Rev. Shupp, who preached the annual sermon at this convention, which convened at Salem last year, will be unable to attend the meeting to be held at Tigardville.

installed as soon as possible. The telephone lines have been built of new material and about 450 cedar posts have been set from the O. W. P. of the Oregon City line to the O. W. P. to Estacada, and it is probable that the line will be extended to Clackamas. It will also be connected with the Oak Grove exchange. The Company will connect with the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Company at Portland and will also be in connection with the long distance at Mil-

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown and Allen, Sr., spent Monday in Portland. Mr. Spooner has been quite ill at his home. He contracted the grippe while in Seattle from which he has not fully recovered, he being confined to his home a greater part of the time since his return.

Miss Mabel Morse, accompanied by Miss Nettie Kruse, attended the play "The Union Depot" in Oregon City last week.

On Friday Miss Vivian Spooner, of Portland, came out for a visit with her grandparents, at this place. Mr. Carmichael was taken suddenly ill in Portland on Sunday and has been confined to his home since.

Mr. and Mrs. Spaulding, of Center, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Evans at the Maples last week.

Rev. Shupp, who has suffered much pain with an attack of inflammatory rheumatism, is able to be up about his room again and his many friends here are hoping for a speedy recovery. In his absence, Mrs. Shupp gave a very interesting talk at the chapel on Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Shupp is a delightful speaker and the most marked attention was given to her talk.

J. C. McMonigal has decided to enlarge his barn. At present he is building a modern hen house at the country home of Judge Bronaugh. Mr. Bronaugh is having his house painted, our well known painter, Mr. Hart, doing the work.

Mrs. Beckner, Miss Susie Smith, Miss Nettie Rice, Messrs. Will Miller, Clarence Beckner, Elmer Boardman, Gilbert, Henry and Dannie Smith and Lloyd Rice.

Mrs. Labonwich and son of Portland, visited at Mrs. Terry's on Monday.
