COURTS ORGANIZE.

County Judge J. B. Messick of Baker County, upon the request of several county courts of the state, has issued a call for a state meeting of the County Courts and County Commissioners, at which it is expected to perfect a state organization similar to those existing in other states. Judge Lionel R. Webster, of Multnomah County, will act as Chairman of the Reception Committee, with power to name his associates. The gathering will convene at the Convention Hall of the Portland Commercial Club (6th floor) at ten o'clock Tuesday morning, June 7th, and continue through the day. An arrangement has been made for the County Courts and Judges to secure a point of vantage to witness the Rose Festival Parade Monday night and also the one Tuesday afternoon. Tuesday morning the convention will close its session, devoting the afternoon to the festivities. County Commissioners, Sheriffs and Engineers have received great benefit from their organizations throughout the entire United States, and it is certainly hoped that the County Courts and County Commissioners, who practically handle the public affairs of each county, should get together for the benefit of each other's experience.

THE TARIFF BILL.

The most important development of the sixth week of the tariff Congress was the semi-official announcement at the White House that the President was not disposed to urge the adoption of any special form of taxation. The President, it is announced, has let it be known that he is satisfied with the Aldrich plan of testing the revenue producing powers of the Senate bill during the six months intervening between its passage and the beginning of the actual work of the next regular session, with a view, however, to urging additional revenue producing legislation at that time if the Aldrich estimates proved over-optimistic. It is to be hoped that the bill will fulfill all of Mr. Aldrich's expectations for it—but, like the President, we doubt it.

Without regard to the exact spot in which they may reside, Oregon people are beginning to realize fully the tremendous benefit of the Annual Rose Festival, which this year begins June 7th, continuing until the 12th. This Festival emphasizes to people at a distance the extremely favorable climatic conditions which make possible the production of the finest roses in the world.

"Raise more hogs and get more wealth by sending the Oregon Brand of packing house products to every market of the world" is a motto that should be announced from every school and pulpit, and be emblazoned on the walls of every commercial organization in the state.

Oregonians don't wish anybody hard luck, but they never get sufficiently sympathetic, when the fruit crop falls in the older states, to "mark down" the price at which we "hold up" the balance of the world for its best apples.

The Horse and Cattle Sale in Portland has opened the eyes of livestock breeders in every part of the United States and Canada to the fact that Oregon is the best market for good things in that line in the United States.

REFUSE $300 TO OLD HOME

COUNCIL DECLINES FINANCIAL AID IN PRESERVATION OF McLOUGHLIN HOME

Notwithstanding the efforts and speeches of Rev. A. Hillebrand, George A. Harding, E. G. Casfield, Mayor Carl C. D. Latourette and George Randall, the council Wednesday night declined to make an appropriation to assist in the preservation of the historic home of Dr. John McLoughlin, who founded Oregon City. Councilmen Cooke and Michels were the only men to vote for an appropriation of $300, which was requested with the understanding that $700 be raised by subscription, making a total of $1000.

CITY HAS ECONOMIC STREAK AND WILL NOT APPROPRIATE FUNDS TO HONOR MEMORY OF FATHER OF OREGON.

The council, however, will give the building, which was presented to the city by W. P. Hawley, of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, and will permit the old home to be placed on the city park block at the head of Seventh street stairway. The property was given to the city by Dr. McLoughlin. Councilmen Cooke, Knapp and Strickland were named as a committee to select the exact spot where the structure shall stand. The finance committee produced estimates of the cost of moving the building from its present location on South Main street to the permanent home on the hill. The cost will be about $600. Friends of the movement to preserve the home will go to work actively to secure funds to finance the proposition.

HERBERT O. INSKEEP IS DEAD AT CARUS

Herbert O. Inskeep, who died last Thursday at his home in Carus, was born in Shocketon County, Ohio, in 1849, and his age was 59 years, 7 months and 29 days. He came to Oregon in 1875 and on July 2, 1877 was married to Miss Minnie Hornshuh. Mr. Inskeep lived in Oregon City for a number of years and then went to British Columbia, and from there he went to Nevada County, Cal., returning to Oregon 22 years ago. He lived in this city six years and then bought a farm at Carus, residing there until his death. Mr. Inskeep took an active interest in county politics. He was a Republican until the wave of populism struck this state and he became a candidate for representative in the legislature on the Peoples Party ticket. Later he returned to the Republican fold. He is survived by a widow, one daughter, Mrs. Emma Davis, of Carus, and three sons, Thomas L., Chester A., and J. W. Inskeep, of Portland. The funeral took place Saturday morning at Carus and was one of the largest funerals ever held in Clackamas County. Mr. Inskeep was universally respected and had many friends.

The following lines were written by a friend of the Inskeep family:
Worn by the toil of the years,
Over a pathway of pain,
He has gone to his rest
In the land of the blest,
Never to suffer again.

We miss him, yet we are glad
That he from sorrow is free,
In the Land of the Laid,
We know and we can feel
He will love us tenderly.

His soul was full of sweet song,
Pure as the notes of a bird;
And through trouble and pain
You could hear his refrain,
The sweetest, mortal e'er heard.

To sleep we lay him today,
And over his grave the sod
Shall cherish a rose,
Like a spirit that grows
Close, close by the throne of God.

JUNE AND THE NEWLYWEDS BUT MAY WAS NAMED FOR AND DEDICATED TO GAIN AND MONEY SHOULD BE COMPARATIVELY ABUNDANT AND BUSINESS GOOD.

(Copyright 1909, by C. H. Rieth.)

The shades of night were falling fast
As through the Afric jungle passed
A wounded lion, badly hit
And followed by a crowd, to-wit:
One ox-President,
Four trackers,
One water boy,
Three photographers,
Two stenographers,
One taxidermist,
Two skimmers,
One ammunition wagon,
And 400 bushbeaters.

At length the lion reached his lair,
Backed into it in deep despair,
And vowed so long as life was his
To fight, though sorely wounded, viz:
One leg shattered,
Two knife slashes on back,
Four ribs kicked in,
One dum-dum bullet in head,
Two steel-dum bullets in body,
One ear blown off,
And bitten through the wind-pipe.

The shouting and the tumult grew,
The angry bullets spat and flew,
And when the king of beasts was not
The following fireworks were shot:
Six skyrocket,
Two flowerpots,
One spittoon,
Four Roman candles,
Three Booker Washington chasers,
Two medium-stated bombs,
And one son-of-a-gun.

May gets its name from Maia, who was the mother of Mercury, the Roman god of prosperity. If business is going to improve at all, it will do so under this favorable sign, for May was named for and dedicated to gain, and during its thirty-one days business has usually been good and money comparatively abundant.

In addition to Mercury's temple in Rome, an altar was raised to him over a well near the Porta Capena, and here the merchants repaired on the festival of the god (May 25) to sprinkle their gods with the waters of the well, that they might be purified and yield a big profit. This was the origin of watering stocks, and even to this time the 25th of May is a holiday in Wall street and the New Jersey legislature.

Wako me early, mother darling, at the breaking of the day, for I'm to be queen of the May, mother, I'm to be queen of the May. I have the bonnet, mother—it's the rangest ever seen, and you bet your bottom dollar it's the bonnet makes the queen. It has the seeming, mother, of a coal-hod upside down, with the spout projecting backwards from the flower-covered crown, while the circling hair upon it passes underneath my chin, wako me early, I am crazy for the voting to begin.

The meadowlark will warble, and the apple tree will bloom, the frog will woo his true love with his melancholy boom, the barefoot boy will issue his spring challenge to the tack, the lamb will frisk and gambol like a jack-knife in the back, the playful winds will frolic in the fields of waving green, and the terrible mosquito press his face against the screen.

Come out into the garden Maude, the vines begin to run, and the seed our Congressman sent out are sprouting every one. The gumbo and the oyster plant are seven inches high, and the mint (I wonder does he know the state has voted dry? A congressman in Washington can keep his pants on even if his state is dry, he's likely to forget.) However that may be, the squash was never looking fatter, and the first fruit of his seven terms is threatening the platter.

The news from Washington will be what it has always been, since Roosevelt stepped down and Linn and Taft was ushered in. The capital will rise at 8. Get up for lunch at noon and go to bed at 10. Arise at 5, stay up till 8. And finally retire, and there will not be a dog-gone thing To put upon the wire.

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

German Church—Rev. A. F. Hilmer, pastor. Morning service, 11 o'clock; Sunday school 10 o'clock; evening service, 7:30 o'clock. All are welcome. John Connell, a woodcutter, was on Wednesday taken in charge by Justice of the Peace Kelso, and brought to Oregon City by W. E. Kelso and J. C. Elkins, where they turned him over to Sheriff Beattie. Connell was examined as to his sanity, and taken to the asylum. The man has shown a bad disposition of late, and has on several occasions threatened to shoot up the town. Mr. Craig, of Sellwood, who is engaged in hauling wood about three-quarters of a mile from the city, was met by Connell, who was carrying a stick of wood on his shoulder. Mr. Craig, who had left his team in the road, was on his way to look after some wood close by. Connell, with a revolver in his pocket, which he leveled at the latter's head. The shot went wild, and before he could fire another the weapon was taken away from him. Mr. Craig swore out a complaint to the man's arrest, and now considers himself a lucky man in having such a narrow escape.

W. H. Council, road supervisor, was in Oregon City on a business trip Wednesday. Colonel Eddy, the right-of-way man of the Southern Pacific, was in Milwaukee Wednesday on business connected with the new railroad. Mr. Eddy was very successful in negotiating with property owners, and expects to close up the deals the latter part of the week.

T. R. A. Sellwood was one of the Oregon City visitors Wednesday. J. W. James is to erect a cottage on his property. The foundation has been constructed.

The frame work of the new store building that is to be erected on the property of Mrs. Lewelling, is up, and the men are rushing the work along as rapidly as possible.

The contract for the bank building has been awarded to Toats & Moran. The workmen are busily engaged in building the cement foundation. The building was completed on Friday at the handsomest bank buildings in Clackamas county, the cost of which, when furnished, will be about $15,000.

J. Redaway, of Oregon City, is spending a few days with his daughter, Mrs. J. C. Elkins.

Rev. Shupp returned from Portland Tuesday, after spending a few days there. Rev. Shupp is still suffering with inflammatory rheumatism.

The Milwaukee band gave an entertainment at its hall on Tuesday evening in honor of one of the members. The early part of the evening was devoted to a musical programme and followed by refreshments and dancing.

Lehman Brothers' meat market has been greatly improved in appearance by having a new glass front, the work being done by Peter Davis, of this city.

Kerr & Shindler have been awarded the contract for the construction of the new O. W. building. By enlarging this building it will enable Mr. Wisinger, who conducts the store on the ground floor, to carry a larger stock.

David and E. McConnell have purchased eight lots in Minthorn from Mrs. I. B. Irwin, the deal having been made through the Johnson Realty Company. The land just purchased by the McConnells will be improved.

Mrs. N. Shupp, Mrs. John Miller and Mrs. M. L. Roberts, returned on Thursday from Tigardville, where they had been in attendance at the Fifth Annual Convention of the Oregon Conference Branch Woman's Missionary Society Evangelical Association. The delegates report a most successful meeting and a good attendance.

Milwaukee Grange will hold its regular meeting in the Grange hall on Friday evening, May 7.

Services will be held at the Evangelical Church on Sunday as follows: Morning prayer and sermon, 10:00 o'clock; Sunday school, 11 o'clock; Y. P. S. 7 o'clock; evening prayer and sermon, 8 o'clock. Rev. N. Shupp, pastor.

The services held in the Evangelical church on last Sunday evening was attended by a large congregation. The programme in charge of the Women's Missionary Society was well carried out, especially the recitation, "Tell the Old Old Story," by Master Iraldo Ross. The boy, who is only 10 years of age, has a wonderful memory, and the manner in which he gave the poem brought tears to many eyes.

Until the 20th May will be under the zodiacal sign of Taurus the Bull. Mr. Roosevelt will by this time have reached the Albertine basin, and the influence of Taurus will cause him to do a good deal of roaring. The lions and other fairly good roars will compete with him a while, but after they have heard him roar two or three times they will bust up a good deal of brush getting on the other side of the Congo.

People born under Taurus have very intricate minds, and they understand the tariff debate. They are unerring in love, and generally marry their affinites at the outset. There is a natural attraction between persons born under opposite signs of the zodiac, and a Taurus man usually marries a Scorpio woman, or that is, being born in May, he marries a woman born in October. This is said to be a natural match, or one in which the chance of divorce is reduced to the minimum.

The password for May will be Lions, and the storm center for the month will be in Uganda. The first shipment of skins will arrive about the 25th, and anybody wishing one can have it by subscribing to Scribner's Magazine and The Outlook.

Mr. G. M. Shaver and daughter, Miss Arline, drove to Viola on Wednesday. Mrs. Pease of Portland and Mrs. Gray of Montavilla spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jacobs.

W. E. Becker leaves this week for Baker City, Oregon where he goes to install the new dredge for the Hammond Manufacturing Co., which he has been superintending the building of in South Portland this spring.

Gilbert Smith purchased a bronco which he is breaking for the saddle. Mr. Rice and Miss Nellie attended the funeral of the late Miss Jennie Millar in Vancouver on Wednesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Doyle of Portland attended the services at the chapel on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Rice attended a very pretty wedding at the home of Mrs. Harry Adams in East Portland, when Miss Edna Mae Pincus and Dr. Newton Mac Lafferty were united in marriage at 8:30 o'clock on Wednesday evening April 29.

On Friday Miss Bronie Jennings had planned a May surprise for her pupils. The children on arriving at the school room found a most beautiful school room decorated with gladioli and ferns from the woods. Mr. Finley gave a very interesting talk on the birds that live around us and showed a number of pictures and describing how they live and their use to the farmer. Miss Monta Maegly of Portland rendered a piano solo and the pupils recited some memory games and sang songs and a delightful hour was passed. The guests were Mrs. Rolthe, Mr. Finley, Miss Maza Rough, Miss Monta Maegly, of Portland, Mr. Ross and Miss Lottie Zimmerman have also visited the school recently.

Miss Mable Morse stenographer at the Longart Millinery store in Portland had a three days vacation last week.

Mr. Carmichael, who has been on the sick list for over a week resumed his work again Monday.

J. J. Morris of Newberg, Oregon was calling on old friends during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morse enjoyed a visit from her sister, Mrs. Harriet Mendenhall, their nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cousins and daughter Harriet. Mr. and Mrs. Cousins have recently returned from Pölsch, Idaho and will make Portland their home.

Miss Ella Rose spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rose.

Will Millar returned from Vancouver Friday, where he had been called to attend the funeral of his sister.

Wright Lewis returned to his work after spending Sunday with his parents at Montavilla.

Stone Gables, the home of Hon. and Mrs. H. H. Emmons, on the Willamette was again the scene of a delightful gathering in the form of a May party which was given by the Women's Club of this place. The parlors, reception rooms, veranda and spacious lawns were very prettily decorated with all kinds of lanterns and flowers that were suggestive of May day and bonfires were lighted and a merry throng of one hundred and seventy five of some of the prominent people from Oregon City, Portland and Gladstone enjoyed themselves among the trees, the swings and the "trotters" and in the cozy corners of the house or at the refreshment booths. One of the features of the evening was the May pole dance which was chaperoned by Miss Ellen Brown and eighteen lads and eighteen lassies went through the dance to the music of the graphophone, the children did well and were heartily applauded.

The Japanese booth was very pretty with Japanese lanterns, parasols and fans, where cake and tea were served and was presided over by Misses Morse, Helen Palnton and Annie Gardner in Japanese costume poured tea.

The Colonial booth was in the artistic cobblestone house and was very prettily decorated with flags, bunting and pictures of people who took part in the affairs of our country in colonial times. Mrs. Morse, dressed as a matron of colonial times, had charge of this booth and was assisted by Miss Arline at a colonial belle and also by Mrs. Fred Terry. A New England supper was served here.

Miss Susie Smith, as a Dutch maid, sold sauer kraut. The booth that seemed to be the center of attraction for the evening was the gypsy tent beside the fire-place in the parlour, and many other pleasant moments as Mrs. J. B. Evans, in costume, told the fortunes of the young people present. Mr. Manson Hove furnished music on the banjo as the young people tipped the light fantastic on the front veranda for an hour. Mrs. Jack of Oregon City, Miss Williams of Gladstone, Miss Cavalline of Portland and Miss Ethel Beals of Tacoma Washington captured the Maybaskets.

Those who took part in the May pole dance were: Annie Gardner, Fern and Ethel Hart, Allen and Sybil Brown, Arthur and Bessie Roberts, Harold and Jennie Pratt, Theodore, Crate and Ester Reeves Reginald Ross, Grace Rose, Fanny Smith, Doris Plating, Fern and Minnie Hoobes.

And one more entertainment, a success socially and financially, has been given by the Women's Club and Mr. and Mrs. Emmons are such delightful entertainers that whenever a social is given at their home a large number avail themselves of the pleasure of being present.

Mrs. Harriet Emmons entertained Mrs. Charles Overhauser and Mrs. Charles Dewey of Piedmont at a very pretty luncheon on Thursday of last week. On Sunday Mrs. Thompson and children of Portland spent the day at the Emmons home.

William Finley of this place lectured at the White Temple on Wednesday evening of last week. His subject being "The Trail of the Plume Hunter" and a large number of Portland people as well as those of the suburbs gathered to hear the truth of the matter about killing birds for plumage.

The women in particular were very much interested as the Women's Club passed a resolution last year for the discontinuance of wearing algrettes, because in order to procure this plume of heron the parent birds are slaughtered and the young birds are left to die alone in their nests. The purpose of Mr. Finley's lecture was to give a more general understanding concerning the plumage of native birds and concerning the slaughter that has been going on for many years in this state to supply the milliners of New York and Paris. Mr. Finley has over six thousand negatives and has spent the greater part of the past ten years up and down the Pacific coast, and as a lecturer he talks very interestingly because his experiences are a part of his life.

E. J. Boys shipped his car load of furniture to Kelso, Washington on Friday.

H. H. Emmons spent two days in Tacoma last week.

Let Dowling sell your property.

OAK GROVE.
The M. W. A. social and dance was decided a success. The programme was as follows: Fancy drill given by the Oregon Fir camp; piano solo, Margaret Warner; vocal solo, Miss Jessie Spidell; remarks by Chief Forester Henderson; recitation, Master James Spidell, and a vocal solo by Miss Spaulding. There was a large attendance from Oak Grove and also a number from the Portland lodges.

The fourth in the series of entertainments given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Oak Grove M. E. Church, was held in Green's Hall Friday evening, April 29. The opening piece on the programme was a piano solo by Miss Ethel Barkdale, followed by a reading from Miss Johnston. These young ladies were both from Portland. Piano solo, Miss Felix; recitation by Miss M. Bible.

Warren and Armstrong have started on the new blacksmith shop on the corner of Lee avenue and Center street. When completed the building will be occupied by Mr. Pierson, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gilbert have moved from the telephone office to their new home on Cedar avenue. Miss Bertha Bunell and Miss Ruth Vigils are running the switch board in Mrs. Gilbert's place.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen have returned from their extended trip east. They report having a fine time.

The Oak Grove Jr. baseball team defeated the Sellwood team Sunday, May 21, by a score of 12 to 4.

MELDRUM.
Mr. Moran's family have moved into their pretty home and he is plowing the land around the house and digging a well.

F. E. West, of Dundee, Oregon, was visiting Alex Gill Monday and stayed until Tuesday. Mr. Gill and Mr. West were old friends back in Minnesota.

Mr. Segley went to Independence Sunday to a company home Mrs. Seely from a week of pleasure spent with friends.

George Steele and wife were visiting Mr. Meldrum Sunday.

Mrs. S. B. Miller and her son, Billy Miller were visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Pickered, of Sellwood, on Sunday. W. M. Gardner is planning a fishing trip to White Salmon Friday. Mr. Gardner intends to be gone about a week.

Mrs. Goldsmith and daughter, Sadie, were making calls around Meldrum last week.

Mr. Powers' house is progressing nicely and he hopes to move in soon. Mrs. V. A. Freytag and daughter, Eva were visiting Mrs. W. M. Gardner Wednesday evening.

W. M. Gardner attended the Commercial Club entertainment and reported a good time.

Charley Betz has tomato plants almost ready to bear.

S. B. Miller is planning to go to Tillamook in about two weeks.

JENNINGS LODGE.
Mr. G. M. Shaver and daughter, Miss Arline, drove to Viola on Wednesday.

Mrs. Pease of Portland and Mrs. Gray of Montavilla spent Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Jacobs.
