The fortnightly meeting of the Berwick Club was held Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Leslie L. Porter in West Oregon City. "Gottterdammerung," the last of the Ring operas, was the study for the afternoon and the story was read by Mrs. Leonard L. Pickens. The motifs were played by Mrs. Porter and notes, Theodor Omandt, Mrs. Leonard L. Pickens, Mrs. John W. Loder, Mrs. Charles H. Caudfield, Mrs. Walter A. Dimick, Mrs. John W. Moffett, Mrs. E. A. Sommer, Mrs. George A. Harding, Mrs. C. O. T. Williams, Mrs. Ross Chapman, Mrs. Lewellyn Adams, Mrs. Leslie L. Porter, Miss Essie Block.

The Artisans held their social meeting Thursday night, and it was a very successful affair. The entertainment was in charge of Mrs. B. F. Linn and Miss Lillie Trembath. The hall was decorated with dogwood blossoms and lilacs. One of the features was the selling of the baskets containing refreshments. The music for the dancing was furnished by the Artisan orchestra.

The following program was given: Duet, "Smarty," Laverne Brooks and Carbon Peters, of Portland; recitation, Walter White; reading, Phillip J. Sinnott; piano solo, Miss Hazel Peterson; recitation, Opal Bains; vocal solo, Violet Beaulieu; duet, Mrs. W. C. Green and Mrs. E. H. Cooper; duet, Woodfin girls. Every number was well rendered, all those participating receiving encores.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Marjorie Gates at her home Monday night, in honor of her birthday. A number of her friends assembled, and a pleasant evening was spent in playing games, music and sociability. Miss Gates was the recipient of many presents. Later in the evening the guests were served with a splendid dinner. Those present were: Miss Mabel Francis, Miss Hazel Francis, Miss Yada Elliott, Miss Ella White, Miss Lena Torrance, Miss Carrie Lutz, Miss Bertha Koerner, Miss Marjorie Gates, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reed, Phillip J. Sinnott, Rollie Smith, Carl Nehren, Oscar Woodfin, Bob Krueger, Otto Miller, Dick Brandt, Henry Brandt, Charles Gates and Lloyd Riches.

County School Superintendent T. J. Gary and bride were most pleasantly surprised Friday night at their home at Willamette by 14 of Mrs. Gary's former pupils from Milwaukie. Mr. Gary was presented with a beautiful silver loving cup from 40 of his old students and the gift to Mrs. Gary was a handsome set of Bavarian glass. Those who came from Milwaukie to surprise their former teacher were: Miss Pearl S. Wisliger, Mrs. Julia W. Hoelsy, Miss Rosa Tscherner, Miss Mary Bass, Miss Hulda Birkemeier, Miss Johanna Kiel, Arthur Dowling, Leslie Harlow, Joseph Kiel, Paul Kiel, Paul Boss Fred Birkemeier, Arthur, Arthur Lehman and Leo Johnson.

A pleasant surprise was given Miss Edna Holman Friday evening when a number of her schoolmates assembled at her home. Games were played and music given and the young folks enjoyed a genuine good old time. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present were: Misses Nora Tobin, Olive Flaggler, Lillie Long, Anna Jones, Ella Long, Nellie Long, Dora Long, Edna Holman, Lessee Durbett, Theodore Marley, Gilbert Morris, Albert Fredericks, Glen Gort, Irwin Goetting, Henry Lewis, Roland Forsberg and Frank Howard.

The sale of tickets for the Bachelor Girls dancing party to be given this Friday evening at the Armory for the purpose of raising funds to assist in defraying the expenses of moving the McLoughlin home to a permanent site, has been large, and a large attendance at the affair is assured. The young ladies have entered heartily into the charitable project and are being met with a ready response.

Miss Maud Moran entertained the Salamagundies at her home at Mel-drum Friday evening. Among the features of the evening was a huge bonfire, around which the girls gathered, singing merry songs and telling weird ghost tales. Dainty refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hughes, 680 Bidwell Avenue, Portland, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Daisy, to John L. Etchings, of Oregon City. The wedding will take place in July.

The social dance given Saturday night at the Armory by Milton Price and Augustus was a decided success. Farmer's orchestra furnished the music and a large number of couples were present.

RAILROAD HEARING JUNE 5.

Lumber Manufacturers Demand Better Shipping Facilities.

The State Railroad Commission has set Saturday, June 5, in this city, as the day for hearing the complaints of practically all of the lumber manufacturers in Clackamas County against the Southern Pacific Company. It is contended that adequate facilities for shipping lumber in carload lots are not maintained at Oregon City, and the lumbermen seek to compel the railroad company to establish such facilities. The sawmill people are represented by Attorney George C. Brownell. It is probable that the hearing will continue for several days.

FINED FOR DISORDERLY CONDUCT.

Gus Wineaset and Louisa Farris, the latter an Indian, who were charged with disorderly conduct, were fined $20 each Tuesday by Recorder Dimick, and the woman was escorted out of the city. The pair were arrested last Saturday night by Officers Miles and Cooke and have been lodged in the city jail. The woman is the wife of Albert Farris, who was last month sent to the penitentiary for burglary.

FIELD MEET SATURDAY.

Great Day for School Boys Will Close With Literary Contest.

The executive committee of the Clackamas School League met Monday afternoon in the secretary's room of the Commercial club. It was decided to hold the literary contest in the Congregational church on the evening of Saturday, May 22. A program was arranged and it was decided to hold the election of officers before the exercises. The president was empowered to appoint the officers of the day for the field meet. Very little else was done. A full list of the schools to take part in the field meet is not complete, but among them will be Willamette, West Side, Clackamas, Oswego, Milwaukie, Molalla, Eastham and Barclay. About six schools will enter the literary contest in the evening. The baseball game in the afternoon will be played by Molalla and Willamette and will be a hot old game.

DAN SHANNON AGAIN

Evangelist Expects to Convert Strawberry pickers.

Dan Shannon, the evangelist, after a week's meeting at Hood River, is still besieging that city and valley and expects to remain to try to convert the strawberry pickers who are soon expected to flock to the valley.

Word has been received that 100 or more converts that the fighting evangelist made at Vancouver Washington will charter a steamer some time this week and come to Hood River to assist him in holding a reunion service, which is expected to create greater interest in his work here.

Two Teachers Off Duty.

Miss Ida Mae Smith, a teacher in the city schools, was called to Salem Monday night by the illness of her mother. Her place is being filled by Miss Charles Zumwalt. Miss Edith Karr, teacher of the fifth grade in the Barclay building, is ill at the Perkins Hotel at Portland, and Miss Neeta Harding, the supernumerary teacher, is filling the vacancy. Miss Karr was unable to return to her school on her Hood River excursion last Saturday. She may have measles.

Soliciting Fair Premiums.

A. J. Lewis and O. E. Freytag have started on the work of soliciting premiums for the annual Clackamas County Fair, which will be held next Fall at Canby. They went to Portland Monday morning.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Oregon City Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty.

When they fail to do this the kidneys are sick and many kidney ills follow: Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. H. R. McCarver, living at 286 Holiday St., Portland, Or., says: "Some years ago Doan's Kidney Pills proved of great benefit to me and I publicly recommended them. Since that time I have advised many of my fellow workmen to give them a trial and the results of their use have been satisfactory in every instance. I believe kidney trouble in my case was brought on by a cold I contracted. I had backaches and other marked symptoms of disordered kidneys. I had always been somewhat skeptical regarding proprietary medicines, but somehow remedy and I began its use. Relief followed and I began to feel better. Plenty more proof like this from Oregon City people. Call at Huntley Bros' drug store and ask what their customers report."

For sale by dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Do You Drink?

And what do you drink? Breakfast Coffee or Breakfast Tea? A strong after-dinner Coffee is just the thing some big, robust men like for their breakfast, but we wouldn't ordinarily give it to you for breakfast unless you asked for it. Some people wouldn't use it at all—one woman told us that it is "black as ink and strong as lye." That is stretching it a bit, but it is, as a matter of fact, real genuine, black Coffee.

Tastes differ, and we have a fine selection of the best roasted berries to fit them all. We carry Costa Rica, Guatemalas, and Brazilian Coffees from 20 to 25 cents per pound to the best grades of Mocha and Java grades at 35 cents per pound or 3 pounds for $1.00.

DIES AT BELLINGHAM

HUSBAND OF WELL KNOWN AUTHOR WAS FORMERLY IN BUSINESS HERE.

Russell C. Higginson, who was the husband of Ella Higginson, a well known author, died Saturday at Bellingham, Wash., where he had resided since 1888. He was ill with pneumonia for 15 days and just as the danger point had passed complications of blood poisoning set in and Higginson died unexpectedly.

Mr. Higginson was formerly a resident of Oregon City and was in the drug business here in 1881. He was a descendant of Francis Higginson, one of the fathers and founders of New England. He was born 57 years ago at Chicago and when very young he went to New York to learn the insurance business. A few years later he gave up this venture and went to San Francisco. Later he lived in Baker City and La Grande. He was a prominent figure in realty circles in Bellingham and in with three other men, he built and owned the Clover Hotel. He was one of the first trustees of the Bellingham State Normal School. His widow, Mrs. Ella Higginson, is the author of several well known books, among them "Mariella, of Out West," and "Alaska." She also has written many successful serial stories and literary sketches for some of the leading magazines.

No children survive Mr. Higginson. His funeral was held Sunday afternoon at Bellingham.

GEO. D. RAMBO DEAD.

Resident of Fern Ridge Passes Away at Rainier.

George D. Rambo, a resident of Fern Ridge, Oregon City, who died suddenly at Rainier Friday night, was buried in Mountain View cemetery Sunday afternoon. The funeral services, in charge of Rev. R. C. Blackwell, were held at Holman & Myers' undertaking parlors at 1 o'clock. Many friends of the deceased attended the services.

Mr. Rambo, who was enjoying excellent health up to the time he bade his fellow workmen goodnight Friday morning, death having been due to heart disease. He had been working at Rainier only a short time. Deceased came to Oregon City about four years ago from Iowa, and he leaves besides a widow, the following children: Mrs. George Eldridge, of Elma, Wash.; Mrs. P. L. Peterson, of Summit, Wash.; Mrs. Tom Massey, of Portland; Mrs. James Kinder, of Sellwood; Hima, Otis, H. E. and W. B. Rambo, of Fern Ridge. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Reynolds, of Washington; and three brothers, Ed, Everett and John, of Elma, Wash., who were present at the funeral.

John N. Niles.

John N. Niles died May 7, in St. Vincent Hospital, Portland. Three years ago Mr. Niles came from Woodburn to Gladstone, and recently sold his home there and went to Portland only three weeks before his death. He had lived a consistent Christian life for a great many years, was a member of the Oregon City M. E. Church at the time of his death. He was a native of Maine. He leaves a wife, also a sister and brother in Diamond Bluff, Wis. Funeral was held Sunday and interment was made in Rose Hill cemetery.

John Labour's Will Probated.

The will of the late John Labour, who died a few weeks ago at Marquam, was admitted to probate Monday. A son of the deceased is the only heir. The will was made March 2, 1893, and the entire estate was left to Mrs. Labour, except the real estate consisting of two acres, lying south near Marquam and the Albright road. Mrs. Labour has been dead several years.

Isaac E. Rice.

Isaac E. Rice died Thursday at his home on Clackamas Heights, aged 64 years. He has no family, and had been ill several months. The funeral was held Friday at Clackamas Station.

Home Company Improves Service.

The Home Telephone Company has made an improvement in its long distance service between this city and Portland, by placing automatic dials in the local office. This will insure quick service. The Home Company has established free local service between Oregon City and Damascus, as an independent exchange has been established at the latter place.

EAGLE CREEK GRANGE.

County Judge Dimick Delivers An Instructive Address.

Eagle Creek Grange held a rousing and well attended rally, at the grange hall, Eagle Creek, Saturday, which was largely attended, delegations from all the neighboring granges being present. A good musical and literary programme was rendered, which included some well written papers on agriculture, education, domestic sciences and political economy.

County Judge Dimick and Deputy County Clerk W. L. Mulvey, of this city were present. Judge Dimick was the orator of the day and delivered an able, eloquent and instructive address, full of wit and humor, on county matters and taxes. He discussed road, bridge and school matters, and showed that none of the people's money had been misapplied along these lines, as the roads and bridges of the county are in better condition than those of any neighboring county, except Multnomah.

As to the general expense of running the machinery of the county government, he showed figures to prove that it has been run at a minimum cost, and according to the population, the tax levy of this county has been lower than those of counties adjoining.

A bountiful dinner was served by the ladies of the grange, and in the evening a grand ball was held. White-man's orchestra furnished the music, and there was a record crowd present.

GRADE ORDINANCES PASSED.

Improvement of Eleventh and Twelfth Streets Will Probably Follow.

The city council held a special meeting Monday night with all members present except Dr. M. C. Strickland, of the third ward. The council, by a unanimous vote, passed the ordinances establishing the grades of Eleventh and Twelfth streets. Notices for the improvements of these streets will probably follow. Councilmen Pope and Cooke were appointed as a committee to get estimates of the cost of a street sweeping apparatus and dumping cart, and report back to the council at the next meeting.

CAN EAT SAUSAGES AND FRESH BREAD

AND OTHER FAVORITE FOOD WITHOUT FEAR OF AN UP-SET STOMACH.

You can eat anything your stomach craves without fear of a case of indigestion or dyspepsia, or that your food will ferment or sour on your stomach if you will occasionally take a little Diapiesin after eating.

Your meals will taste good, and anything you eat will be digested; nothing can ferment or turn into acid or poison or stomach gas, which causes Belching, Distress, a feeling of fullness (like a lump of lead in stomach), Bloatingness, Heartburn, Waterbrash, Pain in stomach and intestines or other symptoms.

Headaches from the stomach are absolutely unknown where this effective remedy is used. Diapiesin really does all the work of a healthy stomach. It digests your meals when your stomach can't. Each triangle will digest all the food you can eat and leave nothing to ferment or sour.

Get a large 50-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin from your druggist and start taking today and by tomorrow you will actually brag about your healthy, strong Stomach, for you can eat anything and everything you want without the slightest discomfort or misery, and every particle of impurity and Gas that is in your stomach and intestines is going to be carried away without the use of laxatives or other assistance.
