WRIT OF MANDAMUS OBTAINED BY REED

MAYOR AND COUNCILMEN OF ESTACADA MUST CANVASS RECALL ELECTION VOTES.

In the Circuit Court here a writ of mandamus has been issued against Mayor Heyman and Councilmen J. F. Lovelace, C. F. Howe, William Dale, B. O. Boswell and A. Haven, of Estacada, directing them to appear at their usual place of meeting and hold a session of the council at 8 o'clock P. M. upon the same day as the writ shall be made returnable and proceed to canvass the returns of the special recall election that was held at Estacada Saturday, May 15. The mayor and council are ordered to answer within 15 days and show cause why it should not be made returnable.

TWO TICKETS IN FIELD.

Mayor Heyman Heads One and J. W. Reed the Other.

A caucus was held Saturday evening by citizens of Estacada and candidates nominated by petition for the offices of Mayor, five Councilmen, Recorder and assessor for the ensuing term, beginning July 1. The following candidates were nominated: For Mayor, J. W. Reed; Councilmen: First ward, L. E. Bellis; second ward, A. E. Sparks; third ward, Chas. Shuter; fourth ward, A. Lindsey; and fifth ward, W. D. Henthorn; recorder, E. S. Womer; and treasurer, R. H. Kinnard.

POWER PLANT AND SAWMILL

Fifty Men at Work Clearing Land Near Estacada.

The Portland Electric & Transmission Company has between 40 and 50 men at work clearing ground on its site, which is located about 1/2 mile west of Estacada, where it is proposed to construct a large power plant and sawmill. The work is assigned to various foremen and these are under the general superintendency of Frank Williams.

BORING

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Boring school in the opera house Friday night was thoroughly enjoyed by an assemblage that crowded the building to the doors. There are 70 pupils enrolled, most of whom took some part in the entertainment. There were only 2 in the graduating class, Truman Ritchie and Nora Meyers. After the literary part of the programme was over refreshments were served and the young people engaged in dancing and games. Miss Young, principal, returns to her home in Milwaukee, and Miss Cutter, assistant, to New York.

DAMASCUS AND ROCK CREEK

We are having beautiful weather of late, which fills everyone with vim to do a great deal of work, and there is plenty to do on the farm all summer.

EAGLE CREEK

Again we are enjoying fair weather. E. L. Palfrey, accompanied by Lee Bartlemay, made a business trip to Portland last week.

Alfred Hamilton, Harvey Schneider and Lawrence Craswell. The Gresham Concert Band was in attendance. The address of welcome was delivered by Alfred Hamilton; class history, Floyd Erz; class poem, Milton Erz; violin duet, Irvin Nobauer and Zea Nebauer; vaudeviolin, Lawrence Craswell; class will, Mathew Raay; solo, Marion Robertson; class prophecy, Harvey Schneider; class address, Napoleon Davis; presentation of diploma, Arnold Ruess; solo, Lottie Davis.

The conference will close Sunday. Mrs. N. Shupp, Mrs. M. L. Roberts and Miss Mable Miller went to Lents to attend the Conference.

There will be no morning or evening service in the Evangelical church on Sunday. Sunday school and Young People's Christian Endeavor Society will be held as usual.

The watering system that is being installed by J. L. Johnson on his place at Milburn is being pushed along at a rapid pace. The engine has been installed, the tower erected, and the pipes are on the grounds for laying.

At the Grange meeting Saturday a large attendance was present. The morning session was taken up with the regular routine of business, and was followed by a dinner served by the ladies of the Grange. In the afternoon a memorial service was held, and was conducted by the lecturer, Mrs. Maggie A. Johnson. The ceremony was very impressive and was in memory of the three departed members of the Grange, who passed away during the year. The decorations of the hall were white flowers. On the altar were three bouquets of snowballs, as a token of remembrance.

Mrs. Mary Walsh, Richard Scott and J. E. Casto, deceased, J. E. Casto was the organizer of the Grange at this place. Many friends of the deceased attended the exercises in their memory. The following programme was given: Invited, T. R. A. Sellwood, chaplain; "Remember the Dead" Grange; and "A Beautiful Soul," J. S. Holm; address, Captain James P. Shaw. Chaplain T. R. A. Sellwood, in his talk, touched on the life and work of Mrs. Walsh, Mr. Scott and Mr. Casto. A song, "The Golden Somewhere," Grange; Miss Ella Casto as organist, closed the programme.

Mrs. William Scott and baby, of Portland, had a narrow escape from death in their home a few days ago, while asleep in their home. The Scott family live in a flat, and it was early in the morning when Mr. Scott was awoken from his bed, and the cradle, in which the baby was lying, was completely overturned, the result of a gas explosion on the first floor. Mrs. Scott and baby were not injured, but their furniture in their rooms was completely demolished. Mr. Scott was away from home at the time. The family is visiting Mrs. Scott's parents in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Scott are well known here, the former being a son of Mrs. Richard Scott.

On Saturday night Otto Witte opened his beautiful summer resort for the season with a dancing party, followed by fireworks. The hall was well attended, and all who attended pronounce it a decided success. Mr. Witte always conducts the Crystal Lake resort in a most orderly way, and is a place where families can go and spend the day on Sunday and enjoy the band concerts that are given both afternoon and evening.

WATCHFUL MR. HUNKS. What He Heard About Himself Made His Hair Curl.

"THERE'S been a complaint about the telephone here," said the young man with the kit of tools under his arm, "and I've been sent to fix it."

Mrs. Hunks showed him where the telephone was, and he proceeded to remove the outer case and examine the mechanism.

"What are you doing here?" demanded Mr. Hunks, who happened in while he was at work.

"Repairing your telephone."

"Who sent you?"

"The telephone company. They told me your phone had been reported out of order."

"Where are your credentials?"

"My watch."

"Your credentials—your authority. How do I know you've been sent here to fix this telephone?"

"What else do you suppose I came for?"

"I don't know. Men work all sorts of schemes to get into people's houses nowadays."

"Think I came to steal something? Do I look like a thief?"

"Can't tell by a man's looks what he's up to."

"Well, you watch me, and if I do anything that looks like stealing, you stop me."

"Tightening up a screw or two, making sundry other adjustments and replacing the case, he lifted the receiver from the hook and placed it to his ear."

"Hello!" he said. "Give me the repair department. Hello! Repair department? This is Hoover. I'm at Flammner 4 double 1. Man here thinks I'm a thief. Tell him what I look like, will you? Here, mister, put this to your ear and listen."

Mr. Hunks complied.

The description he got of the young man was entirely satisfactory.

But what he heard about himself made his hair curl, and while he was listening to it the young man slipped out.—Chicago Tribune.

Chamberlain's Liniment. This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this Liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this Liniment. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

WHERE WORLD'S WORKS OF ART WILL BE HOUSED AT A-Y-P. EXPOSITION, SEATTLE.

In this building will be exhibited many priceless paintings. The display will represent the art galleries of the world, for many of these pictures will be the work of the old masters, including rare art exhibits from the Corcoran in Washington, the Art Museum in New York, the Chicago Art Institute and from a large number of private galleries of wealthy men in the United States and Europe, who have for years made the collection of famous old paintings their hobby. Paris and London have made large loans.

At the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition the selection of pictures will be limited to the works of men who have been recognized in the great art competitions in all parts of the world. Many American artists will be represented in the display in the Fine Arts Palace at the Exposition and arrangements have already been made for the shipping of these valuable paintings from art institutes of this country to Seattle.

G. L. Berg, art director of the Exposition, has visited all of the leading galleries of the United States, collecting the pictures suitable for display at Seattle, and writes that the pictures already loaned will constitute one of the greatest art displays assembled for international exhibition.

The Fine Arts Building is a fireproof structure and was one of the first buildings completed on the Exposition Grounds. It cost more than $200,000 to erect the building.
