

Canby and Southern Clackamas

CANBY.

Tom Killin, ex-county commissioner, formerly of Killin precinct, but now of Silverton, was transacting business in Canby on Friday. While in this city he remained until Saturday to attend the horse races at the county fair grounds.

H. A. Carothers, of the Canby Tribune, was in Oregon City on business Monday.

Phillip J. Sinnott, of the Oregon City Courier, and Randall O'Neil, of the Oregon City Enterprise, were among the Oregon City visitors to the races on Saturday.

Mrs. Cade Cox, who has been visiting with relative in this city, left Monday for Portland, where she will remain for a few days before proceeding to her home at Dufur.

R. S. Coe, who is one of the most prominent boosters of the county, went to Oregon City Tuesday evening to attend the booster meeting held there by the citizens of this city. Mr. Coe, after the meeting went to Portland, where he spent Wednesday with his son, R. S. Coe, Jr. Mr. Coe was one of the prime factors in having the County fair at Canby, having devoted a great deal of his time in its interest. Mr. Coe is one of the men of the county, who always tenders his services in assisting in the good of the cause.

W. H. Lucke, commission merchant, left Tuesday morning for Neachaco Valley, British Columbia, where he went on a business trip. Mr. Lucke, on his return will visit the Sound cities, and also the fair at Seattle. He will be gone about a month.

Jeremiah Crowley, of Seattle, Wash., was in Canby this week.

Mrs. A. Koehrer was a Portland visitor Tuesday.

W. B. Moore has gone to Walla Walla, Wash., on a brief visit, but will return this week, bringing with him a seven-passenger automobile.

H. Lindsey went to Portland Sunday morning, and will return the latter part of the week.

Phil Tucker, of Aurora, and Mr. Weiner, of Macksburg, who were injured at the race track Saturday afternoon during the races, are improving. Everyone had been warned by the marshals on the ground to look out, but no blame can be attached to any one.

Mrs. Batin went to Oregon City on the Monday afternoon local, returning on Tuesday.

M. J. Lee, G. N. McGregor, B. Hooker and Grant White went to Oregon City Tuesday evening to attend the booster meeting held at the Shivers opera house. The men went in Grant White's automobile, and returned after the meeting.

The boarding houses and hotels of this city did a rushing business last Saturday. The Cottage Hotel, conducted by Mrs. Cassie Evans, accommodated 100 people for dinner; the city, conducted by Harry Keys, 85 people, and the Knight Hotel, 70 people.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Paddock went to Portland Tuesday afternoon to attend the wedding of the former's brother, Harry Paddock, to Miss Elizabeth Bradley.

Mrs. R. H. White will leave the first of June for Colorado, where she will visit with her brother, A. Hale. Before returning she will visit with her daughter, Mrs. Steadman, of Centerville, South Dakota. Mrs. White will remain away until September.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Hemmelman, on Saturday, a bouncing boy.

Born, on Sunday, May 23, to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kanne, a girl.

Mrs. Annie White, of Portland, who has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Vorpal, has returned to her home.

The Misses Sewall, of Portland, and Miss Hattie Irwin, of Barlow, spent Saturday and Sunday in this city, the guest of Miss Ora Lee.

Rena Hutchinson is confined to her bed with an attack of measles.

Miss Helen Graham, who has been confined to her home with measles, has recovered.

Rev. and Mrs. St. John took charge of the morning service at the M. E. Church last Sunday. Mrs. St. John sang a Chinese hymn and Rev. St. John gave a very interesting and instructive discourse on the mission of man in China, and displayed some curios he had brought from China. Mr. and Mrs. St. John expect to return to China in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Vorpal have returned from a visit with relatives in Portland.

The Strawberry Growers' Association held its regular meeting at the Riverside school, Canby, on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Business of the association was transacted and officers elected for the ensuing year, who are as follows: R. S. Coe, re-elected president; Charles Roth, secretary; S. B. Reese, treasurer. The meeting was a very enthusiastic one, and a good attendance. The strawberry crop here is reported to be short this year on account of the extreme cold weather in winter. The season will also be late.

R. S. Coe has contracted his strawberries to H. P. Brightbill, of Oregon City. Mr. Brightbill finds that there is a ready sale for the berries that are raised by Mr. Coe, and pays him the highest market price. Mr. Coe is making a specialty of raising the berries on his place, here, among them being the Phenomenal, Logan, raspberries, and the Himalaya, the latter, of which he is experimenting, and would have had a good crop this year if the cold weather had not occurred. The crop of these will be very short. Mr. Coe has also contracted his gooseberries to Mr. Brightbill. The price paid for these is good.

The dance given at the Knight hall Saturday evening was a big success. The hall was crowded with the merry dancers, that enjoyed the dancing and the excellent music furnished by the Aurora orchestra. A neat sum was realized by the band boys. The Canby band deserves great credit for the music furnished at the races, and is improving rapidly under the leadership of Dr. Des Lespinasse.

Mrs. Julia Casto, of Carus, was in Canby Tuesday, and while in this city she visited her old friend, Mrs. Batin, whom she had not seen for 12 years. Mrs. Casto and Mrs. Batin were formerly neighbors at New Era.

Claud Bay went to Oregon City Monday to fish for Chinook salmon at the falls. He returned home Tuesday carrying one big fish, but whether he purchased it or bought it he does not state.

Horace Patch and Harvey Bissell have returned from their fishing excursion to Milk Creek, and brought home with them a fine string of trout. J. A. Graham is making many im-

Captain Evans Speaks Highly of McLoughlin

Captain James Madison Evans.

James Madison Evans, who is probably the oldest and most prominent steamboat man in the state of Oregon, was born in St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 1843, and is one of the pioneers who speaks in the highest terms of Dr. John McLoughlin. Mr. Evans came across the plains with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, in the year of 1852, having started from Andrew county Missouri, in May. There were 12 wagons in the train, and many thrilling experiences were encountered by the little party on their way across the plains. It was at the time that the Indians and cholera were playing havoc with the Western bound people, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans died 15 minutes after being seized with a cramp. The little body was buried beside others who had died of the dreadful plague. The graves were each marked by a could be seen little mounds marked by little wooden slabs. All along the way such a slab. The bodies were wrapped in blankets, as there were no caskets to be gotten. Several times the party were attacked by cholera, but soon found out that the whites were prepared to fight.

The train which the Evans family accompanied, disbanded at The Dalles, some of the party going to California gold fields, and a few coming to Oregon City. Those coming here arrived on the opposite side of the Willamette river. The river was crossed near the site of the old brick mill, which is now used by the Hawley Pulp and Paper Company. A ferry was used at that time to carry people back and forth. The family of Mr. Evans remained in this city for about three weeks, until they decided upon a location. At that time Oregon City was a vast forest, and the Indian camps strewn along, what is now Main street, on the bluff overlooking the city and opposite the McLoughlin home, were most of the Indians camped.

Mr. Evans' father secured employment in the grist mill owned and operated by John McLoughlin, the site of which was where the Oregon City Woolen Mill is now located. After three weeks stay in this city, William Evans moved his family to the log cabin and went back and forward daily to his work at the mill here. James Evans, in speaking of Dr. McLoughlin, states that when many of the settlers arrived here they possessed very little money, and upon telling Mr. McLoughlin of their condition he would remark: "Take it along any way." The price of flour at that time was $60 per barrel and for wheat $25 per bushel. Many of these people would have gone hungry had it not been for McLoughlin. The funeral, which was attended by all the settlers, was held at the old home, and the remains were interred in his yard, near his house, and afterward removed to the Catholic church yard.

At the age of 15 James Evans secured employment on a steamboat plying the Willamette river. He has been employed as engineer and captain continuously since until a year ago, when he was stricken with a paralytic stroke, and is now slowly recovering from its effects. Mr. Evans is known throughout the state of Oregon and Washington as Captain Evans, and is highly respected by old and young. Captain Evans has the distinction of handling more boats than any other man in the state. Since 1852 he was employed on the following steamers that plied above the falls: Hoosier, Washington, Canemah, Oregon, Willamette, Relief, Elk, Shoshone, Phoenix, Shoalwater, Moose, Gaselle, Franklin, From 1886 to the present date: S. T. Church, Yamhill, Orient, Occident, Enterprise, James Clinton, Schoeny, Dayton, Echo, St. Carrie, Ohio, City of Salem, Success, Eugene, Reliance, Albany, Atlantic, N. S. Bentley, W. M. Hogue, Ellwood, F. Pattan, Bonanza, Champion, Isabel, Toledo, A. A. McCuller, Willamette Chief, Valley Queen, N. R. Lang, Ann and Three Sisters.

Improvements on the interior of his house. A runaway took place on Main street Friday morning, which caused a great deal of excitement. A team hitched to a farm wagon belonging to a Mr. Berg, of Barlow, was left standing near a store, while the owner was shopping. The horse became frightened by a passing bicycle, and started to dash up the road. When they were near the Mack furniture store, they made a turn and dashed up to a woodpile, dragging the wagon after them. As the wagon was nearing the top of the pile it was upset, and one of the horses and wagon fell to the ground. The horse was extricated from his position and escaped with a few scratches. The wagon was not damaged. About 100 people gathered in a few moments.

Frank Patch, of the Sandness hardware store, was a Portland business visitor Tuesday.

L. A. Bair, who has been suffering with quinsy, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Knight, Howard Eccles and Mrs. A. Koehrer returned Friday from Albany, where they attended the convention of the Rebekahs and I. O. O. F.

Mrs. S. Lindsey left Monday for Salem, where she spent a few days with her mother. Mrs. Lindsey, with her husband, have been spending the winter in this city, and will leave this week, their destination not having been determined.

The Rural Carrier's Association held a very interesting meeting at Aurora. The morning session was taken up with business and followed by a dinner. A good time is reported by those attending. The carriers going there were Warren Lee and J. D. Wilkerson. The next meeting will be held in Canby on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson and grand daughter, Edith Pressey, of Oregon City, attended the races Saturday and while in the city were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Doyce.

Mrs. P. Fox, of Portland, spent Monday in this city with Mrs. James White in the city Mrs. Fox visited with other relatives.

Miss Cora Doyce, of Eugene, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. J. Knight, returned to her home Monday evening.

The baseball game played on Saturday morning by the Molalla team and the second team of Canby resulted in the Molalla boys winning, the game resulting in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the Molalla boys. On Sunday the Canby team played the Fourth Regiment team of Portland. The Canby boys won the game, the score being 6 to 1. There was a good crowd out to witness the game. The game recently played here by the Mount Angel team and the Canby team resulted in the Canby boys winning, instead of the Mount Angel as stated in last week's issue. The Sunnyside Colts will be here on next Sunday.

County Fair. The premium list for the county fair is almost completed and in a few days will be turned over to the printer. There will be about 800 entries in all this year, and those in charge of getting out the list have decided to have the books for distribution about June 15. Five thousand copies will be printed, and those wishing same will write to the secretary, M. J. Lee, of Canby, enclosing a four cent stamp when same will be sent to the address enclosed. The concessions will be filed to the limit, many of the concessioners having already applied for space. All stockholders will have complementary tickets, conforming to the number of shares of stock they hold.

A new stock shed will be built during the summer, which will be ready for the stock to be brought to the county fair this year. The sheds at present on the grounds have been found too small. The shed to be built this summer will be in proportion to that of the exhibit building. The grand stand, which was occupied by hundreds of people to the races on Saturday, was pronounced to be one of the finest grandstands in the state. It is situated so that an excellent view can be had all over the race track. The grandstand accommodates about 1500 people, and beneath will be used as a restaurant at the county fairs and races. The grandstand was built by the citizens of Canby, the money being raised by subscription in about 20 minutes. A company was incorporated, and the money was subscribed the same day.

The grounds are now owned by the Clackamas County Association, and about 1000 shares of stock are sold at $5 per share. Secretary Lee wants everybody in the county, who is interested in the county of Clackamas to take at least one share of stock. If they can't take them themselves sell it, as the stock is now selling at $5, and will in a few years be double that amount in value.

The judges for the exhibits this year will be from other counties, and will be people who will be versed on this line. This is to eliminate any chance of favoritism. This year prizes will be awarded for merit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heins were Oregon City visitors Friday.

George Fellows made a business trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. Mae Robinson and children are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Zeek this week.

Mrs. M. and Mrs. Shepard have moved to Washington county, where they expect to run a farm and go into the dairy business.

The silver medal contest held Tuesday evening in the M. E. church was enjoyed by a large audience. Chester Douglas won the musical medal and Florence Hoskins the oratorical. The next contest will be a gold medal contest and will probably occur in June.

W. C. T. U. NOTES. The "Revenue" Argument. We wish in the most direct, direct and unequivocal manner, to affirm that there is no revenue argument worthy of the name to justify any section of the American people in their unheroic toleration of saloons. The liquor business does give back something in dollars and cents to society, but only a small fraction of what it takes away. It gives back just enough to bribe people into tolerating its evils. It gives back as the bold professional kidnapper gives back. The so-called argument is from revenue is only a poultice, a soothing syringe, a blinding bandage. The liquor problem most vitally pay the fines imposed upon them in the form of license fees to help build sidewalks and pay school teachers. Ah! they are shrewd! And then, to recapitulate, the dear people of our land, who seem to be less shrewd than the liquor men, turn around and foot the long bill of court expenses and other items entailed by the liquor trade.

CANBY PIONEER TELLS OF MANY KINDNESSES SHOWN TO EARLY SETTLERS BY THE FATHER OF OREGON

ated by John McLoughlin, the site of which was where the Oregon City Woolen Mill is now located. After three weeks stay in this city, William Evans moved his family to the log cabin and went back and forward daily to his work at the mill here. James Evans, in speaking of Dr. McLoughlin, states that when many of the settlers arrived here they possessed very little money, and upon telling Mr. McLoughlin of their condition he would remark: "Take it along any way." The price of flour at that time was $60 per barrel and for wheat $25 per bushel. Many of these people would have gone hungry had it not been for McLoughlin. The funeral, which was attended by all the settlers, was held at the old home, and the remains were interred in his yard, near his house, and afterward removed to the Catholic church yard.

At the age of 15 James Evans secured employment on a steamboat plying the Willamette river. He has been employed as engineer and captain continuously since until a year ago, when he was stricken with a paralytic stroke, and is now slowly recovering from its effects. Mr. Evans is known throughout the state of Oregon and Washington as Captain Evans, and is highly respected by old and young. Captain Evans has the distinction of handling more boats than any other man in the state. Since 1852 he was employed on the following steamers that plied above the falls: Hoosier, Washington, Canemah, Oregon, Willamette, Relief, Elk, Shoshone, Phoenix, Shoalwater, Moose, Gaselle, Franklin, From 1886 to the present date: S. T. Church, Yamhill, Orient, Occident, Enterprise, James Clinton, Schoeny, Dayton, Echo, St. Carrie, Ohio, City of Salem, Success, Eugene, Reliance, Albany, Atlantic, N. S. Bentley, W. M. Hogue, Ellwood, F. Pattan, Bonanza, Champion, Isabel, Toledo, A. A. McCuller, Willamette Chief, Valley Queen, N. R. Lang, Ann and Three Sisters.

Improvements on the interior of his house. A runaway took place on Main street Friday morning, which caused a great deal of excitement. A team hitched to a farm wagon belonging to a Mr. Berg, of Barlow, was left standing near a store, while the owner was shopping. The horse became frightened by a passing bicycle, and started to dash up the road. When they were near the Mack furniture store, they made a turn and dashed up to a woodpile, dragging the wagon after them. As the wagon was nearing the top of the pile it was upset, and one of the horses and wagon fell to the ground. The horse was extricated from his position and escaped with a few scratches. The wagon was not damaged. About 100 people gathered in a few moments.

Frank Patch, of the Sandness hardware store, was a Portland business visitor Tuesday.

L. A. Bair, who has been suffering with quinsy, is rapidly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Knight, Howard Eccles and Mrs. A. Koehrer returned Friday from Albany, where they attended the convention of the Rebekahs and I. O. O. F.

Mrs. S. Lindsey left Monday for Salem, where she spent a few days with her mother. Mrs. Lindsey, with her husband, have been spending the winter in this city, and will leave this week, their destination not having been determined.

The Rural Carrier's Association held a very interesting meeting at Aurora. The morning session was taken up with business and followed by a dinner. A good time is reported by those attending. The carriers going there were Warren Lee and J. D. Wilkerson. The next meeting will be held in Canby on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. William Robinson and grand daughter, Edith Pressey, of Oregon City, attended the races Saturday and while in the city were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Doyce.

Mrs. P. Fox, of Portland, spent Monday in this city with Mrs. James White in the city Mrs. Fox visited with other relatives.

Miss Cora Doyce, of Eugene, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. A. J. Knight, returned to her home Monday evening.

The baseball game played on Saturday morning by the Molalla team and the second team of Canby resulted in the Molalla boys winning, the game resulting in a score of 6 to 5 in favor of the Molalla boys. On Sunday the Canby team played the Fourth Regiment team of Portland. The Canby boys won the game, the score being 6 to 1. There was a good crowd out to witness the game. The game recently played here by the Mount Angel team and the Canby team resulted in the Canby boys winning, instead of the Mount Angel as stated in last week's issue. The Sunnyside Colts will be here on next Sunday.

County Fair. The premium list for the county fair is almost completed and in a few days will be turned over to the printer. There will be about 800 entries in all this year, and those in charge of getting out the list have decided to have the books for distribution about June 15. Five thousand copies will be printed, and those wishing same will write to the secretary, M. J. Lee, of Canby, enclosing a four cent stamp when same will be sent to the address enclosed. The concessions will be filed to the limit, many of the concessioners having already applied for space. All stockholders will have complementary tickets, conforming to the number of shares of stock they hold.

A new stock shed will be built during the summer, which will be ready for the stock to be brought to the county fair this year. The sheds at present on the grounds have been found too small. The shed to be built this summer will be in proportion to that of the exhibit building. The grand stand, which was occupied by hundreds of people to the races on Saturday, was pronounced to be one of the finest grandstands in the state. It is situated so that an excellent view can be had all over the race track. The grandstand accommodates about 1500 people, and beneath will be used as a restaurant at the county fairs and races. The grandstand was built by the citizens of Canby, the money being raised by subscription in about 20 minutes. A company was incorporated, and the money was subscribed the same day.

The grounds are now owned by the Clackamas County Association, and about 1000 shares of stock are sold at $5 per share. Secretary Lee wants everybody in the county, who is interested in the county of Clackamas to take at least one share of stock. If they can't take them themselves sell it, as the stock is now selling at $5, and will in a few years be double that amount in value.

The judges for the exhibits this year will be from other counties, and will be people who will be versed on this line. This is to eliminate any chance of favoritism. This year prizes will be awarded for merit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Heins were Oregon City visitors Friday.

George Fellows made a business trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

Mrs. Mae Robinson and children are visiting the former's parents Mr. and Mrs. J. Zeek this week.

Mrs. M. and Mrs. Shepard have moved to Washington county, where they expect to run a farm and go into the dairy business.

The silver medal contest held Tuesday evening in the M. E. church was enjoyed by a large audience. Chester Douglas won the musical medal and Florence Hoskins the oratorical. The next contest will be a gold medal contest and will probably occur in June.

W. C. T. U. NOTES. The "Revenue" Argument. We wish in the most direct, direct and unequivocal manner, to affirm that there is no revenue argument worthy of the name to justify any section of the American people in their unheroic toleration of saloons. The liquor business does give back something in dollars and cents to society, but only a small fraction of what it takes away. It gives back just enough to bribe people into tolerating its evils. It gives back as the bold professional kidnapper gives back. The so-called argument is from revenue is only a poultice, a soothing syringe, a blinding bandage. The liquor problem most vitally pay the fines imposed upon them in the form of license fees to help build sidewalks and pay school teachers. Ah! they are shrewd! And then, to recapitulate, the dear people of our land, who seem to be less shrewd than the liquor men, turn around and foot the long bill of court expenses and other items entailed by the liquor trade.

The revenue argument was quoted oft and vociferously in Canby when the citizens were called upon to vote on the question of saloons or no saloons; but we don't hear it much spoken of these days. Our town has had a remarkable building and painting era since the saloons were banished. Public improvements have been made and the merchants of our town are getting a goodly sum of cash that was formerly spent for liquor. Our city treasury may not be quite so full of "revenue," but we have managed to get along this far; and besides, our streets are not so full of drunken boys and men, for which we are very thankful. Many who opposed city prohibition seventeen months ago are now heartily in favor of it. The Canby W. C. T. U. will meet in regular session Friday, May 28th, with Mrs. Wilkinson and June 4th, with Mrs. Hoyt. Before many weeks they will probably meet every week in the Hoarford building.

The Climate and Conditions Near Canby.

The interest in the great Northwest among Eastern farmers and town people too, can hardly be appreciated by those of us in the richly favored sections of the West, unless we are personally in touch with them. It amounts almost to fever, and we of the justly famed Willamette Valley should open wide our doors to them. There is room for many of them and to be found happy homes among us and enjoy some of our prosperity and health.

Canby, with its wealth of soil, climate, irrigation, transportation and other advantages expects its share and is getting ready to give them a cordial welcome.

It often happens that newcomers see opportunities and possibilities overlooked by old residents of the famous Willamette Valley, to whom life has been pleasant and prosperity has come easily.

NEW ERA

Sevick Bros. are doing some repair work on their mill dam. Ora Slyter purchased a team and wagon from Wallace Woodcox a few days ago.

P. H. Mead has commenced hauling lumber to build a new house on his place north of town, which he recently purchased.

M. Stauber is hauling lumber for a new barn. A. J. Meyer is building a barn on his farm which he recently purchased from Mr. Scheer. Elmer Veteto is superintending the construction.

Miss Florence Gallager is visiting Nellie Burgoyne this week. William Pagel, of Portland, spent Sunday at the Bremner farm.

Superior Stables has commenced work on the grading preparatory to graveling the two hills between here and Canby.

New Critzer is laid up with rheumatism in his back. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Lents were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Meyer Saturday and Sunday.

William Newbury presented himself with a new rubber tired buggy one day last week.

William Newbury presented himself with a new rubber tired buggy one day last week.

INDIGESTION ENDS IN FIVE MINUTES

Misery from an Upset Stomach goes before you realize it.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is the sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take one triangle after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heart burn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your pharmacist, waiting for you at your pharmacy.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of Dyspepsia or Indigestion.

MACHINERY FOR WATER SYSTEM

Two Carloads Arrive for the Municipal Plant.

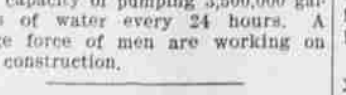

The two turbine wheels and all their appendances, making two carloads of machinery, arrived here from Morgan Smith company's steel and iron works at Troy, Pa., Friday, for the new city pumping plant, where they will be installed at once. The plant is being erected beside the filtering works, and is being constructed of reinforced concrete. It will be 30x50 feet. Superintendent Howell, of the water works, expects to have the buildings completed, the new machinery installed and in motion by the middle of August. The machinery will have a 400-horsepower, with the capacity of pumping 3,500,000 gallons of water every 24 hours. A large force of men are working on the construction.

SEE JOHNSON & BATCHELL for first-class carriage painting. All work guaranteed, prices reasonable. Shop 315 Main street, Oregon City.

Girls Sent to Indian School. Minnie and Martha, daughters of Molly Clark, an Indian woman, have been sent to the Indian Training School at Chemawa. This was done at the instance of the city to protect the girls.

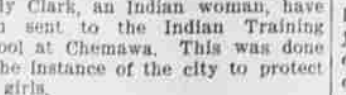

OUT OF DOOR WORKERS

Men who cannot slop for a rainy day... will find the greatest comfort and freedom of bodily movement in TOWER'S FISH BRAND WATERPROOF OILED CLOTHING. SLICKERS' $29.95 SUITS $39.95. Every garment bearing this mark of the fish brand is guaranteed waterproof. Catalog free.

OLD FOLKS' LIVERS

Need an occasional stirring up to keep them from being constipated, bilious and generally run down. At the same time, the laxative must not be so violent as to shock the system and cause sickness and illness.

Nature's Remedy. IS THE IDEAL TREATMENT FOR OLD FOLKS' LIVERS—NEVER FAILS TO ACT, YET NEVER SHOCKS. A TONIC AS WELL AS A LAXATIVE. BEST FOR CONSTIPATION, RHEUMATISM, BILIOUSNESS—ANY AND ALL TROUBLES OF LIVER, STOMACH AND BOWELS. TAKE AN NR TABLET TONIGHT—YOU'LL FEEL BETTER IN THE MORNING. Get a 25c Box Better than Pills for Liver Ills.

BOWSER'S HONEYBEE Will Make Him Millionaire While He Sits Idly at Home. CORNER THE MARKET TOO.

The Old Philosopher Reveals Scheme to Mrs. Bowser, and That Lady Furnishes Him With a Few Cold Facts. No Sympathy From Drug Man.

(Copyright, 1908, by T. C. McClure.) DURING the dinner hour the other evening there were times when Mr. Bowser seemed almost exultant and other times when a sadness prevailed. Mrs. Bowser could not make him out; but, thinking that something might have gone wrong at the office, she waited for him to explain. He did not do this until they had reached the sitting room and got settled for the evening. When he had smoked about half his cigar and glanced over the evening paper he turned and said:

"Mrs. Bowser, a man forty-five years old should feel more or less anxiety about the future, shouldn't he?" "You mean as to property matters?" she queried.

"Yes; as to how he is going to be left in his old age and as to how his

BOWSER'S HONEYBEE

Will Make Him Millionaire While He Sits Idly at Home. CORNER THE MARKET TOO.

The Old Philosopher Reveals Scheme to Mrs. Bowser, and That Lady Furnishes Him With a Few Cold Facts. No Sympathy From Drug Man.

(Copyright, 1908, by T. C. McClure.) DURING the dinner hour the other evening there were times when Mr. Bowser seemed almost exultant and other times when a sadness prevailed. Mrs. Bowser could not make him out; but, thinking that something might have gone wrong at the office, she waited for him to explain. He did not do this until they had reached the sitting room and got settled for the evening. When he had smoked about half his cigar and glanced over the evening paper he turned and said:

"Mrs. Bowser, a man forty-five years old should feel more or less anxiety about the future, shouldn't he?" "You mean as to property matters?" she queried.

"Yes; as to how he is going to be left in his old age and as to how his family would be left in case he was taken away."

"Well, I am one of them."

"But at fifty I want to retire from the cares of business and take things easy. I don't want to be grubbing for a living at that age, and in case of my death I don't want you to have to worry."

"I can appreciate your feelings, but the path of riches is not an easy one to travel. Men who speculate often lose all."

"I have no idea of speculating, but if I can find a sure thing it seems to be my duty to go into it. I don't mean a reasonable sure thing, but a dead sure thing—something that you can sit right down with a pencil and figure on."

"As in the case of an oil well or a silver mine?" she observed.

"As in the case of nothing of the kind," he impatiently replied. "I wouldn't go into either. What's the reason that you can never give me a show?"

"I can and will, but do you realize, my dear, that you are a bit visionary in your enterprises?"

"Visionary! Great heavens, but hear the woman talk! At the office I am known as Old Hard Head, and no