NEWS OF THE COUNTY

WILLAMETTE.

There isn't much doing in the real estate world in our city this week, although a deal or two has gone through.

We are very sorry to hear that Elery Capen, of Capen Shoe Company had a stroke of apoplexy Monday, but glad he is feeling much better.

John Ream is improving right along from his illness.

The church social was a great success. A good programme was rendered and the shadows of the girls cleared over $20.

Prayer meeting every Wednesday evening in the M. E. Church. Every body is welcome.

There was quite a crowd of young and old people that attended the Field Meet at Gladstone. Arline Olson took first prize in literature, Ernest Mass, Jr., second prize in vaulting, and Leslie Henry, fourth in the races.

The Willamette baseball team was defeated by the Molalla team by a score of 17 to 5.

Mrs. Shades, of Portland, spent a week with her mother, Mrs. Elery Capen.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Ross were pleasantly surprised on Saturday morning by Mr. Ross's mother arriving. Mrs. Ross has returned from the East where she spent the winter and spring.

Gunter Schoenheinz and Luella Haselton, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. Schoenheinz's mother.

There is but little sporting news this week. The small boys baseball team defeated West Side Oregon City by a score of 9 to 10, and they were defeated by the Oregon City team by a score of 7 to 8.

There were four boys from here who played with Stafford last Sunday. The Stafford team played Mt. Road. The game was a good one, being the best one played on the ground so far.

There was no tally made until the last half of the seventh inning, then the Stafford boys "opened their eyes and got into their fighting clothes," so they say, and at the end of the ninth inning the score stood 11 to 3. There were over 150 people to witness the game.

The lineup was as follows:
Stafford Mt. Road.

Mrs. Penman returned Monday from Portland where she has been attending her son, David Penman, who has undergone a surgical operation at the hospital. She reports that Dave is getting along nicely. Miss Annie Penman has now gone to Portland to take her mother's place.

Mrs. Thomas Penman, who has been very sick the last three weeks, is improving slowly. She is now able to sit up part of the time. Strawberries are now getting ripe at Greenwood and they are much larger and nicer than we saw when visiting Hood River.

STAFFORD.

We have had a typical Oregon rain since last Wednesday and although the rain-fall, taken altogether, was no more than about an inch, taken with the warm, cloudy weather, it did an immense amount of good.

After a successful year of school work, Miss Effie Grace closes her school on Friday, June 4.

Mr. Aerni and family went to Bethany Sunday to attend the golden wedding of the father and mother of Mrs. Aerni, which was celebrated in the church Monday. After a programme prepared expressly for the occasion, a beautiful dinner was served in the church dining room of which about 250 partook, after which photographs were taken. There were about 75 relatives present, representing four generations. Many and beautiful presents were received. The father is 82 and the mother 70.

Mrs. May and family are over the measles.

It is reported that Miss Anna Schatz was married Monday.

Mr. Nussbaum is putting in his potatoes with a planter, worked by horse. A number of the neighbors want him to plant their potatoes with the machine.

We had no mail on Monday. Do not know why, as Sunday was the legal holiday, and as we understand it, Monday was declared a holiday only locally.

Owing partly perhaps to the damp and cloudy weather, but few appeared at the grave yards to work on Saturday, and in consequence they presented the same uncareed for appearance as ever.

MEADOWBROOK.

Mr. Schafer has his new mill in operation. The new mill is located one-half mile down the creek from where the other one burned.

Mr. Engle has about a half mile graded on south Main street. His contract calls for the work to be completed by the first of January, 1910, or to near the Canby Canal Company's headgate on the Molalla.

Frank Lane and family, of Newport, Oregon, are visiting with A. Larkin's this week.

Mr. Dennison, one of our prominent farmers and politicians, was in town Saturday, shaking hands and talking finance to the people.

Died, May 25, the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Schafer. The remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground on the old homestead.

Miss Fluffey Ruffles has been spending a few days in town. Look aleetie out, boys.

Charles Holman and wife were visiting at the ranch Saturday and Sunday.

One of the promoters of the Union Irrigation Company was out last week. We hope to soon see the dirt moving along the line.

One of Meadowbrook's farmers is the owner of a large automobile. Who will be the next?

Mr. Bonaker called at the Hall ranch Sunday to exchange greetings. O. T. Kay is almost laid up for repairs with a lame back.

G. L. Staudinger and Mr. McElfresh were looking at the Molalla river Friday. They expect to run a boat between this place and Canby.

TEASEL CREEK.

Our nice, warm rain still continues and serves to keep broad smiles on the faces of all the farmers.

Francis has a Jersey cow which, in addition to supplying the family with milk and butter, affords much pleasure to his two small children, who ride her to and from the pasture.

Work on the road still continues in spite of the showers.

J. H. Quinn is improving the looks of things on Mr. Burren's place by putting up a new fence.

PILES! PILES! PILES!

Williams' Indian Pile Ointment will cure Blind, Bleeding and Itching Piles. It absorbs the tumors, allays itching at once, acts as a poultice, gives instant relief. Williams' Indian Pile Ointment is prepared for Piles and itching of the private parts. Sold by druggists, mail 50c and $1.00. Williams Mfg. Co., Prop., Clavailand, O. For sale by Jones Drug Co.

MOLALLA.

A most beautiful rain has visited our land of just. The perfect temperature, and old mother earth is tickled with another assured beautiful crop.

On this splendid Monday morning our village is all life. Work is going forward at the cheese factory site, at the grange horse barn, and the Gregory principle addition; even our "Mayor" was stirring around in the balmy sunshine taking in the sights.

Molalla is wondering if Oregon City will come to the front and unite with the southern part of the county by rail.

Dr. Todd has been called away to Portland on account of the severe illness of his wife. He hopes to soon be back to Molalla accompanied by Mrs. Todd.

The Molalla school closes today—the end of the most successful term of school Molalla has had since the last good school. Miss Ridings will probably spend her vacation in Southern Oregon; Mrs. Joy in the northern part of the state, and Mrs. Cass will accustom herself to the Liberal Views.

L. C. Dutton, of North Molalla, has the lumber on the ground for a new residence.

The Molalla Mutual Telephone company has a "sky scraper" pole in the north, that discounts the leaning tower of Pisa, and will surely give a great mix-up of lines if not attended in the near future.

Relatives and friends of the Epler family from different parts of this county and Portland were present at the large funeral held at the Epler home on Sunday last, an account of which is given elsewhere in this paper.

The 4th of July celebration to be held at Wilsonville on Saturday, July 3rd, is already booming cannons in its wake and the small boy slipping all the spare nickels into his jeans to assure himself a gala day at that time when the soda-pop and fire-cracker join in a glorious fizz. The people of Wilsonville and vicinity are preparing to turn out on masse, and a splendid day is already assured. There will be sports and games of various kinds and a big baseball contest between two excellent teams will be one of the leading features of the day's amusements. Ex-Senator George C. Brownell, of Oregon City, will be the distinguished orator of the day, and the popular Woodburn band will fill the air with patriotic melody. A full programme will be announced later.

FLINT THRASHES WIFE.

Molalla School Teacher in Jail at Portland.

J. F. Flint, principal of the Molalla school, who dropped into Portland a week ago to visit his wife, Mrs. Emma Flint, and gave her a thrashing because she insisted on his remaining at home evenings, was bound over to the grand jury Wednesday. An additional charge was filed against him by his wife based on the fact that Flint escorted a young woman down from Molalla. Mrs. Flint says that was the real reason he didn't want to stay at home nights. He is in the Multnomah county jail in default of bail.
