Mrs. Stinebaugh was the unfortunate victim of a runaway accident on Tuesday last. The horse became frightened, overturned the vehicle, and Mrs. Stinebaugh was thrown out and severely injured, but is slowly recovering.

A Children's Day Programme will be given in the M. B. A. Hall next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, under the able and efficient management of Wilsonville's popular school teacher, Miss Cora Seely.

A splendid programme is being prepared for the celebration of the Fourth at Wilsonville, July 2d. The fireworks and grand ball in the evening alone, are being looked forward to by lovers of beauty in fire wonders, and those who trip the light fantastic.

The ball game also bids fair to be an extremely interesting one, being played between two pretty evenly matched teams, and both of them being in splendid condition. It remains to be seen what the result will be, and to whom the victory will belong.

Ex-Senator George C. Brownell, famous for his masterful addresses, will deliver the oration, and the Woodburn band with its two talented performers, will be an interesting feature of the day's splendid programme.

A marriage notice of much interest to Wilsonville people came to the village correspondent too late for publication last week. The contracting parties in this important event were Mr. Emil Tauchman and Miss Rosanna Silvey, who were married on Sunday, June 6, at the home of the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Leisman, of the Lutheran church and was witnessed by a large number of friends. After the ceremony a beautiful wedding repast was served to the assembled guests. The groom is a young man of energy and ability and has been associated with his father in the milling business at Wilsonville for a number of years. The bride is a lovely young woman and has endeared herself to her many friends by her sweet disposition and kindly manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Tauchman will reside in Wilsonville and the good wishes of a host of friends will accompany them to their home upon the banks of the river.

The Hood View school held its graduating exercises followed by a picnic dinner in the school house Friday, June 11. This picnic savored of more than ordinary interest on account of all the ten members of the eighth grade having graduated at the last May examination as well as the fact that Superintendent Gary was in attendance and gave a helpful and very scholarly address to the graduating class, which was much appreciated by all present.

A splendid programme was given by the graduating class and some of their friends, which was in part as follows:

Violin solo, George Stallacher; recitation, Marie Calkins; piano solo, Chas. Toose; essay, "Evangeline," C. Lichtenhauer; piano solo, Mary Brobst; duet, Elsie Reed and Ruby Seely; piano solo, Martin Lichtenhauer; parting song, Graduating class.

After the programme, the diplomas were presented to the pupils of the eighth grade by Mr. Calkins, chairman of the board of trustees, after which Marie Calkins in a graceful little speech, presented Miss Murray with a gold watch and pin, as a slight token of the appreciation of this much esteemed teacher's untiring efforts to the graduates of the 8th grade.

Miss Murray was almost too much overcome with surprise to reply, but thanked the scholars for their beautiful gift in a few well chosen words. A beautiful repast was served, after which ice cream was sold at 10c a dish, the proceeds to go towards buying pictures of Abraham Lincoln and George Washington for the school.

Everyone present enjoyed the event to the utmost, but Hood View must now look well to her laurels as Miss Murray's fame as an impartor of knowledge has gone abroad over the land.

MACKSBURG.

A few farmers have started in to make hay, but most of them will wait until after the fourth as that is generally the safest time to cure hay.

The hay crop will be light through this section of the country and we think throughout the valley. Some people say that hay will be $30 per ton next winter.

From the latest report we hear that J. R. Fisher and family, who have been stricken with diphtheria, are improving.

Mrs. F. Weber and son, Willie, have got the whooping cough.

While the boys of this place were battling lvs, Herman Weber had the misfortune to get his nose broke. Dr. B. F. Giesy, of Aurora said it may be a couple of weeks before he will be able to work.

Mrs. J. E. Wells and children and Mrs. J. F. Oglesby went to Hubbard Wednesday to visit with relatives for a few days.

Ralph Gribble, who has been working at Chehalis, Wash., has returned home.

Say, did you see the ball games at Macksburg Sunday? Well, if you didn't, you missed it. There was a double header here. The Canby Blues came over in the morning happy and gay, but went home disheartened with four runs to their credit while Macksburg got nine. In the afternoon the White school nine, which has been defeating most every nine it played, came down to cross bats with the Macksburg boys. As it were they got eight scores while WE got nine. It was a fast and snappy game from start to finish. The feature of the game was a home run made by Smith and one by Gankle. The local boys outplayed the Whites, but they used poor head work in the field; otherwise the other boys would only had about three scores. Quite a large crowd of fans turned out to witness both games.

George Hardisty, who has been working for J. E. Wells, cut his left hand three weeks ago while filing an ax is laid up at present with blood poisoning. Dr. Weaver, of Hubbard, is in attendance.

Quite a number of people from here attended the picnic at Hubbard Saturday. Everyone reported a good time. Quite a number of the young folks stayed and enjoyed themselves at the dance.

LOGAN.

Logan was doubled up last time, but we hope Uncle Sam will not do us up so again.

Horn, to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Moscut, on June 8th.

George Hardisty, of Hubbard, who has been staying with his brother-in-law, is laid up with blood poison in his left hand.

STAFFORD.

With the exception of Thursday, June 10th, the past week was very pleasant, but dry; but Thursday the mercury registered 90 at Gage's, who keeps the record for the weather bureau at Portland, at this place.

Those who attended the Rose Festival express themselves as delighted with the wonderful display.

Miss Julia Weddell is entertaining a young friend from Ashland, where she attended school.

Mrs. Aerni and Mr. and Mrs. Keller are to go Thursday to Woodburn to attend the camp-meeting which is being held there by the religious society called the Church of God.

The rats have been taking Mrs. Aerni's chickens, and at Gage's the young chicks just big enough for fryers disappeared by the dozen till the broods were reduced in a few nights from 60 to 15. When a box trap was set and found sprung in the morning it was weighted down under water and in a few hours taken out and opened disclosing a sleek, fat skunk of unusual size. He seems to have been a bachelor as no more have been caught.

Mrs. Powell's baby has been having measles.

Mr. Welsenborn had another sick spell a few days ago, but is better again.

Rev. Waehle has tendered his resignation to take effect in September. On account of ill health he feels obliged to seek a dryer climate. He will be missed by old and young as he
