Gue Engebrecht Has New Residence In This City-Building Boom Strikes Meldrum and Other Localities.

During the past month and at the present time Oregon City and suburbs have enjoyed a building boom. Glad-stone, one of the largest suburbs of the town, has had more dwellings go up within the past year than any other little town in the country. The buildings that have been erected in that suburb are a credit to any settlement, all of them being modern and up-to date. The beautiful new school buildthe Christian church, postoffice building are among those that have been constructed during the past year.

Meldrum is another suburb of Dregon City that is coming to the front Several new residences have been re-cently built, and others are under construction.
