Can You Truthfully Answer Yes?

DURING THE PAST YEAR HAVE YOU BEEN ABSOLUTELY SATISFIED WITH ALL YOUR GROCERIES, YOUR TEAS AND COFFEES, YOUR BUTTER, CANNED GOODS AND FLAVORING EXTRACTS? CAN YOU TRUTHFULLY ANSWER YES? THESE THINGS ARE ALL WITHIN THE CONTROL OF THE MERCHANT, AND AS LONG AS PAINSTAKING CARE IS EXERCISED IN THEIR SELECTION, YOU ARE PRETTY CERTAIN TO GET FIRST CLASS QUALITY AND FLAVOR.

WE DO NOT CLAIM TO BE PERFECT—WE ARE ONLY HUMAN AND SOMETIMES MAKE MISTAKES. BUT THERE ISN'T A STORE IN TOWN THAT STRIVES MORE FAITHFULLY TO HAVE ITS CUSTOMERS ABSOLUTELY SATISFIED, OR THAT WILL SO GLADLY AND QUICKLY RECTIFY A MISTAKE. WE DEEM IT A FAVOR TO HAVE AN ERROR CALLED TO OUR ATTENTION, AND TO HAVE ANY GOODS RETURNED THAT ARE NOT EVERYTHING THEY SHOULD BE IN QUALITY AND FRESHNESS.

Those who have news for the Milwaukee department of the Enterprise should either mail it to the Milwaukee Editor of the Enterprise at Oregon City or leave it at the real estate and insurance office of A. H. Dowling in Milwaukee, or with Justice of the Peace Kelso.

MILWAUKEE.

Philip Strieb, who recently returned from Seattle, having been summoned there by the serious illness of his brother, has accepted a position with the Milwaukee Mercantile Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Monroe, who have been enjoying the A. Y. P. Exposition at Seattle, have returned home. They report having had a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Maggie Allen has gone to Seattle, where she will spend several weeks with relatives and will also visit the A. Y. P. Exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. A. Bellwood are about the happiest parents in the state of Oregon. A baby girl arrived at the home of their son, Winston, on Wednesday morning, July 28. Mother and babe are doing nicely.

Mrs. Minerva Bencke, of Spokane, Wash., accompanied by her children arrived in Milwaukee on Monday evening and are the guests of Mrs. Bencke's mother, Mrs. Lehman, and other relatives here.

T. R. A. Bellwood was an Oregon City business visitor on Wednesday morning.

Fred Strieb, who has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever, is still slowly improving.

Charles Leulling and family, of Princeton, are enjoying camp life at Minthorn, where they will remain for several weeks.

Constance Kelso went to Sunnyside Wednesday morning, where he subpoenaed nine witnesses to appear at the hearing of the case of the State vs. Myers. A few weeks ago Myers threatened to commit murder if it is claimed, and his hearing was set for last week, but was postponed until July 30, at 1:30 o'clock in Justice Kelso's court.

A boat house has been installed in the Kellogg Lake at this place, where those who wish to indulge in this pastime, may secure boats and it is probable that the boat house will be well patronized.

The work on the construction of the new railroad is progressing rapidly, and good headway is being made on the piers on each side of the river. The workmen on the west side of the river were busy at work on the construction even Sunday.

Born, on Wednesday, July 28, to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simms, a daughter.

Charles Maple, who has been confined in the St. Vincent Hospital for some time with typhoid fever is now on the road to recovery, and has been brought to his home in Milwaukee. Dr. Townley, of this city, is the attending physician.

The interior of the Winsinger store is being repainted and new shelving added, which are being filled as soon as the goods arrive. Mr. Winsinger is having a large stock installed in his store.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Witte and little son went to Gresham on Tuesday, where Mr. Witte purchased a Shetland pony and phaeton for his wife.

Arthur Davis, who has been on vacation in the mountains, has returned and resumed his position at the Winsinger store.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Piper have returned from Seattle, Wash., where they attended the exposition. They report a most enjoyable time, and say that the fair is a big success.

Rev. and Mrs. N. Shupp are camping at Jennings Lodge, where they are attending the Evangelical camp meeting.

Mrs. Roberts, who was one of the hostesses at the Oregon building at the A. Y. P. Exposition on Oregon Day, has returned to her home in this city.

Arthur Davis and Edna Albee left this week for their outing in the mountains, and expect to get all kinds of wild game before returning.

The base ball game between the picked up teams of men and boys at the Milwaukee diamond on Sunday afternoon, was enjoyed by a large crowd. The game was enjoyed immensely, many claiming it to be one of the best games of the season. The score was 14 to 12 in favor of the boys.

The men of this city made the boys "go home" to make the score they did, and it is probable that the boys will have to get in and do some practicing if many such games are played, as the men state that the next game will be theirs. It is probable that the men will play the boys next Sunday, unless they play a Portland team.

W. H. Council started grading on the grounds Wednesday.

One of the new cars (pay as you enter), owned by the O. W. P. Company, while being brought here from its run in Portland on Sunday evening caught fire by the resistance coils burning, burned near the club house, and the only part that remained of the car are the frame and trucks.

Mr. Armstrong is the owner of a large department store and also president of a street car company in New York. He and his family have been visiting the fair at Seattle, and will make a tour through California and the Southern states before returning to their home.

If you want to sell your real estate list it with us, as we are having calls every day for homes, large and small. Freytag & Swafford, near S. P. depot, Oregon City, Oregon.

Mrs. J. B. Robinson, who recently arrived here from Chico, California, and sister, Miss Lou Cochran, of this city, who were injured by the falling of timbers in the Melzer & Frank store in Portland on Monday afternoon, are still confined in the Good Samaritan Hospital. Mrs. Robinson had three of her teeth knocked out, a large gash cut in her head and sustained other painful injuries to the head. Her condition is slightly improved.

The car was in charge of the motor man and conductor, who had discovered the fire and were speeding it towards Milwaukee, where they thought the fire could be extinguished, as there was no water at the spot when they discovered the fire. The two men did all in their power to extinguish the flames, but they had gotten to such a headway that it was fruitless. The loss was about $4,000.

Otto Witte, owner and manager of the Crystal Lake Park, has arranged with the Milwaukee Band to furnish music at his summer resort on Sunday afternoons. The band will make its first appearance on Sunday, August 8, and will parade in the streets at Portland on Saturday evening previously.

The band of Milwaukee furnished music at this resort last year, and proved to be one of the great drawing cards. On Sunday the J. K. Gill team of Portland and the Crystal Lake team will give a game at the Crystal Lake grounds.

Let Dowling sell your property. Ernest Smith's new dwelling house is about completed on Blanton Street and we notice it is for sale. This is a very pretty little house and will make some one a nice home.

C. P. Morse has sold his two acres on Addie street. It was set out to fruit last spring and the trees have made a rapid growth and the ground was sown with oats and the yield of oats shows that the soil at this place is well adapted to small grain.

Clarence Beckner has accepted a position in Portland and will remain there during the summer.

Mrs. Ricketts and children are spending a few days with her sister Mrs. Sylvia Wilcox. Mr. Wilcox is enjoying an outing at Seaside, Oregon.

Mrs. M. A. Shaver and her daughter, Mrs. Will Jacobs, and little Dorothy are at the coast in Washington to be absent a month. Mrs. Jacobs has been in poor health for some time and her friends hope the trip will be beneficial to her.

Cropley fishing seems to be the chief amusement for the small boy and by 7 A. M. a number from Gladstone and the Lodge are making their way to the river and on returning have some fine strings of fish.

Rev. Shupp and wife, of Milwaukee, were calling on friends on Tuesday and will remain here until after the campmeeting.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Morse entertained in an informal way on their lawn where all the relatives were invited at their home on Friday evening, July 23. Their guests of honor were Coleman Dill and Misses Elleen and Flora, of Portland, who have spent the week with them and Mrs. Bruchert and children, of Dubuque, Iowa.

The lawn was made very pretty with the tables decorated with sweet peas and out of door games were indulged in by the little folks. Ice cream and cake were served.

Messames Emmons and Terry drove to Clackamas on Tuesday.

Mrs. Bruchert and Mrs. Morse spent Wednesday in Oregon City, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Scripture.

Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong of York, Neb., were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Seeley last week.

SAMUEL PEARSON.
HARMONY.
The Harmony Improvement Society was entertained by Mrs. Harger in Albina Wednesday, July 21st. A pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by those present.

Harmony Home Coming day will be on the 28th of August.

A number of people from this district visited Chautauqua this year and enjoyed the fine programmes that were given.

The little son of Mr. Ennilo was kicked in the head by a horse and sustained a bad gash in the forehead. The new school house for Harmony has been commenced and it is expected to be ready for the fall term of school.

granges and other organizations of the county to make exhibits at the coming county fair. Many of the organizations have already signified their intentions of showing what their part of the county can raise. It is probable that Gladstone, which has not exhibited at any previous county fair, will be represented. The improvement club will take this matter up for discussion at one of its meetings in the very near future.

See us about it if you are looking for good buys, city homes, good acreage of farms. We have them. Freytag & Swafford, near S. P. Depot, Oregon City, Oregon.

A. L. Bowen, editor and publisher of a weekly newspaper at Earlham, Iowa, is spending a week with his sister, Mrs. Elmer H. Cooper. Mr. Bowen took in the A. Y. P. exposition at Seattle. He visited here about eight years ago.

Mrs. Ellen Rawson Miller, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. Eva Emery Dye. Mrs. Miller was in charge of the domestic science department at the recent Chautauqua Assembly at Gladstone Park.

Lloyd Williams, deputy in the county recorder's office, resumed his position Monday after enjoying a two weeks' vacation. Mr. Williams spent several days on the Clear Creek, accompanied by his family. On his vacation last year Mr. Williams boasts of having caught 1689 fish and says this isn't a fish story either. This year he only caught one, but this was in one day. Mr. Williams states that the crawfish in Clear Creek, where he and his family were camped were numerous, and while out on an expedition one day caught a bucket full without bait.

I have re-located my law office at the S. W. corner of 8th and Main streets, upstairs. Will be pleased to meet my friends at my new office.

O. E. Freytag, who is in charge of the agricultural department of the Clackamas County Fair Association, is arranging with many of the commercial clubs, Improvement clubs,

Among the beautiful homes near here that have recently been built are the bungalows of Mr. Powers and R. R. McAlpine and J. J. Henderson at Meldrum. Mr. Albert Barnes, a recent arrival from Honolulu is building a new house near Roethe and Mr. Foster who is connected with the firm of Lipman, Wolfe & Co. has moved to his handsome home at Roethe. Mr. Henderson, Barnes and Foster are to install water plants on their places and Mr. Painter, of the Lodge, has completed drilling their wells and at present is drilling on the Jeager brothers property. Mr. Spaulding has traded his cozy little home for a stock of goods at Sellwood. We did not learn the parties name who is to remove to Mr. Spaulding's place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Seeley have sold 1 1/2 acres next to the H. J. Rice store to Mrs. A. J. Rice, of Hood River, who is a friend of Mr. and Mrs. Boardman. She is to commence to build soon and we will all be glad to welcome Mrs. Rice in our midst.
