

Remedies are Needed

Were we perfect, which we are not, medicines would not often be needed. But since our systems have become weakened, impaired and broken down through indiscretions which have gone on from the early ages through countless generations, remedies are needed to aid Nature in correcting our inherited and acquired weaknesses.

The genuine has on its outside wrapper the Signature. You can't afford to accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this non-alcoholic, medicine of known composition.

TARIFF REVISION DOWNWARD.

It is far from surprising that the determined stand which President Taft has taken in favor of tariff revision downward should have commanded the respect and approval of the entire country.

There is far too great a disposition on the part of members of Congress to confound the vociferous insistence of a few interested constituents with the wishes of the majority.

There are of course many statesmen and politicians who question the loyalty of the President to the protective policy, but we venture to believe that such men are short sighted.

The President in his public statement declared that the very proof of the correctness of the protective principle consisted in the possibility of gradually reducing the tariff rates.

BEATIE GETS CLARK BACK

COUNTY JAIL ESCAPE TAKEN ON THE VANCOUVER FERRY BOAT.

SAPPINGTON HELPS OUT

Prisoner Who Got Away With John Bowers Last October Will Have to Serve Out His Sentence.

Arthur Clark, who escaped from the Clackamas County Jail October 8 last in company with John Bowers, was captured Tuesday afternoon by Sheriff Sappington, of Clark County, Wash., and turned over to Sheriff Beatie in Portland.

Clark was arrested last August on a charge of stealing a lot of tools from a house at Boring. He pleaded guilty to larceny and was sentenced on August 12, to serve six months in the county jail.

"You can't take me," he exclaimed. "I have already got you," answered Sheriff Sappington and he compelled Clark to drive right up to the Belvedere Hotel, where Sheriff Beatie was waiting for his prisoner.

At the time of Clark's escape the authorities intended to release him within two weeks, but he will now be compelled to stay in jail four months, to complete his sentence.
