NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MULINO.

Beautiful weather for harvesting. The Herman and Kahler threshing machine is in the neighborhood and the crops will soon all be in the barns and the farmers happy. Fred Churchill took a load of veal and hides to Oregon City last week for Dan Graves. Several of the Mullinots attended the circus at Portland last week. Dan Graves is on the sick list and his brother Roy runs the butcher wagon. Fred Wallace has gone to work in Gribble's hop yard as head dryer. Inez Snodgrass has been engaged to teach the Mulino school for the fall term. The Miller house has received a coat of paint and other improvements that help the looks of things on Main street. Mr. Udell is building a neat house. Mr. Carlson spent a few days in Portland last week. Mrs. August Erickson and daughter, Pearl, went to the hop yard Sunday. Guy Jewett and wife are visiting in this vicinity.

CLARKES.

Dave Moehke was threshing for Mr. Scherruble Wednesday. Sam Elmer threshed for Will Morrish and Ed Grace Monday. Rev. Hilmer was out from Milwaukee and preached last Sunday evening. Dave Moehke is threshing for Clarkes Bros. Mr. Wettlaner went to town Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Maxon went to town Monday. We have nice weather now and every one enjoys it as they will get their grain threshed. The grain is running short this year.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

Mrs. West has a new piano at her home. Miss West from Wisconsin, is visiting here this week. Mrs. Kidd, of Portland, was calling on friends in this vicinity last Sunday. Messrs. W. B. Stafford and A. Mautz returned from the mountains Monday. They say that huckleberries are not very plentiful, but there are lots of people camping there. There will be a lawn social at the home of Mrs. Mabel Osmon on Friday evening, September 3, 1909. A fine programme is being prepared by the young people of the Mountain View Sunday School. Ice cream and cake will be served after the program. Mr. Terrance has bought a new horse. It is one that Mr. Priestner, of Beaver Creek has had for a number of years. Mr. and Mrs. Lewellen, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. Henry Cromer, and daughter, of Springwater, spent Monday of last week at Seaside.

Mrs. Myrtle Beard and baby are able to go visiting again.

Mr. Schloth is building a cellar, or root-house, now, getting ready for cold weather.

Messrs. W. D. and Ferd Curran and son, Leslie, made a trip to the coast last week, then Mr. W. D. Curran returned to his home in Iowa.

Mrs. Bessie Aldredge and baby, of Independence, are visiting among relatives and friends here.

The fire bell tower of the M. V. Hose Co. No. 4, was given a new coat of paint last week.

Mrs. West had city water put into her house last week.

Frank Dolsell, of Iowa, who was here a few years ago, was here last week visiting his uncle, P. D. Curran and family.

Mrs. B. F. Linn drove to Oswego Tuesday of last week to see Grandma Gotberg.

Mrs. Alta Grave, of Liberal and Mrs. Ida Dodge, of Silver Lake, Wash., visited Mrs. R. Ginter one day last week.

E. W. Hornschuh lost a valuable horse one day last week.

E. F. Ginter, while in Oregon City last Thursday, came near being seriously hurt by one cowardly cur by the name of Wallace Cole, saloon-keeper, we are informed. It seems that Mr. Ginter was driving up 7th street, some hoodlums, which proved to be relatives of the above, threw rocks at Mr. Ginter's horses. He told them to quit, which only made them act worse, whereupon Mr. Ginter got out of his wagon, caught one of the lads and was proceeding to the Justice office with him, when the coward named above jumped upon him unawares. Mr. Ginter is a man 60 years of age and a small man, and for a man of Cole's size to strike him without even warning, proves him (Cole) to be a shameless coward to say the least.

TWILIGHT.

Mr. D. B. Martin has sold his farm, receiving the neat sum of $6090. Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be greatly missed as they are one of the oldest settlers in the neighborhood, having lived here about 25 years.

ESTACADA.

The Independent Order of Good Templars under the jurisdiction of Western Oregon District No. 1 held its third quarterly convention in the I. O. F. hall Monday, under the auspices of Curtinville and Springwater lodges. District Chief Templar W. S. Hurst, of Aurora, presided, and H. D. Evans, of Aurora, acted as secretary. Most of the day was taken up with general routine business pertaining to the organization of a grand lodge in the state of Oregon, when final action will be taken up in November next. Matters were also discussed preliminary to a general campaign for the welfare of the order. The next convention will be held at Arleta, Or. The convention was represented by 50 delegates from various points of the District.

Phillip F. Standish, of Chicago, purchased a forty-acre tract of land on E. Lumber Co., four miles east of here, and will set the entire tract to apples.

Rev. J. E. Simpson, of Portland, bought a small tract of land just south of the city limits, on the bank of the Clackamas River, and will soon begin the construction of a bungalow to be made a summer home.

Ralph Miller, of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Miller, who has been seriously ill for the past month with inflammatory rheumatism, is improving rapidly.

BORING.

Forest fires were numerous the latter part of last week in the vicinity of Boring Saturday afternoon a donkey engine on the premises of the S. P. H. Lumber Co., four miles east of Boring started a fire which for a time threatened to do great damage. A house belonging to W. E. Saunders, an employe of the lumber company was burned and about a quarter of a mile of plank road was consumed.

There was a great amount of cord wood burned in the neighborhood of the mill belonging to Japanese which was endangered but the fire was eventually cornered and unless a strong wind should arise there is no further danger. A fire started Sunday afternoon about half a mile northwest of Boring which burned a small building and some cordwood.

The Boring M. E. Sunday School has announced an entertainment for Saturday night in the church, consisting of a musical programme, which will be followed by refreshments. The proceeds are to be devoted to the purchase of new hymn books. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

The dance in the opera house Saturday night was well attended although the forest fires prevented many from attending. Super was served at midnight at the Boring hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Howlett called on Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Douglass Sunday.

SANDY.

Sunday, August 29th, was a great day for Sandy, when the new church was dedicated to the public. The church was packed and many had to stand outside for want of room. People for miles around came to do honor to this new place of worship. The service began with prayer by Rev. D. L. Rader, then address on the church building and its finance by the pastor, Rev. J. W. Exon, showing the church making an outing last night, and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone, of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for billboards." For sale by Huntley Bros. Co. Samples free.

At 10:30 promptly, Rev. D. L. Rader preached the dedication sermon and held his audience spell bound until 11:30. The Sandy Glee Choir furnished the vocal music. At 12 M. all went to Sandy's new park where tables were provided and hundreds partook of as splendid a lunch as ever seen.

The afternoon session was taken up and Hon. Thomas F. Ryan delivered a splendid oration on good schools and churches to build up a community. T. S. McDaniel, of Portland, delivered an interesting speech on how to raise money for church purposes. Then Rev. B. F. Rowland, D. D., undertook to raise a balance of $800, necessary to pay for the church, and with the assistance of Rev. Exon, T. S. McDaniel, B. Lee Paget in a short while the necessary amount was raised and the entire indebtedness of the church was wiped out and Sandy today has a splendid church, a building of which we all feel proud, and many thanks to Rev. J. W. Exon for his never ceasing effort with the generous assistance of F. Bacon, Geo. Bornstedt, Jake Dehaener, building committee, to complete this building. The evening service consisted of a splendid lecture by B. Lee Paget, of Portland, who interested the audience for several hours with his pleasing manner.

Sandy Grange No. 392 has changed its meeting day from the 4th Saturday to the second so hereafter the Sandy Grange will meet every second Saturday in each month. The Grange will have a grand harvest picnic and dance in October, where amusements of all kinds and sports, too, will be numerous.

Quite a few Sandy people are going to the hop yards. They say to "make a few dollars."

SPRINGWATER.

The lawn social given last Tuesday evening, the 24th, was a great success. About ninety persons joined in the circle and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely. Games were played, the programme rendered, and a good supper served. When will the next social be?

Mr. Frank Shannon was taken away by the "Angel of death," last Saturday at 12 o'clock, at his home in Oregon City.

Miss Mabel Francis, of Oregon City, has been hired as primary teacher here, for the ensuing year. A principal was also hired, a young man from Minnesota.

The 6:45 car out of Portland for Estacada Tuesday evening ran into a bunch of cattle about two miles from Boring, and was derailed. No passengers were hurt. A cow was killed and another injured, belonging to Robert Hall. The wrecking crew got the car on the track at midnight, and the passengers were transferred to another car and taken on to Estacada.

James Rand, of Walla Walla, Wash., arrived in Boring Tuesday, and intends to make Boring his home. Mr. Rand is only one of a number from Walla Walla who are locating at this point.

A horse belonging to Ray Keith, used on rural delivery routes out of Boring fell in a well on the premises of Ki Stone, and it became necessary to erect a derrick to get the horse out. The horse was in the well for more than an hour in water eight feet deep.

Mrs. Charles Glancy is very sick at her residence in South Boring.

Owing to the harvest, the meetings of the Boring Development Club have been discontinued until Wednesday evening, September 8, at which time making an outing last night, and I feel fifty per cent better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone, of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for billboards." For sale by Huntley Bros. Co. Samples free.
