

Aurora and Northern Marion

AURORA.

Mrs. A. Meyers, of Aurora was a Portland visitor this week, returning Sunday evening after a four days stay with relatives.

Allie Miller, who is attending school in Portland this winter, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller, on Sunday night at Miller's hall by the Ladies Orchestra of Portland.

Relatives of Sam Miller, from Indiana, are at present visiting at his place.

A Boost for Portland.

Augusta Termler and wife, of La-Platte, Mo., after spending a few days visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Bents, returned to their home this week. Mrs. Termler, who is a prominent restaurant man of his home city, after touring the Pacific Coast and visiting all the important cities expresses himself as most favorably impressed with Portland. "While Seattle," he says, "is a bustling place it seems to me young and not fully matured, and Portland, on the other hand has all the push of its rival, but without the noise. It evidences nothing of a boom, but only steady and natural growth. Mr. Termler and family return home via California points.

Ed Beck is now in the employ of Mishler & Grubbe, as hop sampler.

L. Weber and wife, also Walter Fry and sister, are now at Collins Hot Springs, a popular resort on the Columbia, where they will recuperate for a while.

The Rev. Flatman left this week for Portland in an auto for a day's trip.

William Bowers left Tuesday for McMinnville on a business trip. Charlie Schuerer was reported as very ill the last week but is again alright and about his work.

Church Notes.

The Rev. Flatman will be assisted Sunday by Rev. Krauser, of Portland, who will conduct the morning services at 10:30 A. M. and by Mr. Knoll, also, of Portland, a student, who will assist the older ministers. Sunday School will be held at the usual hour, 8:30 A. M. Mission Festival at 2:30 P. M. and evening services at the usual hour. Mr. Knoll has been a student at the Theological school at St. Paul, Minn., while Rev. Krauser is a well known minister of Portland, being pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of that place.

H. H. Deetz and his hay baler was in Aurora this week on their way to another job in the near vicinity.

Mrs. Nora Kaufman is now recovering very fast after a severe illness.

F. G. Peter and his son-in-law, Henry Kraus have left for the Grand Ronde Reservation, where they will visit relatives for some time.

Miss Jennie Sanquist, of Salem, has been visiting her friend here, Miss Hazel Giesy for some time.

The new Telephone company has engaged a lineman by the name of Gray, from Washington, to look after their many and scattered lines in the different parts of the county. The whole system will be gradually brought up to a high standard of proficiency as rapidly as is possible to do so.

W. H. Ehlen and wife were Portland visitors this week.

Mrs. E. B. Carpenter was a Salem visitor Sunday, where she spent the day with friends.

W. S. Hurst, the commission man of this place, shipped two cars of early apples to Arizona markets this week. He states that the potato outlook for the coming season is splendid as the present crop prospects are good and the prices promise to be average at least.

Mrs. Grant B. Dmulek was with her mother, Mrs. Wolfer, of Needy, last week.

Henry Vogt, who has been very ill for some time, is not expected to live, as his stomach can accommodate no nourishment of any kind. He is well known throughout the entire country, as he has made this place his residence for a good many years.

F. G. Peter attended the funeral of his old friend, John Weismann, who was recently interred in the Mountain View cemetery at Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Yergen returned home Saturday from the state fair at Salem, where they have been camping during the races.

The tent revivalists, who have been holding forth here during the summer, owing to the chilly evenings have been forced to discontinue their meetings.

Mrs. George Ehlen, of Hubbard, has returned from Salem, where she was taking in the fair.

Freddy Giesy and Russel Higgenbotham were Portland visitors Sunday, taking in the ball game as well as other places of amusement that were offered.

Clarence Schuerer, who recently lost a finger in an unlucky accident, caught cold in the wound and was forced to have it lanced again.

J. W. Sadtler, the prominent merchant of Aurora, and his wife went to Portland Tuesday in an auto.

Mrs. Mary Parrish and small daughter, of Newport, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. William Giesy this week. Mr. Giesy spent several days at the Parish home this summer when at Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. William Ryan, of Butteville, were in Salem last week taking in the fair.

Frank Miller took his big auto to Portland Tuesday to dispose of it.

Miss Hattie Peller and Paul Nigren, of Donald were in Aurora Sunday as the guests of Miss Merle Schuerer.

Reggie Hurst, of Hubbard, was in Aurora Monday night stopping with his cousin, Glen.

The two small daughters of Postmaster Snyder are now visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Vandeleur, of Butteville.

Jim Snyder was coming around the corner the other day and met the Meeker tourist car propelled with a couple of huge oxen, and the two fast sorrels of Snyder's became actually frightened and struck a gait that amazed the onlooker. Never mind Jim that team is certainly the "goods" though when it comes to pulling a big load.

Mrs. Kate Beck was in Oregon City Tuesday to visit relatives.

Large crowds went from here to the state fair at Salem.

Agent Miller estimating the number at nearly 100 from this town alone.

Charles Wolfer, Ed and Sam Ziegler went to the coast Monday to spend a few days. Newport is the place of all places to their way of thinking and that will be their destination.

A huge radish grown on the Al Will place on Pudding river bottom is on exhibition here now and will be later shown at the county fair at Canby. The radish is of the White Mammoth China variety and weighs over seven pounds.

Market Report.

Hops are attracting all the attention of the farmers at present and all are anxious to know how they will sell later, but in no ways caring to dispose of their present holdings at the prices offered by the dealers. Samples have not as yet reached the dealers hands and for that reason the prices now prevailing are not representative by any means. The general feeling of the growers is to wait until the quality of the crop can be learned. Some few sales around 21 cents have been reported but of very small lots. There is also nothing doing in contracts at futures. Prunes are exceptionally heavy this season and the present outlook is good for the market to be strong. Apples are an off crop but the quality is fair. Potatoes are booming and the present price for the fancy early stock is around 60 cents per hundred. Several small amounts have been reported sold at this price. Hay promises to be unusually high this coming winter and imports from Eastern Oregon points will be heavy. Dressed meats still remain at last week's high mark with the demand unsatisfied for fancy stuff. All manner of small farm produce is on the market from home grown melons to California fruits.

Aurora's prices are as follows:

Butter—fresh ranch, 25c lb.
Eggs—21c doz.
Cheese—25c lb.
Cabbage—2c lb.
Potatoes—retail 1c lb., wholesale fancy, 60c per cwt.
Wheat 90c bushel.
Oats—$23 to $25 ton.
Rolled barley—$1.50 sack.
Bran—90c sack.
Oranges—30c doz.
Bananas—30c doz.
Lemons—30c doz.
Peaches—$1.00 box.
Onions—1c lb.
Honey—12 1/2c lb.
Dressed meats—block hogs, fancy, 10c; ordinary 9c and 9 1/4c; veal, fancy 9c; ordinary 8c and 8 1/2c.
Bacon, best country, 15c; fancy, 16c.
Hams 15c, bulk land 16 1/2c.
Sugar—$3.75 per sack.
Evergreen blackberries—2 1/2c lb.
Chickens—old hens—16c; springs, 17c; young roosters, 14c, mixed 11c and 12c.
Oregon City Enterprise $1.50.

Go to the New Aurora Hotel bar and try a little Walnut Hill whiskey, or Martini cognac, or the celebrated Mt. Hood beer.

MRS. L. DEARDORF PASSES.

Sister of Richard Bradley is Victim of Deadly Cancer.

Mrs. Lottie Deardorf, a sister of Richard Bradley, of Montana, died Monday night in St. Vincent's hospital at Portland. Her death was the result of an operation for cancer, performed about six weeks ago. Mrs. Deardorf was the widow of Tobias Deardorf, and she crossed the plains in early days, locating in Oregon with her husband, who died about three years ago. She was 55 years of age, and is survived by a brother, Richard Bradley, and four sisters, Mrs. Edna Wilburn, Mrs. Egbert Foster, Mrs. Henry Githens, all of Eagle Creek, and Mrs. A. E. Lake, of The Dalles. Mrs. Deardorf was a resident of Lents and the interment will be in Multnomah cemetery, near that place.

SELLWOOD RESIDENT DEAD.

Frederick W. Hacker was Former Resident of Canemah.

Frederick W. Hacker, for many years a resident of Oregon City, died Monday at his home in Sellwood, where he moved from Canemah last year. He was aged 53 years, 10 months and 22 days, and was a native of Illinois. Mr. Hacker had been in Oregon 21 years. He has a mother and four brothers in Philomath, Benton County, and is survived by a widow and three children, Lottie, Lillie and Lida, of Sellwood. The funeral took place Wednesday afternoon from the First Baptist Church of this city and the interment was in Mountain View Cemetery.

BODY OF LOUISE RICE FOUND.

Funeral of Unfortunate Girl is Held at Vancouver, Wash.

The remains of Miss Gertrude Louise Rice, of Portland, who disappeared from her home in that city in January, were found Friday in the Willamette river near the Inman-Poulson mills, and the funeral services were conducted Saturday, the interment taking place in Vancouver, Wash., and beside her mother, Fannie McDevitt, of Portland, having charge of the services at the grave.

Miss Rice was well known in this city, having made her home here for several years with her aunt, the late Mrs. F. L. Cochran. At that time she was one of Clackamas County's school teachers, having taught at Beaver Creek and at Stafford. After taking up her residence in Portland she took up stenography and bookkeeping as her vocation, and at the time of her death was connected with the Oregon Life Insurance Company. Miss Rice, shortly before her death, was despondent owing to lung trouble, which was the cause of her rash act.

Mrs. Caroline Stubbe.

Mrs. Caroline Stubbe died at her home in Eugene aged 86 years, 9 months and 25 days.

WANTED—Experienced girl for general housework in Portland. Small family. Good wages. Desirable situation for the right girl.

Resolutions of Condolence.

Whereas, the Great Spirit in His wisdom and goodness has seen fit to remove from our midst and has taken to that undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveler ever returns, our beloved brother, John Weismann, be it

Resolved, That Wecheno Tribe, No. 13, Impd. O. R. M., has lost one of her most worthy members and one who always held to the great principles of Freedom, Friendship and Charity.

Freedom—in honor of that race to whom the forests, the plains, the hills and the valleys of this land were as free as the air to the eagle, and in memory of the early struggles to wrest those United States from dependency to foreign rule.

Friendship—to commemorate the unswerving loyalty which makes sweet and lasting the relations in which the members of our order are united.

Charity—whose other name is Love, the crowning virtue of human life, under whose enabling influence mankind is lifted higher and nearer toward the Divine Ideal worshipped in the Great Spirit.

Now be it further resolved that the charter of the Tribe be draped in mourning for 30 days and a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the record of the Tribe and also a copy sent to the family and the city papers.

May his eternal lot be cast with those who know no sorrow and can feel no pain.

Fraternally submitted in F. F. and C.

Committee:
W. R. Ream,
E. L. McFarland,
C. W. Kelly.
