VALUE OF PUBLICITY WORK.
Secretary Davis Outlines Progress of His Department.

OREGON CITY, Or., Sept. 22.—(Editor of the Enterprise)—I deem it proper that the contributors to the funds of the Publicity Department of the Commercial Club should know what impressions are being made by the literature and correspondence emanating from the secretary's office and what the prospects for results are. Therefore for their information and for the gratification of all who are interested in this good work I present the following extracts of a sentence or two each from some of the many letters which are received at this office.

"I am coming out there somewhere to locate." (From Iowa.)

"Brother and I will visit Oregon City next fall." (From Idaho.)

"We leave here Oct. 1 and will give you a call." (North Dakota.)

"My body in this neck of the woods wants to leave home." (Oklahoma.)

"I think I will be out there in the Spring."

"I hope to be all sold out and ready in the early spring to move." (From New York.)

"I have not the Oregon fever and want to know as much as I can."

"I wish to get where I can raise a garden and not be dried up, is possible." (From Nebraska.)

"I thank you very much for your much appreciated information, but I am coming West in the spring. I am a good eater and cannot raise anything here only in old years."

"I am coming in October to look up a location to raise poultry."

"We and I will surely come down to this section over shortly." (From Eastern Oregon.)

"I am thinking of coming to that country about December 1st." (From Kentucky.)

"I intend moving to your country during the early winter."

"I am coming to that country next month with my family."

"I am interested in Oregon and am certainly interested in your county and am interesting my friends." (From New York. Sends for "several copies of the Clackamas County Bulletin" for distribution.)

Let our citizens do what is done by the writers from whom I last quoted and by many others in far away states and send to this office the names and addresses of persons likely to be interested in our literature.

Most Sincerely,
S. P. DAVIS,
Secretary Publicity Department.
