

4 quart bottles of GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE direct to you at all charges paid to the nearest railroad express office, $4.90

IN THE SICK ROOM

You must have the best—guaranteed to be absolutely pure—aged in wood and bottled in glass.

We buy GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE direct from the distillers—have bought it for 44 years. Don't let them sell you something else "just as good."

Buy the best—it's the cheapest in the long run. Bottled by the distillers. Guaranteed to the United States Government and to you to contain nothing except pure straight aged whiskey.

For the first time since 1864 (44 years) in such sections as the public is unable to purchase GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE we will sell you direct 4 quart bottles for $4.90. No danger of refilled bottles—but the GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE—the best made, the best selling brand in the whole world.

W. J. VAN SCHUYVER & CO., 105-107 Second Street, Portland, Ore.

ESTABLISHED 1864 CUT AT THIS LINE AND MAIL TO-DAY

REFERENCE: ANY BANK OR TRUST COMPANY IN OREGON

W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., Portland, Oregon

Each glass case for $4.90 to which please add one by express, prepaid, four quart GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE.

Name _____ City _____

No. _____ State _____

the big snap they have had in times gone by.

Many regrets are heard on every side over the departure of Rev. Mr. Lelsman and family from Stafford, where they have lived for so many years, and Mr. Lelsman has been one of the solid factors working for the good of the community and his going away from our midst is regretted by the many friends of himself and family.

The commodious tent, which was used during the summer months for church services at Wilsonville, has been taken down and the services will now be held in the hall at the usual hour.

The Mothers' Club of Corral Creek school will meet on Friday afternoon, October 8, at four o'clock in the school house, after having had a vacation of six weeks. Business of importance will come before the club and all members are urged to attend.

Hops are being baled and are being loaded on the boats, having been contracted for before picking.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

We are having a nice warm rain in this vicinity.

Mr. Fisher bought a fine cow last week. S. V. Francis is taking care of the cow and Mr. Fisher is working out at Mulino in the logging camp.

A family lately from Colorado has moved into Mr. Lock's house.

J. D. Lock and his father, of Washington, were visiting in this vicinity last week.

Joe Jackson returned home from Eastern Oregon last week.

W. Jackson has bought property on 5th street and is building a new house. Mrs. May Riggles (nee Nicholson), of Washington, is visiting her grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. May, this week.

Mrs. Hickman entertained Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Ott, Mrs. Gillett and Mrs. Duvall, of Sellwood, to dinner last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murrow, of Sellwood, were here Monday. They were packing and moving there as their house has been sold. They have bought property near Hillsboro and are moving to that place.

Fred Erickson has bought the Murrow property on Duane street. Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are buying new furniture and will move into their house this week.

Frank Hedweg, of Independence, came Sunday. He and his wife and little daughter will return home the last of the week.

Mrs. Hamm is on the sick list this week.

Ed May, of Malheur, came last Monday and is visiting relatives and friends here. Mr. May has been away for about twelve years.

WILLAMETTE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berdine was entirely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. They lived on the Miller property near the Willamette river. The fire started in the left near the stovepipe while Mr. Berdine was absent from home, and before it was noticed the fire had gained such headway that the bedroom was all in flames, and it was impossible to check it. Nothing was saved except Mr. Berdine's purse. Had it not been for the loggers working in the vicinity of the house, the barn and cellar would have been destroyed also. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Berdine sympathize with them in their sad misfortune.

Miss Eva Hunter has returned to this place from the East, where she went last winter on account of the illness of her sister. Miss Hunter will teach the Mountain Road school the coming year.

Miss Polly Koellmeier is visiting Mrs. Bremer.

WILSONVILLE.

Mrs. Jemison visited with her daughter in Portland on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Pearl Bailey attended a party in Sherwood on Friday evening.

Peters & Aden are displaying a nice new line of fall suitings.

Mrs. Norris Young and infant child have been in Portland, where the baby has been under the care of a physician for some days, but is now convalescent.

A good many of the people near Wilsonville have been sending Evergreen blackberries to the canneries at Portland, as the berries are commanding a better price than for some time past.

The new real estate firm of Darby & Lowry is erecting a neat little real estate office on the ground near the electric depot.

The Ladies' Aid of Wilsonville Congregational church will meet on Thursday afternoon, October 14th, at two o'clock at the residence of Mrs. White. All those interested are urged to be present.

John Butson who has been in the real estate business in Wilsonville for some time past reports business as a little dull at present as land in this vicinity is increasing in value so rapidly that buyers no longer have

Mrs. Jabez Ray visited friends in Oregon City Friday.

School opened last Monday with a large attendance. The teachers this year are Mrs. Viola Coffey, Miss Thillard, Miss Mattley and Miss Conklin.

A. E. Barnes and family have moved into the house formerly owned by E. Mass.

Mrs. Pollack, of Oregon City, is visiting at her mother's home, Mrs H. R. Shibley.

Charles Andrews, the mail carrier, had the misfortune of losing his best horse.

Otto Werner is suffering from a badly crushed toe. One of his horses stepped on the injured member.

REDLAND.

The people of this place and vicinity will have an opportunity to hear Rev. E. P. Zimmerman, of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, in an illustrated lecture and picture play of wit, humor and pathos. It is hoped there will be a good attendance, admission free. All come and enjoy the evening. It will be a treat not often offered the people so far out in this country.

Mr. Swartz and his sister and husband in Portland last week, they are visiting him and family. He has not seen them for 27 years.

Mr. Foster went to Canby to the fair Thursday.

Mr. Brem's baby was quite sick last Monday, but is better now.

Frank Gruel and family have moved to Montana.

Thomas Harding started on his 87th year last Friday, while handling around his birthday cake he was wished 100 years of life, but he said "O, No, I have lived long enough."

Redland school will begin Monday with Miss West as teacher.

Redland people are busy picking their crop of prunes and plums and taking them to the dryer at Viola, to Charles Higginbotham.

Rev. May and his bride will arrive at the parsonage this week and hold his first service at Redland M. E. church at 11 A. M. All invited that do not go elsewhere.

George Higginbotham and Fred Wilcox have returned to their school at Corvallis.

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

The weather is cool and pleasant just now and now is the time to go buggy riding, as there is no dust.

J. A. Hodge went to Portland Tuesday to visit relatives for a few days.

J. H. Esle made a business trip to Oregon City Wednesday.

John Kaiser and wife have been spending the week with Mike Shuster and wife, of Portland, but returned home Saturday to prepare for their visit to the A. Y. P. exposition.

August Gebhardt is again in our midst, busy at work on the Koellmeier house, which he expects to have completed in another week.

Miss Eva Hunter has returned from the East, where she had been called to see her sick sister, and will open school Monday, September 27.

Nels Christensen has put a wire fence around his house and erected an iron gate, which looks fine and dandy.

Mrs. William Kaiser and children and Mrs. Ruby Koellmeier were the guests of Mrs. L. Koellmeier one day this week.

John Ehlers was in this vicinity on business Saturday. Mr. Ehlers will soon begin painting on Henry Toedtermeier's house.

Miss Mabel Hodge went to Willamette Tuesday to remain a short time.

Carl Esle went to Willamette Saturday.

Mr. Stangler and wife, of Wilsonville, were in this neighborhood looking at some cattle on Sunday.

Miss Minnie Bookman went to Willamette Friday to attend to business in connection with her house and lot.

Fred Zimmerman is drying prunes at present.

Everybody is home from the hop fields and most every one has their money spent.

Mr. Ernest Bookman spent Thursday afternoon with Claus Peters.

MOLALLA.

Notwithstanding the rainy morning last Saturday, the Molalla Fair had a very good attendance which came to the relief of the executive committee, as it was not put to the trouble of borrowing money to pay off the premiums, as it had expected to do early in the day. Again we can say our fair was a success "rain or shine."

Capt. Bartlett's shooting was well appreciated and as some expressed themselves, well worth the admission to the fair.

Lloyd Shaver had the misfortune to get kicked by a nervous colt on the hip Saturday morning, he was able to hobble about some in the afternoon, although quite pale. Major Hungate got kicked by the same colt later in the day, but less seriously.

Mr. Lesslie got struck with the sixteen pound shot, put on the hip, which laid him out for a while, but rallied in a short time. The shot put went wild by a slip.

W. D. Adam's brother and wife, of California, are visiting relatives on the Molalla for a few weeks.

Miss Anna Gibson, of Portland, came up to take in the Molalla fair, returning this morning.

Married last Wednesday, Miss Stella Powell and Mr. Gilbert Engle. They will make their home in the Molalla Valley, the Paradise of Matrimonial bliss, where all their friends wish them smooth sailing.

Little Samuel Engle, Jr., has two grandmothers and four great-grandmothers and a father and mother to pose with him for a picture. Can anybody's Samuel beat that?

Mrs. Thomas went home with Mrs. Bell last Friday to visit the Seattle Fair for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Waits returned from the A. Y. P. Exposition last Friday evening. They report a very good visit.

F. E. Albright and wife will move to Oregon City, where they are interested in a grocery store.

George H. Gregory, Molalla's teasel grower, returned from the East looking hale and hearty and reports a very pleasant and profitable visit. He thinks all Oregon lacks of outdoing New York is the people and business opportunities.

We got to thinking that if Canby turned the whole of the Molalla river on to her sand bank it would absorb the entire stream, so we are making preparations to let some of it on our flats to sorter wet up the ground for future needs.

WILLAMETTE.

School has started here again and the children and teachers have settled down to work as if they meant business.

Mrs. Ernest Mass received word of the death of her uncle, Willard Werner, last Saturday and she and her sister, Mrs. Nellie Berdine, left for Independence, where the funeral services took place in the afternoon. They returned home Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Saunders have gone to Tillamook for three or four weeks.

John Kaiser, Joe Esle, Lou Koel, Irmelmer, Henry Toedmeier, Julius Iderhoff, William Kaiser and Henry Koellmeier, all prosperous farmers of Mountain Road, were in our town on business during the week.

Mrs. Emma Horburg is spending the week with her friend, Miss Emmelle Toedmeier, of Advance.

Mr. and Mrs. Baker, of Monmouth, Oregon, spent Saturday and Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Baker. Mr. Baker is vice-president of the Oregon Milling & Warehouse Co., of Independence, and manager of the warehouse at Monmouth. He says the wheat and oats crop are enormous this year.

Miss Pauline Koellmeier spent last week with her aunt, Mrs. August Bremer.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Krause, of Wilsonville, spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. B. F. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fromong, of West Oregon City, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fromong.

Gladys Baker and Ernest Downey are attending the high school at Oregon City.

Robert W. Baker was visiting the school here yesterday.

Miss Margaret Hornum, of Portland, was visiting her grandmother, Mrs. M. Gary.

Miss Wang, of Canby, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gary.

Mrs. Ernest, of Oregon City, spent Wednesday with her friend, Mrs. Bremer.

Grandma Gary, who fell and broke her hip is doing very nicely. Her nurse is still with her.

Miss Stone spent Sunday with Mrs. Gus Schauer.

Nearly everybody has returned from the hop yards at last and every one comes with a big grin and a pocket full of money.

Mrs. Iben Tonkin spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. Batdorf, of West Oregon City.

Miss Eva Hunter passed through here Saturday on her way to Mountain Road, where she will teach school this winter. Miss Hunter taught there for a while last winter, when

FIVE-MINUTE TALK
How to Keep Away
CHICKEN LICE MITES COCKROACHES AND BED BUGS

For a Whole Year by a Single Application of
AVENARIUS CARBOLINEUM

(German Wood Preserver)
Non-poisonous, sanitary, odor free, up to 100% effective, does not discolor, does not let your dealer give you a worthless imitation.

FOR SALE BY ALL DEALERS, Carbolineum Wood Preserving Co., Portland, Or.

Wholesale agents:
Milwaukee, Wis. The Y. San Francisco, Cal. Fisher, Thorsen & Co. Dept. 12, Portland Oregon. Write for Testimonials.

ONLY ONE GENUINE

THERE IS ONLY ONE GENUINE CARBOLINEUM, THAT IS THE AVENARIUS CARBOLINEUM. THERE IS A CHEAP IMITATION ON THE MARKET THAT IS BEING OFFERED AT FROM $1.00 TO $1.25 PER GALLON. THE GENUINE AVENARIUS CARBOLINEUM IN QUART GANS 50 CENTS, AND ONE GALLONS AT $1.50 WILL DO ALL THAT IS CLAIMED FOR IT. INSIST ON THE GENUINE, TAKE NO OTHER. PUT UP IN LITHOGRAPHIC GANS AND SOLD IN OREGON CITY.

TEAZEL CREEK.

Her many friends were glad to welcome Mrs. Joe Simmons to their midst again after her long period of ill health. She was able to attend the grange fair after being confined at home for over eighteen months.

Rev. Quinn returned last Monday from a visit at Brownsville and Harrisburg, where he spent several days visiting old friends.

Mrs. J. H. Quinn is on the sick list this week.

The Rev. Quinn has been offered the Teazel Creek pastorate for another year. It is not known yet whether he will accept the position.

COLTON.

Everybody is busy digging potatoes at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Will James, of Liberal, have moved to the Hubbard place.

E. S. Dix, C. Stromgren and J. Putz were among the Oregon City visitors last Monday.

A. Anderson purchased a cow from U. S. Dix last week.

Mr. Swanson, the road supervisor, of road district No. 21, is busy hauling gravel with several teams this week.

Mr. Berghind was around again this week with beef.

Mr. and Mrs. Danielson were at Portland purchasing store goods a few days last week.

J. and F. Carlson took some beef cattle to town Tuesday.

D. J. Bonney, the merchant of Elwood, successor to professor Wilson, was at Mulino for a load of flour last week.

J. Putz is painting the school house roof.

M. Kandle and Hill Hettman, of Highland, took a trip to their ranches in the foot hills last week.

Mr. Carter was out putting up several tomb stones at Colton and Elwood Tuesday.

R. Putz is drying prunes on shares for A. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ball and children were visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. A. B. Countryman at Meadowbrook last Saturday and Sunday.

J. J. Jones and Arnett Bros. left for the mountains to hunt and prospect this week.

Mrs. Lawrence Bonney and children who had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dix, for the last three weeks, left for her home at Hillsboro last week.

Messrs Bonney and Gorbett were at Oregon City Wednesday.

OUR BIG OFFER.

Catarrah Cured or Get Your Money Back.

What if a specialist in catarrhal affliction, a real physician of character and integrity, should offer to cure you of catarrh, or nothing to pay? You would jump at the chance. Of course you would. You would be foolish if you didn't.

And how that the makers of Hyomel (pronounced High-o-mel) the Australian Inhalation Cure, that has actually cured more cases of catarrh than all the catarrh specialists of America combined, say to you that Hyomel will cure your catarrh, or you can have your money back, what are you going to do?

Are you going to continue to suffer with smuffles, crusts in the nose, watery eyes, mucus in the throat, and all the annoying and distressing conditions that accompany catarrh, when Huntley Bros. Co. guarantees Hyomel to cure you or money back?

Just breathe Hyomel in. Huntley Bros. will tell you all about it. A complete outfit, including inhaler, costs $1.00, and extra bottles 50 cents.

MI-ONA
Cures Indigestion

It relieves stomach misery, sour stomach, belching, and cures all stomach disorders or money back. Large box of tablets 50 cents. Druggists in all towns.

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

KELSO.

R. E. Jarl is very busy in his store after being away on a month's vacation.

A large crew of men started to work on the Sandy Ridge road Monday.

Victor Johnson is ill with appendicitis. He went to the hospital Sunday.

Be Nelson, the two Albel boys, George Wolf, of Dover, of Eagle Creek, bought a fine black percheron horse from A. C. Ruby, of Portland.

A large number of people from here and Sandy attended the stock show at Rose City Park last week.

Frances Wever, of Sandy, was married last week. The groom is butter-maker for Vetch. They went to Seattle to attend the fair.

Will Bell and Ed Burns are the latest to attend the Seattle Fair.

Rob Johnson purchased a fine coach mare from C. A. Johnson recently.

Ed Hart, of Firwood, and Mr. Spillman purchased some registered Jersey cows recently. They paid prices that most farmers would balk at.

R. E. Jarl sold his 40 acres of land on Sandy Bluff last week.

Mr. Goldenstop of George, has bought the Wever tract of 10 acres here.

Jarl Bros. went to Marmot Sunday.

Be Nelson, McCormick and Mr. Fosberg have marketed all of their prunes at Cleone, to be shipped East.

Everyone here who had grain to thresh report a large yield. The man who is a farmer ought to be happy this year with hay, grain, veal, hogs, chickens, eggs and butter commanding such high prices.

Some of the farmers here are hunting for fresh Jersey cows. They seem to have little success in finding any.

WILSONVILLE.

The two teachers are boarding at Be Nelson's.

A large crew of men started to work on the Sandy Ridge road Monday.

Mrs. Jemison visited with her daughter in Portland on Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Pearl Bailey attended a party in Sherwood on Friday evening.

Peters & Aden are displaying a nice new line of fall suitings.

Mrs. Norris Young and infant child have been in Portland, where the baby has been under the care of a physician for some days, but is now convalescent.

A good many of the people near Wilsonville have been sending Evergreen blackberries to the canneries at Portland, as the berries are commanding a better price than for some time past.

The new real estate firm of Darby & Lowry is erecting a neat little real estate office on the ground near the electric depot.

The Ladies' Aid of Wilsonville Congregational church will meet on Thursday afternoon, October 14th, at two o'clock at the residence of Mrs. White. All those interested are urged to be present.

John Butson who has been in the real estate business in Wilsonville for some time past reports business as a little dull at present as land in this vicinity is increasing in value so rapidly that buyers no longer have

WILLAMETTE.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Berdine was entirely destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon. They lived on the Miller property near the Willamette river. The fire started in the left near the stovepipe while Mr. Berdine was absent from home, and before it was noticed the fire had gained such headway that the bedroom was all in flames, and it was impossible to check it. Nothing was saved except Mr. Berdine's purse. Had it not been for the loggers working in the vicinity of the house, the barn and cellar would have been destroyed also. The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Berdine sympathize with them in their sad misfortune.

Miss Eva Hunter has returned to this place from the East, where she went last winter on account of the illness of her sister. Miss Hunter will teach the Mountain Road school the coming year.

Miss Polly Koellmeier is visiting Mrs. Bremer.

Astmann Park

Beautiful high and Sightly Lots
$100 and Upwards

Sold on Easy Payments

80 Acres in Small Tracts

Ideal location for Summer Homes on magnificent Garibaldi Beach

This property is very desirable. The owner will clear the principal streets and put water on the tract.
There will be a mill on the ground to furnish lumber and shingles.

TERMS ARE SO EASY THAT ANYONE CAN AFFORD TO BUY

NO INTEREST NO TAXES

FOR SALE BY
FRANK ASTMANN, Owner.
OREGON CITY

ELECTRIC HEATING AND COOKING

Try an Electric Heater in your living room or office---simple, clean, economical.

Try a Chafing Dish or Coffee Percolator in the Dining Room.

Portland Railway Light & Power Company
147 SEVENTH STREET

JOHN W. THOMAS,
DENTIST.
Molalla Mondays.