NEWS OF THE COUNTY

CLACKAMAS.

The beautiful autumn days find every one occupied with preparation for the coming rainy season.

School opened Monday, September 27. The new building, though not completed, is utilized for the primary and intermediate departments. For a short time Principal Heacock and his pupils occupy one room of the old building.

A good many of our Clackamas people went to Portland Saturday to see President Taft, and were not disappointed.

The Mothers' Club held its first meeting for the school year Friday afternoon. It was voted to change the name, and the society will hereafter be known as "The School and Home Club." By this action the club invites to its membership all in the community who are interested in school and home work. On motion it was voted to make application to the State Commission for another library. Miss Edna Armstrong will serve as librarian, and the library will be stored at the school house.

E. O. Hayward and family, of Portland, spent Sunday with his parents and sisters in Clackamas. Mrs. Hayward and the two children, with her mother, Mrs. White, expect to leave for Fresno, California, about October 15th.

Miss May Johnston returned home from the St. Vincent Hospital about ten days ago.

Well, as the Canby fair is over now, everybody will turn their attention to potato digging and fall plowing, as the rain did little good to the soil.

C. Smith has been doing some blasting in his well, but the work goes very slow.

Irene Smith has gone on a vacation trip for her health.

C. E. Smith presented his wife with a nice buggy for the baby.

his orchard. There was an immense crop of prunes this year and many are being converted into pork. The prunes do not have to be graded or sorted for Mr. Hog, he takes them as he finds them and cracks the pits.

At the time of writing no improvement of the condition of the typhoid fever patient is reported.

We have not heard the young lady's name that is stopping with A. L. Larkins, but think it is No. nine.

Wonder why that vegetable man doesn't show some of those wonderful vegetables closer home.

Mrs. Conitryman, our school director, is somewhat interested in the butter market just at present.

This will bring many visitors to our village, who cannot help but be delighted with this annual resort upon the banks of the Willamette.

Our farmers will do well to take note of the fact that a bona fide commission house is being opened in Oregon City in the Y. M. C. A. building, at the corner of Tenth and Main streets, under the management of T. F. Rourke, as was announced in the Enterprise of last week. Dr. A. L. MOLALLA.

School began Monday with two new teachers, Mrs. Joy being the only one in the school work this year that was here last year. The school building has been remodeled for better accommodations and a good term of school is anticipated.

Molalla people generally are well pleased with the improvement made at the county fair over that of last year and the way the ground has packed is wonderful. Surely no mistake was made in selecting Canby as the permanent location for the county fair. Continued good management will make it one of the best county fairs of the state.

The October session of Clackamas County District Pomona Grange will be entertained at Logan next Wednesday, October 13.

Charles Thomas and Charles Hardy returned from Wabburg, Wash. last week, where they have been running combines through the harvest. The former will follow the road estate business this winter in Portland.

Have you had the pleasing sensation of passing Molalla cheese down your throat yet? If not just try it at your very first opportunity and be convinced of being near the old saying, "The proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof."
