FEATURES OF GREAT SHOW

PUSH CLUB AND GRANGES GIVE COLOR TO DISPLAY AT COUNTY FAIR.

GLADSTONE GETS PRIZE

Exhibits of Ladies' Textile Department and Culinary Articles Were Commendable-Aurora Baby is First.

(Continued from last week.)

The Oak Grove Improvement Club had a very attractive display of fruits and vegetables that were raised from the soil of that thriving town. The artistic background was formed of stalks of corn 12 feet bigh, huge bunches of purple and white grapes of six varieties, that almost tempted the visitor as he passed along, but much of this fruit was kept in rethe soil of that thriving town. The the visitor as he passed along, but much of this fruit was kept in re-serve for free distribution. The committee in charge of the exhibit on Thursday was composed of Mrs. B. Lee Paget, Miss F. H. Kilgore, Mrs. Julius Broetje, Alfred Gertsen and John Risley; on Friday, Dr. and Mrs. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Wosley Mc-Arthur, Mes. A. E. Cosgriff, and on Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. John Risley. display contained everything found in a garden, orchard and in the culinary line. A handsome exhibit of needlework and photography was also among the exhibits, the latter being the only exhibit of its kind in the bullding lished in magazines and newspapers.

Among her work were the following: "Moonlight scene on the Willamette," "Ruby Starkweather," "Scene on the high bluff along the Clackamas River," "The old Homestead of Mr. Risley on the Willamette River, Little Bobby Risley eating fruit," 'Helen Andrews," and "Grandma "Helen Andrews," and "Buergmeister and Bobby." Among the others that attracted attention was that taken during the haying season on the Risley farm, the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Risley, "Bobby" and Victor, and their cousin Ralph Risley playing among the hay, the picture vas reproduced in last Sunday's Ove gonian. Mrs. Risley's artistic taste has won for her a widespread reputa-tion as an artist. Among the exhibitors were Henry Heltkemper, green peppers, grapes, Japanese pears, corn, pole beans (12 inches long), potatoes, two varieties, one of which was the Blue German, memaplus and crabapples; M. J. Higgins, onlons and to-matoes; F. M. Young, 35 varieties of squashes and pumpkins; E. C. Arnold, corn, apples and pears; Otto Naef. potatoes, carrots, and onions; Charles Higham, sunflower, 16 inches in diam-Julius Broetje, vegetables, ne variety of sickle pears, (original) blackberries; William Oatkin, tomatoes, tobacco plant, squash, kola raba, beets and mangel, pumpkins, melons; Ed Roethe, peaches, apples and pears; Mrs. Henry Heitkemper, canned fruit and vegetables and pickles; Mrs. Ru-pert, canned vegetables cooked by fireless cooker; Amiel Tucholke, po-tatoes; John Risley, grapes, apples, sears, squash and butternuts; Risley, pears, plums, apples and corn; Mrs. J. T. Gray, plums, pears, apples and grapes; Mrs. B. Lee Paget, four varieties grapes, Concord Moore's Early, Worden and Niagars; Ralston Moore, pumpkin, peanuts, 15 of which grew on one plant; Mrs. C. Bigham, large pumpkin; Mr. Keiser, rhubarb, 22 inches in length; Alfred Gertzen, grapes: George Drabbs, summer squashes, and potatoes; A. C. Arnold, corn, Mrs. McLees, Jellies and can-ned fruit; Mrs. J. B. Hicks, Jellies and canned fruit; J. Higgins, tematoes and onlons; W. Inman, grapes; Mrs. John Risley, canned fruit and vege-tables; Mrs. A. D. Cosgriff, canned fruit, vegetables and jellies; irving Hanson, parsnips; W. J. Webber, quinces and grapes: Florence Bigham, (15 years old) Jellies: Fred Allinger, oggs (one three inches in length): Miss F. H. Kilgore, two varieties of strawberries, Magone and Excelsior, Japanese pears and corn; J. A. Rupert, strawberries and corn; Mr. Oat-field, alfalfa; Mrs. Thiessen, collection of pumpkins; Mrs. Julius Broet-je, canned vegetables and fruit; Mrs. Charles Bigham, canned vegetables and fruit; Mr. Peterson, apples; Mrs. Myra McArthur, canned fruit; Mrs. Woods, canned fruit and vegetables; E. G. Starkweather, grain, pears, apples; Ruby Stromer, fungus (curio); Dr. McArthur, six varieties of apples; John A. Kuks, grapes and John H. Broetje, grapes. The needlework department of this club also attracted attention, and consisted of point laces. doilies, centerpieces, table linen and quilts. Those having exhibits in this line were Mrs. J. B. Hicks, old fash-ioned shawl; Buelah Harpole, doilles, Mrs. Cosgriff, center pieces, sofa cushion; Miss Flora Kilgore, point lace jacket, collars, Battenburg and handkerchiefs; Mrs. Julius Broetje, doilles; Mrs. Lou Armstrong, table cloth and drawn work; Mrs. Backus, collar, embroidery and center piece; Mrs. Armstrong, doilles.

Oak Grove received third premium for best display.

Warner Grange. The complete exhibit of the War-ner Grange attracted widespread attention. Here could be found strawberries raised by Tim Finnegan; apples and corn, by R. S. Coe; potatoes and quinces, Mrs. Hoffman; wheat, beans, oats, corn and canned fruit, Mr. and Mrs. James Hylton; potatoes, melons, pumpkins and tomatoes, A. M. Vineyard; peaches and corn, Thomas F. Ryan; tomatoes, pears and apples, Mrs. Spulak; grapes, rye and squash, Mr. Dodds; corn. Mr. Burgoyne; beans, peas and onlons, William Gard-ner; wheat and beans, Mr. Lazelle; wheat and potatoes, Mr. Randall; Many beautiful pieces of needlework were also exhibited by Mrs. Hoffman, Mrs. McArthur, Miss Spulak, Mrs. George Lazelle and Miss Hoffman. The display had a background of black on which were hung sunflower blossoms, corn and golden grain. A fine Warner Grange was awarded first premium at last year's fair, and the members are jubilant over receiving members are jubilant over receiving moreland, widely known as Lodd's New Namless Dwarf tomatoes, two 25c at Jones Drug Co. first premium for grange exhibits.

The Gladstone Push Club's exhibit was in charge of Mrs. E. Harrington, Miss Pearl Harrington, E. Carter, O. E. Freytag and Thomas F. Ryan. This is idences are in the bands of the arch-the first time that the club has ever litects and contractors to be built at taken an active part in exhibiting at any county fair, and first premium for the best display was given it. Above the exhibits and at the rear were decorations of corn stalks, sunflowers, grains and grasses, and in cently on exhibition at the state fair, the center was a large pennant bear—where it attracted no little attention. ing the name of Gladstone. The Alaska Indian relics of Mys. O. E. Freytag, furs and collection of Ivery from Alaska belonging to Mys. E. Harrington, added to the beauty of the display. Among the Gladstone people to exhibit were Judge Thomas F. Ram which there were seen radishes 15 inches long, pumpkins weighing 50 pounds, onlons, and the control of Ryan, who had five jars of peaches potatoes, corn, of which there were and corn, the latter being on the five varieties, including the Yellow stalks, two varieties of potatoes, Burbank, and Hilron, wheat, oats, pears corn and field corn, turnips, mangle and apples and vegetables; H. E. wurtzel, squashes, pumpkins, cucum-cross two jars of peaches, corn and bers, beets, cabbage, carrots 12 inches canned beans; Mrs. H. E. Cross can-ned fruit; Mr. Holowell, large col-lection of vegetables, including toma-ranged with ears of corn, sunflowers. toes, celery, onions, peppers, cabbage, grains and grasses. This booth was squash, beans, pumpkins, melons, car-awarded third premium. dots, cabbage, three varieties of toma-toes, and a collection of fruit including on this floor was the exhibit of ing grapes, peaches, huckleberries and fruits, grasses, grain and vegetables strawberries; J. C. Schmidt, velvet from the Mountain Ash Stock Farm, chaff; O. E. Freytag, prunes, squash,

Glen Baker, sunflower; Mrs. T. F. Ryan, collection of jellies; Mrs. F. A. Parker, jellies; Mrs. E. Harrington, honey, red fox skin rug, and a collection of ivory, including peace pipe, mallets, napkin rings, knives, collection of pearl knives, cork screws, made of ivory and gold, the gold being taken from the mines by Mrs. Harrington's son, and is of beautiful design, and a collection of old ivory including pick, shovel and ax; four ivory cribbage boards. Mrs. Hagerman had a handsome display of needle-work, including tea cloths, tray cloths, dollies, many of them of Mexican drawnwork design. She also had fans Among those who had exhibits were and an opera hag. Mrs. Schmidt also had shadow embroidered shirt walsts, John Risley, who had canned fruit, canned vegetables, and photograph work, 21 pictures in all, taken from centerpieces, quilt, (log cabin design), and two sofa cushions Mrs. James Pardee, 12 doilles and centerpieces, hammered brass tray of her own make, and plano cover; Miss Howell. many of which have been pubtatting collars and handkerchief, Hat-tenberg collar, sofa pillow; Mrs. Mulkey, two sofa pillows; Mrs. Julia Tingle, centerpiece and dollies to match, sun dial quilt, quilted 75 years Mrs. Thompson, crazy work Mrs. O. E. Freytag, Indian baskets and beads; Mrs. William Dann, sofa pillow; Mrs. Ladd, knitted shawl, cornet cover (hand embroidered); W. H. Miller, inlaid box made by hand 40 years ago; Mrs. Beach, rug and Barlow Exhibits.

Barlow, as usual, was in line with fine display of all kinds of farm produce and needlework and this booth was in charge of H. T. Melvin and Miss Bessie Sheppard. Some of the finest farms in the county are found near Barlow, and the display that was to be seen at the county fair in this booth proved that farming in that section of the county was being carried on very successfully. Hanging baskets, flowering plants, palms and grains and grasses were used among the decorations, as well as huge bunches of corn stalks, from 10 to 12 feet in heighth. This booth was awarded second prize for best Among the exhibits noticable were pepper plant, canthed fruit, cucum-bers, grapes, dried pears; S. B. Berg, vetch, straw, seed wheat, barley and oats, potatoes and wine; George Fry. four varieties of potatoes, Early Rose, Early Snowflake, Wonder and Burbank; A. Peterson, potatoes, pump-kins and beets; S. Erickson, carrots, wheat, potatoes, seed of Winter Club wheat, corn stalk with corn, stalk of which was 11 feet high; B. O. Bergerson, corn 12 feet high, cobs of which were 12 inches long, popeorn; Bob Ogle, corn, one kernel of which was planted nine ears sprouting, pie pum-pkin, wheat; H. T. Melvin, straw-berries, sofa pillow and oats six feet high; Guy Ogle, radish 15 inches long. Mr. Parmenter, popcorn, alfalfa, field orn, potatoes, canned fruh. 12 pie pumpkins; Mrs. Andrus, Kohl-rabi Spanish pepper plants, hanging bas-kets, collection of flowers, canned fruit, wheat; W. W. Keebaugh, five mangle wurtzles; Mrs. Daisy Ogle, cabbage; Mrs. L. L. Irwin, umbrella rack, canned fruit and flowers; Mrs. Parmenter, flowers and canned fruit; Mr. Raisted, vegetables; Elmer Irwin, burnt woodwork ;Mrs. Quint, 76 years of age, needlework; Miss Agnes Eckern, bureau scarf; Mrs. R. O. Veteto quilt; Mrs. O. M. Ausve, quilt; Miss Josie Ausve, sofa pillow; Mrs. R. M. Dement, silk quilts. Among others who had displays of needlework were Mrs. James Ogle, Harriet L. Irwin, Olga Howe, Miss Bessie Sheppard. The cozy vorner in this booth, with its beautiful sofa cushions added to its attractiveness.

Floral Exhibit. Mrs. William Knight, of Canby, was in charge of the floral exhibit. This was on the lower floor in the southeast corner, and was a bower of beau-Hanging baskets, geraniums, fuschias, begonias and asters were among the display.

On the second floor were the booths of the Columbia Trust Company, of Portland, farm products from the Mountain Ash Stock Farm, belonging to George M. LaZelle & Son, of Oregon City; S. Terry, of Canby; O. R. Daugherty, of Molalla and Meeks & White; culinary department pre-sided over by Mrs. C. N. Wait, of Canby, ladies textile department, in charge of Mrs. J. L. Waldron, of Oregon City, Juvenile department, in charge of Miss Anna Wilhart, of Oregon City. The Columbia Trust Company upon invitation of the Clackamas County Fair Association, had a booth, which was in charge of H. S. Forrer. This booth was in the east end of the building, and the large painted picture covers 2500 miles, including nine counties of the state. Many of the highest peaks of the state of Washington and Oregon can be seen at a distance, making it one of the most attractive maps ever gotten out. The picture is 12x6 feet neatly framed and was visited by hundreds of fair visitors, and explained by Mr. Forrer, who is one of the company's most capable display of jellies, canned fruits, pre-serves and flowers helped to make up the display, which was awarded the Government Barracks at Vancouver, Wash., and is the greatest pan-

Crystal Springs Farm, and lies be-tween Sellwood and Portland. More than 14 homes have just been erected in this tract and 40 other modern res-

In the northwest corner of the buildthe owners of which are George La-zelle & Son, of Oregon City. In were five boxes of choice redcheeked apples. The background of this fine display was black, and bright colored Virginia Creeper vines, corn, and sunflowers, were used as decorations. Mr. Lazelle & Son were well rewarded for their task, as they were awarded second premium.

"Hillsrale Parm" was the reading over the farm display of O. R. Daugherty, of Molalia, which was in the northwest corner of the exhibit building on the second floor. The display was arranged by Mr. Daugherty's two sons, Otis and Fred Daugherty. Cedar. boughs were used, and green and red were the colors used as a basis to emphasize the tone of the decorations.

Mr. Daugherty is the owner of a

00 acre farm at Molalia, where these exhibits were grown, and the results of his scientific methods of farming were shown to good advantage. Among the exhibits were rutabagas 12 inches in diameter, stalks of corn, 12 feet high, (one of which had six eras), melons, Mammoth whale squashes, (weighing 53 pounds), Jumpumpkins, weighing 85 pounds). Big Tom pumpkins, (weighing 50 another one weighing 62 pounds, several squashes ranging from 20 to 25 pounds; melons, 60 different articles, including jellies, butter, eggs, canned fruits and vegetables. The first premium was awarded this exhibit.

Meeks & White had on exhibit a collection of vegetables including corn, tomatoes, parsnips, potatoes. This collection was on the second floor near the stairway, and some of these were awarded prizes.

Ladies Textile Department.

The Ladies Textile Department, in charge of Mrs. J. L. Waldron, of this was a marked credit to the ladies who had their best work on display, and this exhibit was greatly admired by many who could be seen fairly ex-amining the various pieces of art from the tiny doily to the elaborate bedspreads. There were many pieces worthy of special mention, yet space in these columns does not permit. Among the articles that were in this department were a towl, belonging to Mrs. R. M. Dement, made in 1834; princes, tobacco plant, melons, dried princes, two varieties, (Hungarian and Italian.) eggs; Mrs. Jesse, string beans, pepper plant, canned fruit events.

The curio department contained a platter 100 years old, belonging to Mrs. S. Terry, which was presented to Mr. Terry's mother as a wedding gift. The platter has been handed down gen-erations and is without a flaw; an Armadillo basket, belonging to Mrs. M. J. Lee; maple knot three feet square belonging to C. C. Sannes, large spinning wheel belonging to Mrs. H. A. Lee, used by Mrs. Lee's mother many years ago. Near this booth was a writing desk and bookcase, the work of L. L. Lantz & Sons, who reside near Molalla. The desk was made of several different kinds of wood and was highly polished, and is a work of art.

The Culinary Department. The culinary department was in charge of Mrs. C. N. Wait, of Canby. This was a display that would please the smallest boy to the oldest man in the assembly for here were jellies, preserves, butter, cakes, bread, biscuits, and the ever popular homemade ples. If any bachelor wanting a good cook for a wife, he would do well to attend one of Clackamas County's fairs and call at the culinary booth, for there he would find samples from the best cooks in the state, and it goes without saying he would not be sufferer from dyspepsia, after partaking of same. Mrs. Wait had her booth beautified by a large American flag draped at the rear of her booth.

The Juvenile department, in charge of Miss Anna Wilehart, of this city. came in for its share of premiums as well as the display of the elder ones. This consisted of vegetables, grains, grasses, needlework, and in counection was the culinary department. Among the children of the county who took an active interest in exhibiting in this department were the two children of Mr. and Mrs. Swallow, Maple Lane. In the collection of Miss Myrta's was a collection of jellies, on which she received first premium. Shirlie, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Swallow, received first premium on cake, first on popcorn, and first on her general collection of vegetables, which included melons, potatoes, four varieties, squashes, tomatoes, ground cherries, cucumbers, dried beans, rutabagas, turnips, cabbage, parsnips, beets, squashes and pumpkins. At the rear of her collection were many varieties of grasses and grains tied with bright colored ribbons, and in the center was her following diary, which was read by hundreds of fair visitors:

prize potatoes,

May 19, I planted Yellow Swede rutabagas.

Sparks Earlina and two Early Free dom tomatoes, which were all killed by blight, I also planted three hills of Persian Cluster cocumbers.

May 26, The corn, potatoes and beans I planted May 15 and the rutabagas I planted May 19 sprouted. May 27, I hoed the tomatoes and planted Chinese Winter radishes and Pera cucumbers and the turnips I planted May 27, sprouted. A cutworm destroyed an Early Freedom tomato and it was replaced.

June 5. I hoed the garden and destroyed three cutworms.
June 8, I hoed the garden, after which time I hoed when necessary.

Juvenile Department, Among the others who had exhibits

Baby Show One of the features of the fair this rear was the baby show, in which 39 of Clackamas County's fairest boys and girls under one year of age, dressed in their finest, entered for the premiums. The judges had a hard time to select the prettiest boys and girls on that day as the young-stern were lined up with their proud mothers on the north side of the exhibit building. This event took place on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and was witnessed by hundreds of people. Some of the children were rying, some laughing, and others were asleep dreaming of the premiums they did not carry away. Judge Thomas F. Ryan, Mrs. George Lazelle and Mrs. C. N. Wait had charge of the baby show, who selected the judges.

Little Delma Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Snyder, of Aurora received the $20 gold piece that was presented by the people of Canby for the prettiest baby. Other prizes were awarded to the following: For pret-tiest baby boy, Theodore Richter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richter, of New Era: second prettlest boy, Morris Faust: third prettiest boy, Leonard Whittier; prettiest baby girl, Doro-thy Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, of Portland; second prettiest girl, Irene Petit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Petit, of Oregon City: third prettiest girl, Eleanor Hall, day ghter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, of Oregon City

The Canby Band furnished music for the four days, including Sunday afternoon. On Friday, which was Oregon City, Milwaukie, Oak Grove, Gladstone and Oswego Day, the Milwan-kie band accompanied the Milwankie people, and furnished the music during the day, which was highly appre-ciated. The music furnished during the fair far excelled that of last year, and proved to be a great drawing card The Fowler Carnival Company with many small attractions drew large crowds. The concessionaires, J. D. Hutchinson, George Meeks & Baty, Charles Terry, E. W. Hutchinson, all Canby people, dld a flourishing business, as well as White & Scheer, who ran their automobile as a stage to and from the fair grounds,

The afficers were J. W. Leiser, chief of police; J. T. Betts, of Canby, Ed Probridge, of Canby: J. Shanno Barlow; A. Knight, of Canby; G. Ran by, and H. K. Trackleson, of Canby, Secretary M. J. Lee and his assistant, Howard Eccles, were kept busy from morning till night during the four days of the fair. Sunday was a quiet day at the fair grounds, and the attendance was not large. In the afternoon a match game of base ball between the teams of Hubbard and of Canby took place on the fair field. The score was 6 to 5 in favor of Hubbard. After the base ball game young Cox and Porter, of Canby, with their dogs, Sport and Topsy, gave a trotting race around the half mile race track. The dogs were hitched to carts and driven by the boys to the amusement of the crowd that had gathered to watch the unusual event. The dogs enjoyed the race as well as the boys, and in the home trot Cox and his dog Sport came out ahead. The time was 1:30 for the half mile. On Sunday evening the Clackamas County Fair closed amid a grand display of fireworks on the race track near the grandstand, and was witnessed by several hundred people. The fireworks were in charge of C. N. Wait and J. W. Leiser.

The officials of the association are eserving of great credit for their efforts in making the fair the success proved to be.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters at the Oregon City Postoffice for the week ending October 8.

Women's jist-Alexander, Mrs. Nel-lie; Bowen, Mrs. Frank; Cruger, Mrs. Craig Emma; Duncan, Mrs. F. Evans, Miss G; Goodell, Jessie; Hinman, Mrs. Chas. Knott, Mrs. I. Kruger, Baeb; Long, Mrs. S. A; Mitchell, Mrs. Luella; Nelson, Mabel, (2); Scholes, Mrs. Mina; Smith, Georgie

Men's list—Beasley, Verne; Clarke, Clarence; Clarke, Fred; Dixon, Ora; Dodge, J. F.; Duffield, Virt; Gordon, M.; Heidle, Wilbert; Owens, Walter; Sawyer, A.; Spoonemore, Towne, Bert, Van Ronk, Earl.

Gladstone Wins Football Game,

Saturday with a mixed team from Gladstone, and was won by Glad-stone, the score being 5 to 0. The cransplanted 12 beets, 14 parsnips, 12 onlines and 12 Mangle Wurtzel beets. May 15, 1 planted 10 hills of Burpee's Golden Wax beans, e0 hills of "Aunt May" popcorn, 10 hills of Early Wonder work. Wonder potatoes and 10 hills of Mill's Fifteen minute halves were played.

Up Before the Bar.

May 23, I planted 14 Yellow Danvers carrots, 10 table beets, 13 Hollow Crown parsnips and I raked and hoed the garden.

May 24, I planted two hills of water melons.

May 25, I transplanted two Burners was all find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them. New Yellow May 25, I transplanted two Burners was all the work words wonders.

G. W. MAYFIELD DEAD.

Prominent Pioneer Farmer Passes Away at Highland.

Green W. Mayfield, a well known esident of Highland, died Friday at his home. He was born pear Spring field, Ill., April 8 1835, and later 27 sprouted and I raked the garden.

June 1, I planted two hills of Giant until he was 21 years the resided until he was 21 years of age, when he crossed the plains to the West arriving at the Great Eldorado in California, and the following 11 year of his life was spent in the gold mine June 3, I planted two hills of gourds in California and Oregon, after which and the cucumbers I planted May 25 be returned to his old home in Miss ourl, Cassylle, Barry County, an there, on April 20, 1867 was marrie to Mary Ellen Moore, and on the following May 5, with his wife, par ents, six brothers and four sisters started with mule team across the plains for Oregon, and on the 1st of Among the others who had exhibits in this department were Daphne Bisseli, of Canby, first premium for bread; Muriel Bissell, of Canby, first on pin cushion; Anna Mulkey, of Gladstone, first on patchwork quilt; George Walt, of Canby, first premium for best water melons; Martha Strove, of Sherwood, first on embroidery on doilles; Margaret Beatie, of Oregon (irst on best made apron. Many Oregon; Mr. Zura Robeson, Oregon City, first on best made apron. Many other exhibits were in this collection from children from different parts of the county.

Oregon: Mrs. Zura Robeson, Oregon City, Oregon: Jesse Mayfield, Highland, Oregon, Mrs. Zona North, Estacada, Oregon; Mrs. Vena Gard, High-land, Oregon; Mrs. Mary Grossmiller, Estacada, Oregon and Miss Anna May-field, Highland, Oregon, And on October 8, 1909, after a brief illness, he pased away and on October 10 was laid to rest in Clarkes cemetery. Besides a large family and immediate relatives he leaves a host of friends to mourn his loss.

Mrs. Nancy J. Edmiston.

Mrs. Nancy J. Edmiston died Sun-day morning at the residence of Sol S. Walker, at Twelfth and Madison streets in this city, aged 77 years, 10 months and 5 days. She was born in Arkansas, December 24, 1831, and crossed the plains to Oregon in 1869, settling at Springwater, where she lived for a few years before coming to Oregon City, where she has made her home ever since. Her husband died eight years ago. Hrs. Edmiston possessed a charming disposition and was beloved by scores of friends here. She is survived by three children, Mrs. Sol. S. Walker, Mrs. A. L. Blanchard and J. T. Edmiston, all of Ore gon City. The funeral was held Tues day afternoon from the residence of Mr. Walker and was under the aus pices of the First Church of Christ Scientist. The interment was in the family plot in Mountain View ceme

Jackson A. Buck. Jackson A. Buck died at 11 o'clock Tuesday night at the home of W. C. Green, after an illness of about three months. He was 82 years of age last July and was a native of Saco, Mr. Buck came to Oregon in the early 60's and was at one time the owner of considerable property in Oregon City. He was never man ried. The funeral took place Tues-day morning from the residence of W. C. Green, Rev. J. R. Landsboro pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiating. The interment was in Mountain View cemetery.

Richard Werner, of Willamette. Richard Werner, the nine-year-old on of L. Werner, died at Willamette last Sunday from an attack of meningitis. The funeral took place at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon from the Methodist Church, Rev. R. C. Blackwell officiating.

ERNST GOES TO JAIL. Insurance Man Charged With Crime of Embezziement In default of $1000 bad, Sigmond Ernst is in the county jail on a charge of larceny by embezslement, mad by the Continental Casualty Company, by whom he was employed. Ernst was arrested at Harrisburg last Friday night by Constable brought to Oregon City Saturday. He waived examination before Justice of the Peace Samson. The amount in volved is about $90. Ernst is said to be an ex-convict. He was married few months ago to a Clackamas Heights women pen sketches, handsomely framed in the show window of the confectionery store of W. G. Pelliter, 419 Main street, are attracting no little attention. They are the work of Robert H. Kruger, who has never received any instruction in this line, and who has a great future before him as an artist of great ability. Among the subjects that this young artist has on exhibition are "Peach Basket," Not Worrying About Rights," and "The Question Mark."

Promising Foot Ball Material. .. The foot ball squad of the Oregon City High School will put up some good games this coming football sea-son, from all indications. The school has good material this year. A coach will be secured within a few weeks The positions are being filled, the ap placants being quarterback, Walter Hart; left half, Walter Moore; right end John Mulkey; right half back, Freeman; full back, Bowen; center, Fred Baker; guards, Welsh and Clark. The other positions will be filled within a few days. There will be a good second team.

HANDICAPPED.

This is a Case With Many Oregon City People.

Too many Oregon City people are handicapped with a bad back. The unceasing pain causes constant misery, making work a burden and stoop-ing or lifting an impossibility. The back aches at night, preventing re-freshing rest and in the morning is stiff and lame. Plasters and liniments may give relief, but cannot reach the son in which the Oregon Cit, High aches you must cure the kidneys.

School participated was played last Saturday with a mixed team. Can you doubt Oregon City evidence: secretions. I had to get u poften at night on account of the lattre annoyance, also suffered at times from at-tacks of backache, Having found such great relief through the use of Doan's Kidney Pills I do not hesitate to recommend them."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United

Remember the name-Doan's-and

"THE SCHOOL OF QUALITY" Tenth and Morrison, Portland, Oregon 22 A. P. Armstrong, LL.B., Principal Old in years, new in methods, admittedly the high-standard commercial school of the Northwest. Open all the year. More calls for help than we can meet-position certain. Class and individual instruction. Bookkeeping from written forms and by office practice. Shorthand that excels in every respect. Special penmanship department. Write for illustrated catalogue.

Drop In

and see us about that land GLADSTONE a specialty. * * *

SCHOOLEY & CADELL

606 MAIN ST.

OREGON CITY, ORE.

WAGONS

BUGGIES

AUTOMOBILES Cost no more than others-

Don't buy until you investigate-Let us send you our catalogue-Ask us about the 1910 automobiles-

Automobile Salesroom Chapman & Alder Streets

PORTLAND

Wagons & Buggies 330 East Morrison Street PORTLAND

Office Both Phones 22

Residence Phone Main 2624

PIONEER TRANSFER CO.

Sucessor to C. N. Greenman

FURNITURE, SAFES AND PIANOS MOVED BY EXPERIENCED HELP. PROMPT AND RELIABLE SERVICE. SAND, GRAVEL AND BRICK

Rates Reasonable, Baggage Stored 3 Days Free of Charge

Agency for the celebrated MT. HOOD BEER

Dements Best FLOUR

$1.50 PER SACK AT ALL GROCERS.

Careful of Your Property

One of the secrets of our success in the Baggage and Transfer Business Safes, Pianos and Furniture Moving

Williams Bros. Transfer Co.

D. C. LATOURETTE President.

Phones, Office 1121, Residence 1833

F. J. MEYER, Cashier

525 Main Street

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

of OREGON CITY, OREGON

CAPITAL, $50,000.00.

Transacts a General Banking Business.

Open from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M

ONLY ONE GENUINE

THERE IS ONLY ONE GENUINE

CARBOLINEUM, THAT IS THE

AVENARIUS CARBOLINEUM.

THERE IS A CHEAP IMITATION

ON THE MARKET THAT IS BE-

ING OFFERED AT FROM $1.00

TO $1.25 PER GALLON. THE

GENUINE AVENARIUS CAR-

BOLINEUM IN QUART CANS 50

CENTS, AND ONE GALLONS AT

$1.50 WILL DO ALL THAT IS

DUR BOSS USE. Fisher, Thorsen & Co.

Wholesale Agents. Dept. 15, Portland Oregon. Write for Testi-monials.

CLAIMED FOR IT. INSIST ON THE SENUINE, TAKE NO OTHER. PUT UP IN LITHO-GRAPH CANS AND SOLD IN OREGON CITY.

