

PRICE BROS. Great Dissoolution Sale

Opened with a rush and all those who participated in this great bargain feast are loud in their acclaim of the values they got, so don't lag behind but fall in line and secure your winter's needs of high class wearing apparel at actual cost.

Our entire stock of the season's latest in Men's and Young Men's CLOTHING, FURNISHINGS, HATS and SHOES MUST be converted into cash within the next six weeks in order to pay out Mr. H. L. Price. So don't hesitate, but come in, as there are real honest bargains in high class merchandise awaiting you.

Space being limited, note a few of the unprecedented values we are offering.

Shoes

$3.00 Dress or Work Shoes	$2.20
$3.50 Dress or Work Shoes	2.65
$4.00 in High Top Logger or Dress Shoes	3.30
$4.50 in High Top Logger or Dress Shoes	3.65
$5.00 in High Top Logger or Dress Shoes	4.10
$6.00 in High Top Logger or Dress Shoes	4.45
$7.00 in High Top Logger or Dress Shoes	5.20

You know our shoes are the very best, so why not come in?

HATS

Roelof's Celebrated $4.00 Hats	$2.65
Hawes' Famous $3.00 Hats	2.35
$2.50 Waldorf Hats	1.80
$2.00 Hats	1.25

Caps at cost. Twenty-five per cent reduction on Blankets, Duck Coats, Trunks and Suit Cases.

Suits and O'coats

$12.50 Suits or Overcoats, of the very latest make	$ 8.75
$15.00 Suits or Overcoats, of the very latest make	10.50
$18.00 Suits or Overcoats, of the very latest make	13.25
$20.00 Michael Stern Hand Tailored Suits and Overcoats	15.75
$22.50 Michael Stern Hand Tailored Suits and Overcoats	16.25
$25.00 Michael Stern Hand Tailored Suits and Overcoats	18.75

This is an Honest and Just Sale, where you can save money. Why not do it?

PANTS

75c Overall at	$0.55
$2.50 Pants at	1.65
$3.00 Pants at	2.15
$3.50 Pants at	2.65
$3.50 Corduroy Pants	2.35
$4.00 Pants at	2.95

Others marked down in proportion. Don't be misled by fake sales when you can buy real bargains in merchandise that have helped to build our reputation of eleven years standing.

Underwear

50c Under Garments	$0.35
75c Under Garments	0.55
$1.00 All Wool Underwear	0.70
$1.50 Cooper's Wool Underwear	1.15

We have an enormous stock and we can't quote everything, but our prices will bear investigation. Why not come in? It will be to your advantage.

FURNISHINGS

Regular 15c Sox now, per doz.	$0.55
50c Work Shirts	0.35
75c Work or Dress Shirts	0.55
$1.00 Work or Dress Shirts	0.80
$1.00 Monarch Shirts	0.80
$1.50 Cluett Shirts	1.10
$2.00 York Shirts	1.35
$2.00 Oregon City Mfg. Co. Flannel Shirts	1.30

Every article in our Furnishing Goods Department is marked right down to bedrock prices. Why not come in and take advantage of sterling values?

Across the Street from Bank of Oregon City

PRICE BROS. Sixth and Main Sts., Oregon City, Ore.

LOOK FOR THE BIG RED SIGNS

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

Those who have news for the Milwaukee department of the Enterprise should either mail it to the Milwaukee Editor of the Enterprise at Oregon City or leave it at the real estate and insurance office of A. H. Dowling in Milwaukee, or with Justice of the Peace Kelso.

MILWAUKIE.

A concrete block making machine and plant is being installed here by Messrs Wetzler and Wilson, who are working hard to complete the necessary details in order to put their plant in operation as soon as possible. The capacity will be about one hundred blocks a day, of any size up to twenty four inches in length. A specialty of fancy porch and cornice work will be made.

Capt. Shaw, of the Record, is again in Milwaukee, having returned from McKinville. He was in Gresham Monday and addressed the G. A. R. comrades of that place.

Miss Robin Shaw entertained the Gypsy Club at Thendara last Thursday evening. The club is composed of young ladies from Oregon City and are a lively lot. A splendid time was enjoyed by all present.

Morris Shandling, of the Oregonian, was in Milwaukee this week looking after the interests of his employers.

Mothers' and Teachers' Club. The Mothers' and Teachers' Club met last Friday and transacted the usual routine of business. Several resignations were handed in and refused. Dr. Townley addressed the meeting on an interesting subject. Vocal selections were ably rendered by Mrs. McGeechie before the most important business of the evening was taken in hand. Arrangements were perfected to open a Free Reading Room. In Milwaukee for the benefit of those who feel the need of a good wholesome place to spend their leisure hours. It is the intention of the club that nothing but the choicest and clearest of literature be allowed.

The future of a young man depends largely upon the kind of books he reads and no one realizes this fact better than does the ladies of Milwaukee who are fostering this movement. The following committees were appointed to carry out the plans of the club: Preparation committee, Messdames Dimick, Reid, Johnson and McGeechie; programme, Messdames Elser, Wisinger, Roberts and the Misses Hat and Albert; decorating, Messdames Taylor, Hilmer and Glend-Hill; advertising, Misses Hats and Albert. The reading room will be formally opened to the public October 16.

Let Dowling sell your property. The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Beecham died at the family home on Sunday, and the interment took place on Monday in the Milwaukee cemetery. Anyone having news items for the Oregon City Enterprise, leave at the real estate offices of Mrs. Maggie Johnson or A. H. Dowling, which will be greatly appreciated. The Enterprise representative will get them Wednesday. Help to boost your town, and we will assist you in boosting. Let the people outside know that Milwaukee is on the map and coming to the front.

J. E. Wetzler Purchases More Property.

J. E. Wetzler has purchased the lot and two buildings that are occupied by the bank and postoffice. The property belonged to the Evangelical Church and the price was $3600. The deal was made by W. E. Thresher, Mr. Wetzler is the owner of property on the opposite side of the street, and contemplates erecting a large building thereon in the near future. Every store building in Milwaukee is occupied, and it is probable that the building that is to be erected by Mr. Wetzler, will be taken by some firm as soon as it is completed.

Riverview Lodge I. O. O. F., No. 175.

will hold its regular meeting on Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock. The Rebekahs will meet on the first and third Thursday evenings of each month.

Free Concerts at Crystal Park.

O. F. Witte, proprietor and owner of Crystal Lake Park, will give a series of free concerts at the bowling alley. The concerts will be given on Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday evenings. The first of the series was held on Wednesday evening of this week. The building has been enlarged, well lighted and new seats constructed for the comfort of those who attend.

Bowling games will be arranged for those who wish to indulge in this sport, and those only coming to hear the music and witnessing the bowling may do so without charge. Crystal Lake Park is an ideal place of amusement, and Mr. Witte has taken special orders to conduct his place in an orderly manner and without rowdiness.

Cement Brick Industry in Milwaukee.

The building formerly used as a berry box factory, opposite the bank, is now occupied by Wetzler & Wilson, manufacturers of cement blocks for building purposes. A large machine has been purchased by these men, which will turn out 100 blocks a day. Already orders are in for blocks, which will be turned out at a rapid rate.

Mr. Wilson is a man of experience in this line which will tend to increase the demand for his work. Those who have erected buildings of this material find it to be very satisfactory.

Milwaukee is gradually coming to the front as a manufacturing town. Reception Tendered Mrs. Mathews. A farewell reception was given Mrs. O. S. Mathews, guardian neighbor of the W. O. W., by the members of the organization, on Friday evening. During the evening refreshments were served in the banquet room of the lodge hall, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

New Livery and Feed Stable. A new livery and feed stable will be established in Milwaukee, the building of which is being erected by Cas-per Kerr. The name of the firm will be J. F. Bailey & Co. The building is being built near the Monroe & Roberts blacksmith shop. It will probably have a good patronage here as an enterprise of this kind is much needed in a town the size of Milwaukee.

W. O. W. Hold Meeting.

The Woodmen of the World, Ash Camp No. 952, met Wednesday evening in the W. O. W. building. A. H. Dowling, who was recently elected clerk, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. Wolberg, took up his duties.

Milwaukee Grange Will Meet.

Milwaukee Grange No. 258 will hold an all-day session on Saturday, October 16. The general routine of business will be transacted and a hot dinner served at noon. It is probable that Milwaukee Grange will give a rose show during the month of June. This matter is looked on very favorably by many of the members, and will be brought up for discussion at one of the meetings in the near future. Such an affair would be interesting to many of the rose culturists of this section of the county.

City Council Meets.

The regular meeting of the city council was held in the city hall on Tuesday night with all councilmen present.

The minutes of the special and regular meetings were read and approved.

The following bills were read and allowed:

- H. M. Mullan, street work... $ 5.50
- Mr. Warren, labor on bridge... 2.00
- Carl Solomon, labor on bridge... 1.50
- A. H. Lehman, electrical work and supplies... 16.00
- G. A. Hunt, secretary Enterprise Dancing Club, hall rent... 10.00
- W. E. Kelso, labor... 1.50
- J. R. Kelso, light globes, etc... 2.60
- The Portland Railway, Light and Power Co., street lighting 37.33
- Meter lighting... 1.00

The police committee reported that in the matter of repairing the jail so that prisoners could be taken care of nothing had been done.

The finance committee asked for and were granted further time in which to purchase chairs for the city hall, stating that they had three sam- ple chairs and were on exhibit at the store of the Mercantile Company.

The street committee reported that it had decided to open Euclid Avenue north to the property line of T. R. A. Sell, a day. Already orders are in for blocks, which will be turned out at a rapid rate.

Mr. Wilson is a man of experience in this line which will tend to increase the demand for his work. Those who have erected buildings of this material find it to be very satisfactory.

Milwaukee is gradually coming to the front as a manufacturing town. Reception Tendered Mrs. Mathews. A farewell reception was given Mrs. O. S. Mathews, guardian neighbor of the W. O. W., by the members of the organization, on Friday evening. During the evening refreshments were served in the banquet room of the lodge hall, and a very enjoyable time was spent.

Church Will Give Rally. The members of the Evangelical church are making arrangements for a rally to be given at the church on the last Sunday of the month, and committees have been appointed, to take charge. The committees are composed of Superintendent of the Sunday School J. W. Gracie, Mrs. M. L. Roberts, B. L. Fish, Martha Berkemeier and Mrs. N. Shupp; the Young People's Alliance, which will also take an active part, have chosen Miss Letta Miller, Miss Martha Berkemeier, Roy McIntyre, J. R. Townsley and Miss Ella Spring.

The afternoon session will be in charge of the Women's Missionary Society and the Mission Band, and the Young People's Alliance of the morning services. The regular evening service will be in charge of the pastor, Rev. N. Shupp.

ing and one at Washington Street, at the corner near the residence of J. A. Dowling and the third at the Foster road near the residence of David Pennl. The recorder was instructed to furnish copy of these minutes to the council.

Mothers' and Teachers' Club to Give Reception.

The Mothers' and Teachers' Club of this city is making great preparations for the opening night of the reading room, which will be held in this city, for the young men who are employed, and who have no place to spend evenings. Magazines, books, papers and all kinds of good literature will be provided. Many of these have already been donated. Mrs. M. L. Roberts and Mrs. Maggie Johnson is the committee that has charge of the money and literature that has been kindly donated, and these two women are working earnestly for the good of the cause. Many of the good people of Milwaukee have donated liberally. The rooms, where the reading room is to be, has been thoroughly cleaned and placed in shape.

Those who have subscribed towards the fund are: Mayor F. Streib $5.00, F. H. Lehman $5.00, A. L. Bolstad $5.00, C. C. Mullan $1.00, O. Wisinger $2.00, W. E. Thresher $1.00, Dr. T. Townley $1.00, E. T. Elmer $2.00, Milwaukee Grange $5.00, Rev. N. Shupp $2.00, A. H. Dowling $2.00, E. Mathews 50 cents, J. M. Snyder $1.00, Kelly Hardware Company $2.00, J. Wetzler $1.00, Rev. Hilmer 50 cents.

Among the reading matter will be found the Oregon City Enterprise, which will be sent free of charge to the reading room.

An excellent programme has been arranged for Saturday night, among the numbers will be the following: Music, quartette; address of welcome, by the president of the club, Mrs. M. L. Roberts; short speeches; Mayor Streib, who is chairman of the school board; P. W. Lehman, Mrs. Emily Shaw, principal of the Milwaukee school; quartette of mixed voices, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Thresher, Miss Mamie Mullan and William Lehman; three minute speeches, Rev. N. Shupp, pastor of the Evangelical church; Rev. Hilmer, pastor of the German M. E. Church, and Rev. Folkenberg, pastor of the Adventist church; Captain J. P. Shaw and W. E. Thresher; vocal selection, Mrs. Eva Fixott, nee Scott; piano solo, Miss Nelson. The rules and regulations of the reading room will be read by G. W. Gracie, and will be followed by a vocal solo by Miss Mamie Mullan.

Following the programme a social time will be indulged in, and a good time is looked forward to. All are invited to attend and interest themselves in the work of the club and assist in making the reading room a success.

The decorating committee is composed of the following ladies: Gled-George Taylor, Mrs. George Gledhill, Mrs. Hilmer; programme committee, Mrs. Mildred Elser, Mrs. Maggie Johnson, Mrs. Reid and Mrs. Ralph McGeechie.

Church Will Give Rally. The members of the Evangelical church are making arrangements for a rally to be given at the church on the last Sunday of the month, and on the corner of East Taylor and East Thirty-second streets in Portland. The cost of the new church will be $20,000 and Rev. J. J. Staub has been the pastor for fifteen years, since the society was organized.

The many friends of Mrs. Fred Terry will be pleased to hear she is again able to be up. Mrs. Justin Pease, of Ribley, has been with Mrs. Terry the most of the time since her sister's illness.

Mrs. Kenneth L. Cooper and Miss Juliet Cooper, of Pendleton, are visiting Mrs. George Barker at her home on the Willamette. The Misses Cooper were formerly residents of Portland, and were prominent members of the Dix sorority of the Portland High School.

Little Jack Hampton has returned home after a fortnight's stay with his aunt, Miss Hampton, of Portland.

Harry Painton is at present drilling a well for Mr. Earl Seeley. Has completed one for George Morse and Mr. Powers near Meldrum last week.

Most of the people of the Lodge have taken advantage of these most beautiful days and have had their wood sawed and put in their sheds before the rainy season begins. Mr. Miller and his partner, of Oregon City, are doing the sawing.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pratt and children drove to Canby Saturday and were over Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Pratt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Holden, of Sellwood, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Wilcox.

Mrs. J. C. McMonigal is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Pearl Briggs, at Woodlawn.

John Buckbee spent Sunday with his parents at Beaverton, returning on Monday.

Mr. Ed Roethe called on Mrs. Slocum on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Slocum have decided to call their little daughter Theima Irene.

Mrs. A. L. Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Boardman were business callers in Portland on Monday of this week. Clyde Clarke visited with friends at Cornelius on Sunday.

Mr. Johnson, of the Ellsworth, in Portland, was a caller at the Allen Brown home on Sunday, and Miss Sybil Brown returning home with her, where she will visit for a fortnight.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas Scripture, of Oregon City, were callers at the Painton and Roberts homes on Sunday. They found Miss Helen Painton able to be up and little Besale Roberts doing nicely.

George Morse has had an automatic telephone installed in his home.

Miss Nellie Rice, of Portland, has been a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Redmond and while at the Lodge was a pleasant caller on her many other friends, who are always delighted to see Miss Rice.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward, of Vancouver, Wash., were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tozier, on the Willamette, on Sunday last week.

Mr. Wright, of Canby, was a business caller at the Frank Pratt home on Monday.

The Sunday School at the Grace Chapel was quite well attended on October 10th. Rev. Shupp gave a very interesting talk on the Life of Paul immediately following, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all who were present. Services will be held each Sunday as follows: Sunday School at 2:45 P. M., and sermon by Rev. Shupp at 4 P. M. All are cordially invited.

Rose, is busily engaged in digging his potatoes, but did not learn whether he had a good yield or not. Mr. Hugh Roberts had 17 rows 50 feet long planted to potatoes and reports a yield from this small patch of 8 sacks besides has disposed of $5 worth to the campers earlier in the season and supplying the family since June. They are of the smooth, white variety, very large and an excellent cooker.

County Superintendent Gary was a welcome visitor at the Jennings Lodge school on Tuesday.

Mrs. T. J. Spooner is contemplating a trip to Goldendale, Wash.

Miss Brooks was an Oregon City visitor on Monday of this week. Miss Brooks is the trained nurse who is in attendance at the Brown home during Allen's illness.

NEW RESIDENCE AT MELDRUM.

Oregon City Merchant to Construct Handsome Home.

J. E. Seely, the grocer, is erecting a handsome mission residence on his Meldrum property. The house will be ready for occupancy the coming winter. Fronting on the street will be a veranda seven feet wide and 25 feet along the side. A reception hall, 12x16 feet, having an archway between the parlor, the latter of which will be 15x15 feet, the living room, 13x15, the dining room 11x13 and the kitchen 12x12 will be on the lower floor and including the bath, pantry and china closets. Beneath the living room and kitchen will be a concrete basement. On the second floor are four large bedrooms, 13x16 feet. One of the attractive features of this mission home will be a sleeping porch, which will be 12x27 feet. On the fourth floor will be the attic. The cost of the house will be $2800. Mr. Seely and family are making their home at Gladstone at present in a temporary house. They have purchased one and one-fourth acres of land at Meldrum, about two blocks from the car line. A 48-foot well, brick lined, giving excellent water, was recently constructed. The water will be piped to the house by means of a gasoline engine.

CLACKAMAS.

A good showing was made by the nine men who were able to take hold of the work of clearing up the cemetery grounds last Thursday. They also did full justice to the fine picnic dinner. Another effort will be made later in the season when the men are not so busy with farm work.

The free library from the State Library Commission is at hand. The library will be housed in the new school building. Miss Emma Armstrong will act as librarian.

Dr. Henry Dedman, of Canby, has erected a five room cottage on his property near the Clackamas hatchery.

E. P. Dedman has built a fine kitchen in addition to his cottage.

W. B. Reynolds is making great improvements around his premises by concrete sidewalks, new out buildings, painting, etc.

Arthur Street recently lost a valuable gold watch with locket charm.

R. B. Holcomb has been running the prune dryer on the old Holcomb place the past three weeks. He expects to finish up what fruit he has on hand this week.

All sorts of farm produce is being hauled to market while the roads are in fine condition.

Jennings Lodge

Lots

at $100 to $125

Is the best investment between Oregon City and Portland. You can make your own terms $2,00, $3.00 or $5.00 per month. These lots will double in value before they are paid for. Take Oregon City car to Jennings Lodge or address, Box 163 City.

THE JOHNSON REALTY CO.
City Lots, Acreage and Farms
a Specialty.
P. O. Box 213 Milwaukee, Ore.

W. E. THRESHER
LAWYER
MILWAUKIE, - OREGON