BOUNDARIES NOT SETTLED

GLADSTONE RESIDENTS STILL WRESTLING WITH VEXING PROPOSITION.

CLUB MEETS MONDAY

Proposed Limits Embrace Cason Claim and Part of Rinearson Tract—Acreage Owners Not Well Pleased.

At a special meeting of the Gladstone Improvement Club last Monday night, the club continued the discussion of the proposed charter for Gladstone. It was announced that the boundary lines of the proposed town would be determined. At this meeting all of those present decided that it was best to go through the charter first because they felt that more people would be inclined to want to come within the city limits after they understood what the charter stood for. The whole evening was given over to the discussion of the power and authority given the council in Gladstone.

The council is to have the power to levy not to exceed a five mill tax except by authority given them by election for that purpose.

All of the other sections discussed were those generally found in a city charter, with the exception of the section which prohibits the council from granting any license for the sale of malt, vinous or spirituous liquors. The club will meet again next Monday night to continue the discussion of the charter.

The people of Gladstone have been talking about the advantages and disadvantages for the last year and a charter has been drafted by the officers of the association. When the provisions of this document are finally agreed upon, the whole proposition will go before the voters of that town for adoption or rejection.

The boundaries as now proposed embrace the entire Cason claim and the south half of the Rinearson claim, except that portion lying West of the county road which runs Northwesterly through the claim. There is considerable objection on the part of some of the property owners in the Rinearson claim to being included in the proposed corporate limits. These people have homes West of the main line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company. There is also some dispo-

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.
The new church at Garfield is about completed and is an ornament to the district. J. B. Cassidy has the contract to paint it and will soon have it ready for occupancy.

Bob Duncan has been nursing a severe cut on his thumb and taking a vacation from hard work. Bob appears to be enjoying himself with the gentler sex of the city.

The bank of Estacada has been adding to its neat appearance by painting the inside railing and counter.

Some considerable talk is heard of the county opening a new road through the old Harlin place to the new bridge, constructed by the P. W. P. & K. T. Co., about a mile below the city. Unhappily, this road would give the people north and in the vicinity of Logan a much shorter route to our market, and would avoid the Springwater hill.

The school board has been compelled to rent the vacant building near the school house to accommodate the increased number of pupils attending the school. An addition to the school building will soon be required.

Messrs Gribble and Mendenhall, forest rangers, were in the city Monday and Tuesday buying supplies for the rangers. The boys report few fires to contend with the past summer and many new trails were built in the reserve.

D. M. Marshall and family visited the Gresham fair Thursday and report a fine time and the fair good this year. Mr. Marshall exhibited a box of large King apples and also the Virginia Black apples brought back a blue ribbon. The Virginia Black is a new variety in this vicinity, it being very dark in color and of uniform good size and rich flavor. He has a few trees of this variety and takes pride in them and the fruit.

Visitors at the Gresham fair during the week from Estacada were Justice Bates and wife, John Page and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Dale and daughter and Mrs. Townsend and children, Jacob Gerber, of Springwater Ridge, was in Estacada during the week and was very enthusiastic over the good time he had at the Gresham fair. Jake drives about as good a looking trotter as any one in this part of the county.

Justice Bates' court was busy Monday and Tuesday with an assault case, Tom Jones being the offender and W. F. Carey the complaining witness. Jones pleaded guilty and paid his fine and on Tuesday Carey was arrested for carrying concealed weapons. The latter case has been postponed until next Tuesday.

A number of farmers and shippers are complaining of the rates of the P. R. L. & P. Co. and it would appear that shippers who have to pay as high as $40 per car for a car load of oats from Estacada to Portland have a just cause for complaint. Other cities are getting relief through the railroad commissioners, and it might be well to have our rates examined too.

E. C. Hunt has about completed a fine cottage across the river and will soon move into it with his father and mother. Ed has rented his orchard and home place to Mr. Tyson, who will make a specialty of growing berries and small fruits.

Davis and Webster's saw mill is running to its full capacity and are shipping ties and cord wood. Mr. Davis reports the local demand for lumber very good and the mill behind in its orders.

The logging company of Joseph Bramhall has its right of way cleared for a mile or more and has commenced laying rails. It is working a large crew and will soon commence logging.

Roy McClung and Robert Jones, who have been in Washington for some time, have returned to Boring and will remain here.

The attachment against the S. P. H. Lumber Company has been removed and the company is operating as usual.

The Portland Railway, Light & Power Company has put a new observation car on this run which is a beauty. The motor man is on the front of the car in case of an emergency and will take the place of the one formerly called the White Flyer.

J. W. Roots and E. W. Goodner were at Oregon City and Portland on business Monday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lohman, of Sandy Ridge, a son.

SPRINGWATER.
The Springwater schools are getting along nicely with Misses Francis and Glover as teachers and a prosperous school year is in prospect.

Mrs. Dell, of The Dalles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lewellyn, is quite ill with asthma. Her parents left for The Dalles on Sunday to visit the patient for a short time.

Charles Bard has sold 20 acres of his land near Springwater for $125 per acre.

Edward Folsom, of Spokane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Folsom, of Springwater, was taken seriously ill on October 10, and the mother has gone to his bedside.

LOGAN.
Pomona Grange met on the 13th and the 5th degree was conferred on a class of 12, but the unlucky number did not prevent a successful session. Most of the prominent grange workers of the county were present and much enthusiasm was displayed. There was a fine programme of music and recitations in the evening and after that the young folks took possession of the hall and enjoyed themselves as they know how.

Some have finished digging their potatoes and others are busily at it. Several farmers have hauled enough to Clackamas to fill a car at 60 cents per hundred. Potatoes are generally a good crop of fair sized and very smooth tubers.

One bunch of Loganites are in the mountains and another will go soon. A. J. Johnston is preparing to build a concrete cellar.

Mrs. S. D. Wilson has gone to

Wasco county to visit her brother, Mark Rowan.

We believe arrangements are made for a dance on October 30. Mrs. J. P. Steinman, from Carrisville, spent several days visiting here last week.

FIRWOOD.
The Firwood mill has resumed work. They discarded the old hydraulic ram and put in a new gasoline engine, so they expect less trouble over water supply in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cassidy have been spending the past week in Portland.

Victor and Donald Bodley have gone to the mountains on a hunting trip. Mr. and Mrs. George Keisecker are at home to their friends on their ranch southeast of Firwood.

E. D. Hart has some fine Poland China hogs for sale, also three good milk cows. He intends keeping only full blood registered Jerseys.

Clair Corey has gone to the mountains with the government surveyors for a few weeks.

The Firwood Progressive Association is contemplating having some interesting debates this winter.

Miss Bodley, of Portland, who has been spending the past few weeks with her brother, has returned to Portland.

Mr. Fisher's fine modern house is quite an improvement to Firwood.

E. C. Strong has his new prune dryer running full blast, and expects to dry an amount of prunes.

Mr. Walton has a gang of men at work on his place at Firwood. He expects to plant it in fruit trees as soon as it is cleared and in shape. He will make a model orchard of it.

For Chapped Skin.
Chapped skin whether on the hands or face may be cured in one night by applying Chamberlain's Salve. It is also unequalled for sore nipples, burns and scalds. For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

BARTON.

Barton is booming. Many went to the fair at Gresham last week and for a little fair it was the biggest show out. If they fix up the ground and race track the crowds that will attend will not be small.

Two stores in Barton now and the third one building. It looks like prices will not all be one-sided soon. John Hiddle has sold his personal property, preparatory to going into business in Portland.

Several of our people went to Gresham Sunday to the fair.

It is reported that a petition has been circulated to start R. F. D. No. 1 from Eagle Creek and we think this should be done at once.

People south of Damascus may be glad to know that the road down the Pagoda hill will soon be opened clear through. The main tracks of the road have been fenced up for years and the District Attorney has decided that the people own the old track.

"I'd Rather Die, Doctor," said than to have my feet cut off," said M. L. Bingham, of Princeville, Ill., "but you'll die from gangrene (which had eaten away eight of his toes) if you don't," said all the doctors. Instead, he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve till it wholly cured him. It cures Eczema, Fever Sores, Bolls, Burns and Piles astounds the world. 25c at Jones Drug Co.

DIVORCE FOR KATIE CLARK

WOMAN WINS SUIT INSTITUTED BY HER HUSBAND, GEO. A. CLARK.

$1000 IS GIVEN TO HER

Clark Gives Brother Bill of Sale For Personal Property, But Settles Financial Difficulties Out Of Court.

Mrs. Katie Clark was Tuesday granted a decree of divorce, following an action for a legal separation instituted by her husband, George A. Clark, of Highland. He charged her with cruel and inhuman treatment and complained that she was a dirty housekeeper. Mrs. Clark, who is represented by State Senator Hedges, filed an answer to the suit and also a cross complaint maintaining that her husband treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner. She asked that he be restrained from selling out their property, valued at about $2500. When the order was served on Clark, it was found that six weeks before he had given his brother a bill of sale for all of their personal property. Mrs. Clark thereupon sued her husband and his brother to set aside the bill of sale and to subject the property to any decree she might get. Later negotiations were entered into and settlement made as to the property. Mrs. Clark being paid $1000 in gold coin by her husband. It developed on the witness stand that Mrs. Clark is a neat housekeeper. Testimony was presented to show that about the time Clark had given his brother a bill of sale to the property he subjected his wife to cruel and inhuman treatment, calling her names and throwing a cut of chewing tobacco in her face. In Mrs. Clark was formerly Miss Haberlach, of Clackamas, and is also related to George H. Street, a prominent and respected farmer of that place.

WHO IS FRANK KELLEY?
Tacoma Man's Parents Said to Reside In This County.

County Clerk Greenman has received a letter from Conrad L. Hoska Company, funeral directors of Tacoma, Wash., conveying the intelligence that the body of Frank Kelley is held at their establishment, and they have been informed that Kelley's parents live on a ranch near Oregon City. The deceased is 35 years of age, 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weight 160 pounds. Dark hair and of German descent. He has been working in the lumber mills at Tacoma for three or four years, but the undertaking establishment people understand that he spent last winter in Portland. Mr. Greenman has been unable to find any trace of Kelley's family.
