CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

CANBY.

Many of the farmers of this section of the country are busily engaged in digging potatoes and gathering their fall apples. The potato crop was unusually large this year, and the soil of Canby cannot be excelled for the raising of this and other vegetables. The apple crop, although not as large this year as in former years, the quality is excellent.

"Bashful" Roy Knight returned last week from his summer's stay in the Heppner country, where he was engaged in chasing the animal whose "feet are shod with gold." Roy appeared very bashful and hid himself behind a thick growth of "brush" and refused to come out, but his many friends hope to see him appear soon and get acquainted. As he passes along the street everyone sings the latest song, "My Little Chimpanzee."

Miss Lena Kraft is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. Kraft, of Portland this week.

Mrs. Langley and son, of Portland, are visiting for a few days in this city.

Mr. Davidson, who has been in Canby for some time to interest the business men of establishing a cannery, returned to Portland on business Friday, returning on Sunday. It is probable that a cannery will be established here in the near future, as no section of the county can offer better inducements than here.

Professor Gill went to Portland on Saturday, returning on Sunday evening.

Miss Blanche Jobe, of Pittsburg, Pa., arrived in Canby on Tuesday morning, where she has been engaged to teach the intermediate grades of the high school. Miss Jobe, who is an experienced teacher, took up her duties Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Veva Bradt has been in charge of these grades since the beginning of the term, awaiting Miss Jobe's arrival.

Prof. Howard H. Eccles and James Adkins, the lumberman, went to Albany Saturday and returned Sunday evening.

C. H. Frear, of the Corvallis Creamery Company, who has spent the past week here on business in connection with the plant, has returned to Corvallis.

Grant White, accompanied by E. Morrison, of Portland, went on a hunting trip the first of the week, but their friends have not seen any sign of the venison.

Calvin Koehner can boast of being one of the crack shots of Canby when it comes for deer being the target. He left here Saturday afternoon and returned Sunday, and before returning succeeded in getting two deer, (so he says).

Charles Locke has returned to his home in Portland, after a three weeks' stay in this city assisting his two sons in the commission house.

On Saturday, November 6, an auction sale will be held one and three-quarters miles southeast of Canby by the Mundorf schoolhouse, when the household goods, farming implements, cows and horses, etc., of Mundorf and family, will be sold. M. H. Hostetler will be the auctioneer.

Church Notices.

The Canby Methodist Episcopal Church—Sunday school, 10 A. M.; preaching service, 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; subject for morning, "The Bible: The Foundation of the Faith."

Subject for the evening service will be "Our Battle Cry." All are invited to these services. Rev. Cressy, pastor.

Runaway on Main Street.

A runaway on Main Street caused no little excitement a few days ago, when two horses attached to a wood wagon became frightened, and started at a rapid rate towards the Andrew Koehner implement house. Whether the horses thought it was about time for the owner to purchase a new vehicle was not determined, but any way before trying to enter the building they ran into a fence, wrecking it, which prevented them going further. Serious damage was done.

F. Hampton Finishes Prune Drying.

F. Hampton finished his prune drying for this season on Monday afternoon. Over 3000 boxes of prunes were dried, which will command the highest market price. The prunes were large and of excellent quality.

Mr. Hampton has 16 acres in prunes, and has made a success of raising this as well as other fruit for the past 15 years. His trees are given the best of care, which accounts for the large crops and of the fine quality.

Death of Miss Barbara Reese.

Miss Barbara Reese, a well-known young woman of this city, died at the home of her brother, S. B. Reese, on Wednesday, and the funeral services were held at the Scandinavian church on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the church being filled with many friends and acquaintances of the family. The interment was in the Zion cemetery.

Miss Reese was about 24 years of age, and had resided at the home of her brother for some time. She had been ill for many months, and her health had gradually failed until death ended her sufferings. The many floral tributes was a mark of high esteem in which she was held.

Creamery Fast Nearing Completion.

The creamery will be in operation in this city by the latter part of next week, the installing of the machinery being almost completed, under the direction of Ralph Allingham, of Corvallis. Already the churn having a capacity of 6000 pounds, and the cream ripener with a capacity of 400 gallons, are in position. At the rear of the manufacturing room is the engine room, and a new four-horse power gasoline engine has been installed, which will be used in operation of the churn, cream ripener and pasturizer.

A new porch has been added to the Bernoser building by the management, and the interior of the building will be renovated throughout before starting up for business.

Death of W. A. Stone.

Mrs. H. A. Lee left for Kelso, Wash., on Saturday, where she attended the funeral of her brother-in-law, W. A. Stone, who died at the family residence on Friday, after a stroke of paralysis. The funeral was one of the largest that was ever held in Kelso, being in charge of the two orders of which deceased belonged, Elks and Red Men. It required two conveyances for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. Stone was well known in this city, and his death is deeply regretted by his many friends. He was born in the 60's, and was a resident of the state of Oregon for some time.

Canby Gun Club Shoots.

At the regular Sunday shoot held by the Gun Club, George Meeks, the barber, claimed championship, and was undisputed, breaking twenty-four straight birds without a miss. Claud Bats, who picked the honors of the first shoot of the season, was a close second. Several of the members were present for the first time this year and as was generally expected their records were not up to the usual standard. Those taking part Sunday were George Meeks, Claud Bats, G. Fellows, H. Patch, Arthur Knight, M. J. Lee, O. Krueger, L. V. Carothers, E. Krouger and Wilmer Sandness.

Several new members have been enrolled this year and the equipment will be improved. A loading machine has been ordered by Mr. Sandness, the hardware dealer, and at least one new trap will be purchased, besides needed improvements on the pit and shed will be made.

NEW ERA.

Mrs. Wink was shopping in Canby Monday afternoon.

Barlow will soon have a barber shop.

It is rumored there will soon be a double wedding in Barlow.

Miss Hattie Irwin is helping Mrs. H. Snyder, of Aurora, with sewing this week.

Mrs. Snyder called on Mrs. Quint Saturday.

Mrs. Wurfel was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

C. G. Tull is papering, cleaning and renovating the Pusey house. Well I wonder what for, Canby?

TWILIGHT.

The fall rains seem to be here, but the farmers have their potatoes dug and some have their wheat sown.

Mrs. James Hyllon is threshing her bean crop and a bounteous harvest is the result.

Mr. Jenkins' son from New Mexico is staying with his parents. He is a dentist and will probably locate in Portland.

A meeting has been called for 7:30 Saturday evening in the school house for the purpose of organizing the Twilight Literary Society. A few years ago literary meetings were held here and met with great success with fifty or sixty members. The organization of the new society is meeting the approval of all the neighbors and no doubt there will be held some interesting and instructive meetings this winter.

William McCord is confined to the house with a severe attack of sciatic rheumatism.

Warner Grange meets at New Era on Saturday of this week and the grangers from here are anticipating a big dinner and a good time. There are a good many members in this neighborhood now and all find that it pays to be a granger.

George Schreiner, after harvesting his potato crop has again returned to his work in the tall timber.

This neighborhood is coming forth with new life, as we have two entertainments scheduled ahead. On Saturday evening, October 30, the school will give a Halloween party and all good people are invited to come and enjoy the programme and bring your purses, so that you can patronize the booths. On the following week the Loyal Temperance Legion will give an entertainment with a programme that will be interesting to all.

B. L. Brylan shipped a load of potatoes to Portland one day this week.

Frank Wardner, who has been working for Thomas Kelland, has accepted a position at Oswego and will leave for that place soon.

Ed Graves has again been trying his skill in exchanging horses. It looks as though his experience has been of great service to him.

Show the "Enterprise" to your neighbors.
