

In Case of Accident—
 You should have a bottle of pure old whiskey in the house.
 One you can rely upon.
 That you know is right.
 Such a one is CYRUS NOBLE; for the first time in 44 years now sold direct to you.

4 quart bottles, packed in plain cases $4.90
 all charges prepaid to the nearest railroad express office for

No danger of refilled bottles when you buy from us.
 No danger of some cheap worthless substitute being palmed off on you.
 We have been the distributors of this famous brand, selling wholesale only, for 44 years.
 Pure—old—honest whiskey aged in wood. Every bottle guaranteed.

W. J. VAN SCHUYVER & CO.
 DISTILLERS AGENTS
 Established 1864
 105-107 Second St., Portland, Oregon

W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., Portland Oregon
 Established 1864 and $4.90 in which please send me at once by express, prepaid, four quart GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE.

Name _____ Ship via _____
 P. O. Address _____
 County _____ State _____

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

SYMRA.

Very little fall grain sown in this vicinity as yet.
 Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Kaufman and their daughter, Hazel, of Greeley, Col., stopped off here for a visit with old acquaintances last Tuesday. The Kaufmans left home last September for a tour of the Pacific Coast, having stopped at different points in Washington, including the Seattle Fair. They left on Saturday for Eugene, and expect to spend the winter in California.
 Misses Lottie and Nan Schwartz came up from Oregon City last Saturday for a week's visit with relatives here.
 Miss Rebekah Yoder, of Greenburg, a station on the Portland-Salem Electric line, came over today to visit in the neighborhood for a few days. The Yoders have sold their place in Sellwood and have bought an acreage tract near the car line and expect to be suburbanites from this on.
 On Sunday the 14th the church here was turned over to our Norwegian Brethren of the Lutheran church to hold confirmation services, when nine young people were admitted into the folds of the church. The services were conducted in the Scandinavian language, and although the writer was unable to understand any part thereof, yet we are always glad to see young people take the stand that those did last Sunday. The house was well filled with an attentive audience.
 Otto Goethe, Jeo Gottwald and Ed Hindertlie, who have been on a fishing trip to Ketchikan Island, returned last Saturday. They had been gone all Summer.

CLARKES.

Alex Scherrable sold some cattle the other day.
 Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wettlauber were in town last week on Friday.
 While Mrs. Lindau was drying apples one evening a short time ago the dryer caught fire and burned.
 Miss Margaret Weisman came home last week.
 Will McIntyre was in Clarkes last week.
 Albert Durst has bought a horse from Mr. Sheppard. Mr. Buel also bought a horse from Mr. Sheppard.
 Joe Wallace was married last Wednesday.
 Will Hettman moved up into the hills the other day.
 Will Grace and wife were out on a visit to Mrs. Ringo and Tom Grace's last week.
 Mr. Haug was in town last week on Tuesday.
 Mr. Vallen, of Elwood, was in Portland last week and came back on Friday. He remained at Clarkes over night at the home of Mr. Bottemiller.
 It snowed on Saturday morning about 2 or 3 inches. The snow broke some of the fruit trees down for Mr. Bottemiller and it froze pretty hard, too, for this early in November.

REDLAND.

The longest for frost has come, and although a little heavier than needed will as soon as the ground dries sufficient farmers will begin digging their late potatoes.
 Clear Creek Creamery will pay 39 cents for butter fat for the month of October.
 Rev. A. May is holding revival meetings at the M. E. Church. They began last Sunday evening and will continue through next week. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

November Weather.

1st (Monday) rain; 2nd, heavy rain; 3rd, rain; 4th, rain; 5th, fair; 6th, fair; 7th, A. M., fair, heavy rain in the evening; 8th, heavy rain; 9th, A. M., rain, P. M., fair; 10th, rain and sunshine, alternately, a beautiful rainbow appearing in the afternoon; 11th, a beautiful morning, bracing air, becoming cloudy in the afternoon, with light rain; 12th cloudy with light rain; 13th, rain followed by a heavy fall of snow.

The weather so far this month has been truly Oregonian—Much rain with a couple of wind storms and occasional bright sunshine. No damage has been done to crops or buildings. Average temperature, about 40.

MACKSBURG.

Jess Hepler has moved his furniture into Joe Gibson's house.
 Mr. Brown, who bought the Blorsky place, has moved into the new home.
 Mr. Blorsky is living on the ranch he bought from Henry Kummer.
 Charles Gilchrist shot old Billy, Saturday, and Bill Bowers put an old horse of his out of its pain.
 Mr. Baldwin and Raleigh Bowers visited in Mullino Sunday.

LOGAN.

A. J. Johnston is getting along well since his recent severe injuries, being able to get around with a crutch.
 Tellefson Bros. are going to farm on a large scale in Wasco County and have purchased a traction engine to plow with. The place is near the two railroad lines that are being built through the Deschutes canyon.
 One of the Paxton Bros., formerly of this place and later of Madras, has bought a place in a Southern Oregon coast County.
 The Upper Logan school district has levied a one mill tax for school purposes and the Lower district held a meeting on the 14th to levy an additional tax to pay for the school house improvement, as the original two-mill tax was not sufficient.
 The foot activity of the young folks is increasing with the cold weather. A dance on the 27th by the base ball club and another by the W. O. W. on Christmas.
 The Stone correspondent of the Courier need not be alarmed about the creamery, when one quits another commences and there will always be enough to keep the churn going.
 Mrs. S. L. Wilson has returned from her visit to Wasco County and brought her brother's little daughter with her.

CLEAR CREEK.

Mr. Orenlinder and son have rebuilt the splash dam on Clear Creek and they have all the logs that they can saw for weeks and can get logs now any time by letting on the water.
 The Morris Transfer Company, of Portland, has been three days taking the big donkey to pieces so they could load it on trucks, and all hands and eight large horses started for Portland yesterday.
 Andrew Johnson, of Logan, while working on Mr. Smith's house, fell and broke his arm.

 Ralph Tracey returned home from his mountain hunt and was heavy laden with venison. Loganites, got Ralph to give a few points.
 Herby Fouts has returned from his fruit farm at Lyle, Wash., and is much pleased with that country and it can't be beat for fruit.
 Mrs. Lacroix has returned after having a long visit with relatives.
 D. Fouts wants to keep his hogs shut up or some of us fellows may have an extra hog to slit down.
 Billy O'Connor has returned home at last, after a trip of prospecting, but says his find don't pay, as there is too much quicksilver in the ore.

ELDORADO.

A. L. Pones was moving H. Seltair's stuff Wednesday.
 John Helvey and his best girl spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. F. Woodside, of Mullino.
 Mr. French has been very ill, but is on the road to recovery.
 Hazel, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bullard, is very ill, having symptoms of typhoid fever.
 Mr. Wallace, of Liberal, who was very ill, is now recovered.
 Curtis Helvey was hauling a load of oats Friday for Mr. Irish and returned with a nice load of apples for his people.
 Clarence Mallatt was calling on C. Smith Saturday, looking for a man to help him cut shingle bolts and wanted Sid Smith.
 Mrs. Mary Daniels was visiting her sister, Mrs. Kate Goucher, Thursday.
 C. Spangler made a flying trip to our little town Tuesday.
 The cold weather came a little too soon, as some did not have their potatoes dug and apples picked.
 Charles Daniels was a caller at C. E. Smith's Sunday.

BEAVER CREEK.

The farmers here had to stop working on account of the frozen condition of the ground.
 A pleasant party was given at the home of Guilliam Thomas Wednesday evening.
 George Holman, who has been ill for several days, much better.
 Sarah Parr spent Monday evening at the home of Miss Blodwen Thomas.
 About twenty friends gathered at the home of Tommy Evans Sunday. Tommy had his leg cut off by a train in Oswego some time ago, but is now getting along nicely.
 Several young people of Beaver Creek attended the debating society which was organized in Carus Friday evening.
 V. Bohlander was in Oregon City on business Saturday.
 The surveyors for the Oregon City & Scotts Mills railroad are at work near the Maple Lane bridge.

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

Rain, rain, go away, the farmers don't want to play, but want to plow.
 Miss Mary Barnett and Alice Elsie spent Sunday afternoon with their friend, Miss Anna Hodge.
 Mrs. Alfred Kocher, of Washougal, Wash., is spending a few days here with her mother, Mrs. Louise Christensen.
 Miss Esther Magnusen was the guest of Maggie Zimmerman Sunday.
 Mr. and Mrs. Guy Gross went to Portland Saturday to see the latter's mother, Mrs. Frederick, who is ill at the St. Vincent hospital.
 Mrs. Clara Peters spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Bookman, of this place.
 Fred Baker and Melvin Young, of Willamette, were in this neighborhood Sunday. They did some fine shooting at their bats, and as a result Melvin went home bareheaded.
 John Sager drove down to Zimmerman's Saturday, hunting some calves that had strayed from home.
 John Kaiser went to Canby Tuesday on business.
 Little Lily Settle is on the sick list this week, but is getting better at present.
 Miss Maggie Zimmerman left for Portland Sunday, where she expects to spend the winter.
 There was a butcher in this vicinity Thursday, looking for cattle.
 Carl Elsie and Denard Hodge spent Thursday evening across the river at the Ken Knight home.
 H. Peppar and wife, of Portland, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Settle for a couple of days this week.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

There is still quit a lot of sickness in this vicinity.
 J. P. Rholl is in bed this week with a severe cold.
 Mrs. Hickman is in Portland this week visiting sick folks.
 Miss May Erickson is getting along nicely and will be up soon with proper care.
 Grandma Clark is much better, but Grandma Malloy is poorly again.
 Mr. Hyson built a new chicken house last Wednesday.
 Grandma Hyson is quite poorly with asthma.
 Miss Winnie Jackson is on the sick list again.
 W. Clark is at home with a sore hand.
 Mrs. Ingram, of Molalla avenue, moved up to Washington this week, so there is an empty house in this burg.
 Lon Baker and family, of Carus, have moved into town and live on Molalla avenue, and Roosevelt street.
 George Sagar, who spent the summer in Alaska, was in this vicinity last week.
 Mrs. Vada King, of Portland, was visiting her mother, Mrs. Faust, last week.
 Grandma Ware, who fell and hurt herself a few weeks ago, is able to be out again.
 Quite a cold wave struck our community this week. The thermometer registered 22 degrees, but it is raining again now.
 Mrs. Mahel Sager, who went to visit her parents in Southern Oregon last month, returned home Monday. Her father is about well again.
 Mrs. Ella Darling spent a few days last week visiting at Mr. Taber.
 Charlie Gillett, of Belvedere, Kans., arrived here Sunday.
 Mrs. May Fairclough will spend Saturday and Sunday in Springwater, visiting relatives and friends.
 Mrs. Nora Carrio and daughter are in town again this week.

COLTON.

We are having quite a spell of cold weather after the rain. About two inches of snow fell Saturday.
 Will Dix, of Shubel, was home visiting his mother, Mrs. Dix, at Colton, last Sunday.
 Mr. Westburg and wife left for Oregon City Saturday and returned Monday.
 Mr. S. Dix has been busy chopping grain for several of the neighbors.
 Mr. Johnson and Mr. Erickson were working on the road last week.
 Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Carr, a son, last Wednesday.
 Hult Brothers started work with three donkey engines last week.
 Take Spiewer, of Clarkes, was a visitor Colton Sunday.
 Mrs. H. Broeder, of Canada, is visiting at her sister's, Mrs. Putz, of Colton.
 C. Stormgreen was butchering hogs one day last week.
 A man from Portland was out buying cattle around the neighborhood.
 Argus Bros. hauled two loads of shingles to Highland for Mr. Martin last week.

REDLAND.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Mosher's youngest son, Charlie, had died Saturday night. His death was unexpected. He was sick with typhoid fever, but was thought to be getting along nicely. Death was caused by heart trouble. Mrs. Mosher and family have the sympathy of all her old neighbors and friends.
 Harry Gray returned from Idaho last week, where he had been with a party of surveyors.

MARQUAM.

The town of Marquam is situated in the southeast part of Clackamas County and consists of two stores, one blacksmith shop and a nice, large

STAFFORD.
 The first general killing frost of the season occurred Saturday, and Sunday night was some degrees colder, killing the potato tops, so farmers think their potatoes will be ready to dig as soon as the ground is dry enough.
 Jake Schatz is getting better, but is still quite weak, but was able to eat dinner with the family last Sunday.
 A missionary minister from Portland preached to a crowded house on Sunday forenoon, after which he baptized 12 recent converts in a cemented tank built for the occasion in front of the parsonage.
 A real estate man was traveling through the country last week. We have not heard of any one listing land with him, although he seemed to have prices on a number of places.
 The clouds rolled away Thursday and the teachers were surprised by a lot of visitors, the first of the season, eight of them and the baby.
 The Misses Grace seem to be getting along nicely with the school. Pupils seem attentive and studious. They teach up to and including the fifth grade.
 A number went from Stafford and came from other places to hear the talks upon educational topics, by Prof. Alderman, of the Oregon University. Prof. T. J. Gary, County Superintendent, and the Superintendent of Multnomah County, and a gentleman from Mississippi, who was demonstrating a new way of taking the water from fruits and vegetables when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for use with the flavor unimpaired. The Professors' talks touched chiefly upon County High Schools, advancing the idea that children ought not to be turned out with but a smattering of an education when what one wanted to use them, cover with water and in a few moments the fruit or vegetable would be ready for