

LARSEN & COMPANY

Cor 10th & Main St. OREGON CITY, OREGON. Wholesale and Retail Groceries, Produce, Feed and Commission We Pay the Highest Cash Price For all kinds of Country Produce

LOCAL BRIEFS

Dr. L. G. Lee, Dentist, Rooms 17 and 18, Masonic Bldg. A. M. Kirchem, of Logan, was in Oregon City Saturday. Miss May Rambo has accepted a position with the L. Adams dry goods store.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Deidman, who have been spending the summer at their resort, the Sunset Hotel, Long Beach, Wash., have arrived in this city and are the guests of County Treasurer J. C. Paddock, of Gladstone. Mrs. Paddock being a sister of Mr. Deidman.

FOOTBALL GAME SUNDAY.

Brooklyn Will Play Oregon City at Canemah Park Field. The Oregon City football team has scheduled a game with the Brooklyn team, of Portland, next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock on Canemah Park field.

FREE READING ROOM.

Plans For Establishment of Place for Quiet Entertainment. Within a few weeks there will be a free reading room established in Oregon City. While wholly definite plans have not yet been formulated, subscriptions already made by public spirited men and women are a sufficient guarantee of the success of the movement to provide a place for quiet entertainment for the hundreds of people in Oregon City who have no desirable amusements for the long winter evenings.

MELIN SECURES DIVORCE.

John Melin was granted a decree of divorce Wednesday from Hulda Melin, to whom he was married at Liverpool, England, in August, 1908. He charges cruel and inhuman treatment, stating that his wife is quarrelsome, that she moved her bed from the house and he was compelled to sleep in the unheated room in the house at Colton, near their home in Clackamas County, and tell the people of that place that he had not treated her right.

Colton Man Charges His Wife With Selfishness.

The Wednesday afternoon Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. Charles D. Latourrette, assisted by Mrs. R. O. Scott, of Portland, Wednesday afternoon. The members were seated in the bridge, the prizes being awarded to Mrs. Linwood Jones and Mrs. Mortimer D. Latourrette. The home of Mrs. Latourrette is very pretty with its decorations. The parlor and living room were in trailing nasturtiums, Oregon grape and autumn leaves, while the dining room was in chrysanthemums. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. H. Walker.

FOR SALE—Gentle horse cheap.

Inquire F. J. Scripps, blacksmith shop, 5th Street.

ELECTRO-THERAPY AND NATUROPATHY.

Dr. Vladimir Jindra, naturopath from Europe, and a specialist for chronic diseases, can be found in the Masonic Building, where he has the latest improved electric appliances and gives successful treatment. He has practiced in Europe and America, where he has met with great success.

C. A. TUCKER

The Photographer. Photographs that Please. Good Work. Moderate Price. NEW ART GALLERY. 1003 Main St. Fairleigh Bldg.

SOCIETY

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Bauman, of New Era, was celebrated last week. Mr. and Mrs. Bauman were married in 1839 and are the parents of 11 children. Mrs. Bauman was assisted in the entertainment of their guests by her daughters and her grand-daughters. The dining room was tastefully decorated in terra, with a general color scheme of yellow, and the living room was in green ferns. Many useful and handsome gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Bauman.

Those present at the celebration were: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lewis, of Oregon City; Mrs. A. Schilling and family, of Milwaukie; Mrs. John Lane and family, of Canamas, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rief, Miss Ethel Rief, Miss Lottie Rief and Raymond Rief, of New Era; Mrs. J. W. Evans, of Wilsonville; Mrs. Annie Hurias, of Oregon City; Mrs. J. Bradt, Miss Ethel Bradt, Charles Bradt, of New Era; Mrs. F. Grissen and her children, of Oregon City; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bradt, of Canby; Miss Mary Lewis, Miss Naomi Lewis, John Lewis and Alton Lewis, of Oregon City; Mrs. F. Gans-neden and daughter, of Portland; Charles Bauman, M. C. Bauman, Max Bauman, of Oregon City; Fay Minto and Rosa Riefer, of New Era; S. A. D. Hungate, Mr. and Mrs. Hellman, Fred Hurias, Miss Mary Lucas, Leonard Hurias, H. Lucas, Miss Mary Lucas, Miss Dora Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Slaughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raddatz, Mr. and Mrs. Kelenfor, Mr. and Mrs. Wirtz, Mieshael Wirtz, A. Johnson, N. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Tiel, Miss Eva Kent, A. Tiel, Fred Hellman, P. Hellman, Mike Fertinger, of Canby; Glen Ehrlich and Dell Ehrlich, of New Era; Herbert Eastman, of Central Point; Martha Hellman, Bertha Hellman, Mary Hellman, Dora Hellman, Louisa Hags-nagel, of Sherwood; Richter, Svendsen, of Clackamas; Fred Richter, Carl Richter and Simon Richter, of New Era.

The German Coffee-Kranzel Ladies' Society gave Mr. and Mrs. Stover a pleasant surprise at their home Wednesday afternoon. A very enjoyable time was had and delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Stover have been making their home near Tacoma, Wash., for almost a year, and before returning to this city they visited with their son, Rev. William Stover, who is pastor of one of the largest churches in Tacoma. Present were: Mr. and Mrs. William Stover, Mrs. E. Petzold, Mrs. C. Hartman, Mrs. P. J. Winkler, Mrs. G. Schmoer, Mrs. William Schwartz, Mrs. Louis Sobel, Mrs. R. Selder, Mrs. T. Strohmeyer, Mrs. A. Knapp, Mrs. Schoeninger, Mrs. Fisher, Mrs. Dambach, Mrs. Reibserger, Mrs. D. Klemens, Mrs. M. Michaels.

The Wednesday afternoon Bridge Club was entertained by Mrs. Charles D. Latourrette, assisted by Mrs. R. O. Scott, of Portland, Wednesday afternoon. The members were seated in the bridge, the prizes being awarded to Mrs. Linwood Jones and Mrs. Mortimer D. Latourrette. The home of Mrs. Latourrette is very pretty with its decorations. The parlor and living room were in trailing nasturtiums, Oregon grape and autumn leaves, while the dining room was in chrysanthemums. Delicious refreshments were served during the afternoon. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. H. Walker.

SPRINGWATER.

This place has experienced quite a cold storm recently. The first snow began to fall on Saturday, and got to a depth of three inches. The thermometer went down to 22 degrees above zero on November 15. An eight-pound girl was born to the wife of Elmer Dibble, and everyone in the family, including the great-grandfather, is pleased.

Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Sommer.

entertained Friday night at bridge in their beautiful home on the banks of Willamette River. The wide veranda, enclosed in glass, was brilliantly lighted and decorated with green foliage, the red balls of the wild rose brier gave a touch of warm color to the scene. The prizes went to Mrs. C. D. Latourrette, Miss Elizabeth Kelly, O. W. Eastman and Harry E. Draper. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodward.

were pleasantly surprised at their home at 312 Madison Street Tuesday evening, by a number of their friends calling in a body. The evening was pleasantly spent in the dining room in instrumental music. Refreshments were served during the evening, after which a handsome cut glass sugar bowl and creamer were presented to the newly married couple.

The Modern Woodmen of America.

gave a smoker Thursday night in their lodge room in the Knapp building and nearly 50 members and their friends were present. Music was rendered on the piano and violin by members of the lodge and refreshments were served. Cigars and pipes made the evening pass swiftly, and the affair was a very pleasant one.

The West Oregon City schools.

will give a social on Wednesday evening next week for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of way pictures for the school rooms. The pupils will render a short programme and all interested in the welfare of the schools are invited.

Mrs. C. B. Johnson.

who left Thursday for California, was given a farewell party last Tuesday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Gladstone Christian church at the home of Mrs. Grant Olds.

Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

We have had the first snow of the season and the "old timers" report it came earlier this year than for many years previous. It came last Saturday and for a few hours the flakes came fast and furious. Colder weather followed and the snow remained on the high hills for a day or two.

The Parker place in Garfield, consisting of 80 acres with good improvements and about twelve acres of young orchard, was sold to Wm. R. Stokes.

M. H. Bickman, formerly of this place, but now working at the hatchery at Eugene, was in the city during the past week.

Linn Bros. are fast completing the improvements on their large barn and will soon have it completed and ready for occupancy.

Mrs. J. P. Irvin was in the city Tuesday, looking for a house to rent for the winter. She is confined to the house, suffering from a severe cold.

E. C. Hunt is remodeling his building on Main street, making it ready for the Studebaker people, who will put in a large stock of wagons and busses. C. F. Howe will have charge of the stock.

The almshouse has been having fine fishing since the high water and a number of salmon have been caught with rod and line. J. R. Cassidy landed a fifteen-pounder Thursday.

Flocks of turkeys are beginning to realize themselves from their birds, the market being on the raise as Thanksgiving approaches. Frank Harkrider disposed of his flock the past week at 19 cents a pound live weight. John Githens shipped 50 birds to Portland Wednesday.

Mrs. J. P. Irvin was in the city Tuesday, looking for a house to rent for the winter. She is confined to the house, suffering from a severe cold.

Mr. Freeman, lately from the East, has rented the Williams property on Main street and will move his family in the coming week.

John Stormer shipped a car of prunes last week and Phillip Wagner loaded a car for Portland this week; fair prices are being realized for the fruit. It is reported that the growers that contracted their crops earlier in the season have lost money thereby.

Fred Bates and Mill Marshall, of Beulah, were in the city Wednesday. Bates has a fine crop of prunes harvested this year and Marshall is still enthusiastic over the apple possibilities of his neighborhood.

Mr. Bolin and a party of timber cruisers left Tuesday for the North Fork to look over a large body of timber in that vicinity.

Miss Crouch has organized a class in German, which will meet on Wednesday evenings.

H. S. Gibson and Ed Douglas made a trip to Corvallis last week.

E. L. Palfrey purchased a fine farm in the Molalla country some days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie passed through this place Sunday evening on their way home. They had gone to Estacada on Saturday to visit with Guy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie.

F. J. Lazarus is running his chop mill.

The young people of the Eagle Creek church will give an entertainment at Wilburn's hall in Eagle Creek Saturday evening, November 20. Admission free. Chicken supper 25 cents. Come one and all.

Grover Douglas was seen in Estacada Saturday. He is on his way to Estacada Saturday.

Little Gifford Hoffmeister, who has been so ill with the whooping cough, is much better.

Mrs. R. R. Gibson went to Estacada Saturday to have some dental work done.

Mrs. Haynes Sues For Divorce. Louise Haynes has filed a suit in the Circuit Court against Joel G. Haynes for a decree of divorce, through her attorney, Gordon E. Hayes. They were married in Oregon City in February, 1888, and have one child, aged eight years. Mrs. Haynes charges that her husband has become a habitual drunkard and she has had to support herself.

FIRWOOD.

A meeting of the Firwood Progressive Association will be held on Saturday evening, November 20. Every one in the community is urged to be present, as there are important business matters to be discussed. All should be interested in the advancement of the community.

A special school meeting of district No. 52 will be held at Firwood hall on Friday, November 26, at 2 o'clock. Capt. Capps has certainly been busily engaged around Firwood the past few weeks. Three of our young couples have been united in the bonds of holy matrimony, the third couple being Antone Malar and Nina B. Heacock. Mr. Malar has been a resident of Firwood for a number of years and is respected by all. The bride's home is at Damascus, but she has been employed as teacher in the Firwood school for some time. The young couple expect to make their home in Firwood, and they have the best wishes of the community.

E. D. Hartwood, a couple of days in Portland last week, attending to business matters.

J. C. Smith, for a number of years floor manager for the firm of Olds, Wortman & King, of Portland, who on account of falling health was compelled to withdraw from business, has purchased 20 acres of the old Beam place, near Firwood, and expects to make it a very attractive country home. Planting 10 acres to apple orchard, he will devote his time to fruit raising. Mr. Smith is an energetic practical farmer and has been a visitor to Portland, Monday.

The Reed-French people, of Portland, have opened a branch of their piano house and have a number of fine instruments in the large store near the depot.

A. Morrow has had a large force of men engaged during the past week in loading ties, lumber and wood at the railroad docks.

Mr. Freeman, lately from the East, has rented the Williams property on Main street and will move his family in the coming week.

John Stormer shipped a car of prunes last week and Phillip Wagner loaded a car for Portland this week; fair prices are being realized for the fruit. It is reported that the growers that contracted their crops earlier in the season have lost money thereby.

Fred Bates and Mill Marshall, of Beulah, were in the city Wednesday. Bates has a fine crop of prunes harvested this year and Marshall is still enthusiastic over the apple possibilities of his neighborhood.

Mr. Bolin and a party of timber cruisers left Tuesday for the North Fork to look over a large body of timber in that vicinity.

Miss Crouch has organized a class in German, which will meet on Wednesday evenings.

H. S. Gibson and Ed Douglas made a trip to Corvallis last week.

E. L. Palfrey purchased a fine farm in the Molalla country some days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Woodie passed through this place Sunday evening on their way home. They had gone to Estacada on Saturday to visit with Guy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Woodie.

F. J. Lazarus is running his chop mill.

The young people of the Eagle Creek church will give an entertainment at Wilburn's hall in Eagle Creek Saturday evening, November 20. Admission free. Chicken supper 25 cents. Come one and all.

Grover Douglas was seen in Estacada Saturday. He is on his way to Estacada Saturday.

Little Gifford Hoffmeister, who has been so ill with the whooping cough, is much better.

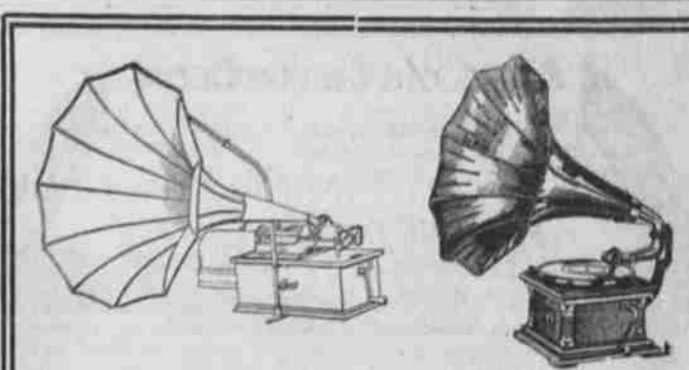

Mrs. R. R. Gibson went to Estacada Saturday to have some dental work done.

Mrs. Haynes Sues For Divorce. Louise Haynes has filed a suit in the Circuit Court against Joel G. Haynes for a decree of divorce, through her attorney, Gordon E. Hayes. They were married in Oregon City in February, 1888, and have one child, aged eight years. Mrs. Haynes charges that her husband has become a habitual drunkard and she has had to support herself.

Mrs. Carolyn Graham. The funeral of the late Mrs. Carolyn Graham took place at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the residence of her son, John Graham, at Gladstone, and the interment was in Mountain View cemetery. Mrs. Graham was born in Sweden, September 13, 1840. Death was caused by dropsy and heart disease. She is survived by one son.

Anna Brady, of this City. Anna Brady, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Brady, died Tuesday at 10 o'clock at her home in this city. The funeral took place from St. John's Catholic Church, Rev. A. Hillebrand, the pastor, officiating. The interment was in the Catholic cemetery.

Carpenter. Of course you want all you can get for your money. Money in YOUR pocket is what interests YOU. We have an overstock of ALL WOOL IN-GRAIN CARPETS, the best in the market. John Gay's good in Philadelphia, 13, 1840. Death was caused by dropsy and heart disease. She is survived by one son.

DANCE MUSIC

The Phonograph plays all kinds of Dance Music, loud and clear and in perfect time. It is always ready when you want it, and is obliging enough to repeat any selection you may wish.

It takes up little room and does away with the trouble and expense of hiring musicians. We carry every machine and record made by the Victor and Edison Companies and would be pleased to have you call in and hear some of the following numbers played on the latest style Victor and Edison Machines.

- Edison Amberol Double Faced Victor 264—Good Night Waltz. 16182—Trea Jolla, Waltz. —Handicap, March. 10695—Marovins, Waltz. —Moonwink, 3-step. 16282—Way Down East, Barn Dance. —All Hands Around, Barn Dance. 265—Landlers. 268—Quadrille. 272—Dixie Blossoms, 2-step. 275—Lucky Moon, 3-step. 277—Barn Dance.

Burmeister & Andresen Oregon City Jewelers Suspension Bridge Corner

Drum Corps Go to St. Johns. The five drum corps attached to Meade Post, No. 2, Grand Army of the Republic, will go to St. Johns next Saturday to attend a banquet given by the G. A. R. Post of St. Johns. The members of the corps are P. G. Wells, J. A. Tufts, J. A. Conner, John Kelley, E. B. Grant and M. Fitzgerald.

Fred Miles is Promoted. Fred Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Miles, of this city, who has been connected with the Wells Fargo Company for the past nine years, and who has been on the Southern Pacific for the past four years, has been promoted and placed in charge of the company's office at Forest Grove. Mr. and Mrs. Miles left yesterday for their new home.

St. Paul's Guild Bazaar. The Ladies of St. Paul's Guild of the Episcopal church are planning to give their annual bazaar in Willamette hall. The children of the Sunday school will have a table and the merchants will give prizes for their exhibits.

The chairmen of the different committees are as follows: Fancy articles, Mrs. Dan O'Neil, Mrs. V. Harris and Mrs. T. P. Randall; candy, Mrs. E. A. Sommer; etables, Mrs. Charles Babcock and Mrs. Charles Burns; aprons, Mrs. Charles Evans; miscellaneous, Mrs. Thomas F. Warner. The King's Daughters will also have a table, which will be in charge of a committee appointed by the president.

Marriage Licenses Issued. Licenses to marry were issued this week to S. E. Biting and George Pratt, Etta Daugherty and Steve Fisher, Lena Martin and Joe D. Wallace, Hilda Linjberg and W. A. Ely, Theresa Quirk and James Herson, Paul Trullinger and Anna Mahon, Marie Myquist and Eugene Cahill, Mary Ellen Gipson and H. B. Piper.

Case Against Gregory Postponed. The suit of the Greenwood Lumber Company against James Adkins was settled out of court Wednesday. The case of the State vs. Gregory has been postponed. Judge Campbell allowed the jury to go Thursday morning.

Letter List. List of unclaimed letters at the Oregon City Postoffice for the week ending November 19: Woman's list—Ellingsen, Ida; Hubbard, Mrs. Chas.; Lamoureux, Evelyn; Lord, Mrs. Lucy. (2); Brown, B.; Eccles, Robt.; Gunen, H. G.; Jackson, Otis; Lucy, A. E.

Scholastic Football Today. The Gresham high school will come to Oregon City this Friday afternoon for a return game with the Oregon City high school. The game will be played on the Canemah Park field and will be called at 2 o'clock. The Gresham team won over the local scholastic team last Saturday afternoon at Gresham by a score of 10 to 6. Moore was shovered over the line for Oregon City's touchdown and Mulkey kicked the goal. The local men were out-weighted 20 pounds to the man, but put up a stiff fight and hope to bring about a reversal of the score at the coming game.

Farm Brings Good Price. E. L. Palfrey, recently of Estacada, has purchased the Dr. Leavitt farm, consisting of 159 acres. The farm, which is one of the best in the county, was bought about two years ago by Robert F. Watts, of Nebraska, and who sold the place to Mr. Palfrey. The buildings are all up-to-date and

Notice of Final Settlement. Notice is hereby given that the undersigned administratrix of the estate of Lucy Roseman, deceased, has filed in the County Court of Clackamas County, State of Oregon, her final account as such administratrix of said estate, and that Saturday, the 18th day of December, 1909, at the hour of ten o'clock A. M. has been fixed by said Court for the hearing of objections, if any, to said final account, and the settlement thereof. MALINDA CAROTHERS, Administratrix of the Estate of Lucy Roseman, deceased. CROSS & HAMMOND, Attorneys for administratrix.

REMOVAL SALE MISS C. GOLDSMITH ALL MILLINERY GOODS BELOW COST

Removal Sale advertisement for Miss C. Goldsmith, all millinery goods below cost.

Seeley's Best Fancy Patent Hard Wheat Flour. Made from choice blue stem-wheat. The Flour with a reputation—there is nothing equal to it on the Oregon City Market. "Ask the People who use it." Per Sack $1.45 Per barrel (4 sacks) $5.30 Five bbls. (20 sacks) at one time, per bbl, $5.10 SOLD ONLY AT SEELEY'S, The People's Store. Be sure you find the right place, as we are exclusive agents. No other place has it. 9th and Main Streets OREGON CITY, ORE.

THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS The Latest News of Fashion is in The Fall Quarterly Style Book The Quarterly Style Book is such a helpful book—just as much ahead of ordinary pattern books as The Ladies' Home Journal is ahead of other women's magazines—and the Fall number is the best yet. It tells about styles, just what you want to know about the latest styles, and in a most interesting manner—by true-to-life fashion pictures. And best of all—it costs you but 5 cents if bought in connection with any 15-cent Ladies' Home Journal pattern. The Ladies Home Journal Patterns are always necessary to women who appreciate individuality and practice economy in their dress. PATTERNS 10 AND 15 CENTS John Adams Masonic Temple OREGON CITY, OREGON