No So-Called Sales Managers—
My Own Sale of my Own High Grade Goods

All my patrons of Oregon City and vicinity know the excellent quality of every piece of merchandise in my store—not a single article in my entire stock that I cannot recommend to the public as the best obtainable for the price asked. This sale will be no exception to the high grade goods usually sold and honorable business methods I have always employed. No sale managers hired to bring in shoddy goods—no fake methods employed. My own sale of my own strictly first-class merchandise—no public-facing goods sold. I am here to stay and want the public to retain their confidence in me and my merchandise. Sale starts Saturday morning, November 27th, 1909. Everything to go at tremendous reductions. J. Levitt, directly opposite First National Bank.

No Fake Reductions—Everything Guaranteed strictly as advertised

This sale is a REAL reduction sale can be proved by a careful inspection of all goods and values offered. There's not a reduction of value listed in this advertisement but what is ABSOLUTELY GENUINE. No raising of values—no fake reductions. Every price quoted is a big cut over my own previous selling price. I am here to stay and want everyone in the vicinity of Oregon City to come and look over the wonderful reductions I am offering at this sale. Come, ye economists and bargain seekers, for never before have you had such a stupendous reduction sale opportunity—never before has such high grade merchandise been offered at such low prices right at the zenith of the season. Sale starts Saturday.

Nothing Reserved, Sale Starts Sat'day

Three years ago I came to this beautiful city, going in business with a mere "shoestring" for capital, and in three years by my own efforts and through the co-operation of the citizens of Oregon City and vicinity I have built up a great business and large stock through my ever honest and forward business methods. For your assistance—for your patronage—accept my best thanks. Every year I have shown my appreciation of your trade by giving an annual sale—by offering my entire stock at cost and less, giving you an opportunity to share in my progress and prosperity, and aiding me to clean up my stock each year so that I might offer you fresh, new goods at each successive season. On Saturday, November 27th, I begin my Third Great Annual Sale, your third wonderful opportunity to buy men's and boys' apparel of all kinds, suits, overcoats, hats, shoes, furnishings, etc., etc., at cost and less. On account of the numerous so-called "sales" held in this city—sales at which goods were offered at REGULAR PRICES as bargains instead of at reductions as advertised—and as I had bought heavier this year than usually, expecting the usual increase in my business, I find my stock larger than ever before. I must decrease this stock at once—I WILL NOT carry over any goods, preferring to sell in some cases at a loss rather than have old goods on sale the following season. Therefore I have reduced the prices of every article in my entire stock—not a thing excepted, nothing reserved. All must go at a big twenty-five-day reduction sale at prices lower than ever before offered—a sale without peer or precedent for high values offered and mammoth price cuts in evidence. Do not fail to come in and inspect the wonderful bargains offered—never again will you have such a startling buying opportunity on such strictly high grade goods. Remember the time and place—Saturday, November 26th, at J. Levitt's, just opposite First National Bank, two doors south of Post Office.

Every Man's Suit Goes
at Tremendous Sacrifice

This sale finds me with a greater Suit stock than ever before; everyone knows the high grade and style perfection of all my men's garments. My stock includes the popular, much demanded clothes for young men "Society Clothes" as well as the well known "Schloss Bros. Clothes." Every garment has one of these popular trade-mark labels on 'em—a liberal guarantee from the maker, warranting their style attainments to be the latest and best, their tailoring perfect, the fabrics unsurpassable. Besides the liberal factory guarantee, I stand back of every brand suit sold with my ever willingness to adjust any possible dissatisfaction, making it no risk for you, whatever, to get fitted with one of these excellent garments. Remember, the entire stock is placed on sale Saturday—not a suit reserved. I must move these goods immediately, so have put prices on them that will force them out at once. No need for you to go to Portland to attend one of their so-called "Friday Sales," when you can save your carfare and then a great deal more at my big reduction sale. Never before have you been able to obtain such fine garments at so low prices as these. Note the monstrous reductions:

Prices without peer or precedent are offered in this wonderful price-slashing event, while the garments offered are absolutely the best obtainable. Never again will you have such a wondrous price opportunity—it will pay you to anticipate all future needs for some time to come. The stock embraces garments of the popular "Schloss" and "Society" brands, heavy Overcoats in all the latest styles as well as Cravenettes of the most approved modes. Every desirable weight, style and fabric of overcoats are included in this stock, to go at marvelous reductions. Never have I been able to offer such mammoth values in return for such comparative small amounts invested. So-called "Sales" that have been held by others from time to time are more than outclassed in the enormous reductions offered and low prices listed for this remarkable sale. I invite comparison—defy all competition—in these stupendous offerings. Every garment is of the best possible materials, styles, tailoring and finish, while the prices are lower than Oregon City or even Portland will see for some time.
