There will be a literary and musical programme at the Grace Chapel on the evening of November 30th. A silver offering will be taken for the benefit of the chapel. Professor Moore, a recent addition to our community, and a graduate of Oberlin, and for years an instructor in one of our largest Eastern Colleges, has kindly consented to speak on "Good Citizenship," and B. Lee Paget, known throughout the state as a wide awake enterprising gentleman, will talk on "What an Organized Club Means to a Community." The male quartet of Gladstone will sing and together with some of our own well known talent will make a delightful evening's entertainment, which all should avail themselves the opportunity to hear. Remember the date, November 30th.

Rev. John will preach at the Grace Chapel Sunday evening, November 28 at 7:30 P. M. in the interest of the anti-slavery league. As there is a movement on foot to make Oregon dry in 1910 all lovers of the temperance cause are urged to be present and a cordial invitation is extended to all in the community to come and hear Rev. John.

We were pleased to see the picture of the son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Finley, of the Lodge, on the front page of the magazine section of the Sunday Oregonian. It was taken from life by the mother of the little lad, with a pet turkey beside her little son. It was called "The best of friends must part," and was certainly very appropriate at this time of Thanksgiving week, when we are to part with our favorite fowl, the turkey, who will grace our tables during their return.

NOTES OF THE CITY SCHOOLS

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES.

Among the events of the high school life this week, Senator Hedges' talk on "Senators," probably took the first place. There were many things that most of the students knew very little about, which he very kindly explained. The ways and means of being elected to the honorable position of Senator were explained; the usual work of the first morning there; how the president is elected and also the other officers; the power of the Senate as compared with the United States Senate; the manner in which the different bills are read and voted upon; the process by which the Governor signs or vetoes a bill; all these and many other things of interest were explained in his talk. Every student, and the teachers, also, appreciated it very much.

The different rooms were visited by Rev. E. C. Oakley Thursday morning. It is hoped the parents and friends will take an interest and visit the school more often in the future than they have in the past.

The chess club met on Wednesday after school hours their regular time for meeting. The organization was completed. Instead of having a secretary and treasurer combined, a treasurer was elected at the last meeting, so that there are both officers now. Sojannah Ashoe was chosen.

There was a special assembly Friday morning at nine o'clock for the purpose of announcing the school's membership in the Clackamas County Debating League. Debating will be held among the other activities of the school as a whole, will enjoy this winter. It is hoped every member will take his or her share in it gladly.

The Superintendent also announced that there will be a Mock Election held in the High School. The plan is to carry out an election in the school as nearly as possible like the one soon to be held in the city. A mayor, councilmen and treasurer will be elected.

Sunday School will be held at the chapel as usual at 2:45 and followed by preaching by Rev. Shupp. A cordial invitation to all.
