Jacksonville Grape Grower. Adam Smith, a retired business man of Jacksonville, Oregon, was in Oregon City Saturday, as guest of L. A. Nobel. Mr. Smith is a delegate to the grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. Mr. Smith is one of the prominent growers of the Tokai and Muscatel grapes of Jacksonville.

Drying preparations simply developed dry catarrh; they dry up the secretions, which adhere to the membrane and decompose, causing a far more serious trouble than the ordinary form of catarrh. Avoid all drying inhalants, fumes, smoke and snuff, and use that which cleanses, soothes and heals. Ely's Cream Balm will master catarrh or cold in the head easily and pleasantly. All druggists sell the 50 cent size. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

The Balm is used without pain, does not irritate or cause sneezing. It spreads itself over an irritated and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation. Ely's Cream Balm contains no cocaine, mercury nor other harmful drugs.

Mr. Sadler and John Hurst were Canby visitors Tuesday.

William Tull, of Barlow, was in Aurora Tuesday for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Willitt, of near Aurora, were Oregon City visitors this week.

Jake Miller, it is reported, entertained a small and select party of young folks at his home Monday evening. No particulars could be learned, but it is rumored that there were refreshments served.

William Giesy exhibited another telegram from George Miller received Sunday. Mr. Miller, who was at that time in Sacramento, said—"Leaving tonight for Salt Lake. Expect to be in Bethel, about Saturday. All well." Wont George have a good time when he gets back to "Old Miss" shaking hands with old boyhood friends, saying, "Do you recall the time," etc.

Frank McCracken, of Aurora, was in Oregon City Sunday looking around between trains.

Mr. Calahan, of Molalla, was in Aurora Tuesday.

Charlie Crittenden, of Hubbard, was down to Aurora Tuesday.

A dance will be given at Hubbard Saturday night.

BIG TURKEY SHOOT DRAWS MARKSMEN

CANBY, DONALD AND MOLALLA MEN COME TO AURORA FOR SPORT AT TRAP.

A big and successful turkey shoot was pulled off in Aurora Tuesday. Some of the best amateur marksmen from different near-by towns were present, loud in their praises of the merits of the different charges of powder used, the shooting quality of the guns etc. The grounds where the regular matches heretofore have been held were under water and the best place available was near the old mill by Pudding river. Batsy, Meeks and Fellers were the principal offenders and reaped the bulk of the winnings although an occasional bird was gathered by some one else. John White had his eye with him, as out of three chances he won a turkey and a goose. No official count was made as to the greatest number broke consecutively, but good all around amateur work was displayed.

MACKSBURG.

Jess Hepler and Miss Blanche Stage were married at Oregon City last Wednesday. After a short but pleasant wedding trip the happy couple moved into their new home on the Cabrage Road. Congratulations and a Merry Christmas.

Joe Gibson entertained about twenty friends at a stag dance and barbeque Friday night.

The dance given by the Macksburg Troupshorem Society Saturday night was an enjoyable affair, although the bad weather kept out of town people away.

The Scramlin Mercantile Co. has a fine exhibit of corn, on Simon Miller's place. It would do credit to an Iowa or Illinois farm. And we used to think that corn would not grow in Oregon.

Dad Harris came home from the Canby Gun Club shoot with two fine turkeys, a fine goose pocket full of money and a box of shells.

Raleigh Bowers has gone to Junction City to spend Thanksgiving with some of our old neighbors.

Don't forget the big dance at Smith's hall, December 21.

BORING.

Notwithstanding the hard rain of Wednesday night, there was a fair attendance at the meeting of the Boring Development Club. A committee consisting of R. L. Sabler, of Portland, and Boring, A. Hendrichson, Knox, Peterson and Donahue, was appointed to consult with the P. R. L. & P. Company next Monday in regard to grading and graveling about the depot grounds at Boring. The mud is very bad, and the railroad officials have promised to furnish the necessary gravel if the citizens of Boring will scatter it. Freight rates are also to be taken up with the company.

Doc McKinley, proprietor of a livery stable at Leints, has been in Boring, Barton, Sandy and other places here, trying to locate a team of horses which were hired from him last week by two strangers, who have failed to return the team. They were seen headed this way, but nothing further could be learned about them in this section.

Ollie and Jess Roe, of Boring, who have been in North Dakota for several months, have returned to Boring, and will remain here.

O. A. Palmer, who has been confined to the house for a number of months, is so far better that he was out for a short time today, and is preparing to leave for Southern California with Mrs. Palmer to spend the winter.

Notice of appeal by the defendant has been filed in the case of Jackson vs. Hampton, in an attachment suit growing out of a claim for money due on a wood contract tried in the justice court here.

O. Lindholm, a prominent farmer, is very sick.

Prompt Payment of Claim.

Molalla Doing Damage.

Recent heavy rains have caused the Molalla to overflow its banks and drive several families to higher ground. One of the rural carriers out of Molalla was forced to stay on the other side after crossing the bridge in the morning, as the water had covered the Southern approach during his absence. During the day Tuesday the rains slackened on a headwaters of the stream and as a consequence the water receded a few inches, but the lull is thought to be only temporary, as the end of the storm is not in sight. Reports late Tuesday night stated that a family living near Liberal was forced to leave in such haste that their work horses were left to perish, while standing in their stalls.

MACKSBURG WOMAN SUCCUMBS AT LAST

MRS. FREDERICK FENSKÉ PASSES AWAY, SUNDAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

Mrs. Frederick Fenske, of near Macksburg died Sunday evening after a long illness. Mrs. Fenske had long been afflicted with cancer of the stomach and after she was aware her death was inevitable her one wish was that her children might all be near when the end came. It was this last request and the desire to once again see his mother, that brought one son post haste on the long journey from Texas to her bedside in Oregon. She was at the time of her death 61 years of age, having married Mr. Fenske in Texas 25 years ago, but prior to this union she had been allied to Mr. Maschek, and is the mother of eight children, part of whom are living in this state and some in her native state, Texas. Interment took place in the Norwegian cemetery at Aurora, Wednesday.

NATURE TELLS YOU.

As Many an Oregon City Reader Knows Too Well.

When the kidneys are sick, Nature tells you about it. The urine is nature's calendar. Inquire or too frequent action; Any urinary trouble tells of kidney ills.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure all kidney ills.

A. J. Wood, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Ore., says: "Kidney and bladder trouble became so bad with me about two months ago that I was obliged to do something to ease the suffering. The trouble bothered me most in the morning for two or three hours after I arose. The too frequent action of the kidney secretions was also very annoying and embarrassing. I had known people who had received the best of results from Doan's Kidney Pills and I finally procured a box. Before I had used one box I was completely free from every symptom of the trouble. The kidneys were strengthened and my general health became better. I can hardly express in words the good opinion I have of Doan's Kidney Pills."

Pleanty more proof like this from Oregon City People. Call at Huntley Bros' drug store and ask what their customers report.

The entertainment given by Mrs. J. M. C. Miller and Miss Bradley, of Portland, was a success in every way. Mrs. Miller, an accomplished singer, sang several songs, assisted by Miss Spielman on the organ. Miss Bradley, with her humorous recitations greatly interested the audience. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the M. E. Church.
