NEWS OF THE COUNTY

WILLAMETTE.

Frank Fromong, of Nebraska, who has been visiting with his brothers and parents, returned home Tuesday. Thanksgiving has come and gone. The turkeys have all been eaten and everyone is laying plans for Xmas.

Last Friday morning the water stood 14 inches in the powerhouse, every one in town had their tubs, buckets full of water, for fear the pump would be shut down and we would be out of water, but by evening it had fallen to eleven inches and at present we are out of danger unless the river starts to raise again.

Captain and Mrs. R. J. Young and daughter, Leota, spent Thanksgiving in Portland at Mrs. Koozts.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Kruse spent Thanksgiving at Mrs. Baker's.

Mr. Batdorf and family spent Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. O. Tonkin.

Geo. Fromong and C. D. Dollar went to Portland Thursday.

H. Bordin, who has been very ill with typhoid fever at the home of his mother, is improving slowly.

Adah Mass attended Juvenile Aid at Miss Waterpaugh's at Oregon City, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Young spent Sunday with Mrs. Baker.

Sam Batdorf spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother George, in Portland.

Robert Baker and Robert J. Young attended the football game between O. A. C. and Multnomah Thursday.

Charles Baker left Tuesday for Southern Oregon to stay with his uncle awhile. He says that there is water everywhere when he got there, but that six inches of snow fell the next day.

Miss Wang of Canby, is visiting with Mrs. T. J. Gary.

L. Werner has sold out his business to H. Leisman. Mr. Leisman has moved in and is ready to serve the public.

Mrs. Peck, who has been nursing Mrs. M. Gary, has resigned her position and left.

Mrs. Fromong, who has been very ill is improving slowly.

Martha Leisman spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. H. Leisman.

Mrs. Burroughs and family have moved from here to Oregon City to reside.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Gary spent Thursday at Canby.

CLARKES.

Clarkes and neighboring towns are certainly blessed with rain this fall. Katie Clark is visiting with friends here.

Mary Marshall was the visitor of Mrs. Lizette Ringo last Sunday.

Frank Nicholas and family, Ed Hettman and family and Katie Clark took dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. Larkins. Monday evening the young folks met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hettman in honor of Katie Clark. All reported a good time and her many friends gave her a hearty welcome.

Grandpa and Grandma Larkins returned home on Tuesday after a few days visit with relatives at Meadowbrook.

Henry Ginther, who a short time ago returned from the logging camp in Washington, made a few day's stay with Ed Hettman.

Mrs. Ringo made a trip to Oregon City Tuesday.

By the way, we understand that Margaret Weisman, or Margaret (?) we don't know, went back to Seattle, Wash., to her future home.

Tony Leichtweil, who has been sick for some time, is able to be up and around.

DAMASCUS AND ROCK CREEK.

Rain, rain go away and come again some other day. We have had a few peeps of sunshine in the last few weeks. Some of the farmers are beginning to think their potatoes will stay in the ground all winter. Several have from four to seven acres yet to dig. When the weather was good hands were scarce. A number around here want men to clear land but have failed to find any yet.

M. Aphaup has bought a new horse to match the one he has. He lost a valuable horse lately, breaking up his team.

Miss Janette Newell was in Portland last week, visiting her sister, Mrs.

Royers and the Misses Tongs, also shopping.

Frank Everhart is home for a short vacation from school.

Misses Myrtle and Hazel Larkins and brother Glen, were visiting friends in the south part of town Sunday.

Oil has been discovered in the timber on Mr. Kay's ranch.

Mr. Schafer has the roof on his mill and the machinists are placing the machinery. Mr. Schafer is also putting in another mill in the shed vacated by the W. C. Noon Lumber Company on Center Street.

O. T. Kay and Mr. Hall made a business trip to the hub Friday. They report high water down that way.

It appears from reports that there is a strong animal in the country. It was first seen in the woods north of Mr. Bonaker and east of Mr. Role-son's. It is reported to be as large as an ordinary steer and of a brownish color, with one large horn in the center of its forehead and long ears hanging down and from the tracks seen it has been seen. The tracks measured 17 inches in length.

Mr. Holman, wife and son spent Thanksgiving in Portland visiting home folks.

J. W. Staudinger had the misfortune to lose his boat in the high water.

Those present were Miss Della Osborn, Vada Rider, Nellie Knowles, Letha Critser, Myrtle Penman, Jessie Osborn, Pearl McCormick, Mabel Penman, Guy Waldron, Lloyd Rider, Percy Penman, Dell McCormick, Henry Knicholson, Wesley Knowles, Raymond Critser, Ernest Penman.

REDLAND.

Owing to a landslide on the Clackamas river road the mail carrier was unable to make his trip last Monday.

The directors of the Clear Creek Telephone Company met at E. N. Brown's Wednesday.

Mr. Polsh is home from Washington for a few days this week.

On account of the bad roads and so much rain there has not been a very good attendance at the meetings of the M. E. Church, but those who go feel repaid for all the discomfort of the weather.

The young people of M. E. church reorganized an Epworth League last Sunday.

Miss Hazel Kerr has gone to Logan where she will take up studies in the 9th grade. She will live with Mrs. Swales.

The children of District No. 116 gave an entertainment Thanksgiving evening at the school house. It being a fine evening there was a good turnout.

Eugene Bonney, youngest son of Wm. Bonney and wife, is sick with a light attack of pneumonia. Dr. Mountain called and he is better at this writing.

H. A. Allen and wife gave a Thanksgiving dinner in their new house. The table was spread for 30. All had a merry time.

Owing to high water the mail carrier only made one trip last week that was Tuesday. Redland people have not been without mail, thanks to the kindness of the neighbors who had to go to town.

J. Davis has bought the engine and drag saw of Mr. Brein and is now prepared to come to your place and saw your wood.

Mrs. Claude Stone of Du Bois, Idaho, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton, of Viola, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stone. She expects her husband to join her soon.

CLARKES.

Mr. Scribner, our supervisor has some men working out their poll tax and he is going to do some more work.

Mr. Wettlaufer was hauling rails to corduroy the road, last Saturday.

We heard that Mr. Pierce's farm is traded off again.

Mr. Bottenmiller is plowing at present to get ready for sowing wheat.

Pete Kern bought a new zither last week.

MEADOWBROOK.

What's the use to grow? It rains just the same.

O. T. Kay and family were visiting their daughter, Mrs. Hunt, Sunday, eating Thanksgiving oysters and celebrating Mrs. Hunt's 29 birthday.

Quite a number of our town folks attended church in East Meadowbrook Sunday.

Mr. Scheny and Mr. Hall spent Sunday on the Cooper ranch.

A. L. Larkins says it takes more wood now to do over Sunday than it did when his children were all small.

Messrs. Bowman and Miller have the contract of slashing 100 acres more or less for C. L. Staudinger on Colton Ave.

The Success Literary and Lyceum gave their first entertainment in the high school room Friday afternoon.

The Misses Myrtle and Hazel Larkins and brother Glen, were visiting friends in the south part of town Sunday.

Oil has been discovered in the timber on Mr. Kay's ranch.

Mr. Schafer has the roof on his mill and the machinists are placing the machinery. Mr. Schafer is also putting in another mill in the shed vacated by the W. C. Noon Lumber Company on Center Street.

O. T. Kay and Mr. Hall made a business trip to the hub Friday. They report high water down that way.

It appears from reports that there is a strong animal in the country. It was first seen in the woods north of Mr. Bonaker and east of Mr. Role-son's. It is reported to be as large as an ordinary steer and of a brownish color, with one large horn in the center of its forehead and long ears hanging down and from the tracks seen it has been seen. The tracks measured 17 inches in length.

Mr. Holman, wife and son spent Thanksgiving in Portland visiting home folks.

J. W. Staudinger had the misfortune to lose his boat in the high water.

The Molalla river is reported higher than it has been for 27 years.

MACKSBURG.

Herman Harms is papering his library with blue ribbons, won at the County Fair.

The Molalla is still high.

Mr. Baldwin attended the Principal's Association at Oak Grove, Saturday.

Miss Margaret Zenger came home from college to spend Thanksgiving.

The monthly smoker of the Macksburg Athletic Association was a grand success. Four swift bouts were pulled off. Refreshments were furnished by Herman Harms.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith a son, November 29 and they are the best pleased people in the land.

C. Wallace went away, no one knows where, his people, Mr. and Mrs. J. Evans moved his family home with them.

B. J. Helvey bought a new cream separator this week that is what our cream man likes to hear.

TEAZEL CREEK.

Rain and mud and high water in the mud poor Oregonians are putting up with and growling about, but they all forget these inconveniences when the snow time comes.

Preaching at Teazel Creek last Sunday by J. H. Quinn, who will speak to the people of Russellville next Sunday.

In spite of the sound of the hunters' horns and the yelping of the hounds, the stillness of the night is broken by the musical voice of the festive coyote, who seems to think that under the cover of darkness he can express his joy of his escape from the toils of man and dog.

Thanksgiving is past now so let all put their heads together and get up a rousing Christmas tree and give the juveniles something to do and rejoice over.

Miss Rachel Melton has been on the sick list for several days, but is reported much better and will be able to return to school in a few days.

A protracted meeting begins at Teazel Creek the 12th of December. Rev. Quinn will be assisted by Rev. John Baldwin, late of Kansas City, Missouri.

MACKSBURG.

The rain still continues and many of the farmers are wishing it would cease. Some of the farmers were lucky enough to get a few acres of grain sowed, but very few are hoping for a good spring for Old Web Foot generally gives the farmers an opportunity either in the Spring or Fall.

Joe Sperl, formerly of this place, was a visitor here over Sunday.

Allen Grable is working for W. W. Irwin at present.

Leonard Webner, who is running a cream station for the Washington Company in Washington returned home Wednesday, he has been on the sick list for some time and says he don't intend to return until he feels better. He says that the people wait more for their land in Washington accordingly that what land is selling for here.

John Damm shipped over 1200 lbs of logs to Portland Wednesday, for which he received 19 cents per pound.

Our mercantile is seeking another case as the one last quit again. He says he wishes he could get one of the boys wouldn't fall in love with. Better get a chinese cook George.

Some one had the audacity to help themselves to three of G. W. Scramlin's chickens and one bunch of chickens last Saturday night, November 27. They used the chickens to cook the chickens with in Kock's woods.

The wtdg we had last week blew down quite a lot of fences and telephone poles, the Independent line was wrecked in pretty bad shape.
