LOCAL REVIEW OF SUPPLY AND DEMAND, COVERING ALL CLASSES PRODUCE.

HOP MARKET IS QUIET

Dealers Still Holding, but the Market Shows Little Increase Lately—Potatoes Are Nipped By Jack Frost.

During the recent cold weather most ranch products have been practically at a standstill. Fresh eggs are almost prohibitive, while the butter shortage bids fair to become serious unless weather conditions moderate soon. Nearly every creamery in the country is running to only part capacity, as the conditions of the country roads make it difficult for the cream wagons to make their routes on schedule. Fresh vegetables are scarce and the quality is generally poor. Advances from different parts of the country show that as a large part of the potato crop considerable.

Potato Prices Vary. Heavy shipments have tended to considerably weaken the potato market in some of the Northern points, but as a whole the situation has maintained about the same standard as of the previous week. A small raise was recorded in Portland, while in Seattle prices have declined somewhat. The situation is now nearly as encouraging as at any time during the season. While second crops are not in demand, good fancy stuff is still bringing the usual figure.

Hops Stationary. During the past week but very little has been doing in the hop business. Samples of splits sent to England by some up country dealers average up better than anything offered so far on the local market. A McMinnville lot of 200 bales was disposed of the other day at 21 cents. A local buyer taking the lot for future shipment.

Hogs Bring $9.75. Cold weather has in no way retarded the usual shipments of live or dressed hogs, while prices remain uniformly high. Fancy porkers are now quoted as high as $9.25. Poultry and egg receipts continue light and the market is correspondingly strong. Butter shipments are also light, while the recent advance has had but little effect so far. Sugar dropped 10 cents per cwt. on the Eastern market this week. Fish is very scarce in the local markets, excepting salmon and halibut. Clams, etc., cannot be had.

Premiums For Stockmen. The Portland Livestock Exchange offers for the best Christmas cattle shipped to the Portland Union Stock Yards the following premiums:

1st 2nd
Car steers, not less than 20 head $150 $75
Car cows, not less than 20 head 150 75
Best single steer 25 15
Best single cow 25 15
Cattle to be judged morning of December 14th and sold at auction that afternoon. This sort of encouragement should be an incentive for the breeder and feeder of cattle. It is in line with the educational work undertaken by this company and to which the press of the Pacific Northwest is lending valuable aid.

Receipts at the Portland Union Stock Yards for the month ending November 30 have been: Cattle 6518, Calves 584, Sheep 7549, Hogs 12744, Horses 274. These receipts are an evidence of the utility of a live stock market.

The approximate value of the 457 cars that made up the receipts was $567,500, a tidy sum that went into the pockets of the farmers and stockmen of Washington, Idaho and Oregon.

The cattle market has been content throughout the month. Good cattle have brought good prices, especially in the instance of cows. Top price for steers was $4.75, top price for cows $3.75 and spayed heifers sold at $4.00. Light calves have been in strong demand with tops at $5.25.

Hogs have come in rather freely, and while during the first week in the month, prices sagged a little, the market promptly recovered and has been strong and high. Tops were $8.25 with bulk of sales at $8.00. All of the prices herein quoted have been on good qualities for the market. Poor quality stuff has sold low and the divergence between good and poor grades is constantly growing wider.

SALOON MAY LOSE PERMIT

O. W. EASTHAM MAKES GRAVE CHARGES AGAINST LOCAL LIQUOR RESORT.

TESTIFIES TO COUNCIL

Aldermen Will Hold Special Session Tonight to Make Investigation—Sensational Developments May Follow.

O. W. Eastham, late candidate for mayor, was hailed before the city council Wednesday night to explain his charges made during the recent campaign that all liquor dealers had not, during the last year, complied entirely with the Sunday closing law. Mr. Eastham said in a printed letter to the voters: "One particular place will understand my meaning and I stand ready to prove my assertions. Late Wednesday afternoon Mayor Carl directed Mr. Eastham to appear before the council and the order was served by Chief of Police Burns, giving Eastham three hours to prepare for the occasion. He was sworn by Recorder Dimick and testified that Sunday, November 21, while discussing with Lawrence Ruonich, the alleged favoritism, they had seen Dick Toban in Sawyer's cigar store, and that the side door of Cole & Reckner's saloon was opened and Toban walked in. Mr. Eastham, the mayor said, then directed Mr. Eastham to appear before the council and the order was served by Chief of Police Burns, giving Eastham three hours to prepare for the occasion.
