SANDY.

Amil Bartsch, sawyer for the Olsen Lumber Company, while at quitting time stooped forward to pull the whistle, lost his balance and fell over on the big drive belt, throwing him with awful force to the feed works, breaking his arm in two places and otherwise seriously injuring him. He was taken to Portland to a hospital, where he is resting easy.

DOVER.

Our Christmas exercise under the management of our school is preparing to give a good entertainment at the Christmas tree given on the 21st of December. The girls appointed on the financial committee for raising money are: Eleanor Bews, Helen Reith, Alice Berghouse, Frances Domellian and Katie Kehres, so if there is any one who wishes to contribute toward this good work, please speak to one of the latter.

Hello! Dover is going to have a telephone in the near future. Snow! snow! snow we have plenty for sale at this time. Please call and get a sample while it lasts.

EAGLE CREEK.

The appearance of our schoolhouse has been very much improved by the new floor, which adds much to the comfort of both teacher and pupils.

A WORD TO THE WISE

GENERAL SHERMAN in speaking of a certain man, compared him to a fellow who had a habit of riding backwards--he never saw a good thing until it got by him.

We make this allusion because of the fact that only two weeks more remains in which to take advantage of our GREAT DISSOLUTION SALE. Our values speak for themselves. Don't ride backwards, right now is the time to take advantage of the immense bargains we are offering.
