

CANBY AND SOUTHERN CLACKAMAS

CANBY.

With the sun shining on Tuesday it really gave some of the people of this city the spring fever, and several of its inhabitants were seen in the gardens.

Since Main street has been treated to a gravel it presents a more attractive thoroughfare than before. One thing about the soil of this place, it never gets impassable like some other sections of the county. This street should always be kept as attractive looking as possible, owing to the many people passing through this city on the train.

Arthur Knight, Tom Johnson and Clifford Wilcox, of this place, were Oregon City visitors on Monday.

Harry Sherwood, of Beaver Creek, was in Canby over Sunday, visiting with relatives.

A. M. Condit, of this place, went to Oregon City this week.

Mrs. T. J. Gary, of Willamette, spent Tuesday with her sister, Mrs. C. Wang.

E. H. Carlton, of Portland, was in this city on Tuesday looking after the interest of his business here.

Mr. Carlton states that Mr. Rosenkrans, who was injured in an automobile accident during the summer, is improving rapidly, and is now able to be at his place of business in Portland. The many friends of Mr. Rosenkrans of this city are pleased to hear of his recovery.

Ruby Smith was an Oregon City business visitor on Sunday.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vorpal, a daughter.

Mrs. George Osborn, of Oregon City, visited with her sister, Mrs. A. J. Burdette, on Monday.

Mrs. Wang went to Portland on business Friday.

Lyman Skinner, who resides north of this city, is very low with typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Persons, who reside near the German church, have sold their place to C. Bates. Mr. and Mrs. Persons, have resided in this city for the past year and during their stay here have made many warm friends who regret to see them leave. They expect to leave the latter part of this week for Bend, where they have purchased a ranch.

Mrs. George Myers, who has been visiting with relatives at Molalla, returned home on Monday night.

Herbert Armstrong, of Champego, is visiting with relatives in this city. He is spending the winter with his aunt, Mrs. H. S. Tice, of Adkins Mill.

Mrs. C. C. Hutchinson, Mrs. W. S. Rider, A. H. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lee went to Portland on Sunday, where they attended the funeral of George Shields, which was held on Sunday afternoon.

Claude and Arthur Torgerson, who have been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for the past two weeks, are improving.

Several of the young people of this city attended the dancing party at Barlow on last Saturday night. A good time was reported by those attending from this city. The Oglesby orchestra furnished the music for the dancing.

George Frazer, one of the prominent farmers of Molalla, was in Canby on Wednesday on business, and while here was the guest of his brother-in-law Stonewall Vaughan.

J. J. Sandness went to Portland Monday to buy some holiday goods, and on Tuesday went to Barlow on a business trip.

Miss Elsie Beck, of Aurora, who has been visiting with her sister, Mrs. J. Lee Eckerson, has returned to her home.

George Lazelle, president of the Clackamas County Fair Association, was in Canby on business Monday, and while here visited the fair grounds.

Dr. Dedman, Mayor of Canby.

T. J. Davidson, of the cannery company, went to Portland on Monday.

C. H. Frazer, field manager of the Corvallis Creamery Company, was in Canby on Saturday.

J. C. Kaupisch, who is manager of the Canby Creamery Company, went to Needy, Mackburg and other sections of the county, covering about 45 miles on Monday, where he went for the interest of the company.

Mr. Kaupisch has engaged cream from many of the dairies, and the company can handle all that comes in, paying 40 cents per pound for butter fat.

Herbert Robbins left for Portland on Tuesday morning's train, where he visited with friends for a few days.

Successful Bazaar Given. The bazaar given at the city hall by the Ladies Aid Society of the Methodist church was a complete success, and the proceeds amounted to $58.70.

There was a large attendance, and the young folks as well as the older ones had a most enjoyable evening in games. There were many beautiful articles, the handwork of the ladies, as well as useful articles donated, on sale. Refreshments were sold during the evening.

The candy booth was presided over by Mrs. J. A. Graham, fancy handkerchiefs and cushions booth was in charge of Miss Helen Graham, Miss Nellie Hampton; fancy articles, Miss Snell; Japanese booth, Mrs. Porter, who was dressed in Japanese costume. The members of the Aid Society worked hard to make the affair a success, and it is probable that a similar one will be given next year before the holidays.

Death of Frank Pretzold. Frank Pretzold, who died of paralysis at his home, near Mackburg, on Saturday was buried in the Zion cemetery on Monday. Deceased leaves a wife and two children.

Mrs. Persons is given Farwell Party. Mrs. Persons, who will leave the latter part of this week in company with her husband for their new home at Bend, Oregon, was tendered a farewell party at her home on Monday afternoon, by her friends. During the afternoon a luncheon was served. It is with much regret to her many friends that Mrs. Persons is to leave Canby, as during her residence here she has made many friends.

Among those who called at the Persons home on Monday were Mrs. George Koehler, Mrs. C. L. Bates, Mrs.

William Brewer, Mrs. William Cantwell, Mrs. M. T. Mack, Mrs. Mary Hougham, Mrs. Kate Holman, Mrs. J. Wilson, Mrs. John Kaylor, Miss Ropswell.

Mitts-Miller Wedding. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mitts, two miles of Needy, was the scene of a very pretty wedding which took place at high noon, Sunday, December 12. The contracting persons were Miss Mary Mitts, of Needy and Mr. Arch Miller, of Molalla.

The room in which the ceremony took place, was beautifully decorated with evergreens and flowers, appropriate for the season. At the appointed hour, the bride, attired in a beautiful white wedding gown, and the groom dressed in a splendid conventional black, marched out before the guests, where the ceremony, which both hoped would be short, took place.

After the usual congratulations were extended by the guests, all collected in the dining room to do justice to a wedding feast, which would have done honor to a king. After the usual indulgences at the table, the newly weds drove to Canby, where they took the afternoon train for Portland.

There were many rich and beautiful presents given.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Miller will make their home on the Miller farm, six miles southeast of Molalla.

Among those present at the wedding were the following: Hon. R. F. Smith and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mitts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Mitts and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hillon and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Mitts and family and G. W. Addition to Knight Building.

The building owned by William Knight and occupied by the Carlton and Rosenkrans store will be enlarged, and Dr. De Loepinense will occupy several rooms for his dental parlors, and Meeky and Beatty will move their barber shop from its present quarters to the new building when completed. The lot on which the building will be erected is one of the best business blocks in the city.

Dance Saturday Night. There will be a dancing party given at the city hall on Saturday night by several of the young men of this city. The Garrett orchestra of Aurora, will furnish the music for the dancing. During the evening a prize will be given for the best waltzers, the judge to be selected from the audience. An invitation is extended to all.

Dr. H. A. Dedman is Mayor.

The selection of Dr. H. A. Dedman of this city, is approved by all. He is well known in this section of the county, as well as the northern part of the county, having resided here for the past 12 years, and having been raised from boyhood at Clackamas, where his relatives still live. He came to Oregon when a young boy, after attending the schools of Clackamas and in Oregon City, he attended the State University, having graduated from the medical department of that institution. Since taking up the practice of medicine he has been very successful, and is now enjoying a large practice not only in this city, but throughout the southern part of the county.

Dr. Dedman is one of the board of pension examiners of Clackamas county. Having always taken an active interest in the schools of Canby he has served on the board for several years, and is at present chairman of the High School Board of District No. 1, which was the first high school district organized in Clackamas county under the new state law. He is also a prominent Mason, Odd Fellow, Red Men, Rebekah, and is a member of several other orders, and is president of the Canby Bank and Trust Company. He is one of Canby's property owners. Dr. Dedman is a man, whom it is assured, that will take an interest in his duties as a mayor, and look out for the city's affairs in a way that will suit the people.

The first regular annual communication of the Canby lodge No. 134, A. F. & A. M. was held Wednesday evening with members from several outlying districts in attendance. Chas. Ken Knight was accorded the honor of Master, while Fred Roth was elected secretary.

Repairs Follow High Water.

Extensive repairs are being made by the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company here on the tail race damaged by the recent freshet of the Willamette river. The intake of the race of the Oregon City Woolen Mills is practically intact but is yet completely under water and it is thought will need some repairs as soon as it can be reached for that purpose.

A Thrilling Rescue. How Bert R. Lean of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever." For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Colds, Coughs, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough it's supreme. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Jones Drug Co.
