Christmas Gifts at Wm. Gardner's

Our Splendid Display of JEWELRY AND CHINAWARE is new and up-to-date. Last year's space would not permit us to carry as complete a line as we are this year, but since we have moved to larger and better quarters it enables us to show the people of this city what they want without going to Portland. Our stock consists of diamonds, brooches, rings, watches, bracelets, silverware and china.

William Gardner
JEWELER

Main Street, between Seventh and Eighth.

Free! 10c package Conkey's Laying Tonic, also 50c Poultry Book. Bring ad to Huntley Bros. By mail 7c.

W. D. Westover, of Seattle, arrived here Wednesday for a brief visit with friends. He is on his way to California and Arizona for a few months' trip. Mr. Westover is a brother of J. H. Westover, formerly publisher of the Oregon City Courier.

A wedding was celebrated Wednesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Howe, when their oldest daughter Ida, became the bride of G. Tull. Rev. A. D. White, of Silverton, performed the ceremony. The bride wore a cream, brocaded satin dress, with net yoke and carried white carnations. Two sisters of the bride, Misses Cora and Olga, attended the bride and W. B. Tull, brother of the groom, with Henry Gilbertson, were the best men. Miss Cora Howe wore blue silk and Miss Olga wore pink silk and carried pink carnations.

The house was beautifully decorated with evergreens and Oregon grape. Only relatives and a few intimate friends were invited.

A delicious lunch was served afterward.

Mr. and Mrs. Tull left for a short wedding trip to Eugene and will be at home in a neat cottage which the groom has prepared for his bride, after December 20.

The young couple were showered with rice and their many friends join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life.

Many handsome and useful presents were given the young couple.
