Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

At a well attended meeting of representative citizens of the eastern section of Clackamas County, held in the Grange Hall at Garfield Saturday, preliminary work for the organizing of a fruitgrowers' union met with unqualified success. Temporary officers were elected as follows: E. L. Wonaout, chairman; A. O. Whitcomb, secretary. A committee of five, comprising Philip Standish, S. E. Wooster, W. P. Snuffin, A. D. Schmidt and E. Closser, were appointed to prepare the constitution and by-laws for the organization. These are to be in readiness at the next meeting to be held at Estacada on Friday next at 1 o'clock P. M. The name to be given the association will be decided upon later. Much enthusiasm was manifested and the movement appears to have the full support of everyone interested in the upbuilding and development of the fruit industry in the vicinity of Estacada.

Mrs. J. W. Reed and Miss Agnes Beach assisted at luncheon. The Autumn leaves tastefully arranged with the light of a bright fire gliding upon the matted much to the prettiness of the event.

BORING.

James Allison, blacksmith at Sandy, while repairing the roof of his house, slipped and fell 18 feet, breaking or dislocating one hip and sustaining internal injuries. It was thought that his injuries would prove fatal, but it is now believed that he will recover but may sustain the loss of one limb. D. C. Loomis, of Portland, with a party of men connected with the Northern Idaho & Montana Power Company, were in Boring Friday looking for water power. These gentlemen have been in Lake County, Oregon, and now intend to find water power in this neighborhood if possible. They intend to look over the Clackamas River as well as the Sandy River for power sites. Rev. Guy Phelps, who has been conducting revival meetings in the M. E. Church at Boring, is meeting with success and will continue the meetings for possibly two weeks longer.

Nearly all the lumber and the mills in this section, which have been shut down since the commencement of the bad weather, have started again and expect to run steadily from now on.

Ray Keith, employed by the S. P. H. Lumber Company, had his hand severely cut by a saw and went to a Portland hospital for medical attention.

DOVER.

We have been having heavy winds, rain and snow here for the last two months. The snow is gone now, but the rain is still here.

Potato digging isn't done yet. Some will have early potatoes in the spring, as digging will not be finished until spring.

G. Keller lost a fine colt last week and has another horse sick now.

DOVER.

The Mrs. Miller that lives on Dr. Water's place has been quite sick for some time.

Brich Roberts called at the home of Rev. Exon one evening last week. Our school is almost to a close, with a splendid enrollment this year.

The snow is gone and refreshing rains have come to this place once more.

Christmas will soon be here and our programme is almost ready. Come out and see Santa Claus on Tuesday evening, December 21, at the Dover church.

G. H. Woodie has been working our roads the last few days.

Rev. Abbott, district superintendent of the Sunday Schools, will preach at Dover Sunday, December 19.

DOVER.

Edward Hardeo, of George, was a Wolf hunting near Dover Sunday.

Augustine Miller, who has been working down near the Columbia, has returned home again.

Mrs. Alexander Bewa is on the sick list at this date.

Our telephones are not giving good service at present. We have to walk too far to get news transferred.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many, who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders, purify the blood and give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at Jones Drug Co.

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

Miss Emma Volpp, who used to live here, has been visiting old time friends.

Carl Elele and Deward Hodge made a flying trip to Canby Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Koellmeyer and little daughter spent Sunday with his parents at Advant.

Quite an excitement prevailed in this neighborhood when the mail carrier's horses became frightened near the school house and ran away. They ran about a mile down the road, when they ran into a ditch and came to a stop.

We are all glad to hear that the mail carrier nor his horses were not hurt. Most of the damage done was the top of the rig torn off.

Mrs. Minnie La Flemme, who is working in Portland, is spending a short vacation with her parents, of this place.

Ernest Bookman was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Mabel, Anna and Deward Hodge spent Thursday evening with the young folks at Elsie's.

Otto Magnusson, of Canby, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Peterson.

A crowd of young folks from Mountain Road attended the spelling match at Frog Pond last Friday evening. They reported a fine time and some very good spelling was done.

Mr. Allen, who is working in Portland, was visiting friends and relatives of this place Sunday.

Our recent snow and cold spell has encouraged a few of our young men to growing chin whiskers, for winter protection. Never mind Willie, it's only a joke.

Others are trying to attract the sweet attention of the young ladies by showing them beautiful apples. Never mind C. and L., this is only a joke. Some more.

The subject for debate last Friday evening was: "Resolved that Prohibition should be adopted," in which the judges decided two to one in favor of the Affirmative. Since this is already a dry precinct, the judges concluded not much harm could come to them by voting in favor of prohibition, even though some of them like their "Root Beer."

BARLOW.

Wood, Jesse and family, of Lewiston Idaho, are visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Jesse.

Our teacher, Miss Withey and Miss Dunn, are making it very pleasant for the children this winter. They have formed a glee club and meet at Tull's Hotel once a week in the evening. Tuesday night they gave the children a party, at the hotel. Refreshments were served. All of the older brothers and sisters were invited and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. Towne is very ill with a stroke of paralysis.

Charles Ogde has been confined to his bed for some time with heart trouble.

Mrs. Wurfel is still in Portland taking treatments for her heart and the rheumatism.
