Company at Portland, was in this city on business Tuesday. Miss Grace Shewman is very ill at her home on Eleventh and Washington street. If you need some dental work, it will pay you to call and see us and get our prices compared with those of L. L. Pickens, Dentist. Harry Pollock has returned to Seattle, Wash., after a visit with his parents in this city. Lloyd Harding left Sunday for Eugene, to resume his studies at the University of Oregon. A. Goettling, of Coast Island, Wash., arrived in this city the first of the week to visit for a few days with his family. Lee Caulfield, after visiting at his home in this city, has returned to Eugene, to resume his studies at the U. of O. Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Poe, of Portland, spent New Year's at the home of Mrs. Poe's aunt, Mrs. C. A. Nash. They returned home Monday. Born, late Sunday night, to Mr. and Mrs. Brown Lamont, at the home of Mrs. Rosina Fouts, a son, Mrs. Lamont was Miss Betta Fouts, of this city. The leading grocers of Oregon City say that Folger's Golden Gate is the best coffee on the market. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Trombley, of Vancouver, Wash., who have been visiting with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, have returned home. Mrs. M. D. Phillips left Tuesday for Albany, where she was called by the death of her sister, Mr. Phillips left Wednesday for Albany to attend the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith, who have been visiting with relatives in California, have returned, and were accompanied here by the latter's sister, Mrs. Charles Griffith. John Taylor drove in from the West Side yesterday. He says all his neighbors are drinking Folger's Golden Gate Coffee and he took two 5-pound tins home with him. Mr. and Mrs. George Gardner, who have been making their residence at Meldrum since their marriage, have taken rooms in the Apperson house on Eleventh and Washington streets. If you wish a crown, bridge or set of teeth come in and have a tooth talk with us. It will not cost you anything unless we do the work. L. L. Pickens, Dentist. George Pusey, superintendent of the Hawley Pulp & Paper Company, left Saturday for San Francisco, where he goes on a pleasure trip. Mr. Pusey will be absent about two weeks. Mrs. Don Meldrum, who recently left here, accompanied by her children, for California, writes that she and the children are enjoying the warm sunshine, and that her health has been benefited since leaving here. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Block have returned from their Eastern trip. Miss Essie Block, who accompanied her parents East, remained at Baltimore, Md., with relatives, and will pursue her studies in music. Charles Goettling left Saturday for Eugene, where he has accepted a position with the firm of S. H. Friendly. Mrs. Goettling will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bernier, of Green Point, for a few days before leaving for her new home. Norwood R. Charman, who has been spending his holidays in the city and in Portland with relatives, left Friday for Salem, where he goes on business, and from there he returned to Eugene, to resume his studies at the University. J. J. Sandness, the hardware man of Canby, passed through the city yesterday on his way to Portland, where he went on business. Miss Goldsmith wishes to thank the ladies of Oregon City and vicinity for past patronage, and hopes they will call at their new location, three doors south of First National Bank. Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Block, who recently returned from their Eastern trip, have decided to make their future home in Portland, and will take up their residence in that city within a few weeks. Miss Mary Belle Meldrum, who has been visiting with her parents for the past two weeks, left Tuesday for Moscow, Idaho, where she will take up her studies at the University. This is Miss Meldrum's last year at the University, as she will graduate the coming June. Charles Moulton left Sunday for Hay Creek, Oregon, where he will resume his position as bookkeeper and stenographer for the Baldwin, Sherry & Land Company. Mr. Moulton has been spending the holidays with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Moulton, of this city. Slim Lindsay, who has several of the finest race horses training in the Clackamas County Fair race track at Canby, was in Oregon City Wednesday afternoon on his way home from Portland. Mr. Lindsay brought two more racers to Oregon City, leaving them in this city over night, and were taken to Canby yesterday morning. There are now over 60 race horses wintering on the fair grounds. You are welcome to consult us about your dental work. Our advice is free, and you need not have us do the work unless you desire. L. L. Pickens, Dentist.

Miss Bettie Bohles, of Austin, Texas, who has been visiting with the families of O. E. and Richard Freytag, and F. J. Meyer, of this city, has returned to her home. Miss Bohles before returning to her home visited with relatives and friends at Seattle, Wash., and with Mr. and Mrs. Otto Freytag, of Portland. It is probable that she will induce her family to come to Oregon, as she was delighted with the climate.

If all goes well the United States will soon have another countess on its list of titled girls. The engagement of Miss Fernanda Wanamaker, granddaughter of John Wanamaker, merchant prince and former postmaster general, has been duly announced by the young lady's father, Mr. Rodman Wanamaker. The young man is not yet a count, but he is the son of Count Heeren of Paris and Biarritz. He is Mr. Arthur Heeren. He met Miss Wanamaker three years ago at Biarritz, and when she returned to this country he came over later, and the acquaintance was renewed. At present Miss Wanamaker is in France, traveling with her grandmother, Mrs. John Wanamaker. The young lady is quite chic and one of the most popular girls of Philadelphia's best set. No date has been set for the wedding. Report has it that the marriage will take place abroad, probably in the early autumn.

Miss Anna M. Hey of Kansas City, Mo., is a one hand typist. She lost her right arm when she was a baby. She is now seventeen years of age. She began typewriting about seven months ago and has attained the average speed of seventy-five words a minute. She recently gave exhibitions of her work in a show window in her city.

Princess Waldemar of Denmark, wife of the youngest brother of the king of Denmark, is virtually at the head of a large steamship company which she founded. She has a large anchor tattooed on one arm. She is a daughter of the house of Orleans, and her husband, Prince Waldemar, is commodore of the Danish navy. The second son of the princess is attending the naval academy in his country in order to fit himself for a career afloat.

The new superintendent of army nurses is Miss Jane A. Delano of New York city. She was recently appointed by President Taft and takes the place of Miss D. H. Kinney, recently resigned. Miss Delano was formerly superintendent of nurses at the Bellevue hospital, New York city. She is now president of the National Association of Nurses. She will assume her new duties early in the fall.

When Senator Nathan Bay Scott of West Virginia and his wife are in Washington they live at a hotel. As Mrs. Scott is fond of the automobile and knows how to handle a car, her hotel life enables her to spend a good deal of her time in her handsome car. She was recently selected one of the judges at a motor contest. Her familiarity with all the makes of modern cars constitutes her an authority on this sort of transportation, and she knows when a car won't go just what the cause is.

Congress voted an appropriation for playgrounds at the national capital. The women of the city were disappointed with the bill and started a movement for a public demonstration. A day was set aside, and buttons bearing the words "I Am For Playgrounds—W. H. Taft" were sold at prices ranging from 10 cents to $10. The proceeds for the day amounted to $12,000.

A dairy school has been established by Mrs. Robert Ware of Highland Lake, Mass. The course is for six weeks and includes the study of soils, feed, cows, the arrangement and requirements of dairy buildings, the weighing, testing, bottling and transportation of milk and the study of keeping milk sweet after its delivery.

One hundred girls graduated from a grammar school in Springfield, Mass. wore dresses made by themselves. The cost fell slightly under $2 for each gown.

Mrs. Gorham Bacon of New York city has loaned a vacant lot on Washington heights, overlooking the Hudson river, to be used as a playground for the children of the neighborhood.

MARY DALE. Come in and see us about your teeth. Our advice is free, and our 20 years' experience is of value to you. L. L. Pickens, Dentist.

Milwaukee and Northwestern Clackamas

MILWAUKIE.

W. A. Hensen, who has been in Minnesota for some time, looking after business matters, has returned to Milwaukee, but will be compelled to return later to complete his business affairs.

Bernhard Olsen, Charles D. Houser, Reginald White, W. Sellwood and Walter Young, who have been visiting relatives here during the holidays, have returned to resume their studies at the Oregon Agricultural College.

The graders have started again to work on the railroad, and are now working the Webster property. Mrs. William Wallace, of Ashland, is visiting with relatives in this city. Milwaukee Grange meets on Friday night of this week at the Grange hall. Mrs. S. J. McCann, who has been seriously ill at her home at Minthorn, is improving, and is now able to be around the house.

Mr. Weaver, formerly of Portland, has rented the Lecher cottage, formerly occupied by James Robbins, who has taken the lead residence. Mr. Weaver moved his family to this city this week.

F. H. Lechler, who recently sold part of his property in this city to the Beaverton-Willsburg Railroad Company, is moving to another residence on his property. The Lechler home was one of the most desirable residences in the city, and will be for the present used as headquarters for the men who are employed by the company.

A dancing party will be given on Saturday evening, January 15, by Guy Henry at the city hall. The Prap orchestra of Portland has been engaged for the occasion.

The shingle mill has been closed during the past week on account of the cold weather, and as soon as the weather moderates the wheels will again be in operation.

Ernest Oliver, who has been clerking in the Wigginger store for the past year, has resigned his position to accept another, and his vacancy has been filled by James Ray.

J. I. Johnson, who left here on Friday for Astoria, where he visited with his sister, Mrs. Galbraith, returned home on Tuesday morning.

Mr. Finch, of Portland, who has had 15 years' experience in the printing business, has accepted a position in the News office. Barnett Howard, of this city, is now working as an apprentice in the office after school hours, and already can make the type fit into the stick. He probably objects to be called the "devil," but he is certainly filling this bill to a "T."

Judge Kelso went to Oregon City on legal business Wednesday. Ora Kelso has accepted a position as chief engineer of the steamer Cascades, a towing vessel, owned by the Shaver Transportation Company. Mr. Kelso will move his family to this city to make their future home.

Rev. T. P. Bowen, rector of the St. Paul's Episcopal church of Oregon City, was in Milwaukee during the week.

T. J. Munley, of Portland, was in Milwaukee on business Monday. During the past few days several newcomers have visited the real estate office of the Johnson Realty Company, inquiring for a property. Many inquiries have also come to this firm from people who are contemplating making their homes in this section of Clackamas county. When the five-cent car fare goes into effect this will tend to bring many people here. Some very desirable property is for sale by this company.

Dancing Party is Success. The dancing party given by Linden Circle, W. O. W., on Friday evening, was a great success. The young ladies in charge of the affair did themselves proud for the success. The hall was filled at an early hour with the merry dancers, who enjoyed the excellent music furnished by the orchestra, and danced the new year in. All attending report having had a most enjoyable time.

Services at Evangelical Church. Services will be held on Sunday at the Evangelical church, with Rev. N. Shupp, pastor, as follows: Sunday school, 10:30; morning service, 11:30; Young People's Alliance, 7 o'clock; topic, "Bring Others to Christ—Who Should Do It, and How Should It Be Done." Mrs. J. C. Howell; evening service, 8 o'clock. All are invited to attend these services.

Mrs. Swaggert Breaks Wrist. Mrs. Swaggert, while passing along the street in front of the drug store on Friday afternoon of last week, slipped and fell, and having the misfortune of breaking her wrist. The many friends of Mrs. Swaggert were sorry to hear of her misfortune, as she is a hard working woman, being night operator for the telephone company, having held this responsible position for some time. She recently recovered from severe burns to her hand.

New Year Party Given. A New Year party, which was a most enjoyable affair, was given on Friday afternoon at the Young residence, the hostess on this occasion being Miss Young and Miss Gould. The affair was given for the members of the Episcopal Sunday school, and was attended by about 18. During the afternoon delicious refreshments were served.

Special Meeting of City Council. A special meeting of the city council was held in the council chamber Monday evening. The councilmen met in session with civil engineer H. Hewson, of the Beaverton-Willsburg Railroad Company. Several proposed grade changes are to be made by the company, and it was necessary to come before the council in regard to the matter. A committee composed of Councilmen Kelso, Mullan and Lehman met with the engineer and looked over the grounds of the proposed change. There will be another meeting of the city dads on this, Friday evening, and the matter will be fully decided upon. Mr. Eddy, the right-of-way man of the company, will be present to make the final arrangements of the company.

Bank Building Completed. One of the handsomest bank buildings in the county is that of the First State Bank of Milwaukee, which was recently completed. The building is constructed of brick, the lower floor having plate glass windows, steam heated, and each office room furnished with stationary washstand. There are two large rooms on the lower floor each 23x49; the room on the north side will be rested for a store, a most ideal location for this. There are nine office rooms on the second floor, three of which have been rented by Dr. Otto Lehmann, osteopath, the rooms occupied by him are 3, 4, 5, and two rooms have been rented by Thresher & Dowling as a real estate and law office. The latter having already taken possession of their new quarters. The rooms are large and airy in this building. The banking company has moved from the Wetzel building to its new location, and the new fixtures will arrive in about three weeks. A reception will be given in the new future in the new building, the date of which has not been set. This will give the people of Milwaukee and vicinity a chance to inspect this well constructed building.

The contractors of this structure were Toala & Moran, and the cost including the fixtures was about $10,000.

Baseball Team Reorganizes. Crystal Lake Baseball team reorganized under new management. Arrangements have been perfected, by securing the service of Joseph Thiel, of Milwaukee, and Ben Lillis, now of Portland, as managers. Crystal Lake Park team will be reorganized in the near future. Its aim is to secure only the very best of players to be found in the county, in order to be in shape to hold its own against any outside team that may enter the field. Not only will the managers arrange for the different baseball games to be held at the Park, but also arrange for other sports, such as foot ball, races, etc.

Any outside team wishing to hold baseball or other games on its grounds can do so at any time, by arranging with the managers.

As soon as the weather permits the leveling of the new ground will be done, insuring the best and finest ball ground and grand stand in the county. The new managers are gentlemen well known and experienced, and success is bound to crown their efforts.

Let Dowling sell your property. JENNINGS LODGE. The Christmas exercises which were held at the Grace Chapel on the eve of December 29th, was quite well attended, the chapel being comfortably filled. A large and very pretty decorated tree, called one corner of the room, and the little folks all carried out their parts on the programme well and were assisted on the organ by Miss Waterfield and Miss Scripture. The following programme was rendered: Joy to the World, by the school; prayer, by Rev. Shupp; duet, Glad Christmas, by Chester and Marie Tozier; recitation, Christmas Stockings, by Doris Paulton; recitation, of Annie and Willie's Prayer, by Grace Rose; song, by Helen M. Paulton and little folks; recitation, Babe of Bethlehem, Ruth Truscott; recitation, by Jennie Pratt, of Oregon City; exercise, by Doris Paulton, Glenn Russell and Bessie Roberts; song, by Rev. Shupp's class; recitation, Harry Sladen; recitation, Christmas Joys, by the school; recitation, Midwinter, duet, by Harb and old Soesbe and Chester Tozier; recitation, by Chester Tozier; song, No Room in the Inn, by school; recitation, by Harold Pratt. After the programme the gifts were distributed to old and young and a short social time followed.

The Women's Industrial Club was entertained on Thursday afternoon, December 30th, at the home of Mrs. Hugh Roberts. The quotations were from our native state, and the literary part of the programme, which was conducted by Mrs. Beckner, a very pleasant time was spent and each one present gave something of their native state. As four of the ladies present were from Iowa a number of interesting things were gleaned from this state in the Middle West. Of especial interest was told by Mrs. A. L. Clarke, of California, and its Missions and of Helent Hunt Jackson and her beautiful story of Bonanza. Mrs. C. L. Smith gave something of Maine and of the birthplace of Loufellow, whose old home still stands and has been visited by Mrs. Smith. Indiana being the former home of Mrs. Beckner, the sugar camps and many interesting things were told of the beautiful maples and other things of interest concerning the Hoosier state. Mrs. J. A. Soesbe being an Oregonian, spoke for a short time on this state, and how her parents had crossed the plains and many things in regard to the Willamette Valley. These talks and papers were interspersed with music and a very pleasant afternoon too quickly passed. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Voss were Portland visitors Friday.

Mrs. Roberts and Bessie were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Terry at Silver Springs on Friday.

Mrs. A. L. Clarke and Mrs. Kinenath spent Wednesday in Portland.
