

Looks Like Hard Wood—Costs Less—Wears As Long

No cracks or crevices where dust can accumulate, no inlays or boards to work loose, warmer and more elastic to the tread than hardwood—

RIXDORFER Parkett Floor Covering

is the best and most sanitary floor covering for bedrooms, nurseries, dining rooms, libraries, billiard rooms, and all good rooms in the house.

In rolls, 78 inches wide, in beautiful in-laid, natural wood designs; economical, practically "unwearable." Easier to clean than carpets or hardwood floors—the ideal floor covering.

Positively the greatest thing ever produced for hotels, clubs, hospitals, schools—every kind of big building where hard wear would put anything else literally "out of business." Great saving as well.

FRANK BUSCH OREGON CITY, OREGON

several years and moved to Sellwood about three years ago. She is survived by a husband and four children. The funeral took place last Saturday and the interment was in the Sellwood cemetery. Mr. Hallheim was formerly connected with the A. Robertson grocery in this city.

MISS ACKERMAN PASSES.

Heart Failure Victim Was Former Resident of Oregon City.

Mrs. Max Bollack and Mrs. W. E. Pratt went to Portland Tuesday to attend the funeral of Miss Alice Ackerman, who died suddenly at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. S. R. Ackerman, on Sunday morning. Miss Ackerman is well known in this city, having been a resident here for many years before moving to Portland, being connected in the dry goods store with her brother, the late S. R. Ackerman. Miss Ackerman was enjoying the best of health until the evening previous to her death, and it is probable that the cause of her demise was heart failure. She was 73 years of age.

P. A. Mouldenhauer, of Willamette.

P. A. Mouldenhauer, of Willamette, died at the family residence Thursday morning, after a five weeks' siege of typhoid fever. This is the first case of typhoid fever at Willamette which has proved fatal. There is a child in the Mouldenhauer family, who is critically ill with the disease, and its recovery is doubtful.

Mr. Mouldenhauer was about 35 years of age and leaves a wife and two children. The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, and the interment was in the Mountain View cemetery.

DID NOT ROB POSTOFFICE.

"Bud" Anderson Released in Portland After Examination.

The release of Arthur (Bud) Anderson, who was arrested Tuesday in Portland charged with robbing the Oswego postoffice, was ordered Tuesday night by United States Commissioner Cannon. Anderson was arrested upon information furnished by Walter Chuck, of Oswego, who was unable to identify Anderson as the man he saw in the postoffice. Chuck had been working with Anderson on the pilferage. The latter testified before Commissioner Cannon that he had gone to Oswego on the day of the robbery to call on the daughter of Postmaster Prosser. Chuck called at the postoffice for his mail and found a stranger in the office, who told Chuck there was no mail for him. Anderson's home is at Vancouver, Wash., where his father is proprietor of the White Eagle Hotel. He is something of a singer and has a reputation in local pugilistic circles.

SWEET WILLIAM.

By Frank McCracken.

A simple and touching ballad by the well-known author of "Willie's Nose Is Red"; a learned treatise on "Fumigative Qualities of Syrup and Ashes," now attracting considerable attention in scientific circles, and others:

Come all you gallant linnemen, come listen here today; I'll tell you a sad story of linneman Jimmy Hay. He landed in this city, a place you all know well; he was just a common rubber-neck, in the Pioneer Hotel.

Wet he would be, in the evening by the fire-place he would sit with his feet upon the mantel, ashamed, not a little bit. Every evening by the fire-place sitting there he'd grin and think, pulling off his shoes of lace(?) golly! how they'd smell.

Sitting at his ledger, dreaming there of more; boys were tired of seeing Willie's shoes upon the floor. Then they filled his shoes with syrup, to make them smell more sweet, but sticky was the "slurp" when it reached poor Willie's feet.

His language then makes awful dashes, as he fills his shoes with ashes. This made poor Willie look quite sick, and he told the drummer 'twas a dirty trick.

Quietly spoke the drummer, no smile upon his face, saying, "It surely is not summer by the smell around this place."

When Willie, with his little shoes went up above for his night's repose, mad he was, through and through, but his shoes stuck like glue.

MRS. JANE ROWEN DEAD.

Mother of Mrs. E. H. Cooper Passes Away at Age of 78 Years.

Mrs. Jane Rowen, widow of the late Miles Rowen, died at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon at her residence on Fifth and Jackson streets, aged 78 years. She was a native of England and came to the United States when she was 18 years of age. She was married in New York and had been a resident of Oregon about 19 years, living six years at Beaver Creek and Carus and the remainder of the time in Oregon City. She is survived by the following children: James Rowen, of Washington, D. C.; A. L. Rowen, of Earlham, Ia.; Mrs. Elmer H. Cooper, of Oregon City; Miss Jennie Rowen, of Portland; Harry Rowen, of Oregon City. The funeral was held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the First Presbyterian Church, and the interment was held in Mountain View cemetery.

MRS. BARBARA HIXON.

Mother of Late Mrs. R. L. Holman Passes at Los Angeles.

Mrs. Barbara Hixon, who visited in this city on several occasions, and who had many friends here, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Baker, in Los Angeles, California, Saturday, after a few days' illness. Deceased was about 80 years of age, and was loved by all who knew her. Mrs. Hixon was the mother of 10 children, all of whom have passed away except one daughter, Mrs. Baker, with whom she had been making her home for several years. She was the mother of Mrs. Roswell Holman, who died in this city several years ago. It is probable the remains will be brought later on to Seattle, Wash., and interred by those of her husband and two daughters. Deceased leaves four grandchildren in this city.
