

drop the coupon in the mail box to-day

We are the oldest and best known strictly wholesale house in the Northwest. For 44 years continuously in business right here in Portland.

We are now making a radical departure. In such localities where you are unable to purchase CYRUS NOBLE we are going to sell direct and save you money. No more danger of refilled bottles. No more danger of not getting the real thing.

4 quart bottles, packed in plain cases $4.90 all charges prepaid to the nearest railroad express office for

Pure—old—honest whiskey bottled by the distillers. Every bottle guaranteed. Inquire of any bank or trust company in Oregon as to our standing.

W. J. VAN SCHUYVER & CO.
DISTILLERS AGENTS
Established 1864 103-107 Second St., Portland, Oregon
W. J. Van Schuyver & Co., Portland Oregon
Established since 1864 for which we are not responsible by express, prepaid, four quarts GENUINE CYRUS NOBLE.

Name _____ Ship via _____
P. O. Address _____ City _____
County _____ State _____

NEWS OF THE COUNTY

MOUNTAIN ROAD.

The weather has changed and it seems like old Oregon again. John Parker and John Kaiser were Oregon City visitors Saturday. Miss Polly Koellmeier was visiting her sister, Mrs. E. Boekman, last week.

Cornie Zimmerman entertained several of his bachelor friends in his little cabin on the Schnoor place near Willamette. The evening was spent in playing cards and at midnight a sumptuous supper was served in back-sleeping style.

Mrs. Belle Koellmeier was visiting her mother, of Advance, Saturday afternoon.

Miss Mable and Annie Hodge and Alice Eisele were Canby visitors Friday.

Ernest Boekman and Fred Zimmerman went to Wilsonville Saturday.

A birthday party was given on Mr. Eisele Saturday evening. The evening was spent in dancing and playing games and returning at a late hour to their homes. They all reported having had a most delightful time.

Frank and Joe Koellmeier, Carl Eisele and Horace Allen spent Sunday evening at Hodges.

Miss Alice Eisele and Louisa Zimmerman left Sunday for Portland, where they will spend a few days with friends and relatives of that place.

Mr. Mark Baker and several of his friends were out with his bounds Monday for hunting.

Fred Baker was helping Lou Koellmeier grub stumps Saturday.

Mrs. Perlot went to Oregon City Friday.

Mr. Christian made a business trip to Wilsonville last week.

People of this place who have friends and relatives in Willamette are very glad to hear that the typhoid patients of that place are convalescent.

Johnnie Zimmerman was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

EAST CLACKAMAS.

William F. Haberlach and family and his two sisters, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Street, the Clackamas florist.

Mrs. V. Conway, of Lents, and children, spent a few days with Mrs. P. Dechids.

Lula Hayward is dressmaking for Mary Heinrich. Boys, get your pants ready.

Mr. and Mrs. Enghouse were seen in Oregon City Wednesday.

Friday evening a host of neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Avery gathered at their home to welcome them to our midst. The evening was spent in playing games and dancing. J. Burnett furnished the music.

Gustav Haberlach, a prominent young farmer, went to Clarkstown Saturday, bringing back a number of brood sows.

A number of farmers are hauling potatoes to Portland.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

MARKS PRAIRIE.

The welcome rain is with us again, and it is better for us than the cold weather.

Fall sown grain here is ruined and will have to be re-sown in the Spring.

Our school is progressing fine with an attendance of 27. Our teacher is giving good satisfaction.

The frogs are commencing their Spring music, and they surely do not lack for water to swim in here.

Painless Dentistry

Out of town people can have their painless extractions in one day if necessary. We will give you a good 25¢ gold or porcelain crown for $3.50. Silver Crowns $5.00. 22k Bridge Teeth $3.50. Gold Fillings $1.00. Silver Fillings $1.00. Silver Fillings $1.50. Inlay Fillings $2.50. Good Rubber Plates $5.00. Best Red Rubber Plates $7.50.

Wise Dental Co.
INCORPORATED
222 1/2 W. 4th St., PORTLAND, OREGON
OFFICE HOURS: 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Sundays, 11 to 12.

greatly of a rougher element, and the better class of people in that town were only too glad to unite with Los Angeles for better government; but this can hardly be compared with our own county seat, where the lawyers, doctors, dentists and other citizens stand on an equal footing with men engaged in the same professions, and pursuits in Portland, and the Commercial Club is wide awake enough to notice that the gain would belong solely to Portland and the loss to Oregon City, while the blow to Clackamas County would be a fatal one.

MARQUAM.

The railroad surveyors have moved camp from Rock Creek, Clackamas County, to Butte Creek, in Marion County. In one more week they will reach Silverton, if the weather remains favorable.

F. M. Swift and wife are boarding at the Myers Hotel.

Miss Ackerman and Miss Vesta Miller are doing the work at the Hotel in the absence of Mrs. Myers, who is in the hospital at Portland.

The Colton panorama or moving picture show was quite laughable for the young people Friday night at the hall.

Mr. Mays, of Silverton, was appointed on the Marquam M. E. charge. Large crowd out to hear the new minister. He is a fine singer and also his wife is an alto singer.

Mrs. Hattie Myers is in the hospital at Portland and was doing well as could be expected at last reports.

Mrs. G. W. Bentley is quite poorly at this writing.

Born, to Mrs. Ed Albright, a son. Mother and child doing well and Ed is able to smile.

MULINO.

The weather is still unsettled and no telling what is in store for us in the near future. With reports of extreme cold east of the mountains, terrible floods in France, earthquakes in Alaska, we seem to be pretty well off in this part of the country.

There are still considerable sicknesses in this neighborhood. Mr. Wallace is reported no better and his son, Fred, has been confined to the house for several days with a grippe.

Fred Erickson has been a Mulino visitor for the past few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiles, of Portland, spent Sunday in Mulino. Mr. Wiles preached at the Church Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, of Liberal, passed through our burg Monday en route for Portland, where Mr. Barnes has purchased property and expects to make their future home in that city.

Mr. Carlson is spending a few days in Portland this week.

Bert Wallace went to Oregon City Saturday and hauled out a load of brick for Fred Schafer.

LOGAN.

Philip Kohl has been on the sick list but is better at present writing.

Mrs. A. C. Gerber has returned from a visit to her daughter, at Grandview, Wash.

Mr. Schopt and family have moved on the Johnston place, which they purchased some time ago.

The stork did double duty this week in Logan and left a 13½ pound boy at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Fallert, on January 23, and a boy at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Strahn on the 24th. Dr. Mount was the attending physician at both places. Let the good work go on and send a wireless message to the lion killer in Africa. This kind of conservation of natural resources is all right.

COLTON.

A family moved to the Vachorn place this week.

The Swedish Missionary meeting was held at Mr. Hull's last Saturday. Rev. Rinehart, of Portland, was out.

R. Snodgrass, of Meadowbrook, was at Colton Sunday.

Gorbett Bros. with several others are busy floating shingle bolts, as the water is pretty high after the rain.

Mrs. Freeman, of Elwood, was visiting with her mother, Mrs. Dix, a few days last week.

Messrs. Stronggreen and Swansen were busy moving furniture to Oregon City for Mr. Granof last week.

Harry Bittner, of Elwood, was at Colton one day last week.

Mr. Lovgreen, who was out at Colton on creamery business, left for Portland last week.

C. Argust had another picture show at the Colton hall last Sunday.

Julius Schiewe was a visitor at Colton Sunday.

Messrs. Wallace and Hettman were at Highland on business last week.

Mrs. Phillips was visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gorbett, last Monday.

Prof. T. J. Gary was a visitor at the Colton school last week.

What Can We Say

More than if you are not satisfied at using Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve we will refund your money. 25c at Jones Drug Co.

MACKSBURG.

Mrs. J. J. Gibson is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Edward Burgess, of Portland.

Mrs. Franz Kraxberger visited in Portland Monday.

Mr. Baldwin and Mr. McAnulty attended Teachers' Institute at Clackamas, Saturday.

L. Noether and his brother-in-law, from Leipzig, are visiting Mr. Franz Kraxberger.

Work is progressing rapidly on the new Lutheran church.

Joannie Brush is hauling spuds to Cenby.

Mrs. J. J. Gibson entertained one of the jolly crowds, that have made the Cabbage Road famous, Sunday evening.

Roads are in fine condition since the last rain.

FOR OUT DOOR WORK IN THE WETTEST WEATHER NOTHING EQUALS

TOWER'S FISH BRAND WATERPROOF OILED GARMENTS

THEY LOOK WELL—WEAR WELL AND WILL NOT LEAK.

LONG COATS—$3.00, $3.25
SUITS—$3.25

505 SEVENTH STREET
A. J. TOWER CO., BOSTON, U.S.A.
TOWER CANADIAN CO., LIMITED—TORONTO, CAN.

REDLAND.

A. O. Hollingsworth, secretary of Clear Creek Creamery, spent two or three days this week straightening the books for the year.

Carl Gray has returned home from Eastern Oregon.

It was a mistake that Edward Morgan took the 8th grade examination last week, but Arthur Funk did.

Mrs. William Stone has gone to Salem to visit her daughter, Mrs. D. H. Mosher, a few days.

It was reported that Mrs. Johnson, of Portland, formerly of this place, suffered a stroke of paralysis last week, but have not learned her condition at the present writing.

Planks are being laid on the road so soon. We can get to town quite easily if the planks don't give out.

MOUNTAIN VIEW.

There is still some sickness in this vicinity. Mrs. Kleinsmith is on the sick list and summoned the doctor last week. Opal Welsh came home from Eugene school Tuesday quite sick. Brunetta and Dorothea Hamm had scarlet fever last week, but in a light form and are up again. Mrs. Smith had her home fumigated Tuesday on account of diphtheria.

Mrs. Everhart, of Molalla, is visiting with her son George and wife this week.

Mr. Hysou had a phone put into his house this week and is building a chicken yard and making other improvements.

Born, January 24, 1910, to the wife Jeff T. Tidd, a 10 1/4 pound boy. Mrs. Tidd is with her mother, Mrs. Steve Green, who is very proud of her first grandchild.

Miss Josie Curran, accompanied by Miss Myrtle Cross, went out to the mill Saturday to visit her aunt, Mrs. Nora Carrico. Mrs. Hall returned home with them Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Eisele, of Portland are visiting Mrs. Green this week.

STAFFORD.

Mrs. Nemece has been having wire fences put up. She did well with her hops last fall, and is laying out some of the money to beautify her place and make a way to keep the pigs and cows out of her garden.

Claus Peters, assisted by George Aden and George Peters, has been cutting wood with their threshing engine.

Mrs. Powell went to consult a physician last Wednesday, she being threatened with pneumonia. She was better at last accounts, and able to attend church on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas, Jr., received word last week that her mother in South Dakota, was critically ill, and made preparations to go to her. She was to have started on Monday, but got at letter telling her not to come, as the mother was better, and it was better cold there and would be too great a change for the children.

Mrs. Powell has quite an addition to her family in her present state of health. Two little girls were brought to her by the father, who requested her to keep them for a few days while he made arrangements for them, and it developed that the Aid Society was after them, as they were not properly taken care of by the parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Miley made a pleasant evening visit at Mr. Gage's last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tombs are visiting at Mr. Gage's. Mrs. Tombs, as Letitia Walker, was the first teacher in the old school house in the winter and spring of 1873 and 1874. She notes quite a change in the face of our country since she as a young school m'am taught the young idea now to shoot. Gordon E. Hayes, now a prominent lawyer of Oregon City, was one of her scholars.

Mr. Gage has been quite sick for

ELDORADO.

Quite a bit of plowing has been done between showers, the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodside and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones and family.

Mrs. D. G. Helvey has been very ill with pneumonia fever for the last two weeks, but is slowly improving.

Will Wallace, from Clark, was a caller in our burg one day last week.

W. Ervin Young of Oregon City, was in Eldorado Saturday, looking for hogs for sale.

Mr. Vaughn, Mr. Snodgrass, Mr. Spence, and Mr. Stricker went out on a fox hunt last week with seven teen hounds.

Mrs. Clyde Smith and baby made a pleasant call on Mrs. Woodside one day last week.

All the school children have started in school again, since they have recovered from the cold.

SHUBEL.

Mrs. Jacob Grossmiller has returned home from Portland, after visiting for a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. Manlon has moved to Highland, where he has purchased some property.

Miss Johanna Massinger and her fiancée, of Seattle, were visiting a few days last week with her father here.

John Moehke has purchased another logging team.

Frank Grossmiller and family have moved into Mrs. Moehke's house during the week. Frank intends helping John Moehke logging.

Fred Heft is getting ready to start up his sawmill.

G. A. Shubel went to Oregon City Friday.

Mrs. John Heft visited with Mrs. R. Glinther Sunday afternoon.

E. F. Glinther and C. Hornshuh are clearing land for pasture.

John Heft is building a fine barn.

George Kirbyson is busy clearing land.

Monnie Beck visited with Charley Grossmiller this afternoon.

Grain in this section was not damaged as much as was at first supposed by the late frost.

Messrs. Annie Grossmiller and Mary Massinger visited Mrs. R. Glinther this afternoon.

CLARKES.

Sam Elmer was hauling fence posts last Saturday and tore down the old fence.

Mrs. Larkins visited her daughter, Mrs. Nicholas.

Mr. Wettlauffer is putting up a new wire fence.

P. Putz helped Alex Scherrubbe work last Saturday.

Mr. Wettlauffer purchased a new separator for some one.

Mr. Marquardt was in town last Friday.

The Argust Brothers had a moving picture show. There was a small attendance Tuesday evening.

Alex Scherrubbe was blasting stumps the other day.

Miss Bonfit, the Timber Grove teacher, went home to attend her sister's wedding, in Milwaukee.

We had a big thunder shower Sunday evening. I guess the frost is all out of the ground.

Mr. Haak was in town last week. Ed Grace and brother were in town last week.

The Swedish colony was talking of starting a creamery and some have taken shares.

Mr. Grace took a load of hay to town Monday.

Rev. Hilmer, from Milwaukee, preached in Beaver Creek in the forenoon and in Clarkes in the afternoon.

There will be a new cream hauler on the route through Clarkes. Paul Praeger is to discontinue hauling for the Clear Creek Creamery.

Game Near Choking to Death.

A little boy, the son of Chris. D. Peterson, a well known resident of the village of Jacksonville, Iowa, had a sudden and violent attack of croup. Much thick stringy phlegm came up after giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mr. Peterson says: "I think he would have choked to death had we not given him this remedy." For sale by Huntley Bros. Co.

TEASEL CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Tubbs, Grandma Boswell and Miss Beale Quinn spent last Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. William Milton and Miss Rachel.

Mrs. J. H. Quinn has let her flock of turkeys out for a year to Mrs. R. Quinn, of Marquam.

Some one whom it is supposed was in a hurry to go so much stump ground cleared against a certain date did some little blasting one night last week, making the echoes swell

THE KING OF CURES

DR. KING'S NEW DISCOVERY

FOR COUGHS AND COLDS AND ALL THROAT AND LUNG DISEASES PREVENTS PNEUMONIA AND CONSUMPTION

"Two years ago a severe cold settled on my lungs and so completely prostrated me that I was unable to work and scarcely able to stand. I then was advised to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and after using one bottle I went back to work, as well as I ever was."
W. J. ATKINS, Banner Springs, Tenn.

PRICE 50c AND $1.00

SOLD AND GUARANTEED BY JONES DRUG CO.

through the stillness of the night, making people remark, "I wonder who is married now?"

STAFFORD.

Mrs. Nemece has been having wire fences put up. She did well with her hops last fall, and is laying out some of the money to beautify her place and make a way to keep the pigs and cows out of her garden.

Claus Peters, assisted by George Aden and George Peters, has been cutting wood with their threshing engine.

Mrs. Powell went to consult a physician last Wednesday, she being threatened with pneumonia. She was better at last accounts, and able to attend church on Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas, Jr., received word last week that her mother in South Dakota, was critically ill, and made preparations to go to her. She was to have started on Monday, but got at letter telling her not to come, as the mother was better, and it was better cold there and would be too great a change for the children.

Mrs. Powell has quite an addition to her family in her present state of health. Two little girls were brought to her by the father, who requested her to keep them for a few days while he made arrangements for them, and it developed that the Aid Society was after them, as they were not properly taken care of by the parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Miley made a pleasant evening visit at Mr. Gage's last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tombs are visiting at Mr. Gage's. Mrs. Tombs, as Letitia Walker, was the first teacher in the old school house in the winter and spring of 1873 and 1874. She notes quite a change in the face of our country since she as a young school m'am taught the young idea now to shoot. Gordon E. Hayes, now a prominent lawyer of Oregon City, was one of her scholars.

Mr. Gage has been quite sick for the past ten days, but is better at present.

Mark has shaved off his mustache. A young lady said she wondered what nice looking young stranger that was at church, but Alfred is said to be cultivating one.

The weather is what the weather bureau makes it. Some are beginning to plow, and Mr. Whadle is drilling in oats with a disc drill.

Jack Schatz and brothers are hustlers. Their gasoline engine could be heard late at night cutting wood on their father's place, and preparing to cut for neighbors before spring's work crowds.

The minister and wife, who preached at the schoolhouse were at Mr. Ellingsen's to dinner Sunday; also Bee Gage, and possibly Joe Nemece.

ELDORADO.

Quite a bit of plowing has been done between showers, the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Woodside and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones and family.

Mrs. D. G. Helvey has been very ill with pneumonia fever for the last two weeks, but is slowly improving.

Will Wallace, from Clark, was a caller in our burg one day last week.

W. Ervin Young of Oregon City, was in Eldorado Saturday, looking for hogs for sale.

Mr. Vaughn, Mr. Snodgrass, Mr. Spence, and Mr. Stricker went out on a fox hunt last week with seven teen hounds.

Mrs. Clyde Smith and baby made a pleasant call on Mrs. Woodside one day last week.

All the school children have started in school again, since they have recovered from the cold.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

Notice is hereby given that the County Superintendent of Clackamas County will hold the regular examinations for applicants for state and county papers at the Court House, as follows:

For State Papers.

Commencing Wednesday, February 9th, at 9 o'clock A. M., and continuing until Saturday, February 12th, at 4 P. M.

Wednesday—Penmanship, history, spelling, physical geography, reading, psychology.

Thursday—Written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar, book-keeping, physics, civil government.

Friday—Physiology, geography, composition, algebra, English literature, school law.

Saturday—Botany, plane geometry, general history.

For County Papers.

Commencing Wednesday, February 9th, at 9 o'clock A. M., and continuing until Friday, February 11th, at 4 P. M.

Wednesday—Penmanship, history, orthography, reading, physical geography.

Thursday—Written arithmetic, theory of teaching, grammar, physiology.

Friday—Geography, school law, civil government, English literature.

Sincerely,
T. J. GARY,
County School Superintendent,
Oregon City, Oregon, January 25th, 1910.

Letter List.

List of unclaimed letters at the Oregon City Postoffice for the week ending January 28:

Woman's list—Choate, Edith; Granger, Agnes E.; McClary, Claire; Ross, Mrs. F. H.; Sowsy, May (2); Simmons, Mrs. Lillie; Smith, A. (5); Men's list—Bush, C. W.; Cummins, Sol; Folsom, Fred (2); Kerns, W. M.; Morris, Jas. O.; Yung, Billy.

TANTALUM

A NEW ELECTRIC LAMP

MORE ECONOMICAL THAN any carbon filament lamp.

CHEAPER and MORE STURDY than the TUNGSTEN can be used in KEY SOCKET

Portland Railway Light & Power Company

147 SEVENTH STREET