Estacada and Eastern Clackamas

ESTACADA.

The prominent and leading business men of the city have received the following communication, which has caused a great deal of discussion and action amongst them:

"Dear Sir:—

"On Thursday evening, February 2nd, there will be held at Oak Grove a meeting of interested persons, for the purpose of seriously discussing the suggestion that has been made looking towards the change of our County line, making the Clackamas river the dividing line between Multnomah and Clackamas. It is in fact surprising to find the immense interest which has been created by the mere mention of such a proposition and it is equally surprising to find how strong the sentiment is in this direction. Will you not be good enough to promise to attend this meeting and induce as many influential people as possible from your section to accompany you? If you think any one to whom a special letter requesting his attendance should be sent, I should be pleased to write a letter of invitation.

"Yours very truly,

B. LEE PAGET,

"For Oak Grove Improvement Ass'n."

Your correspondent has made inquiry of the people here and it appears that a large percentage of the residents are in favor of the idea of annexation. A number however are for a division of the County and some of the residents of the city have a map which has been carefully examined and studied with the ultimate hope that a way can be found that will create a new county. It is reported that residents of the vicinity of Boring are in favor of annexation and that the people will have a meeting Saturday to consider the proposition and select representatives to attend the meeting to be held at Oak Grove. A number of the representative citizens here are going to be present at the Oak Grove meeting.

Spring plowing has commenced in the Garfield district and the farmers are busy getting ready for the spring crops.

The preliminary hearing of Will Irvin, charged with larceny in a dwelling house, was held before Justice Bates Friday. The State was represented by L. Stipp and Senator Hedgoc, and the defendant by E. W. Bartlett. After consuming the afternoon with the hearing, the Justice discharged the defendant, there not being sufficient evidence to bind him over to the grand jury.

Jay Vanburen and wife, and Dr. Moore and wife, of La Grande, who were in Portland attending the Auto show, spent Sunday in Estacada, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bartlett.

R. M. Standish has the plans and specifications ready for a new house and is consulting the builders and contractors with the view of letting the contract for construction. Mr. Standish purchased a part of the E. Kriegerbaum place in Garfield.

Miss Crouch and Mrs. Dick Gibson called on Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Howlett last Tuesday evening.

J. P. Woodlee was over last Tuesday evening called the home place, and also calling on Mr. and Mrs. Howlett.

Miss Crouch's German class met at Mrs. Gibson's on Wednesday evening; but the attendance, however, was smaller than usual, owing to the fact that an interesting wrestling match was in progress at J. W. Douglas' on that evening.

Mr. Gilliam, of Firwood, was seen in this burg last Wednesday.

H. S. and R. B. Gibson purchased eight head of cattle and a colt of Mr. Gilliam last week. R. B. giving a pony on the purchase.

Mrs. Rolph, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Paley and family, were entertained at dinner by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Douglas, on Sunday.

The Eagle Creek Athletic Club met last Saturday evening in Wilber's hall, spending the evening in wrestling. There was one match between Carl Douglass and Puss Cahill; Carl having won the first two falls, was declared champion of the juniors; also one between Ben Jacques, champion wrestler of Eagle Creek, and Ed Douglass, Ed also winning the first two falls, was declared champion of the seniors.

Dick Gibson attended the wrestling match at Eagle Creek Saturday evening, and wonder of wonders, he walked, some one inquired if all of his horses had died.

Ed Douglass made a trip to Barton Monday; James Gibson accompanying him as far as Eagle Creek.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

The telephone posts are partly all put up at George and Blaisell. This will be a great improvement for the country. Some of the settlers are now sorry that they didn't at first vote to have it in their houses also, for they now see how quickly it is being done.

Mrs. C. Weederhold has gone to Portland to visit, where she intends to stay for ten days at the St. Vincent hospital.

We are having a cold spell at the present time.

Sees Mother Grow Young.

"It would be hard to overstate the wonderful change in my mother since she began to use Electric Bitters," writes Mrs. W. L. Gilpatrick, of Danforth, Me. "Although past 70 years of age she seems really to be growing young again. She suffered untold misery from dyspepsia for 20 years. At last she could neither eat, drink nor sleep. Doctors gave her up and all remedies failed till Electric Bitters. They invigorated all vital organs, cure Liver and Kidney troubles, induce sleep, impart strength and appetite. Only 50c at Jones Drug Co.

STAFFORD.

We awoke Monday morning to a frozen world. In the afternoon the weather moderated and about an inch of snow fell. Tuesday was pleasant, but cool and the air not drying.

Little Roy Gage, who was very ill at his Grandpa Gage's for a week or more, was taken home on Monday to St. Helens. The father and older brother had returned home the week before and kept bachelor's hall until the return of the wife and mother, with the other children.

We are sorry to hear of more cases of typhoid fever at Willamette. One would think that the little burg is a good place to emigrate from for a time, and still they declare the water is pure. What is it, then?

It cost Lovey Nemece $3 to get his new watch repaired after the colt kicked it.

Mr. and Mrs. Milen are still camping near the old orchard and think the camp life has been beneficial to their health. They have a fine home near Mt. Tabor, but have been out of health more or less every winter for a number of years; hence they are trying the home sanitarium with satisfactory results.

The Church of God, so-called, held afternoon and evening meetings at the schoolhouse on Sunday last, and will continue to hold services every second and fourth Sunday in the month.

One brother took exceptions to what one of the ministers, a Mr. Neal, had said against use and sale of wine, and arose at the close of the services in December and read from the Bible where it said the Deacons could drink wine, and Timothy took a little wine for his stomach's sake, etc., and said he made wine and drank it, but if his neighbors ever saw him the worse for wine they should stand up on their feet. The minister dealt with the subject in a very kind, straight-forward manner, pointing out to the brother the example before his growing family, the world, etc., but the brother could not give up his wine so he said and refused even to allow his family to come to church, showing he had not entered at the right door when he professed to be holy sanctified.

Ernest Kruse they think, is now out of danger and is on the road to recovery. His grandmother Ellingsen is very poorly, having a severe cough. She is quite alone in years, nearly four score and ten, and it is thought she may not recover.

Mrs. Ben Athy is some better, so she sits up some.

Chris Borling, well known in Stafford, has been critically ill with asthma and some spinal complaint, but was better at last accounts.

Adolph Decker and Mrs. Powell took a trip to Oregon City Monday.

A ball-player stood outside the fence and took a shot with a club at Mr. Gage's oil can the hired man had to use while sawing wood, knocking it from the log and breaking it all to bits. Mr. Gage says he knows it was a ball player as he aimed up straight from where his tracks showed, he had stood.

Dimick Talks to Knights.

County Judge Grant B. Dimick has returned from The Dalles where he went to attend a gathering of the Knights of Pythias, of which order he is an enthusiastic member. Judge Dimick delivered an address at a meeting of the Knights at The Dalles last Saturday evening.
