ELECT NEW DIRECTORS

COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION WILL HOLD ANNUAL MEETING SATURDAY.

Appearances Point to Election of a New Secretary For Association-More Than 300 Shares of Stock Represented.

R. S. Coe, of Canby; J. W. Smith, of Macksburg; W. W. Everhart, of Moialia; O. E. Freytag, of Gladstone; George M. Lazelle, of Mount Pleasant and O. D. Eby, of Oregon City, were last Saturday afternoon elected directors of the Clackamas County Fair Association. They will hold a meet ing in a few days and elect a presi-dent, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. The retiring officers are George M. Larelle, president; J. W. Smith, vice-president; M. J. Lee, sec-retary, and W. H. Bair, treasurer. That there will be a radical depart-are of the methods in vogue during the last year in the management of the county fair, seems to be apparent. Unquestionably a new secretary will be elected, and the directors will try to secure the services of a success man for this important position. The sifairs of the fair association at the present time are not in exactly flat-tering condition. The association has an indebtedness of about $1300 from the last county fair, and the unpaid treasury of $41. These facts were disclosed through the verbal report at the annual meeting, as required by
