NEWS OF THE COUNTY

LOGAN

There was an attendance of nearly 60 at the meeting of Harding Grange on February 5th, and in the afternoon there was an open meeting, several visitors being present by invitation to hear the speaking.

M. S. Shrock, the dairy inspector, talked on his line of work, the object of inspecting and what it is accomplishing and gave many comparisons of results by different dairymen and different methods.

Judge Dimick was introduced to talk on the good roads question, but did not confine himself strictly to the subject. He explained the many difficulties in the way of making good roads; among them being the high taxes for state and school purposes and the difficulty of getting competent road builders for supervisors.

There will be a dance by the base ball team on February 12th.

Peter Wilson visited his daughter at McMinnville, last week.

Stagers Skeptics. That a clean, nice, fragrant compound like Bucklen's Arnica Salve will instantly relieve a bad burn, cut, scald wound or piles, stagers skeptics. But great cures prove its a wonderful healer of the worst sores, ulcers, boils, felons, eczema, skin eruptions, as also chapped hands, sprains and corns. Try it 25 cents at Jones Drug Co.

MARKS PRAIRIE.

We see a lot of rot about ground hog day, which should belong to the old foggy days of the past, as we of this day and age of the world know is all a myth.

Feed is getting scarce here and the price is getting higher and some stock is getting in poor condition to live until Spring opens.

Our supervisor was attending county court last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Morris were visiting at Henry Krauses a few days last week.

The Scramlin phone lines are almost a total wreck and very little effort is being made to get them in working order.

The annual seed supply from our congressman has begun to arrive. This seed business should be cut out, as it is a graft, pure and simple.

The many friends here of E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas will work to secure his nomination and election as county recorder. He is well qualified and was only defeated by seven votes at the last election.

County Commissioner John Lewellen will be our next county judge if his many friends in Clackamas county have anything to say and it is a sure thing they will.

EAST CLACKAMAS.

It was a surprise to us all to see the beautiful snow Monday morning when about 6 inches covered the ground.

A farewell party was given to Mr. and Mrs. Scott Monday evening. Everyone reported having a good time. We will miss our friend and neighbor as he expects to go to Canada soon, to live.

Mrs. George Foster, of Portland, and her daughter-in-law, have been stopping a few days with Mrs. Anna De Shields.

Mrs. G. Haberlach spent a pleasant afternoon with Mrs. Charley Pruffer, one day last week.

A wedding took place on Wednesday noon, February 2, 1910, at the home of Mrs. John Heinrich, at East Clackamas, when Mary, the only daughter, was united in marriage to Walter Mundhenke, Rev. Hoffman, of Portland, performing the ceremony. The parlor was tastefully decorated in evergreens. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Lulu Hayward. The bride was beautifully gowned in cream silk and made a charming picture during the service as she stood to receive her friends' best wishes. She was attended by Lena Dowe and Anton Heinrich, the bride's brother, was best man. After the ceremony supper was served. The young couple will reside at East Clackamas.

We are well supplied with weddings this week as two couples were married, the other being Victor Wickland and Helena Johnson, theirs being a quiet wedding. We wish the happy young people Godspeed on their life's journey together.

STAFFORD.

All signs regarding the weather are a total failure in Oregon, as a general thing. On Children's day, or as it is generally called Candlemas Day, the day when King Herod of old, decreed that all male children should be killed and only little Moses escaped, the day when the bear, the hedgehog or other quadrupeds always come out to look for their shadow, and finding it, condemn us to six weeks' more of winter, that day, the 2nd of February, was as calm, blue-eyed and rosy almost as a day in June, and to our surprise the weather has been so pleasant ever since that we almost forget there ever was winter weather in Oregon.

There are a few patches of snow still to be seen, but plowing will soon be resumed.

Mr. Gage has not been so well the past week, he is not confined to his bed, but feels weak and sick, most of the time, but will not call a physician, saying he has put his house in order. A message came to Mrs. Gage asking her to accompany her son, Arden's wife, to a hospital in Portland on Tuesday to make inquiries about their daughter who had been reported to them by telegraph as in the pest-house, afflicted with scarlet fever. She had been employed for some time at the waist counter at Meier & Frank's store.

A number from this vicinity attended the funeral of Mr. McBeath, whose home was at the old Carter place, in the cemetery.

Mrs. Pomperine was going Monday to Portland to stay a couple of weeks to consult an Electric Physician. Her health is very poor at this time.

In the Stafford items some time ago it was stated that Henry Baker was the champion potato raiser. It appears there are others, and they take exceptions. Mr. Tiedeman says his "taters" were exceptionally good, in proof of which he has a couple suspended above his dining room table, one being 13 inches long, and the other nearly as long, and covered with small tubercles, the whole surface of both covered with a fine tracery of delicate young sprouts, which will become in time as beautiful a center piece as any one could desire.

We note with pleasure that Mr. Weddle, the newly married man, is cleaning up the fence rows near the small taters, the whole surface of both covered with a fine tracery of delicate young sprouts, which will become in time as beautiful a center piece as any one could desire.

Mr. Nussbam's brother left last week for Spokane, to visit relatives and spy out the land, with some idea of locating.

Mrs. Brink has been suffering from a severe cold.

Mr. Nemec, a one-time resident of Stafford, sued his wife for divorce last week, alleging desertion, although she and her children have remained at home the past two years, working like turks for a living, while the husband and father roamed abroad. There were 90 bales of 1908 and 1909 hops, we hear, which he hauled to Oregon City last September, and is still paying storage for them, refusing good offers, it is said, and holding them for a fabulous price, while the wife made, we have heard, $1800 on the hops the past year, and she and the children have earned their right to peace and plenty, more of both than the man applying for divorce, was ever willing to accord them.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Clackamas.

A very pretty home wedding took place Wednesday, February 2, at the residence of Mrs. John Heinrich, when her daughter, Mary, was united in marriage to Walter Mundhenke. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white silk, and carried a bouquet of bride roses. The groom wore the conventional black, and was attended by Anstine Heinrich, as best man. Miss Lena Dane, of Logan, was bridesmaid. The pastor of the German Lutheran Church, of Portland, performed the ceremony. Fifty invited guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding breakfast. The bridal couple received many useful and handsome presents. Early in the afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Mundhenke left for Portland, and from thence made a trip to Bellingham, where the groom has relatives.

At the call of its president, C. C. Sargent, the School and Home Club, of Clackamas, held a special meeting on Wednesday, February 2, to appoint a committee to attend the annexation meeting at Oak Grove. This committee was represented at that meeting by several of its members; enough to show how greatly this little burg favors the idea of becoming a part of Multnomah County.

Friday afternoon, February 4, the School and Home Club held its regular meeting, at the school house, at 3 P. M. The attendance was large and nearly all took part in the programme. The question for discussion, "Should the same moral standard be required for boys as for girls?" brought out some very earnest remarks, all good and to the point. The next meeting of the club will be held Friday, February 18, at 3 P. M. at the school house. The annual election of officers will take place, and a new constitution is in preparation, which will be better adapted to the present status of the society. Men and women, young and old, are invited to come and join in the work of civic improvement, the support of our school, and the betterment of the community.

Friday evening, February 4, Clackamas Grange, No. 298, held a rally meeting at the Grange hall. Brothers Palmer and Whitwood, from abroad, addressed the meeting. Principal Mary Heacock also gave a good talk on Education. On Saturday, the Grange held its regular meeting, receiving twelve new members; among them, Rev. J. L. Jones and wife, Principal Heacock and wife.

Telephone lines are again in commission much to the satisfaction of those concerned.

A large fir tree, which has stood for many years in the yard of the M. E. parsonage, was felled last Saturday, and converted into stove wood. The ladies of the church furnished a dinner for the choppers. In the afternoon, the Junior League had a social and a little feast, at the church. The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. church has invited the Benevolent Society of the sister church to join in a sewing contest at their regular meeting next Wednesday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Lee Harrington.

Mr. W. Smith recently purchased the Flora Smith property, occupied by Henry Smith since the death of his wife. Mr. H. Smith expects to leave Clackamas within a few weeks. Mr. William Barrett, of Hillsboro, trustee for the estate, negotiated the sale.

Mrs. A. M. Spurgeon lately rented her place to the principal of Clackamas school, Mr. M. Heacock. Mrs. Spurgeon, a long time resident and a kind friend and neighbor will be missed. We understand that she is visiting her granddaughter at her home at Parkplace, with her daughter, Mrs. John Smith.

Henry Lomberger is down with scarlet fever. The family and premises are quarantined.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. Hansen, a fine baby boy, weight ten and one-half pounds.

Two cucumbers, one at the corner of the Odd Fellow's hall, and one by Martin Hornberger's premises, promise a relief from stagnant water the coming season. There is plenty of road work needed in and about Clackamas.

Struck a Rich Mine. S. W. Bends of Coal City, Ala. says he struck a perfect mine of health in Dr. King's Life Pills for they cured him of Liver and Kidney Trouble after 12 years of suffering. The Ladies' Aid Society met with Mrs. Butson on Thursday.

Railroad men are seen frequently in Corral Creek district of late. Is it a logging road?

The Mothers' Club of Corral Creek met in the school house on Friday.

The Men's Club of the A. O. U. W. hall on Sabbath afternoon, was well attended, considering the frightful condition of the roads at present.

Miss Mary Brobst spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Wilsonville.

About twenty young people enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Raphaelson on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Reed Graham went to Tualatin Sunday.

Mrs. Shahan and her daughter, who have been visiting Miss Graham, left Friday evening for their home in Portland.

Mr. Rothenberg sold his farm last Monday and it is to be hoped that Mr. Rothenberg and his estimable family will find another home near Wilsonville, as we do not wish to lose them from our midst.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlon Young and son Wallace, and Mr. and Mrs. Norris Young were very highly entertained by the Chinaman on Tuesday evening at dinner, in celebration of China New Year's Day.

Persons residing in this community are pleased to know that S. P. Davis has been re-elected secretary of the publicity department of the Commercial Club at Oregon City, as his splendid photographs of fruits, scenery, etc., alone, have done a great deal of good in advertising the produce and beauty of Clackamas County.

Those who trip the light fantastic are looking forward to a good time on Saturday evening, February 12, at the M. B. A. hall, when the Basket Ball boys will be the hosts at a dance given for the benefit of the team.

Miss S. M. Graham was the charming hostess of a delightful function on Friday afternoon, at her beautiful home on the banks of the Willamette, when she entertained in honor of her friends, Mrs. Shahan and daughter, Rosetta, of Portland. The afternoon was pleasantly spent at cards until four o'clock, when the ladies were invited to the spacious dining room, where a sumptuous repast was spread and the hostess in a very pleasing manner announced the engagements of the guest of honor, Miss Rosetta Shahan, to Mr. Harry Lathrop, of Portland. Good wishes from the guests for the future happiness of the bride-to-be, were many and sincere. The marriage of this happy young couple will take place upon the 15th of February, and the bride and groom will sail on the 19th of the month for
