CANBY. Harry McClure, of Oregon City, was in Canby on Saturday night, having come here to attend the dancing party given by the Canby band. Carl Canfield and Fred Wheeler, of Portland, were in Canby on Saturday night and attended the dance. Mr. and Mrs. L. McVrin, of Cathlamet, are visiting with Miss Lottie Samson, of this city. Misses Ethel and Myrtle Senzel, of Portland, came up from Portland on Saturday night remaining until Sunday evening, as the guests of Miss Ora Lee. Mrs. Harry VanGundy, of Levens, has been visiting with her husband in this city. The family will soon move here, having rented the William Kendall house. Mrs. W. H. Blair has been visiting with relatives in Portland for a few days this week. Miss Grace Patch has accepted a position in the new store of Cobb & Dillingham. The opening of this store will be held on Friday night. J. R. Sawyer was a Portland visitor on Saturday. Mrs. Cassie Luckman visited J. H. Russell and family this week. Are you going to Oregon City on Saturday, April 9? This will be Booster Day, and the merchants of that city are offering great bargains on that day. Read the advertisements in this and next week's Enterprise. Miss Hattie Martin, and Mrs. Al McCoy, of Portland, spent Sunday in this city, the guests of Mrs. G. W. Myers. Miss Ivah Gordon returned home on Tuesday morning, where she had been visiting with friends for a few days. Mrs. Herman Burgoyne, of Portland, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Evans. Mrs. Burgoyne was called here by serious illness of her father, but who is now slowly improving. C. W. Damm, who has been conducting a photo gallery in this city for some time, has gone to his sawmill near Macksburg. The building, which has been occupied by Mr. Damm, has been rented by John Eld, a newcomer who has gone into the real estate business. Mr. and Mrs. Keil, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bates have returned to their home in Nebraska. Mrs. J. E. Peck, of Salem, who has been visiting with her brother, L. H. Hein, has returned to her home. It is probable that she will return in the near future to make this her home. M. S. Schrock, food inspector, was in Canby the first of the week on business. J. J. Sandness, the hardware man, went to Portland on a business trip on Wednesday. Mrs. Cassie Evans was one of the Canby Portland visitors on Wednesday. Lee Eckerson, Mrs. Cassie Evans, Miss Ora Lee, Robert Britt, Roy Lee. Reuben Fanton Dies at Estacada Home. After an illness of about five days, Reuben Fanton died at his home just east of Estacada at 6:15 A. M. Saturday, caused by an ulcer of the intestines. He was born in Alleghany County, New York, on October 28, 1852, coming to the state of Iowa at the age of 16, and after passing one winter there he came to Oregon and located near Oregon City, in the spring of 1869, and there was married. He resided there but a short time, when he moved to Coos Bay. Eight years later he returned to Oregon and came to Canby where he lived until three years ago, finally making his home a few miles east of Estacada. A wife, two sons, and six daughters mourn his death. They are Henry, Andrew and Ella Fanton, residing at home; Mrs. Louisa Rice, of Wapinitia, Or.; Mrs. Rose Boudas and Mrs. Lizzy Snyder, of Garfield; Mrs. Stella Hardie, of George, and Mrs. Anna Rice, of Milbank, S. D. The funeral was held at the Mount Zion Church, at Garfield, at 11 o'clock last Monday. Real Estate Deals Made. During the past two weeks the real estate has moved considerably in Canby and vicinity. Among the transfers that have been filed are the following: Thomas Koehler place, consisting of 40 acres, has been purchased by Thomas Mahlum for $5000, who has also bought the Held residence and grounds for $25,000. Ferguson place was recently purchased by him for $5000. A. A. Baldwin, who is one of the teachers of Macksburg, has purchased 40 acres of the Latourette land for $1000. The land is most desirable for farming purposes, and lies east of Macksburg. Joseph A. Larson, who recently arrived here from Iowa, has bought 30 acres of farm land from the George Mains' tract, near the Adkins mill, which is four miles east from this city. The price paid for this was $1000. Mr. Larson expects to make a model farm out of this, and will soon erect a new house and improve the place. C. N. Walt and wife have sold a large tract of land in Canby Gardens to Mr. Cobb, who recently came to this city from Portland. The land brought a good figure. Death of Marlon White. Marlon P. White, one of the prominent residents of Marquam, died at his home on Saturday, February 19, after a lingering illness, and the funeral services were conducted by Rev. Butler, the interment being in the Hubbard cemetery. Marlon White was born at Marquam December 25, 1874, and graduated from the State Normal school at Weston in June, 1897. On June 26, 1901, he was united in marriage to Miss Hattie Taylor, of Marquam, who, with their eight-year-old son, Drexel, survives him. Mr. White also leaves a mother, father, three brothers and four sisters to mourn his loss. Among those attending the funeral from this city were Mrs. William Knight, Mr. and Mrs. S. T.
