Mrs. Hougham before coming to Canby was in the poultry business for many years, and the success she is meeting with raising chickens proves that she is well posted in this line. Mrs. L. T. All bills were allowed and ordered paid. Strawberry Plants Shipped. Charles Roth, one of Clackamas County's most successful strawberry growers, is busy engaged in shipping strawberry plants all over the Pacific Northwest. These are mostly of the Clark's Seedling variety. Mr. Roth is filling an order of 80,000 plants, 12,000 of these going to the Chico Nursery Company, Chico, California. Last year Mr. Roth shipped throughout the Northwest 225,000 plants, netting a neat sum. Some of the finest berries that are shipped to the out of town markets are raised on Mr. Roth's place, and always command the highest market price. About 16 acres are used for the cultivation of these berries. The soil in this part of the county is excellent for berries. Letter List. One of the most enthusiastic gatherings ever congregated in this city was on Friday evening at the City Hall, when the members of the newly organized Commercial Club entertained the people of Canby and vicinity in a royal manner. The merchants and other members of the club liberally donated the tables, including coffee, sandwiches, cake, ice cream and candies, which were served by the several ladies of the city, who were in charge of Mrs. M. Young Ladies Prove to Be Good Fishermen. Two young ladies of this city, who went fishing on the Molalla River on Monday, it is stated by parties who were watching them, that they trilled the river like experienced fishermen. They were successful in landing a fish about 18 inches in length, and as they passed along the street were proud of their possession. The only thing that puzzled them was the specie.

One thought it a steelhead, while the other said it was a speckled trout, but it is probable that it was a chub. Anyway they are already planning another fishing expedition, and state that they will take someone along the next time to designate the specie. Many Cows Are Empowered. J. S. Diok empowered 11 head of cows on Saturday night, and expected to have a large supply of cream and milk by Sunday evening, but to his great disappointment the owners of the cows paid the costs and took them home. It is stated that Mr. Diok furnished the cows with a large supply of bran and shorts so that it is probable that they will soon find their way back to the pound when they are liberated by the owners. The farmers who have fences in need of repair had better "get busy," and repair same, as it is safe to say that all the cows in the city will visit the city pound for a "square" meal. Will Organize Y. M. C. A. A movement is on foot to organize a Young Men's Christian Association in this city. A meeting was called on Monday night when several of the citizens who are interested in this matter met at the home of Rev. C. L. Creevy and discussed the subject. Rev. Creevy was appointed chairman and C. F. Romig, secretary. It was planned to give a banquet in the near future at one of the city's hotels, when 50 cents per plate will be charged. The date set for the affair is Wednesday evening, April 13. The following committees have been appointed to take charge: Publicity Committee—C. W. Fallows, W. H. Lucke. Banquet—J. A. Cobb, M. J. Lee. The latter will be taken to Oregon City by Mr. Vaughan and Mr. Lindsey. The black mare owned by J. Lee Eckerson, was sold at the same time Satin Royal was, the purchaser being George Borthwick, who accompanied Mr. Costley here.
